Two Young Men and Three Girls Painfully Hurt When "Right Wheel of Auto Locks."

INJURED GIRL PINNED UNDER THE AUTOMOBILE

After Walk of a Mile Two Members of Party Reach Phone and Garage Sends Machine to Scene of the Accident.

Racing down Clyde hill, on the Roswell road, an auto driven by C. L. Whitehead, of 107 Trinity avenue, and containing two other young men and three girls, turned turtle about 10 o'clock last night, seriously injuring two of the girl occupants and badly bruising the rest of the occupants of the machine. One of the girls was pinned under the heavy touring car for the better part of fifteen minutes, until the three young men could get fence rails and pry the car body from the ground.

The injured are:

Julia Lewis, aged 18, of 158 Nelson street.

Lucile Lewis, aged 20, of 158 Nelson street.

Myrtle Smithers, of 158 Nelson street.

Ralph Smith, of Winder, Ga.

S. W. Wood, 70½ Edgewood avenue.

Says Wheel Locked.

The driver of the car, Whitehead, stated last night that the "front right wheel of the car locked as the car ran down the hill.

According to Whitehead's story, he had taken T. C. Calloway, treasurer of the Cleveland-Manning Piano company, out to West End, and on his return to town had seen the Lewis girls and Miss Smithers, whom he knew. He asked them to take a ride. They, in company with Smith and Wood, boarded the auto and the party started for the outskirts of the city.

As the machine struck Clyde hill, a particularly steep grade, the front wheel of the car became locked and the steering apparatus buckled.

The car turned three times and then threw a complete somersault. Miss Smithers, who was riding in the tonneau, was tossed several yards. The Lewis girls were pinned under the overturned machine. Ralph Smith was fastened under the car by his right arm, which was caught when the car seat fell from its position.

Phone to Garage.

As soon as he extricated himself he and Miss Smithers walked nearly a mile to a telephone, where a local garage was called.

The garage sent a relief machine to the scene and the injured people were placed in the tonneau and rushed to Grady hospital. Surgeons examined the bruises and cuts there and later the three girls and the two young men were sent to their homes.

HOWARD ASKS MILLION FOR ATLANTA OFFICE

Congressman Introduces Bill for New Postoffice Site and Building.

Washington, March 23.—A $1,000,000 appropriation for a site and building for a postoffice at Atlanta, Ga., was proposed in a bill introduced today by Representative Howard. The bill carries the usual safeguard that the building must be "unexposed to danger from fire by open space of at least 40 feet on all sides."

RICH GIRL BECOMES BRIDE OF GARDENER, THEN LEAVES HIM

New York, March 23.—Miss Juliet Breitung, daughter of Edward N. Breitung, president of E. N. Breitung & Co., bankers, was married last November to Max Kleist, a gardener, who was employed on an estate adjoining the Breitung family home in Maristique, Mich., according to a statement authorized late today by Mr. Breitung. The formal announcement, issued through attorneys, was made after repeated inquiries to Mrs. Breitung and her daughter during the past few days had brought forth no confirmation of published stories that a clergyman in this city had filed at the bureau of licenses an affidavit that such a marriage had taken place.

Young Kleist, it is said, went to work in an Arizona silver mine after the wedding. He is 23 years old, four years the senior of his wife. The statement, signed by Mr. Breitung, is as follows:

"I am advised that on the 23d day of November, 1913, at Grace church in New York city, my daughter, Miss Juliet Breitung, went through a marriage ceremony, as appears from the record of the church, and immediately thereafter returned to our home at St. Regis hotel, where she since has lived and where she desires to continue to live."

Boys Blown to Pieces.

Wheeling, W. Va., March 23.—Frank Earlwine and John Stackhouse, 15-year-old boys, were blown to pieces at Proctor, twenty miles from here, today. They found a can of nitroglycerin on the Baltimore and Ohio railroad and exploded it. A section of the track was torn up and a fast passenger train was flagged just in time to avert a wreck.

Pretty Wife of Alleged Yegg and Train Robber Declares She Will Prove Innocence of Husband

Left to right: A. O. Perry, who was identified by postal clerk as man who stabbed him during Queen and Crescent $40,000 train robbery; James Fields, young son of Mr. and Mrs. Rexford Fields, and Rexford Fields, at whose Brookline street home complete set of yeggmen tools and considerable stolen money was found.

While the detectives are busy in an effort to weave a web which will convict her husband of helping rob a store in Milledgeville and of complicity in the $40,000 hold-up of the Queen and Crescent train, Mrs. Rexford P. Fields is exerting every energy to baffle them and to prove her husband innocent of the charges against him.

"I have employed a lawyer, and am spending every moment of my spare time to liberate my husband. He is innocent, and I expect to prove it," said Mrs. Fields, her dark eyes flashing fire and determination.

"I have two little children, and it is mighty hard on me to have my husband taken away from me. As far as the efforts of the police in suspecting my husband as being the man who held up the Nashville, Chattanooga and St. Louis train at Vininga, Ga., on the night of January 16, I will prove an alibi for both him and Perry. Perry and my husband, with a local physician, sat up all night with me on that particular night while I was seriously sick. I remember the night well."

Little James Fields, the 2-year-old boy, says that his papa is innocent, and the little 5-year-old girl also declares that her papa will soon be back home.

The plain clothes policemen say they are fast winding a webb of evidence around the three suspects. The alleged yeggmen have told the police that they are steeplejacks, and that they earned a living painting smokestacks. However, the police claim that they are able to show only one receipt of $6 for work done of this nature since last September.

When Fields' residence, at 89 Brookline street, was recently searched the detectives dug up from underneath the house a complete yeggmen outfit. While making this search they discovered a note book which Fields admits as belonging to him. In it were the names of prominent citizens at LaGrange, Newnan, West Point, Griffin and Jackson, Ga., and written beside their names were small amounts of money. On the back of the book was pasted a slip, "Please help the deaf and dumb." Fields admits having worked the deaf and dumb gag, and the police suspect him of gaining information for the alleged gang in this manner.

DURHAM IS SWEPT BY $1,000,000 FIRE

Break in Water Mains Renders Firemen Helpless. Entire Business Section in Danger of Destruction.

Durham, N. C., March 24.—The entire business section of Durham is threatened with destruction by a fire which originated in the Duke building, a five-story office structure, at 11 o'clock last night.

Buildings occupying one city block have either been entirely destroyed or badly damaged and the flames have spread to another city block.

The flames raged for more than a half-hour while the firemen stood helpless as a result of a break in the city water mains. There also was another break which reduced the water pressure and hindered the firemen. The water supply still is intermittent.

The latest estimates place the loss at fully $1,000,000.

A heavy wind blew the flames and parts of burning roofs fell throughout the city. The Academy of Music was in the path of the fire.

RIOTING AT BUFFALO; TROOPS ARE ON DUTY

One Man Killed and Three Wounded—Rioting Due to a Strike.

Buffalo, N. Y., March 23.—The Seventy-Fourth regiment was ordered out for strike duty at 11 o'clock tonight following two serious riots at the plant of the Gould Coupler company within the last twenty-four hours. One company was sent to Depew at midnight for guard duty.

The riotous scenes today which resulted in the shooting of four men, one of them fatally, and the injury of many others were the first serious disturbances since the strike began at the Depew shops eight weeks ago.

It was stated tonight that the lawless element at Depew had received a large shipment of arms today and that an attempt would be made to get possession of the guns and ammunition tomorrow.

Stanislaus Skolonski was shot in the head early in the day when a mob of 300 men held up a train bearing workmen to the plant and fought a half hour's pitched battle with the deputies. He died tonight at the hospital.

Tonight Sheriff Becker was busy swearing in every deputy he could secure.

"The deputies will be armed with repeating shotguns tomorrow and will have instructions to shoot to kill," the sheriff said.

CHANGES ANNOUNCED BY THE N., C. & ST. L.

Nashville, Tenn., March 23.—It was announced today by President John Howe Peyton, of the Nashville, Chattanooga and St. Louis railroad, that the following changes would take place April 1:

D. B. Carson will become acting general manager; E. M. Wrenne has been appointed assistant superintendent of transportation; G. D. Hicks has been appointed assistant superintendent of the Nashville division; Theodore Spieden will be assistant superintendent Chattanooga division, and W. G. Templeton has been appointed acting superintendent of the Huntsville division.

PIG'S EYE CORNEA PUT ON BLIND EYE OF AN INFANT BOY

Baltimore, Md., March 23.—What is believed to be the first operation of its kind in this country was performed today at a local hospital when the cornea of a pig's eye was grafted on the sightless eye of a 3-month-old boy. It was said that previous operations, in which rabbit's eyes had been used were unsuccessful, but that experiments with pig's eyes had led scientists to believe that they were more adaptable. Two cases are said to be on record where the grafting of human corneas gave sight to totally blind eyes.

In today's operation the pig was chloroformed, the eyeball taken out and the cornea cut from it. An extraordinarily fine needle and fine silk were used in sewing the cornea in place. The eye will remain bandaged for about a week.

JUDGE AND PROSECUTOR DENOUNCED BY CITIZENS

Because of Acquittal of Man and Wife on a Charge of Murder.

Shreveport, La., March 23.—District Judge Land and District Attorney Mabrey, who conducted the trial here of Henry Little and his wife, recently acquitted of the charge of murder in connection with the killing of J. J. VanCleave, were scored in a committee report read at a mass meeting of citizens here tonight.

The report was prepared by a committee of seven appointed at a mass meeting held several weeks ago, at the time of the acquittal of the Littles, called to protest against the verdict.

The committee charged that the rulings of Judge Land were uniformly with the defense, "right or wrong." District Attorney Mabrey committed a "tactical error," the committee found, in taking the case up for trial on Saturday preceding two holidays. Attaches of the sheriff's office also were criticised because, it is alleged, liquor was permitted to be given the jurors.

The meeting tonight adopted resolutions demanding a "more rigorous enforcement of the criminal laws with respect to both men and women."

At the first mass meeting demand was made that Little and his wife quit Shreveport.

NEWS BEING SOUGHT OF ROOSEVELT PARTY

New York, March 23.—After waiting all day in vain for further advices regarding the accident to the Roosevelt exploration party in Brazil, the American Museum of Natural History tonight cabled to the American consul at Para asking for the information. The message said:

"Can you obtain any information concerning the Roosevelt party? Wire Santarem. Advise by telegraph at earliest possibility. All expenses guaranteed."

Santarem is the town in the state of Para, from which Anthony Fiala, on Sunday, sent his brief message that the Roosevelt party had "lost everything in the rapids."

Nothing to suppplant Fiala's dispatch was received here during the day. Colonel Roosevelt's friends and family expressed no anxiety about his personal safety, but were eager to learn more about the mishap. They did not know where to address their inquiries.

WILSON DECLARES HE ASKS NATION TO GUARD HONOR

When He Asks for Repeal of the Tolls Exemption Clause in Panama Canal Act.

Washington, March 23.—President Wilson declared today that, in seeking the repeal of the Panama tolls exemption, he not only was asking that the nation do that which it was bound in honor to do, but was going the way of the majority in the democratic party. He pointed out that, when the Panama canal act was passed, a majority of the democrats then in the house of representatives voted against the tolls exemption, and that only by a coalition of a minority of democrats with a number of republicans did the measure become law.

This announcement was taken in administration circles as the president's answer to the argument that the Baltimore platform made the tolls exemption democratic doctrine. The president is understood to believe that the majority opinion of the democrats in the house, as last expressed, was a result of more deliberate consideration of the question than was possible at the Baltimore convention.

Anxious for a Vote.

The president made no secret to callers of his anxiety for the repeal measure to come to a vote. Asked if he thought influences were at work to prolong debate unnecessarily, Mr. Wilson said he didn't know, but it certainly appeared to him as if there had been filibustering; that minorities always filibustered and disclosed themselves in filibusters.

The president is confident that he will have the majority of his party behind him in the house when the repeal comes to a vote. He has been assured that at least 200 democrats will support him and many republicans. Senator James, of Kentucky, has informed the president the vote in the senate would be at least 58 to 24 in favor of the repeal.

The president denied a charge made on the floor of the senate that he had attempted to limit the tolls debate in the house. He said that while he had no part in suggesting a rule to limit debate, he hoped there would be one.

In reply to questions the president said he did not believe any improper influences were being brought to bear against the repeal.

Salty Resolutions.

Senator Thornton, democrat, of Louisiana, had read to the senate resolutions purporting to have been adopted at a St. Patrick's day gathering in New Orleans, saying the signers viewed "with pity and contempt the other senators now representing Louisiana," after having congratulated Senator Randdell for his stand against repeal. Senator Thornton supports the repeal.

Senator Thornton characterized the resolution as "scurrilous," saying he did not believe it had been adopted at any public meeting of Irish-American citizens.

"I have evidence," he said, "that it was the work of two or three men in-

ALLAN PINKERTON DEFENDS AGENCY IN FRANK PROBE

Letter Follows an Attack Recently Made Upon Private Detectives by Detective William J. Burns.

LEHON TO TAKE CHARGE IN ABSENCE OF BURNS

Reported That Extraordinary Motion for New Trial for Prisoner Will Be Filed This Week.

Defending the connection of the Pinkerton detectives with the Frank case, a letter has been received by The Constitution from Allan Pinkerton, head of the noted organization, in which reply is made to Detective William J. Burns' repeated attacks upon private detectives who were associated with the Phagan murder investigation.

The letter states that the Pinkertons are not now connected with the case in any phase, and have had nothing to do with it since the trial and conviction of Leo Frank. The attacks of Burns, so far as they are intended to refer to the Pinkertons, are branded as "absolutely untrue."

The Pinkerton headquarters in New York, the letter reads, has been informed by officials of the Atlanta branch, that "parties now on the case" contemplate making an "unjustified attack" through the press on evidence gathered by his competitors.

Now of Court Record.

"Any evidence Pinkerton attaches have on the case," informs the letter, "is a matter of court record and those employees will be available whenever required by the court for any testimony they can give."

The letter in full is as follows:

"Editor Constitution: We inclose herewith a copy of an article published in The New York Sun of Saturday, March 21, relating to the Mary Phagan murder. (The Sun's article is):

"'Burns says that private detectives are doing their best to hinder his investigation.'

"Inasmuch as Pinkerton's National Detective agency performed considerable service on this case in behalf of our clients, the National Pencil company, and as a detective at present making an investigation of the matter is alleged to have said that 'private detectives are doing their best to hinder his investigation,' we desire to state that we are not now retained in the matter, nor have we been since the trial of Mr. Frank.

"We are writing at this time that we may not be misquoted or misrepresented, as our local representative in Atlanta advises us that he has just been informed that parties now on the case contemplate making an unjustified attack through the press on evidence gathered by his competitors.

"The published reference to private detectives, so far as they may be intended to refer to this agency or our employees, are absolutely untrue. Any evidence our employees have in a matter of court record and those employees will be available whenever required by the court for any testimony they can give. Yours truly,

"PINKERTON'S NATIONAL DETECTIVE AGENCY,

"ALLAN PINKERTON."

Burns Goes to Gotham.

Detective Burns left Atlanta Monday morning at 11:01 o'clock for New York, where he goes to investigate with Leonard Haas mysterious phases of the Frank case that have developed in Gotham and other places. He will return, he stated, within three days.

Upon his departure he assured newspaper men that whoever was guilty of the murder of Mary Phagan would be convincingly disclosed by his investigation.

Dan Lehon, who will take charge of the investigation while his chief is on the present journey, will arrive in Atlanta some time early this morning. He would have come Monday, except for a day's stopover, which he made in Mississippi.

Guy Biddinger, assistant manager of the Burns service, will come to Atlanta during the latter part of the week. Just what particular phases of the investigation Burns will assign to these experts he will not state.

It was rumored Monday that the extraordinary motion for a new trial for Frank will be submitted to Judge Ben Hill during the latter part of the week, although the convicted man's attorneys say they have not decided upon a definite date.

Application Nears Completion.

It is known that the retrial application is nearing completion, and lacks only a few finishing touches. The return of Reuben Arnold substantiates, in a degree, the probability of an early filing of the motion.

While in New York, Burns and Attorney Haas will interview H. F. Becker, the ex-pencil factory employee, whose name is said by the defense to have been inscribed in one of the murder notes found beside Mary Phagan's body.

ALONE IN ITS CAB, BABY HANGS SELF BY BONNET STRING

Cleveland, Ohio, March 23.—William Henry Yeomans, baby son of Henry Yeomans, a wealthy mine owner, late today was left alone in its cab on the porch of his home. When the nurse returned she found that a string on its bonnet had caught a hook at the side of the buggy and in turning over the infant had strangled itself to death. A train on which the father was traveling to his Colorado properties was stopped near Chicago by means of a long distance telephone message. Yeomans will return to Cleveland at once.

U. S. TROOPS KILL HUERTA SOLDIERS IN BORDER FIGHT

Mexican Federals Were Pursuing Rebel Troopers and Were Firing Into Territory of United States.

MEXICANS DISREGARDED ORDER TO QUIT FIRING

After Three American Horses Had Been Killed, U. S. Troops Opened Fire and Killed Several Huerta Soldiers.

Eagle Pass, Texas, March 23.—Mexican federal soldiers who attempted to pursue with rifle bullets a defeated constitutionalist force escaping to the United States and safety, met sharp resistance yesterday from United States cavalry of border patrol at McKee's Crossing, above Del Rio, Texas. When three horses held by the American troopers had been shot down the Americans returned the fire across the Rio Grande and after the exchange of shots, the Mexcans withdrew, bearing with them dead and wounded.

No American was hurt. How many of the Mexican soldiers were killed or wounded is not known.

Official reports of the occurrence to Colonel Sibley, commanding at Fort Clarke here, caused orders for all available cavalry of the border patrol to proceed to Del Rio. One troop and a machine gun platoon left Eagle Pass today. Another engagement between Mexican federals and constitutionalists is expected tomorrow in the same territory.

How Clash Was Caused.

The clash across the international line was precipitated, according to official reports to headquarters here today, by persistent firing of the federals at the fleeing constitutionalists who had gained American territory and surrendered to United States troops. Three horses held by American cavalrymen were killed.

For ten minutes Captain Winterburn, of troop E, Fourteenth cavalry, signaled to the federals to cease firing, but reported that his signals were disregarded and his own men were in danger. He then ordered the Americans, a detachment of fifteen troopers, to fire, and a sharp fusillade followed, lasting for about five minutes.

Constitutionalists defeated Sunday were a scouting party led into a trap by the federals, who earlier in the day had captured Las Vacas, opposite Del Rio. They abandoned the town, but returned suddenly to attack the rebel scouts.

Rebels Fled Over Border.

About forty-five constitutionalists were cut off by 300 federals at McKee's Crossing on the Rio Grande, where the rebels put up a stubborn resistance until overpowered by numbers. They then began retreating across the river to the American side, where Captain Winterburn's detachment of cavalrymen was on duty to preserve neutrality.

Of the forty-five constitutionalists, only 27 reached the Texas bank. Several were killed in the water, their bodies floating down stream.

There was no further trouble, and it was said here that the additional troops were ordered to Del Rio because of the battle expected tomorrow.

A force of about 700 constitutionalists was reported advancing from the southwest to Las Vacas, where the federal command is now stationed. A rebel company that has been encamped opposite Lantry, Texas, is also moving down the river toward Las Vacas.

Washington Approves.

Washington, March 23.—Frank approval of the action of the American troopers who returned the fire of Mexican federals at Del Rio yesterday was expressed here today in official circles. News of the incident was received at the war department as an incident of border patrol work, and created no great stir. Army reports told of the exchange of shots and announced that twenty-nine constitutionalists had been taken into custody after fifteen had been killed as they fled across the Rio Grande from the federals. There was no mention, however, or any federals killed or Americans wounded.

The war department stands squarely behind Brigadier General Bliss in his determination to inflict prompt punishment upon Mexicans of any faction who wilfully fire across the line and endanger American life and property. Some time ago General Bliss, after having repeatedly warned the Mexican military commanders against indiscriminate shooting across the line, instructed the officers in command of the American border patrol to return any such fire if they were satisfied that American soldiers were being made targets.

Postal Rates for Plants.

Washington, March 23.—Plants, seeds and cuttings may go through the mails at fourth class rates in packages weighing more than eight ounces, but by the terms of a bill, which passed the senate today and now goes to the house, a rate of 1 cent for two ounces was provided for packages of eight ounces and less.

Meager Dispatches Indicate That Gen. Villa's Forces Have Driven Huerta's Forces From All the Outlying Defenses.

ACTION WAS PRECEDED BY FURIOUS CANNONADE

Rebel Supporters in Juarez Jubilant Over News From Front — Villa Confident He Will Soon Capture Torreon.

El Verjil, Mexico, March 23.—Fighting of the most sanguinary character took place in the streets of Gomez Palacio. The rebels took the water tank on Cerro De La Pilar, the Brittingham soap factory and the Cuyartel.

The Cuyartel caught fire and the rebels were compelled to abandon it. At 11 p. m. the battle was reported still in progress. Streams of wounded were being brought to the field hospital here and as fast as possible being sent back to the general hospital at Bermejillo. Losses on both sides are reported heavy, but General Villa said the town was practically his.

GREAT BATTLE RAGING IN TORREON OUTSKIRTS

El Verjil, Durango, Mexico, March 23. The real attack on Torreon began today when General Villa occupied Lerdo practically without resistance and at 1 o'clock this afternoon began an attack on Gomez Palacio.

The three towns are practically one in a commercial and social sense, and are connected by four miles of street railway, but Torreon proper represents the military stronghold, where the Mexican federal force is gathered under General Refugio Velasco.

Gomez Palacio and Lerdo are without important natural defenses, and in previous revolutions never have been seriously defended. The real test of strength is expected to come soon when Villa hurls his force against the defense of Torreon. On this battle, it is conceded, hinges the fate of the revolution.

The mountain Cerro De La Pilas lies to the right of the street car line and railroad tracks which connect Gomez Palacio with Torreon, and forms an advance portion of the Torreon defenses.

General Villa telegraphed confidently that he would take Gomez Palacio tonight. His confidence is based on the fact that the mountain is usually defended merely for the purpose of inflicting what damage is possible. Otherwise the position is such that the defending force could be cut off by a superior enemy.

Preceded by Cannonade.

The advance on Gomez Palacio began from this point, which is only 2 or 3 miles from Gomez Palacio.

The action was preceded by a furious cannonading directed at the federal batteries, with their infantry supports on the mountain slopes. When rebel officers with field glasses observed that the federals were shifting their positions, their own infantry was set in motion across the plains in the direction of the mountain.

It is reported that other troops are approaching in other directions, for last week Villa drove in the federal outposts from all points of the compass and made the way clear for his own attack by taking Mapimi, Brittingham Junction and a number of other towns.

Once Gomez Palacio and the mountain La Pila is taken, the rebel troops may move through a valley following the street line to Torreon until the very gates of the city are reached. It is probable, however, that they will have to fight to cross the Nazas river, which runs between the two cities.

The whole valley is reported to be in a state of defense with barbed wire entanglements and trenches, irrigation ditches in some instances have been flooded, while others left dry, will shelter the Huerta soldiers. Federal batteries everywhere occupy the hills which close in on Torreon from all sides.

Federals Fought Stubbornly.

The preliminary skirmishing which enabled the rebels to bring their batteries into action late today began at daybreak today and the federals fought stubbornly. They retired from trench to trench on the plains until driven back on the main force on the slopes of the mountains. The rebels numbered 3,000, with General Toribio Ortega at their head and General Villa in the immediate background.

Lerdo, where the largest shoe factories in Mexico are located, lies around a shoulder of Cerro De La Pila from Gomez Palacio. It was taken last night without material defense, as the main mountain batteries were planted to command the approaches to Gomez Palacio. It was occupied by the combined forces of Generals Tomas, Urbina, Hernandez and Rodrigues.

General Villa was in high spirits and predicted that Torreon proper would crumble before him.

Very Likely.

WOMAN WAS PURSUED BY EDITOR SHE SLEW

Evidence That Calmette Sought Intimate Letters Written by Madame Caillaux.

Paris, March 23.—Important testimony, tending to confirm Mme. Caillaux's assertion that she had reason to believe that M. Calmette, the late editor of The Figaro, had in his possession other personal letters of an even more intimate nature than the ones published, was given today at the examination before the investigating magistrate, Henri Boucard.

The Princess De Mesagne Estradere, who formerly held the position of society editor of The Figaro, said that the time of the divorce of M. Caillaux and Mme. Dupre three letters were destroyed by mutual agreement in the presence of notaries, and that Mme. Dupre had maintained photographs of the letters. M. Calmette, she continued, knew of the existence of the photographs and offered $6,000 to a person, whose name was not mentioned, to arrange an interview with the holder of the photographs. This offer was refused.

She Declined Offer.

M. Calmette made a similar offer to Princess De Mesagne Estradere, who also declined it.

When the "thy Joe" letter appeared in The Figaro, the witness continued, Mme. Caillaux had reasonable grounds for supposing that M. Calmette had the other two.

Mme. Thebold Chartran, the widow of the noted artist, testified that she had heard discussions in newspaper circles of these letters and that she herself had been told by an editor of an evening paper that he never would publish the letters. At the beginning of the examination of this witness, Mme. Caillaux appeared to have taken exception to some statement made by Mme. Chartran with reference to the letters and the reporters in the corridor could hear Mme. Caillaux imploring the witness to use all her powers of memory. On leaving the witness stand Mme. Chartran kissed Mme. Caillaux affectionately.

Offered $6,000 for Interview.

Isadore De Lara, the composer who said M. Calmette had been one of his best friends, confirmed the declaration of Princess De Mesagne Estradere that at a luncheon party of the Princess of Monaco, which Mme. Caillaux attended, he heard the princess declare that M. Calmette had offered $6,000 to any one who would arrange an interview with Mme. Dupre, the holder of the letters.

M. Delara further testified that he heard Mme. Caillaux say in the conversation which followed, apparently referring to her husband:

"They will finish by killing him."

M. De Lara concluded by giving details of Mme. Caillaux's apparent state of mind on the eve of the crime. He believed that then violence was far from her thoughts.

Would Take Her Up.

"Now, Freddie, once for all, will you wash your face and hands?"

"Sure thing, if it's once for all!"

Physician Tells How To Grow Hair

A Well-Known Physician and Newspaper Correspondent Tells How to Promote the Growth of the Hair.

A well-known physician who has made a careful study of the hair recently made the following statement: "It is comparatively easy to stop the hair from falling out, promote its growth and banish dandruff by the following simple recipe, which can be made at home: To 7 oz. of water add a small box of Barbo Compound, 1 oz. of bay rum and ¼ oz. of glycerine. Apply it to the scalp with the finger tips two or three times per week. It not only is excellent as a scalp and hair tonic but it darkens faded, streaked, gray hair and makes it soft and glossy. I use it myself and have no hesitancy in recommending it to my patients. These ingredients can be bought at any drug store at very little cost."

REVOLT OF OFFICERS CHECKS HOME RULE

Trouble in British Army Is Closed Incident, but Consequences Far-Reaching. Officers Are Being Attacked as Tories.

London, March 23.—The defection of the army officers who refused to serve in Ulster is a closed incident, but its consequences are likely to prove far-reaching. Premier Asquith and Colonel Seely, secretary of state for war, made explanations before an excited and turbulent house today that the whole affair was the result of a misunderstanding.

This misunderstanding, it was inferred, although they did not directly say so, was due to misconstruction of the government's plans by the commanding general, Sir Arthur Paget, whereby he informed the officers in Ireland that they were to move on Ulster for a repressive campaign.

General Paget and three senior officers from the Curragh camp—General Gough, Colonel McEwan and Colonel Parker—were summoned to London for a conference. According to official statements the misunderstanding has been cleared away, and these officers returned tonight to Ireland. Prior to their departure they said they were entirely satisfied with the results of their visit.

The terms on which the officers remain at their posts were not disclosed, but the general belief is that they were assured they would not be compelled to fight against the Ulster men. This is considered a distinct surrender by the government. Lord Morely, or Blackburn, explained in the house of lords significantly that he did not think, in the interests of the efficiency of the army, that all that transpired in the army council should be made public and that the king approved the orders to the officers to return.

Part Played by King.

The part the king played in the crisis has not been disclosed. Army officers address their resignations to his majesty, and the report is that the king insisted that the resignations in the present instance should not be accepted and used his influence with the cabinet for a compromise with the army.

The unionists firmly believe that the government has participated in a fiasco. They think that the two most enterprising spirits of the cabinet, David Lloyd-George and Winston Spencer Churchill, were the chief movers in the plan and that the government proposed a wholesale movement to troops into Ulster to overcome the covenanters by the display of superior force and the arrest of their leaders and that the plan was frustrated only by the opposition of the officers.

Some of the unionist members assert that Andrew Bonar Law recently received a letter quoting one of the highest officers in Ireland as saying:

"By Saturday there will be hundreds of dead in Ulster."

The unionists also accuse the government of making a scapegoat of General Paget for their own "colossal blunder."

The future of the home rule bill is in doubt. No declarations of "full steam ahead" nor "meeting force with force" were heard today from the liberals in the debate in the house of commons. None of the fire and firmness which permeated the speeches of the ministers only last week was in evidence. The army has checkmated the government, according to the unionists' view, and the covenanters of Ulster have won their fight.

No one will be surprised if the government soon relinquishes armed force, as its action had the immediate result of striking a shower of sparks of class jealousies.

Officers Denounced as Tories.

Liberal newspapers of high standing and influence, like The Daily Chronicle and The Daily News, print bitter denunciations of the officers as part of the tory aristocracy which insists upon the prerogative of ruling the country against the will of the people, and demand the democratization of the army and that the system of officering it from the sons of the rich be superseded by a system whereby officers may be promoted from the ranks.

The labor papers are equally bitter and demand to know why privates should not have the same privilege of refusing to fire upon workingmen when called upon to suppress strike riots.

"What about the strikers?" was the shout with which the labor members tried to drown Mr. Bonar Law's defense of the rights of the officers to refuse to obey orders against their consciences.

Conferences of high officers with the king continued today. Sporadic resignations of officers were announced, including those of several of the volunteer forces.

At the Carlton club, which is a conservative stronghold, it was asserted that the first lord of the admiralty, Mr. Churchill, on Friday ordered the Third battleship squadron to Belfast, with the object of landing marines and that Admiral Bailey replied that the squadron was not in condition to go to sea.

WILSON ASKS NATION TO GUARD HONOR

flamed by inherited hatred of England, and possibly in a state of 'physical exaltation' at the time."

Senator O'Gorman said today he did not expect to call a meeting of the canals committee to consider the Owen bill to repeal the tolls exemption until late this week at the earliest.

Filibustering Tactics.

There seemed little prospect tonight of getting the Sims repeal bill before the house until late in the week at the earliest. Debate on the rivers and harbors appropriation bill is dragging along slowly, with no prospect of immediate conclusion. Today the apparent effort of members to prolong discussion of trivial matters brought constant references by champions of the toll exemption repeal to filibustering tactics.

No attempt will be made to report a rule that would limit debate on the repeal bill to fifteen hours until the measure actually has been called up, and this probably cannot be done until Thursday, when Majority Leader Underwood is scheduled to make the opening speech in opposition to the repeal.

Representative Murdock, progressive leader, urged today that, if the house would limit the repeal discussion to forty instead of fifteen hours, sentiment on the tolls issue would be so shifted that the vote would result "America's way instead of England's." Several suggestions of "gag rule" were made, but Minority Leader Mann declared that, while he had heard it reported that the white house had sent word to hasten the repeal, he did not believe the president had attempted to interfere with house procedure.

That all progressive party members of the house are not opposed to repeal of toll exemption was disclosed today when Representative Charles M. Thomson, of Chicago, issued a statement declaring his intention to support the president.

Matter of National Honor.

"In view of the statement recently issued by Mr. Murdock to the effect that the progressives in congress are substantially a unit against the proposition to repeal the toll exemption clause in the Panama canal act," said Representative Thomson. "I feel called upon to say that I am unable to agree with my progressive colleague in this matter.

"I am not unmindful of the fact that my party platform demands free tolls for American coastwise shipping. My study of this subject has been as thorough as I could possibly make it within the time that has been at my command, and I have not been able to escape the conviction that the exemption of American coastwise shipping from the payment of tolls is in violation of the terms of the Hay-Pauncefote treaty. I do not hesitate to place what I consider a matter of national honor above party platform."

Representative Chandler, of New York, also a progressive member, supplemented the recent statement of his party leader in the house, declaring his opposition to the repeal "because I believe a political platform is a covenant with the people."

Senator O'Gorman, who is fighting early and late against the administration's repeal policy, said today that the committee on inter-oceanic canals would act on the repeal bill in due time, but reiterated his statement that the committee would not meet until Senator Crawford returns from South Dakota.

HARRY THURSTON PECK PUTS BULLET IN HEAD

Writer of Note and for Years a Professor in Columbia University.

Stamford, Conn., March 23.—Harry Thurston Peck, formerly a professor at Columbia university and a writer of note, whose marital troubles and a breach of promise suit gained him unpleasant notoriety in the last few years, ended his life today in his room in a cheap lodging house by shooting himself through the head with a revolver.

Dr. Peck was seriously ill at Ithaca, N. Y., about a year ago from a mental breakdown and was thought to be dying. His divorced wife, Mrs. Cornelia D. Peck, a Christian Scientist, attended him and he ultimately regained his strength. His second wife was also at his bedside and there seemed to be no friction between the two women. Until a month ago Dr. Peck had been living at Riverside, near here. Embarrassed by financial difficulties, he gave up his home, engaged a room in a lodging house in Bell street and took his meals at a small restaurant. He was working on an encyclopedia for a New York publishing house, but it appears that he was troubled over a threatened lawsuit, and during the past week did not work, remaining in his room much of the time.

Dr. Peck's health had been delicate the last month and friends feared he was about to have a recurrence of the mental trouble he suffered last year. It is believed his financial condition which forced him to give up his fine home and live in modest circumstances touched his pride and made him depressed in spirit.

The body was taken in charge tonight by his divorced wife, Mrs. Cornelia D. Peck, and his daughter. His second wife, who lives on Staten Island, was notified, but nothing has been heard from her.

Sued by His Stenographer.

New York, March 23.—Harry Thurston Peck was a writer of note and for twenty-eight years was professor of ancient languages at Columbia university. He left the institution more than three years ago in consequence of unpleasant notoriety incident to a breach of promise suit for $50,000 brought against him by Esther Quinn, a stenographer. Shortly after the filing of the suit Dr. Peck filed a voluntary petition in bankruptcy. He gave his assets as $260.

In March, 1912, Miss Quinn's suit was dismissed as insufficient. Later she filed another action which was pending at the time of his death.

Dr. Peck was born in Stamford in 1856 and was educated in this country and abroad. He was an authority on Latin and the classics, and the author of numerous books, including treatises, essays and verses.

Mexico's Slaves—The Peons.

(From The Christian Herald.)

The peon receives a scant wage and then is required to purchase his worldly goods of all varieties at the proprietor's store. There he is encouraged to be extravagant. He very soon runs into debt. It is a very simple matter, then, to keep him in debt. And the Mexican law decrees that so long as an Indian workman owes a cent to his employer he is the latter's chattel and must go on working for him until the debt is paid. For three centuries and a half this system, with variations, has prevailed in Mexico. Do you wonder that the Mexican working class has developed a slave mind&

SUFFERED WITH ERUPTION ON LEG

Chuckey, Tenn.—"I had a sore on my leg just above the ankle. It was sore for twelve months. They called it a fever sore. I could not begin to tell what I suffered. Part of the time I had to walk on crutches. The itching on my leg was beyond my explanation. My leg would itch all around and I would have it rubbed and if rubbed too hard the skin would slip off somewhere else. That would make another sore. There would come out a kind of sticky water all around the leg and around the sore. Anything that scratched would make it itch and if I put my nails on it to scratch it would make it itch a thousand times worse. It gave me a sight of trouble at night.

"I tried three or four treatments and they failed to cure. At last I saw Cuticura Soap and Ointment advertised and I thought I would try them. I washed the leg twice a day with Cuticura Soap and then applied the Cuticura Ointment for six weeks and it got well. Cuticura Soap and Ointment cured me." (Signed) J. D. Henley, June 5, 1913.

Sold by dealers throughout the world. Liberal sample of each mailed free, with 32-p. Skin Book. Address post-card "Cuticura, Dept. T, Boston."

DAN CAREY LEADS CHASE FOR BEAR

Grant Park Section Greatly Excited When Bruin Escapes From Zoo With Her Cubs.

When a Cinnamon bear with her two cubs escaped from her cage at Grant park last night about midnight, terrifying the entire neighborhood with her vicious growls, an exciting chase ensued.

The bear pursued a negro up a tree and was tearing the seat of the black's trousers out when a squad of policemen, led by Dan Carey, manager of parks, and Chief Jett, came to the rescue with their revolvers and shot and killed the bear, saving the frightened negro's life.

When the night watchman at the park heard the growls of the three bears he telephoned the police and Night Chief Jett, in company with Captain Mayo and Call Officers Jones, Palmer, Cochran, Jameson and Vaughn, and Dan Carey, rushed to the park.

After they located the bear it became evident at once that only the promptest of measures would save the life of the negro, whose yells were now alarming the entire section. The officers opened fire with their revolvers and finally Bruin yielded up the ghost after she had been shot over thirty times. The bear showed fight to the last.

One of the two cubs was captured and the park employees are confident that the other one will be caught before daybreak.

M'LENDON TO LECTURE ON THE PANAMA CANAL

S. G. McLendon will deliver a lecture on the Panama canal Thursday night at 8 o'clock in the ballroom of the Kimball house.

Mr. McLendon will discuss the canal as a commercial agency, its tolls, its value and the relation it bears to southern development. The talk will be from a purely business standpoint, with the political feature eliminated. The manufacturers and business men, especially, are invited to attend. There will be no charge.

Mr. McLendon holds that President Wilson should be sustained in his demand for no free tolls, declaring that free tolls will injure the manufacturing centers of the south.

EAT LESS AND TAKE SALTS FOR KIDNEYS

Take a Glass of Salts if Your Back Hurts or Bladder Bothers.

The American men and women must guard constantly against Kidney trouble, because we eat too much and all our food is rich. Our blood is filled with uric acid which the kidneys strive to filter out, they weaken from overwork, become sluggish; the eliminative tissues clog and the result is kidney trouble, bladder weakness and a general decline in health.

When your kidneys feel like lumps of lead; your back hurts or the urine is cloudy, full of sediment or you are obliged to seek relief two or three times during the night; if you suffer with sick headache or dizzy, nervous spells, acid stomach, or you have rheumatism when the weather is bad, get from your pharmacist about four ounces of Jad Salts; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to flush and stimulate clogged kidneys; to neutralize the acids in the urine so it no longer is a source of irritation, thus ending bladder disorders.

Jad Salts is inexpensive; cannot injure, makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water beverage, and belongs in every home, because nobody can make a mistake by having a good kidney flushing any time.

The Details.

"MOTHER" JONES HELD BY TROOPS

She Ventures Into Colorado Strike Zone and Is Arrested and Put in the County Jail.

Walsenburg, Colo., March 23.—After a week's freedom "Mother" Mary Jones is again a military prisoner in the strike zone. She was taken from a southbound Colorado and Southern train today by Captain H. C. Nickerson and lodged in the county jail under military guard.

"Mother" Jones is held incommunicado.

Captain Nickerson left Trinidad last night under orders from Adjutant General John Chase to arrest "Mother" Jones at Walsenburg when the announcement was made that she was leaving Denver for Trinidad. The militia officer boarded the train at Pueblo and at Walsenburg ordered "Mother" Jones to alight with him.

"I protest against such treatment," declared the strike leader, "but I am not surprised."

"I am acting under orders," replied the officer.

"Well, I'll get off," she retorted.

John Brown, an organizer of the United Mine Workers of America, and known as "Mother" Jones' bodyguard, who accompanied the aged strike leader, also left the train, but was not arrested.

Refused His Arm.

When "Mother" Jones alighted from the train in custody of Captain Nickerson, Lieutenant Howerth approached and said:

"Will you take my arm, madame?"

"No, I won't," retorted the prisoner. "You take my suit case."

"Mother" Jones protested vigorously when she learned she was being taken to the county jail. "This is an outrage," she declared. "I didn't think they'd dare do this."

Strikers obtained permission from Colonel Verdeckberg to supply the prisoner with food and clothing.

"'Mother' Jones is held in a filthy underground cell," declared John Brown, a strike leader, "heretofore used for holding criminals."

Colonel Edward Verdeckberg, in whose charge the strike leader was left by Captain Nickerson, declares she is held in clean, comfortable quarters.

Alleged to Be Kidnaping.

Trinidad, Colo., March 23.—"It's a plain case of kidnaping, nothing else," declared John R. Lawson, international board member of the United Mine Workers, when advised that "Mother" Jones had been taken from a train at Walsenburg by military officers while on her way to Trinidad.

"Mother Jones was going through the place and as far as I know there is absolutely no charge against her. I hope the supreme court will act in the matter at once."

Mr. Lawson and John McLennan, president of district No. 15, United Mine Workers of America, started for Walsenburg today.

To Ask for Habeas Corpus.

Denver, Colo., March 23.—Horace N. Hawkins, attorney for the United Mine Workers, today said that he would apply directly to the state supreme court for a writ of habeas corpus for Mrs. Jones. The supreme court refused a former application, deciding that the district court must pass on the question first. The district court refused the writ.

Mr. Hawkins said that the supreme court should act now, as the case, so far as legal questions were concerned, had been passed on by the district court.

A week ago today "Mother" Jones came to Denver after a three months' imprisonment in San Rafael hospital. At the time she declared she was deported and vowed that she would return to Trinidad at once to urge her "boys to fight and to encourage the wives of the striking miners." Originally "Mother" Jones was arrested in Trinidad because Governor Ammons and Adjutant General Chase deemed it unwise for her to be at liberty in the strike zone where they believed her presence would incite the strikers to riot.

RETIREMENT WAS NOT SUGGESTED BY SPEER

Macon Jurist Makes Statement as to His Position on Suggestion of Congressman.

Macon, Ga., March 23.—(Special.)—Judge Emory Speer has issued a statement to the press in which he denies that the recent suggestion that he be retired in any way emanated from himself, and declaring further that he never for a moment has contemplated a consent to retire in order to avoid impeachment.

In this connection Judge Speer gave out a copy of the letter that was written by him to his counsel, with reference to the suggestion. It is as follows:

"February 19, 1914.

"Judges Andrew J. Cobb and E. H. Calloway,

"Gentlemen:

"You have submitted to me this morning the inquiry of the Hon. W. C. Adamson, representative from Georgia, relative to the retirement from the judgeship I hold at this time. In reply I have to state, if the judiciary committee, in accordance with their conceptions of duty, after considering all the matter which has been submitted to them, withdraw the charges against me in a manner as publicly as they have been made, I will not be unwilling to accept retirement upon the same terms that I might do when I attain the age of seventy. I state this, however, mainly because I feel that my health has been to some extent impaired by my long labors as judge. I will, however, accept nothing but the most unequivocal exoneration. I will accept no retirement except honorable retirement. Unless this is offered me, and after complete vindication, I stand on my rights as a judge and an American citizen, let the consequences be what they may.

"With highest appreciation of your devoted and most valuable services in the ascertainment of the truth, with regard to the unfounded accusations against me, I am, as ever,

"Faithfully yours,
"EMORY SPEER."

BUMPER CROPS IN 1914 TO RESULT FROM SNOW

Washington, March 23.—Prospects for big crops in 1914 are particularly bright at this time, as the result of the almost continuous succession of snowstorms over the country, in the opinion of officials of the department of agriculture. The longer the snow blanket lingers, they declare, the more grown the assurance of big crops of corn and wheat, better vegetables, more stock feed and lower prices.

"If this snow blanket will only take its time in departing," said Dr. J. A. Bonesteel, of the bureau of soils, today, "we will have a better crop start this year than for several seasons. To date conditions could be hardly more ideal."

OFFICERS SEARCHING FOR CHARLES CHAPMAN

Husband of Woman Charged With Uncle's Murder—New Evidence Found.

Calhoun, Ga., March 23.—(Special.)—A strong chain of circumstantial evidence is beginning to point to the guilt of one of two women held in jail here charged with the mysterious murder of Sid Chapman, who was found dead on his doorstepe early Saturday morning. The two women in jail are his wife, Mrs. Starnes, and her daughter, Miss Charles Chapman. It is now believed by many that the niece of the murdered man fired the fatal shot which brought instant death to the young man as he approached the back door of his home in the dim light of the morning. Neighbors who live near by say they heard the shot at about 4:30.

A new clue has come to light in the finding of the metal end of a shell in the ashes of the fireplace in the living room of the house. The metal though stained by smoke and flame bears the name of the manufacturers, and the gauge of the gun. These correspond exactly with that of the gun and with other shells found in the house. The paper label from the point of the cartridge was also found by the slain man's body and this corresponded to those on the shells found in the house. All these facts, coupled with the story of the neighbors and the previous threats made by Mrs. Chapman, are pointing to the younger woman as the guilty party.

Following information received by officers of the recent movements of Charles Chapman, the husband of the accused woman, a warrant has been sworn out for his arrest and he is now being sought in Dade county for alleged complicity in the crime. Some believe that he and not the woman is the actual murderer. He left home for Chattanooga some two weeks ago, accompanied by Sid Chapman. The latter returned about a week ago and Charles Chapman had written his wife that he would be back Saturday morning. Many of the people in the community think that the absent husband came back unexpectedly Friday night, committed the crime and fled unobserved. Two fice dogs which belonged at the home where the tragedy was enacted and which were seen there Friday have strangely disappeared and it is thought that they may have left with Charles Chapman as he fled immediately after the killing.

The two women in the jail here are loud and insistent in declaring, not only their innocence of the crime, but of their entire ignorance of how it occurred.

Sunday morning a large crowd of people from the surrounding country was present when the funeral of the murdered man was held at Salem Baptist church, which is not far from the scene of the tragedy. Rev. J. P. Jones conducted the services.

DETECTIVES PUZZLED BY MYSTERIOUS TRIO

Officers Believe They Are Wanted for Bank Swindle in California.

Gertrude de Boice, 20 years of age, is being held at the police station with her husband, Robert Saxe, and her brother-in-law, Max Saxe, of San Francisco, Cal. The detectives believe that the young woman is operating in connection with the two alleged crooks.

Robert Saxe was caught by Detectives John Black and Harper Saturday night attempting, it is alleged, to burglarize Menkce's photo studio on Auburn avenue. He has been in the city about two weeks. From him the detectives secured the information which led to the arrest of the other suspects.

After much questioning by the detectives the young girl sobbed a pitiful tale. She said she and Robert Saxe were married in San Francisco July 26, 1912. They began to travel the country in company with Robert's younger brother, Max. One month ago in Birmingham, she states that she and her husband had a fuss, after which they separated. Max, she said, was willing to support her, and from Birmingham they went to Chattanooga, and thence here.

For quite a length of time the trio would not tell which man was the girl's husband, and the two men would not admit that they were brothers.

The trio has been shadowed by a private detective from San Francisco to Birmingham, to Memphis, to Nashville, to Jacksonville, back to Chattanooga and to Atlanta.

The detectives believe that the parties are wanted in California for swindling the banks of that state of about $20,000.

DYING BOY TAKEN FOR AN INTERVIEW WITH PRESIDENT

Washington, March 23.—A pale, smiling lad of twelve lay on a stretcher in the Blue room of the white house today and beside him sat the president of the United States. The scene was the sequel to the president's response to the sick lad's plea.

Paralyzed in limb and with strength slowly ebbing, Harry Winthrop Davis, of Sewickley, Pa., was the president's caller. He came in a motor ambulance and three hospital attendants bore him into the blue room. The president came and chatted for several minutes with the little fellow. Then Harry asked about Mrs. Wilson and left some flowers for her.

The president's eyes were dimmed as he turned away to his day of work and the little boy was carried out on his stretcher.

The visit to the president was arranged after Mrs. Davis, the boy's mother, had written Mrs. Wilson telling how the boy had been praying to see the president and how she earnestly hoped it might be arranged. She suggested that Harry could be brought to the white house and the president promptly consented.

ZACH E. ROWAN DIES AFTER LONG ILLNESS

Zach E. Rowan, formerly chief of the county police force, died Monday morning at his residence, 139 West Fair street, after several years' illness.

Chief Rowan had been suffering with heart trouble, but was able to walk about until the day of his death. He was 45 years old. Surviving him are his wife and two daughters, Ethleen, aged 5 years, and Margaret, aged 12 years. He served eight years on the city police force, resigning in 1909 to accept the position of chief of the county police. He was relieved, on account of ill-health, December 2, 1913, by George Mathieson, but the county commissioners named him a lieutenant and his name was not taken from the pay roll.

Funeral services will be held Wednesday morning at 10 o'clock at the chapel of Harry G. Poole, and interment will be in Greenwood cemetery.

HIS DEATH IN MEXICO PREDICTED BY NOLAN

Father Will Ask Help of State Department in Making Investigation.

Two years ago, while on a visit to Atlanta, Dr. Frank Nolan, the Georgian whose suspicious death in Mexico will likely be investigated by the state department at Washington, had a premonition of a tragic end.

During the conversation with LeRoy Duncan, of the Duncan Grain company, he said, just before departing for the return trip to Mexico:

"Lee, I'm never going to see Georgia again. I don't know why, but I feel that I never will."

News of his mysterious death reached Atlanta Monday, Colonel J. Q. Nolan, in charge of the Monday. Colonel Nolan is preparing for an immediate trip to Mexico to investigate. He has invoked the aid of the state department.

The dead Georgian was a former resident of Atlanta. He graduated from Emory college, and was a classmate of Mr. Duncan. In 1905 he graduated from the Southern College of Physicians and Surgeons. He ventured into business in Atlanta, but six years ago embarked for Mexico.

At the time of his death he was head physician and chemist of the Granahl ranchero, one of the most prosperous cane plantations in the vicinity of Tampico. He was 30 years of age, and unmarried. He had accumulated considerable wealth in Mexico and extensive property.

News of his end came in form of a letter from Dr. Pressly, a Presbyterian minister of Tampico. It stated briefly that Dr. Nolan had been taken ill while away from Tampico, and died while being rushed to that port in a speedy motor boat.

Jap Diet Prorogued.

Tokio, March 23.—The Japanese diet was prorogued today by the emperor owing to the inability of the house of peers and the house of representatives to agree on the naval appropriations. The lower house had reduced the estimates considerably and the peers afterward further diminished them, but this was not agreed to by the representatives and a deadlock ensued. In political circles it is generally believed that the cabinet will resign.

WOMAN OF QUITMAN FIRES PISTOL SHOT THROUGH HER HEAD

Quitman, Ga., March 23.—(Special.) Mrs. Carroll Hawkins, who lives a few miles from Quitman, attempted suicide early this afternoon by shooting herself with a pistol through the head.

No reason was given for the act except only despondency over ill health. She is alive tonight, but the doctors have given up hope. She is the daughter of former Ordinary B. S. Meadows.

LARGE CROWDS ATTEND BIG REVIVAL SERVICE

The special revival services being conducted by Rev. Luther B. Bridges at the First Methodist church are meeting with fine results. Large congregations have greeted him at each of the evening services.

Last night Mr. Bridges delivered a powerful discourse on "The Revival Needed and the Condition Under Which It Is to Come." "The religious man and woman," he said, "who does not want to be more religious, better and more spiritual is dishonest. The religious man or woman who will not be helped to a better and more spiritual life is dangerous to the cause of true religion."

GEORGIA WOMAN SEEKS TO REPAY A KINDNESS

Mrs. Sayre Goes to West Virginia to Aid Man Who Befriended Her.

Huntington, W. Va., March 23.—(Special.)—Mrs. Roy Sayre, of Waycross, Ga., is in this city endeavoring to secure a pardon for Frank Watts, having come all the distance from her home in an effort to secure the release from jail of the man who many years ago befriended her.

Twenty years ago, however, Watts lived at Ona and the now well-to-do Mrs. Sayre lived there. Watts was then a highly respected member of the Baptist church. Ragged, hungry and penniless at that time, Mrs. Sayre, then Miss Marguerite Barton, appealed to Watts, who gave her clothes and money to go to the home of her sister in Columbus, Ohio, where she would be taken care of and sent to school.

Later Miss Barton moved to this city and in 1910 she was the principal in a romantic marriage. She clerked at the cigar stand in the Frederick hotel. She eloped with Mr. Sayre on the day that had been set for her wedding with another man, a Pittsburger, who arrived to find his bride-to-be had flown. Since her marriage she has made her home in Waycross, Ga.

ASKED AND ANSWERED.

Editor Constitution: Two reports have been persistently circulated here for the past several weeks—one to the effect that The Constitution has bought The Atlanta Georgian, and the other to the effect that Mr. Hearst has bought The Constitution.

Simply for information, and to put an end to the rumor one way or the other, I will be glad to have an expression from you on the subject.

D. G. BICKERS.

Athens, Ga., March 22, 1914.

The rumor quoted in the letter from Mr. Bickers is an echo of similar gossip which has been revived in various forms from time to time during the forty-six years' career of The Constitution, and which, in its new form, has doubtless gained current and renewed circulation, on which account only The Constitution, confirming its personal reply to the specific inquiry, takes advantage of the opportunity to publicly bury this rumor in the grave of its predecessors.

The Constitution has not bought The Georgian, and, while it maintains cordial relations with all of its competitors, confessing a peculiar fondness for its Atlanta neighbors of the newspaper field, it has no cannibalistic appetite for assimilation.

Neither has The Constitution sold, nor offered, nor considered a sale to Mr. Hearst or to any one else.

In the splendid development of the unequaled territory covered by The Constitution, there is plenty of room and a fair field for healthy competition in every class of legitimate endeavor, and it shall be the policy of The Constitution in future, as it has been in the past, to labor along its own lines for the perfection of its own processes to aid, to entertain and to please its subscribers, and to build up the business of its advertisers.

In the meantime, The Constitution has no remote purpose, desire or intention to buy from, or sell to, any of its competitors, with all of whom it confidently expects to maintain for all time the keen but generous rivalry which wars only in enterprise and industry.

"A MESS OF POTTAGE."

The Associated Press reports that the situation regarding the Panama canal tolls repeal is badly obscured, and that it is commonly conceded that much of the foreign policy of the administration hinges upon the success of repeal.

The mere fact that the honor of the country is pledged should be sufficient to rally an overwhelming majority to the repeal of the indefensible exemption clause.

It does not lighten the face of dishonor to say that the platform of this or that party demands free tolls.

The Hay-Pauncefote treaty, with, theoretically, the signature of every American citizen upon it, is a prior lien upon the good faith of the nation. No number of party planks or quibbling subterfuges can evade this clean-cut fact. And that is not to reckon with the knowledge that exemption of coastwise shipping, as a means of protection, is a fraud, pure and simple; already coastwise shipping is protected against foreign competition; whatever "exemption" is given will be a naked gift from the United States treasury.

But, for the sake of academic argument, put the matter of exemption upon a sordid basis. Assume exemption is justified. What does coastwise shipping get but of it? The estimate is that exemption will confer upon coastwise shipping a gain of $2,000,000 a year.

Why pay this gratuity to an already-protected interest?

We pay, first, the contempt of every square-dealing nation in civilization, the contempt visited upon the individual or the nation that fails to fulfill a solemn pledge, that "welches" on a note; we invite distrust of America in all its dealings with each other country in civilization. Translated into the "dollars and cents" basis, which the opponents of repeal appear to consider the sine qua non, what do these conditions signify?

Jostling and jarring in the far east over trade, territorial and racial matters; a blot upon England's powerful friendship for us; a possible embarrassment on our own hemisphere regarding the Monroe doctrine; a probable embarrassment of the growth of our foreign trade for an indefinite reach into the future.

All this for $2,000,000 a year to a lusty and protected interest.

Honor to one side, if the nation is willing to swap its birthright for this microscopic mess of pottage, the sterling common sense of the nation has undergone a marvelous metamorphosis.

That for the "dollars and cents" basis!

THE MEDIEVALISTS.

Several days ago The Constitution published an editorial protesting against the proposed professional crucifixion of Dr. John A. Wyeth, of New York city, for a farcical infringement of medieval medical ethics. Dr. Wyeth, whose name and accomplishments reputable physicians the world over hold in reverence, had invited a reporter to a clinic upon the explicit understanding that his account of the proceedings should not be used until first submitted to the doctor. The condition was observed. Despite this concession to ethics and accuracy, there quickly sprung up in New York a few doctors with their heads in the middle centuries, who sought to discipline Dr. Wyeth for his breach of "ethics." This action The Constitution characterized as a travesty not only upon the dignity, but as well upon the common sense of the medical profession.

Some days ago someone asked Dr. Wyeth what he had to say of the discussion, and he replied: "Nothing, except to quote Galileo, 'The world moves all the same.'"

The school boy studying history can tell you just how sweeping and pertinent that epigram really is. Galileo was a born insurgent in astronomy and science. He wasn't on speaking terms with standpatism. He discovered many of the laws of moving bodies. He was, in his day, the most powerful supporter of the Copernican theory that the earth revolves around the sun. The old standpat doctrine held that the earth stood still. The story runs that Galileo made it so hot for the standpatters of his day that they offered him the alternative of recanting or the block. It is told that in the face of this delectable pressure he still said, "The world moves all the same." Today the world upholds Galileo, and remembers his detractors only as laughing-stocks.

And that is why the reported comment of Dr. Wyeth is so pertinent. Dr. Wyeth will not, however, have to wait so long as Galileo for his vindication. Already the council of the American Medical association, the most powerful medical body in the country, has approved a doctrine of publicity in the lay press that far exceeds the cautious program of Wyeth. And it is right. In the middle centuries the alchemist or the charlatan might legitimately have relied upon mystery to give efficacy to his spells. Then, and even later, the witch-doctor might have been justified in demanding an air of concealment for his charms and incantations.

In the twentieth century such pitiful theatrical accessories are not only ludicrous, but positively harmful. The one class of doctors they help are the quacks; the one class they injure are the conscientious practitioners. Just where this leaves "ethics" is a self-answering question. That is not to consult the welfare of the public. For one layman who has benefited from the nursery-room-mystery of "ethics," twenty laymen, their wives and children have suffered from lack of that proper knowledge it should be the province of the qualified physician to sow. Sensible publicity never hurt any business or profession. Its absence, especially in these days when folk read and think, can work havoc.

Dr. Wyeth already is vindicated in the mind of the well-poised physician as well as the layman. All his critics are accomplishing is to lay up for themselves ridicule and discredit. The medievalists abound in all professions, flock all walks of life. For their croakings and sneers, their jibes and persecution, the retort of old Galileo is a solar-plexus:

"The world moves all the same!"

With his own army to feed on the border Uncle Sam should put the refugee Mexican army to work for a living.

ALABAMA IN THROES OF HOTTEST CAMPAIGN KNOWN IN THE STATE IN PAST QUARTER OF A CENTURY

By John Corrigan, Jr.
(Constitution Political Correspondent.)

Birmingham, Ala., March 23.—(Special.)—Alabama is in the throes of the bitterest political struggle that has shaken the state in years. Five candidates for the United States senate and four for the governorship have wrought up the commonwealth to a white heat of interest. The campaign has reached that stage where the words "liar" and "slanderer" are being used recklessly.

The contest between Oscar W. Underwood, the democratic house leader, and Representative Richmond P. Hobson, for the senatorial term beginning March 4, 1915, has overshadowed all other contests in interest. It has divided families into opposing political camps. Thomas F. Ryan and prohibition are the issues on which the contest will turn.

While Mr. Underwood is remaining at his post in Washington, Mr. Hobson is making a whirlwind finish, in preparation for the primaries on April 6. He has been on the stump four months, and has covered the state, outside of his own congressional district, five times. He is making from two to half a dozen speeches a day.

Thomas F. Ryan has been projected into the campaign by Mr. Hobson. The man who put up $500,000 to pay the insolvent debts of the national democracy in 1904 is being scored from every stump by Mr. Hobson for his contribution of $35,000 to the Underwood presidential campaign fund last year. In answer to the charges that the democratic house leader is a "tool of Wall street," the Underwood managers confidently reply, "We stand on the record."

National Prohibition.

National prohibition is the other big issue which Mr. Hobson has introduced. Other national problems are being ignored. Canal tolls, a greater navy, the trusts, the currency and the tariff are being mentioned only incidentally by Mr. Hobson on the stump. He is devoting all his energies to capitalizing the prohibition sentiment and attempting to array prejudice against Mr. Underwood by saying the latter is a reactionary.

According to time-honored custom, both campaign managers are issuing lurid predictions. Forney Johnston, son of Joseph F. Johnston, one time senator, for whose unexpired term the present contest is being waged, predicts an Underwood victory by 30,000 majority. L. B. Musgrove, state manager for Hobson, claims the state, but gives no figures.

Coming into Birmingham yesterday, I polled the Southern train between Anniston and Birmingham. The result of the straw ballot showed eleven to one for Underwood among the citizens and voters on board. Including non-residents who expressed a preference, the vote stood eighteen to two.

Big Majority in Jefferson.

Frank A. Hewitt, campaign manager for Underwood in this (Jefferson) county, predicts a majority in the county of 5,000. In answer to Mr. Hobson's claim of being an apostle of uplift and the candidate of the friends of righteousness, he took a poll of the deacons and stewards and other church officials of the Baptist, Methodist and Presbyterian churches of the city. This showed for Underwood 134, for Hobson 43; non-committal, 6.

Mr. Musgrove today made this analysis of the situation from reports received at Hobson headquarters:

"Reports from southern Alabama are to the effect that almost the solid rural vote of that section is on the verge of a landslide to Hobson. It is also our information that such a condition prevails in many sections of north Alabama.

"Captain Hobson will get the largest vote that was ever polled in Mobile, Montgomery and Jefferson against the machine and ring rule. His vote in the sixth district will far exceed the most sanguinary figures that are claimed by the Underwood supporters in the ninth district.

"Many counties of the state are close, but, according to careful analysis, the majority are now in the Hobson column."

Johnston's Claims.

Mr. Johnston's statement is as follows:

"Our returns place every county in the first, second, fourth, fifth, seventh, eighth and ninth districts in the Underwood column by decisive majorities. In the third district, several counties are debatable territory, and in the sixth Hobson has the advantage in two counties. Underwood will carry three, with four doubtful.

"We do not care to make public our estimate of the majorities in the several counties; but, estimating a normal vote of 125,000, we expect a majority of not less than 30,000."

The only counter attack of the Underwood campaign managers is directed at Mr. Hobson's absenteeism. They have put him on the defensive in this respect.

Daily this feature appears in a box on the first page of The Birmingham News, being changed to suit each day's developments:

WHERE CANDIDATES SPENT SATURDAY.

OSCAR UNDERWOOD—On duty in the house of representatives, Washington. He earns $25 a day for representing the ninth district.

RICHMOND P. HOBSON—Speaking in Tuscaloosa and Jefferson county in the interest of his candidacy for the senate. He will continue to draw $25 a day as congressman from the sixth district.

The negro question is the third leading issue which has been brought forward to influence the choice of Alabama voters. This is always a subject of perennial interest in every state, and is used wherever possible to arouse prejudice and incite to resentment.

The Negro Question.

Hobson's vote in favor of the reinstatement in the army of the negro regiment which shot up the town of Brownsville, Texas, is being balanced against Mr. Underwood's retention of two negro servants of the house ways and means committee in Washington.

But prohibition overshadows everything, because Mr. Hobson has kept it to the front, made it his hobby, and expects to ride on it into the senate. He charges that the whisky interests are trying to dominate the politics of the state to defeat him. The charge is repeatedly made that their representatives made headquarters of Governor Emmet O'Neal's office, and from there directed the campaign in behalf of Mr. Underwood.

The answer of the Underwood headquarters is that, before Mr. Hobson was either a total abstainer or a prohibitionist, Mr. Underwood, in seeking to protect local communities which passed anti-liquor laws, favored a measure similar to the Webb bill, which he later helped to enact. This bill makes it unlawful to ship liquors into dry communities for sale.

A constitutional amendment offered by Mr. Hobson and supported by the anti-liquor forces provides:

"The sale, manufacture for sale, transportation for sale, importation for sale and exportation for sale of intoxicating liquors for beverage purposes in the United States and all territory subject to the jurisdiction thereof are forever prohibited."

Sale Is Aimed At.

In every instance the sale is the thing aimed at. This proposed constitutional amendment has been formally indorsed by the anti-liquor forces. It carries the Webb law a step further as a measure for fortifying the prohibition laws of dry communities.

The fight to drive liquor out of Alabama has been a long and interesting one. In 1906 the local option fight was won. Under this state law, Jefferson county, in which Birmingham is situated, voted out liquor the following year. Then, in 1908, Governor B. B. Comer advocated a state-wide prohibition law, which was passed. The state was then legally dry territory. Not satisfied, the foes of liquor proposed to write the prohibition into the state constitution. This precipitated the hottest campaign known in a quarter of a century, with the exception of the fight now on. The constitutional amendment lost by 29,000 majority. Then these five counties voted liquor back in: Sumter, Talladega, Choctaw, Chambers and Lee. Following the election of Governor O'Neal in 1910, the legislature passed another local option law, permitting each county to choose between liquor and no liquor. Jefferson county went wet, and saloons now flourish in Birmingham.

The fact that sixty of the sixty-seven counties in the state are dry reveals the strength of the prohibition sentiment to which Representative Hobson is appealing.

Mr. Hobson, in replying to Mr. Underwood's assertion that nation-wide prohibition has no part in the present senatorial campaign, dwells upon the recent convention of the anti-liquor forces at Columbus, Ohio.

Tells of Convention.

"This was the greatest convention ever held on this continent," he said in a speech Saturday night in North Birmingham. "Ninety-seven separate church and civic organizations were represented. The subsidized press sent out very little about it, but it represented, nevertheless, the moral force of the American people."

Continuing, he told his audience that the president of a Kentucky distilling company had made a proposal that the government should set apart 10 per cent of its gross income from internal revenue taxes on liquor to buy out the distilleries at the end of ten years, and destroy them. He insisted the liquor people would spend half a million dollars to defeat him.

Mr. Hobson's campaign handbook is printed at Westerville, Ohio, which is the headquarters of P. D. Baker, national superintendent of the Anti-Saloon league.

Predicting that his constitutional amendment for nation-wide prohibition would pass congress and be ratified by thirty-six states, he said it was most important that the people should elect to the senate candidates pledged to support the resolution.

"'Waiting the Magic Word' Should Be Read by Every Man in America."
—T. C. HOLMES.

Editor Constitution: I wish that every man in America could read your editorial of last Sunday under the caption "Waiting the Magic Word."

That editorial is the last word as to truth, logic and optimism as applied to two things foremost in the mind of the business man:

1. The restoration of prosperity to its full sweep and buoyancy for every interest in the land.

2. A permanent and amicable adjustment of relations between the public, the government and the railroads.

I have seen many statements of the direct and indirect advantages to flow from the ability of the railroads to finance their needs, aggregating conservatively one billion dollars.

Average Man's Stake.

But I have never seen stated anywhere the stake of the average man in this matter and the far-reaching effect of the impulse to prosperity as you stated these two propositions Sunday.

You strip the subject of all technicalities, all prejudice, demagogy or confusion, and present it in such manner as to appeal to the intelligence of the least as well as the most gifted of your readers.

The brief you hold is for prosperity and justice, and your arguments are judicial and clean-cut.

Interlocking Interests.

There is today much more or less loose talk about "interlocking directorates."

I have a phrase that means much more. It is—

"Interlocking interests."

I am no politician. Just a plain business man. But I confess that "interlocking interests" sounds lots better to me than up-in-the-air talk about "interlocking directorates."

Why?

Interlocking interests means that at the last analysis the interests of every class in this country, when the almighty dollar is concerned, are identical; they interlock at every point; prick the interest of the railroad and you prick the interest of the ditch-digger, the college professor or the real estate man, which latter happens to be my business. Conserve the interests of the railroads, demanding honesty of expenditure as you are careful to point out, and you conserve my interest, the interest of my neighbor and the newest clerk on my pay roll. In this highly-civilized age, we simply can't get away from each other. There is no such thing as prosperity for one and panic for another. We're all in the same canoe.

How It Would Help Him.

Take my own case, just for illustration. I sell real estate for a living.

Real estate feels depression just like any other industry.

Things in Atlanta and Georgia have been healthier than elsewhere. Our bulge in cotton helps us "put it across" on other sections.

Despite that advantage, deals are not as crisp as they ought to be, as underlying conditions give us a right to expect.

Why?

Because of the everlasting uncertainty as to what the government will do to the railroads, as to what it will do to business generally, as to what business is going to do for itself.

We are having a glut of caution.

That hurts!

A Big Lubricant.

If a billion dollars be turned loose by the railroads on improvements, what will happen?

I'll record four sales a day where I now record one. Why?

That billion dollars will mean several ditch-diggers, draughtsmen, clerks, surveyors, mill hands, contractors, etc., at work where now there is one.

They'll need housing. You need a lot for a house. See the connection? That billion will be a big lubricant to business, oozing down into the smallest cog of the machinery in every American state.

Cheers, Too.

If I get my share, other industries and activities will get their share.

The wholesale and retail grocer.
The clothier, retail and wholesale.
The coal man, the ice man.
The furniture man.
The insurance man.
The amusement man.

Every activity that bears on life and its maintenance.

Army to Be Supported.

Why?

Because the great army to be directly and indirectly affected by this huge expenditure will make requisition upon these producing agencies hardly equaled in our history.

In turn, what does that mean?

Impulse to Prosperity.

It means an irresistible impulse to prosperity now just poised for a record run; it means the death knell of paralyzing uncertainty; it means whaling big rush in every big and little business, responding to the "magic word."

You do well to say that all this depends upon the good faith and honesty of the railroads. They must give and observe that pledge.

But it is up to us to remember our obligation and our stake in the pot.

The phrase, "interlocking interests," sounds mighty good to me.

DAILY GRIST from the STATE'S POLITICAL GRIND

Most reassuring to any candidate for public office would be such promise of support as has been accorded State Superintendent of Education M. L. Brittain by the Oconee board of education in resolutions drawn and adopted last Saturday at the board meeting.

The support offered by the Oconee county board is based upon the services of the state superintendent in his past administration.

The resolutions are as follows:

"Resolved, that we note with gratitude the splendid efforts of Hon. M. L. Brittain, state school superintendent, for the advancement of our schools and educational interests; indorse heartily his administration of the affairs of this important office, and assure him of our hearty support in the coming primary."

The members of the board present were W. S. Elder, president; James M. Mayne, L. C. Crow and W. W. Jordan. J. W. McWhorter is superintendent of schools of the county.

JUDGES ROAN AND WADE PRESENT AT HEARING MONDAY MORNING

When the court of appeals sat for the hearing of cases Monday morning, the two new judges—Judges Roan and Wade—were present, for the first time since their appointment.

Both have been present at other sittings of the court, but not at the same time. Immediately after the appointment of Judge Wade, Judge Roan went to Florida for his health. He has just returned, and is feeling much better.

The next batch of decisions from the appellate court will probably contain opinions from both the new judges.

As yet, Judge Roan has not announced whether or not he will stand for re-election.

The only candidate now in view for the place at the expiration of the term is Judge Broyles.

SAYS PROGRESSIVE PARTY NEEDS COOL HEADS IN GEORGIA NOW

Following the recent meeting of the Bull Moosers in Atlanta, at which time they declared it their mind to put forth a state ticket, a meeting of the executive committee of the same has been called to meet at the Ansley hotel, in Atlanta, Friday, March 27, noon.

At this meeting the question of the state ticket will be thoroughly threshed out, and it may be that the state ticket will be declared then and there.

The call for this meeting comes in a circular letter sent out by Dean E. Ryman, secretary of the committee. His letter concludes with the following expose of internal conditions of the progressive party in Georgia:

"The progressive party is at the parting of the ways in Georgia. Never before was it in such dire need of cool and level heads at its important places, never before was it in such straits for unprejudiced and clear-sighted counsellors in its committee meetings. On what we do now depends whether our candidates and our policies shall win public approval or whether our party shall go out ignominiously—a discredited and forgotten institution, the by-product of a tremendous awakening of the public conscience over the entire nation. Political waters in Georgia in 1914 are very troubled. The situation here is not easily interpreted. We need your counsel."

M'CALLIE IS INVITED TO JOIN GOOD ROADS SCOUTING PARTY

Dr. S. W. McCallie, state geologist, has been invited to become a member of the government good roads scouting party on that part of its journey from Augusta to Atlanta. He has been asked to join the party in Augusta on March 25. The government scouts will leave Augusta March 27, arriving in Atlanta March 28. The scouting party consists of Captain P. St. J. Willson, assistant director of the United States office of public roads; Leonard Tufts, chairman of the maintenance committee of the American Highway association; George P. Coleman, state highway commissioner of Virginia; Dr. Joseph Hyde Pratt, state geologist of North Carolina; Preston Belvin, president State Automobile Association of Virginia; Colonel Bennehan Cameron, of Starkville, N. C.; George C. Scales, W. L. Spoon and D. H. Winslow, highway engineers of the United States office of public roads.

WRIGHT THINKS SOMEBODY IS TRYING TO RUN HIM OUT OF DEMOCRATIC PARTY

Rome, Ga., March 23.—(Special.)—"Why should a lot of red-nosed, round-bellied fellows want to get me out of the democratic party?" was the cryptic query of Seaborn Wright, Rome's noted prohibition orator, when asked if he had any intention of running for United States senator on a Bull Moose platform.

At a recent meeting of the progressive party in Atlanta, his name and that of Harry Stillwell Edwards, of Macon, was mentioned in this connection. Mr. Wright made light of the possibility of his leaving the democratic party. He left today for a lecture tour through Indiana.

POLITICAL FACTIONS DIVIDED IN DOUGHERTY PRIMARY TODAY

Albany, Ga., March 23.—(Special.)—In tomorrow's primary there are five candidates for tax receiver of Dougherty county, two for clerk of the superior court, two for treasurer, two for sheriff and three for tax collector.

It is the biggest field of candidates which has offered for county offices in Dougherty in many years. The political factions are badly split up, and the Men and Religion organization promises to be a factor in the contest.

COMMITTEE SETS APRIL 25 AS DATE OF WHITE CO. PRIMARY

Cleveland, Ga., March 23.—(Special)—April 25 was named Saturday by the democratic executive committee of White county for the election of county officers. Up to a few days ago very little interest was shown in county politics, but from present indications there will be a lively time before election day is over.

There are five announced candidates for treasurer's place, two for sheriff and several announcements are expected right away for the various county offices.

Only one man, T. V. Cantrell, Sr., has entered the race for the state legislature, but two or three more are expected to enter soon.

Bainbridge, Ga., March 23.—(Special.)—This is Decatur's time to choose the state senator from this district and his friends are urging Mr. J. W. Callahan to consent to make the race. It is conceded that if he gets into the race early enough there will be no opposition.

This morning, when questioned, he declared he was in the race. He said that so many urgent requests had been made upon him that he did not feel he could longer decline.

"I will not make formal announcement until the date for the state primary is set after the meeting of the state committee in Atlanta," he declared.

Mr. Callahan is one of the biggest men in southwest Georgia. He is big and broad and progressive. His home town of Bainbridge owes him much as developer and he stands among the highest in the estimation of all who know him.

HON. W. R. REID, OF CRAWFORDVILLE, ANNOUNCES FOR STATE SENATE

Crawfordville, Ga., March 23.—(Special.) Ex-State Senator W. R. Reid, of Crawfordville, has definitely announced his candidacy for nomination to the state senate, this being Taliaferro's time under the rotation system.

He makes formal announcement in the current issue of the local paper. He favors a strong enforcement of the prohibition law, the furnishing of school books at the actual cost of production and liberal pension laws for confederate veterans and widows.

It is generally believed here that the nomination will go to him without opposition, having made the district an excellent senator when he represented it before. Mr. Reid is one of the most enterprising citizens of the county and is a strong business man. He has the confidence and respect not only of the people of the county, but of this section of the state, where he is most intimately known.

HON. W. R. REID,
Of Crawfordville.

WARM RACE FOR SHERIFF NOW GOING ON IN TALBOT COUNTY

Talbotton, Ga., March 23.—(Special.)—The race is beginning to get very warm in this county between R. P. McDaniel and Tillman Mahone, candidates for office of sheriff. Much interest is being manifested in the race. Nomination for all county offices will be held March 27. J. G. Carlisle, a former candidate for sheriff, has come down.

Hon. Tinsley Ragland, candidate for the office of representative, is so far unopposed. W. W. Childs will oppose Henry Williams, of Woodland, for county treasurer.

The cold don't kill the country when a blizzard makes a call;
There'll be mockingbirds a-singing in the peach blooms after all;

Not forlorn,

The daisies, like a rainbow, will be runnin' round the town!
For all your snowy warnin' Joy like a river flows,
An' the Sweetheart o' the Mornin' will hand the world a rose!

"Miss Maybelle Hug is on the sick list.

"Miss Emma Hug has been assisting her aunt with house work for a few days.

"Mary Hug is in school again after several weeks' absence."

Where Night and Morning meet,
And if they'd only listen they'd hear the world's heart beat!

CLUB TO REBUILD EAST LAKE HOME

Draw Plans for Submis- Committee Is Appointed to Decide Upon Architect to sion to Membership.

The board of directors of the Atlanta Athletic club met Monday morning and appointed a committee for the purpose of taking immediate steps toward the erection of a new country clubhouse at East Lake to replace the $50,000 structure which was totally destroyed by fire late Sunday night.

The special committee on the new country clubhouse, consisting of George Adair, chairman: Tom B. Paine and L. D. Scott, will meet today and decide upon an architect to draw the plans for the new clubhouse, which will be submitted to the members of the club for approval.

Mr. Adair stated last night that every effort would be made by the building committee to furnish an up-to-date country clubhouse, with every known feature of a modern country club. "We have $40,000 on hand from the insurance on the burned clubhouse," stated Mr. Adair, "and there will be a meeting of the members of the club on next Saturday night for the purpose of authorizing the committee as to what amount of money elsewhere can be obtained for the purpose."

Only Popular Subscription.

In reply to the rumors that it was the purpose of the club to issue an assessment of $5 a month for ten months upon each one of the 1,000 members, thus raising $50,000, Mr. Adair positively declared that the board of directors held no such intentions. "Only popular subscriptions from the membership will be taken," said Mr. Adair, "and we expect that about $15,000 or $20,000 will be raised in this manner."

By noon Monday the entire supply of golf sticks and equipment of Atlanta's sporting goods houses had been sold out to club members of the Athletic club.

Stewart Maiden, the club golf professional, for the accommodation of club members, purchased a large supply of golf clubs from the local dealers, and has had them carried out to East Lake and installed in the boathouse, where those members who have lost ttheir clubs might secure them.

Dances at Town House.

A. V. Gude, a director and chairman of the dance committee, stated in regard to the regular Saturday night club dances, that arrangements would probably be perfected whereby the week-end dances could be held at the downtown clubhouse on Auburn avenue in the large gymnasium.

Several suggestions have been discussed by the men in charge of erecting the new country club. Among them are to make plans for big terraces to run around the clubhouse, and to extend from the clubhouse down to the lake side; to build a large dance hall in a wing of the building, and not to have any supports in the dance hall, as was the case in the dance hall of the burned clubhouse; to provide locker rooms and dressing rooms with large windows on the sides, and to provide for a private safe to be used exclusively by the men members of the club.

MRS. LEWIS IS INJURED IN STREET CAR ACCIDENT

Mrs. H. T. Lewis, one of the best known women of Decatur, lies seriously injured at her home following an accident last Wednesday when she boarded an Atlanta-bound car and was thrown violently, striking her head on a tail gate and all but fracturing her skull.

Mrs. Lewis stepped aboard the car at Church street, Decatur. The car was running without a conductor, so witnesses aver. As Mrs. Lewis mounted the boarding step the motorman, believing her to be aboard, turned on the power. Mrs. Lewis was jerked to the rear platform and thrown violently to the car platform.

BURGLARS LOOT HOME; JEWELS ARE STOLEN

The detective department of the police is working to arrest the two negroes who were seen by Mrs. D. G. Wise, of No. 275 Courtland street, and her sister, Mrs. E. H. Fell, leaping out of a window of their home when they returned home late Saturday afternoon.

Upon making investigation of the house, the two ladies discovered that a thorough search had been made by the negroes in efforts to steal valuables. They found missing jewelry and clothing worth about $500, including a diamond brooch valued at $300, and a diamond locket valued at $150.

APPEAL BY SAM STOE FOR NEW TRIAL DENIED

Sam Stoe, convicted white slaver, sentenced, after trial by Judge Newman, of the United States court, to five years in the federal penitentiary near Atlanta, is now awaiting an order of removal by Judge Newman from the Fulton county jail, where he has been confined since his conviction and sentence, to the federal prison. Attorneys Haralson and Foster presented to Judge Newman their reasons for a new trial they were given a patient hearing, but when the convicted man's attorneys had completed their argument Judge Newman, without hesitancy, overruled the motion. Mrs. Stoe, convicted of the same federal offense, is still a resident in the Fulton county jail awaiting sentence by Judge Newman.

HADEN ROBBERY CASE SUSPECT IS ARRESTED

Robber Caught With Goods in Spartanburg Believe the Atlanta Police.

Police Chief James L. Beavers declared last night that the mystery surrounding the disappearance of the valuable jewels of Mrs. Charles J. Haden, of No. 1219 Peachtree road, which were stolen some time Saturday from the residence, has now been cleared up. A telegram was received Monday afternoon by him from the police at Spartanburg, S. C., stating that a suspect, who gave his name as J. C. Reeves, and said he lived in Atlanta, had been arrested there when he tried to pawn a handsome pair of opera glasses on which were engraved the initials of Mrs. Haden.

When Reeves was arrested and searched the police discovered on his person, concealed in his clothing, several pieces of valuable jewelry, answering the description of the stolen jewelry from the Haden residence. Chief Beavers has sent a detective to Spartanburg to bring him back to Atlanta.

The first time Mrs. Haden missed her jewels, valued at $1,000, was Saturday night, when she was searching for her husband's shaving set.

A strange coincidence is connected with the robbery. On Friday Mrs. Haden states that she began to fear for the safety of her jewels when she read alarming accounts of the large number of robberies in the city from a newspaper. She then had her husband to remove the larger part, containing her most valuable jewels, to a safety vault in a downtown bank. Saturday the jewels were stolen. The robber missed a still bigger haul by the narrow margin of one day.

The jewels stolen consisted of a pearl necklace, a diamond brooch, an enameled pin set with diamonds, an expensive Swiss watch and a pearl and gold pair of opera glasses. A small black lynx fur also was taken.

Death of Barker Gummere Is Source of Deep Regret To Many Atlanta Friends

News of the death of Barker Gummere, of Trenton, N. J., will be a source of regret to many Atlantans who know so well his wife who was the beautiful Daisy Breaux, of New Orleans, and who frequently visited here, as a guest of the family of the late Major Mims and of the late Mrs. Joseph Thompson.

Mr. Gummere belongs to a distinguished family, who have contributed richly to the citizenship of the nation for many generations. He was in the diplomatic service for years, retiring from active professional and public life five years ago, and subsequently establishing his residence at a beautiful estate near Princeton, N. J. His brother is Judge Gummere, chief justice of New Jersey.

Mr. and Mrs. Gummere were in New York, preparatory to sailing to the Burmudas, when he was taken ill with pneumonia, and died there at a hospital. The funeral took place in Princeton last week.

BABY DROWNED IN TUB WHILE PLAYING IN YARD

Dr. W. Wendell Whitson, of Morrow, Ga., while stopping in Atlanta for a few days in order to continue his trip to Alabama, received a telephone message last night from his wife in Morrow, stating that their 2-year-old baby boy, during the afternoon while playing in the back yard, had fallen in a bathtub of water and had drowned.

Mrs. Whitson stated that she had allowed the baby to go out in the back yard with some other little playmates to play and that when she heard the screams of the children who had witnessed the accident she rushed into the back yard to see the cause of the trouble. Seeing her baby in the tub and the helpless efforts of his baby playmates to rescue her boy, she rushed to the bathtub and caught her baby.

Mr. Whitson took the first train back to Morrow last night.

H. D. Flemming, of 17 Herean avenue, was bound over to the higher court by Judge Broyles Monday afternoon under a $200 bond on a unique charge, termed by the judge "larceny from the stocking."

Two young girls, Alma Maloney and Amelia Davis, testified that Flemming had doped and drugged Alma, who is a young Turkish girl, threatening to cut her heart strings out if she did not take the dope, and that Flemming had then proceeded to take seven one-dollar bills from her stocking. When Flemming was arrested, the dope and the seven one-dollar bills were found on him.

Carrollton, Ga., March 23.—(Special.) Captain James B. Martin, of this place, died at Newnan this afternoon at the residence of his son-in-law, F. J. Lyle. He was the oldest native of Carroll county, being born in 1836.

He was admitted to the bar when a young man, but abandoned the profession for the more congenial one of farming. He was with the western army and received a severe injury and surrendered at Vicksburg in 1863. Out of thirty captains from Carroll county, he has survived them all. He was a man of good education, wide information, a magnetic personality and was honored and beloved by all who knew him.

SOUTH GEORGIA CROPS NOT DAMAGED BY FROST

Thomasville, Ga., March 23.—(Special.)—A heavy frost and plenty of thin ice which Thomasville people found on arising this morning did not seem very spring-like, but indications are that comparatively little damage has resulted from them. Watermelons and corn crops were not sufficiently advanced to be injured to any extent. Early vegetables were nipped somewhat, but not killed.

It is hoped that the Leconte pear crop was not seriously damaged, as many of the blooms were not fully opened. Such cold weather so late in March is very unusual for this section.

AUGUSTA PLANS PROBE OF TELEGRAPH TOLLS

Stated That Georgia Cities Are Discriminated Against in Commercial Messages.

Augusta, Ga., March 23.—(Special.) The Merchants and Manufacturers' association has ordered an investigation of discrimination against Augusta and Savannah in particular, and incidentally Macon, Atlanta and other Georgia cities in the matter of commercial telegraph tolls between those points and New York.

Attorney E. G. Kalbfleisch, chairman of the legislative commission of that organization and who is already handling the cotton rate case before the interstate commerce commission, leaves here Wednesday for Washington to investigate the showing made in the special report on telegraph conditions compiled by the postmaster general and referred to the president of the United States senate.

That report shows that Memphis, more than 1,100 miles from New York, pays a commercial rate of 50 cents to New York and 4 cents a word for more than ten words, while Augusta, Savannah, Atlanta and other points, from 700 to 800 miles distant, pay a commercial rate of 60 cents and 4 cents for each additional word over ten.

The case will, following Mr. Kalbfleisch's investigation, be taken to the interstate commerce commission.

Man and Girl Who Fell From Seaboard Trestle Are Improving Rapidly

Both Edward Hule and Miss Mabel Bigby, the couple who were seriously injured when a Seaboard express train struck them while they were walking across a high trestle, near the Empire Cotton Oil company plant, near Minor station, will recover. This fact was ascertained late Monday afternoon. Hule, who was at first believed to have sustained a fractured skull, rested easy during Monday and by nightfall the attending physicians at the Atlanta hospital were of the opinion that the fracture diagnosis had been premature and that the youth had suffered only a bad contusion and was severely shaken up.

Miss Bigby will probably be able to leave the hospital the middle part of this week.

Friends sent the couple many floral offerings on Monday, the Tech students remembering Hule with a huge vase of roses.

Miss Bigby, the injured girl, is a sister of Mrs. Allen Marsh and of Mrs. Henry Clark, both well-known Atlantans.

PRINCIPLE ANNOUNCED FOR FREIGHT TRAFFIC

Washington, March 23.—The interstate commerce commission today announced this principle which applies to all freight traffic:

"A carload minimum weight, which is reasonably adapted to the needs of the carriers and the great majority of shippers, will not be increased because one shipper, by the expenditure of exceptional effort and expense finds himself able to load more heavily than can his competitors; neither will this commission under such circumstances prescribe a lower rate than 100 pounds conditional upon the use of a higher minimum weight as the measure of the carload."

overcome rheumatism is our own well-known Georgia medicine, the famous blood purifier, S. S. S. Its action is quite remarkable. Whatever may be your theory as to the cause of rheumatism or kind of rheumatism, just remember this: S. S. S. has the peculiar action of soaking through the intestines directly into the blood. In five minutes its influence is at work in every artery, vein and tiny capillary. Every membrane, every organ of the body, every emunctory becomes in effect a filter to strain the blood of impurities. The stimulating properties of S. S. S. compel the skin, liver, bowels, kidneys, bladder to all work to the one end of casting out every irritating, every pain-inflicting atom of poison; and scatters those peculiar formations in the nerve centers that cause such mystifying and often baffling rheumatic pains.

FOR "CLEAN ATLANTA" CHAMBER WILL APPEAL

Appeal Intended for Grand Opera Week as Well as for Shriners.

Every school child, every housewife, every grown person will hear this week the appeal of the chamber of commerce street committee who have banded with the city authorities in the campaign for a "clean city when the Shriners come."

Not only has this appeal been sent out to apply especially during Shrine week, but the chamber body has asked that the town's face be washed and its streets combed by grand opera week.

The chamber of commerce committee met Monday and the plans for a "clean sweep" took on definite form. Property owners will be urged, through the newspapers as well as by the sanitary inspectors of the city, to clean up front and back yards, to help keep street gutters clear of trash, to plant flowers in the front yards, using Shrine colors wherever possible, and in every way co-operate with the civic bodies looking toward making Atlanta's physical appearance a "thing of beauty and a joy forever."

NEGRO KILLS WIFE IN CHURCH, THEN COMMITS SUICIDE

Athens, Ga., March 23.—(Special.)—At Friendship church, East Athens, last night Sam Cephers, a negro about 36 years old, shot and killed his wife, walked 400 yards to his home, sat down in his wife's chair and shot himself through the head.

Unusual for one of his race to suicide, the case had other unusual features. The pair had been disagreeing for a month or more; yesterday when the woman, with her sister, went to the church to attend a woman's missionary meeting, he followed, walked to where she sat, in the presence of three or four others in that part of the building, placed his arm about the woman, pulled her close to him, and fired four shots into her, three in the body and one in the base of the skull, breaking her neck.

PROBES BY THE SENATE ARE RATHER EXPENSIVE

Washington, March 23.—Investigations of various sorts conducted by the United States senate between February 9, 1910, and March 15, 1914, cost the government $163,514.72. Senator John Sharp Williams, chairman of the committee on contingent expenses, furnished the figures to the senate today, and urged that investigations should not be ordered into everything that someone insists should be inquired into.

Among the expensive investigations were the following: Cost of living, $8,709; first Lorimer inquiry, $10,141; internal revenue customs division, $4,184; needs of the people of Alaska, $1,777; second Lorimer inquiry, $58,166; postoffice department, $2,944; trusts, $2,922; Senator Stephenson's election, $12,998; Titanic disaster, $3,314; campaign contribution, $8,068; disorders in Mexico, $7,442; Paint and Cabin creek coal strike, $7,927, and lobbying operations, $10,159.

The senator merely submitted the figures for the information of his colleagues.

52,000 Pounds of Brooks County Hams Bought by Florida Concern

Quitman, Ga., March 23.—(Special.)—A remarkable evidence of the growing demand for Brooks county hams was demonstrated today when a traveling man from Jacksonville found, upon his arrival here, a letter from a Jacksonville delicatessen concern asking him to see if there was not some possibly way for him to get shipped to them 1,000 pounds a week of Brooks county hams, stating they had been unable to get any one in the country to agree to ship, claiming demand was greater than supply.

He found one party who agreed to ship for one year 1,000 pounds of ham per week.

This is claimed to be the largest single order for meat ever sent out of Georgia, and marks the beginning of a new era in Brooks county, as it has demonstrated what can be done.

SHOT BY BROTHER-IN-LAW IN QUARREL OVER LOAN

J. W. Watkins, of Taylorsville, Mortally Wounded by Auburn Bailey.

Cartersville, Ga., March 23.—(Special.)—J. W. Watkins, a middle-aged man of this county, was this morning shot and mortally wounded by his brother-in-law, Auburn Bailey, after the two men had disputed concerning the repayment of $150 that was said to have been loaned to Bailey by Watkins' wife during Watkins' absence from home a short while ago.

Bailey, who is a young man and married, gave himself up to the authorities and is now in Bartow county jail in Cartersville.

The last report from Taylorsville, the scene of the shooting, stated that Watkins had succumbed to the wound, which was inflicted just above his heart.

Bailey claims that Watkins demanded the money from him and, upon being refused, declared he would come into Bailey's house and get him. Bailey invited him in and, after a scuffle, a 38-calibre pistol, in the hand of Bailey, was fired, injecting a bullet into Watkins' body. Both men are prominent in this neighborhood.

"The World and His Wife" Enjoyed by Woman's Club

The Atlanta Woman's club held one of the most interesting meetings of the season yesterday afternoon when Mrs. William Elder Spiker, chairman of the literature committee, gave a dramatic reading of the Spanish play, "El Gran Galioto." Preliminary to the reading, Mrs. Spiker gave a short sketch of the dramatist, Jose Echegaray, who is one of the most noted modern playwrights, and told something of his best-known plays, of which El Gran Galioto stands first. Mrs. Spiker explained that the title meant "The Tongue of Gossip," and the translation from which she read was made by Charles Nirdlinger, and is known as "The World and His Wife." The play tells of the evil done by gossip. The play offers splendid opportunities for dramatic ability, and Mrs. Spiker's interpretation was impressive and convincing.

The usual business session of the club was held before the afternoon was turned over to Mrs. Spiker, Mrs. A. P. Coles, president, being in the chair. Mrs. Coles announced that Mrs. H. R. Wey, chairman of the Students' aid committee, was very ill, and the corresponding secretary was instructed to extend the sympathy of the club to her and her family.

A charming tribute was paid to Mrs. Lollie Belle Wylie, whose play, "The Golden Goose," recently won a prize offered by Norman Hackett for the best play written by a local writer. Mrs. Coles made a graceful speech in presenting Mrs. Wylie with a beautiful bouquet of roses in behalf of the Woman's club as a token of their appreciation of her literary ability. Upon the motion of Mrs. W. B. Price-Smith, the club indorsed the work of the committee to investigate vocational training of which Senator Hoke Smith is chairman.

Mrs. Leo Grossman extended an invitation to the club members to attend a book shower to be given at the Jewish Temple for the benefit of the Jewish Educational Alliance.

A short talk was made by Mrs. John Marshall Slaton with regard to the Philharmonic orchestra. Mrs. Slaton explained the nature of this organization, and asked the co-operation of the Woman's club in enlarging its membership and making it a permanent local orchestra.

Mrs. Coles announced that Mrs. Hamilton Douglas would give a lecture on "The Rise of the Republican Form of Government," at the clubhouse on Baker street, Thursday morning at 11 o'clock.

Mrs. Slaton to Read.

Mrs. John M. Slaton will read at the Ansley hotel Friday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock, under the auspices of Committee No. 6, of the St. Mark's Methodist church. Mrs. Robert C. Blackbourne will read, and there will be a bright musical program.

Youthful Musicians.

Miss Evelyn Jackson has issued invitations for Friday, March 27, at 4 o'clock, 589 Piedmont avenue, to a recital by the members of her primary class.

Federal Grand Jury Meets.

The United States grand jury, Frank Hawkins foreman, was in session yesterday morning for three or four hours after an adjournment ten days ago. During the session fifteen true bills were returned. It is reported that all the bills charged violations of internal revenue laws. Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Robinson, of New York, Charm Atlanta During Their Brief Stay Here; See the Cradle in Which Roosevelt Was Rocked

Atlanta is accustomed to indulge in the pleasure of entertaining visitors; it has been her custom since even those early days after the war, when there were not many houses left in which to entertain. The best she had to give she has always given. It has made no difference where the visitors came from if they were the "kind" of people Atlanta liked. Whether they came from Maine, the northwest or California, if they were just that "kind" of people Atlanta has opened ever wide her hospitable doors.

Of the many who have visited Atlanta in her more prosperous days, many coming as strangers, no two people have won a more responsive admiration than Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Robinson, of New York, who, though they but arrived in Atlanta Saturday evening, might claim now as friends every Atlantan they have met, and that is many.

Mrs. Douglas Robinson, sister of former President Roosevelt, visits Atlanta store to see cradle, in which her brother once slept. Sunday Mrs. Robinson and her husband visited the old Bulloch home in Roswell, and last night they left for Savannah.

Visit Bulloch Hall.

They came to visit Bulloch hall, the birthplace of Mrs. Robinson's mother, and, escorted by Mr. Forrest Adair, spent the greater part of Sunday afternoon there. It will be recalled that Colonel Roosevelt was never too busy on his several visits here to go to the old home. He had brought to his sister, Mrs. Robinson, stories of the place pictures of it, and inspired her desire to see it. With Mrs. Baker, that distinguished Georgia lady who was bridesmaid to "Mittie" Bulloch, afterwards Mrs. Roosevelt, Mr. and Mrs. Robinson went over the old home and its gardens Sunday. "What a beautiful woman Mrs. Baker is now, and how beautiful she must have been in the period of time when she was bridesmaid," one of the gentlemen of the party remarked.

Mrs. Robinson repeated it to Mrs. Baker, who replied, "I may have been pretty then, but not half so pretty as 'Mittie' Bulloch, your mother, was."

And this beauty has been inherited, the consensus of all who have met the beautiful and gracious Mrs. Robinson, whose joyous spirit radiates with charm, and who has met with that genuine and cordial welcome Atlanta feels toward her, coming, as she has, to the home of her mother. Brilliant in mind, conversant with that world knowledge, a characteristic of the men and women of her family, and possessed of that social grace inherited from generations of gentle folk, she has a personality that wins and holds wherever she is.

"Why don't the women come downstairs and go into dinner?" asked a gentleman, impatiently, at the Driving club Saturday night. "It is late and we are all waiting."

"They are all in the dressing room listening to the most fascinating lady I ever heard tell anything," said a debutante, as she arrived at the bottom of the steps. "She is a Mrs. Robinson, but I could not get close enough to meet her." That incident illustrated the conquest of Mrs. Robinson from the moment Atlanta had the pleasure of receiving her.

Are Entertained Here.

Mr. and Mrs. Forrest Adair entertained Mr. and Mrs. Robinson at dinner Saturday night; they met with friends informally at the Georgian Terrace Sunday night, after their afternoon drive to Roswell, and dined last night with Mr. and Mrs. Clark Howell.

Mr. Robinson shared very equally the popularity of his charming wife. Proof of that was given in the fact that he was being called "colonel" a few hours after his arrival. "It isn't the first time he has been called that," explained Mrs. Robinson, and she told a good story on her husband. During the Roosevelt administration Mr. and Mrs. Robinson, at a large reception, were singled out as relations to the president, and a western statesman, fearing his daughter had not fully appreciated who they were, introduced Mr. Robinson for the second time, saying, "My dear, did you meet Mr. Robinson? He is the president's brother-in-law."

"Yes," said the charming creature, "but I didn't know he was that. I thought he was one of those southern colonels."

See Roosevelt's Cradle.

Mrs. Robinson departed last night, with her husband, a prominent real estate promoter of New York. During Monday afternoon she paid a visit to the store of C. W. McClure, at Hunter and Broad streets, where she gazed for the first time upon the cradle in which her brother, the ex-president, slept during his infancy at Bulloch Hall—his birthplace.

And while there she consented to pose for a photograph. A few hours previously she had posed at police headquarters with Judge Broyles, whose court she had visited during the morning session.

"These are the first newspaper pictures for which I have posed for a long time," she told the reporters and photographers. "I hardly know why I am doing it, except that it must be the effect of southern folks on a semi-southern woman. I just simply can't refuse."

"BASS" ROSSER IS SUED BY WIFE FOR ALIMONY

"Bass" Rosser, well-known city detective, was defendant in an action for alimony and custody of two children, brought by his wife, Mrs. E. M. Rosser, in Judge Bell's division of the superior court, on Monday.

Mrs. Rosser, on the witness stand, declared that Rosser had not contributed much to her support or to the support of the two children, one aged 9 and the other aged 11, although during their married life Mrs. Rosser had taken in boarders and worked hard to assist in a common income.

The alimony action showed that the couple were married in June, 1901, and were separated in October, 1913.

Judge Bell reserved decision in the case, declaring he will await further testimony before setting the alimony or awarding the custody of the children, who are now with their mother.

DEBATERS INDORSE FORWARD MOVEMENT

Emory College, Oxford, Ga., March 23.—(Special.)—By a singular coincidence Phi Gamma and Few Literary societies, at their regular weekly meetings this morning, debated the Men and Religion Forward Movement in Atlanta. In both societies the affirmatives, favoring the movement and the bulletins, won the decision.

Federal Prison Negro Goes on Trial Today For Killing a Convict

Walter Keller, negro convict, sent to the Atlanta penitentiary for five years from Arkansas, and who stands indicted before the federal court for murder, will be brought before Judge Newman, of the United States court, this morning for trial.

The indictment to which Keller will plead charges that on January 15, 1913, he struck John Odendyke, a white convict doing five years imposed by New Jersey federal courts, in the face with his fist. The blow by the negro convict knocked the white convict to the hard concrete floor in the prison kitchen. Either the fist blow or the fall upon the concrete floor caused the death of Odendyke within a few minutes.

WILLIAM C. SMITH DIES AT PRIVATE SANITARIUM

William C. Smith, aged 46 years, died last night at 11 o'clock at a private sanitarium. He was division manager of the American Tobacco company, of New York city. His brothers, C. P. and J. R. Smith, of Martinsville, Va., were with him at the time of his death. He also leaves his father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Smith, and two sisters, Mrs. T. N. Barbour and Mrs. H. G. Peters. He was a member of the Masons and of the United Commercial Travelers. The body was removed to Patterson's chapel, and will be carried today to Martinsville, his old home, for funeral and interment.

GOV. FERRIS IS ACCUSED BY INDICTED MINERS

Houghton, Mich., March 23.—Charges that Governor Woodbridge N. Ferris, of Michigan, influenced the Houghton county grand jury before that body assembled to consider the copper mine strike cases, were made in one of the pleas of abatement filed today with Circuit Judge O'Brien by counsel for Charles H. Moyer, president of the Western Federation of Miners, and thirty-seven other officers and members, of that organization now under indictment for conspiracy. Judge O'Brien earlier today had denied a motion to quash the indictments.

SUNDAY SCHOOL RACE IS WON BY WEST END

The contest between the Christian Sunday school of West End and the Christian Sunday school of Winder, Ga., closed Sunday morning. On the closing day Winder reported an attendance of 245, and West End had 839. West End won by a margin of 708 points.

GORGAS IS HONORED BY LONDON DOCTORS

London, March 23.—The medical profession of London gave a dinner tonight to Brigadier General William C. Gorgas, surgeon general of the United States army, as a tribute to the splendid work done by him as chief of the sanitary department at Panama.

Viscount Bryce, of Dechment, former ambassador at Washington, presided. Lord Bryce and Lewis Harcourt, the secretary of state for the colonies, were instrumental in having General Gorgas investigate the conditions in the South African mines, from which he has just returned.

Sir Blavelock Charles paid a glowing tribute to General Gorgas, who responded in a characteristically modest speech.

Ambassador Page replied to the toast to the president of the United States in a speech which he read from a typewritten manuscript. He warmly commented on the president's co-operation with congress. He said that the president's method of approaching congress directly was scientific, as well as human and friendly, and that congress had responded in as handsome way as the president had displayed in approaching it and had thus far proved to be the most industrious and efficient congress assembled in a lifetime.

General Gorgas will go to Oxford with Sir William Osler to receive the degree of doctor of science.

NIECE'S WILL ATTACKED BY JAMES K. HACKETT

New York, March 23.—A suit involving more than $1,000,000 in the estate of the late Mrs. Minnie Hackett Trowbridge was brought today on benefit of several relatives, who seek to set aside her will bequeathing this money to public institutions and to friends.

The whole Trowbridge estate was valued at more than $2,000,000. Half of this amount was bequeathed to Mrs. Trowbridge's husband, whom she survived, and his share goes automatically to his nearest relatives, one of whom is James K. Hackett, the actor. Hackett, who was Mrs. Trowbridge's half-uncle, was along with other relatives cut off in the will.

Fighting Hookworm in Orient.

London, March 23.—The departure was announced today of Dr. Wycliffe Rose, secretary of the Rockefeller sanitary commission, on his way to Egypt, Ceylon and the Malay states, where he is to undertake a campaign against the hookworm disease. The colonial office, in referring to Dr. Rose's mission, describes the action of the Rockefeller foundation in providing means for this campaign in the British colonies as "an international departure."

SOLID YEAR OF MISERY
After a Solid Year of Misery, Bordering on Hopelessness, a Grateful Change Comes of a Sudden.
Monticello, Ga.—Miss Tommie Bowden, of this town, says: "I suffered for one long year with serious womanly troubles—and it became so bad that I thought no remedy could cure my case.
I was nervous, at times, and had a sick headache so bad that I could hardly bend over.
I tried two different kinds of medicine, but they did me no good.
I then began taking Cardui, the woman's tonic, and I hadn't used it but one day before I felt a great change. I continued taking it, and I know it saved my life. I believe it is worth its weight in gold.
I hope every lady who suffers from womanly trouble will try Cardui. I praise it to every lady I meet, and my sister also recommends it as the best of medicines for women."
Do you suffer from any of the numerous ailments so common to women, such as headache, backache, sideache, nervousness, sleeplessness, etc.? Have you that tired, weak, wornout feeling? If so, we urge you to take Cardui, the woman's tonic. It has not only relieved thousands of women suffering from serious womanly ailments, but has also been found an excellent tonic for that tired-out feeling.
Get a bottle of Cardui today.

COULD NOT STAND ON FEET

Mrs. Baker So Weak—Could Not Do Her Work—Found Relief In Novel Way.

Adrian, Mich. — "I suffered terribly with female weakness and backache and got so weak that I could hardly do my work. When I washed my dishes I had to sit down and when I would sweep the floor I would get so weak that I would have to get a drink every few minutes, and before I did my dusting I would have to lie down. I got so poorly that my folks thought I was going into consumption. One day I found a piece of paper blowing around the yard and I picked it up and read it. It said 'Saved from the Grave,' and told what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done for women. I showed it to my husband and he said, 'Why don't you try it?' So I did, and after I had taken two bottles I felt better and I said to my husband, 'I don't need any more,' and he said 'You had better take it a little longer anyway.' So I took it for three months and got well and strong."—Mrs. ALONZO E. BAKER, 9 Tecumseh St., Adrian, Mich.

Whether in house, office, factory, shop, store or kitchen, woman should remember that there is one tried and true remedy for the ills to which all women are prone, and that is Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. It promotes that vigor which makes work easy. The Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass.

STUDENTS' CONVENTION INVITED TO ATLANTA

Meeting Is Intended to Interest Negroes in Evangelization of Africa.

Resolutions urging Dr. John R. Mott, chairman of the continuation committee of the Edinburgh Missionary conference, to hold the students' missionary convention in Atlanta, were adopted at a joint meeting of white and negro pastors at the First Baptist church yesterday.

The convention will be held during the month of May for the benefit of students from the negro colleges of the south. The convention will be held for the purpose of enlisting the interest of students and their co-operation in the propaganda for the evangelization of Africa.

Resolutions offered by Dr. C. W. Daniel, pastor of the First Baptist church, indorsing the campaign by leaders of both races to solve the religious problems of the life of the community, were adopted.

The meeting held Monday resulted from the efforts of W. Woods White, who personally engineered the arrangements.

The call for the meeting was issued by the following ministers and religious workers:

Dr. Walker Allowed To Accept the Call Of California Church

The Atlanta presbytery informed Dr. Hugh K. Walker Monday morning that he could accept the recent call to the First Presbyterian church at Long Beach, Cal., although they declared that the First Presbyterian church of Atlanta, whose pulpit Dr. Walker has occupied for the past two years, is at present in a critical stage and needs his guidance.

Many of the congregation wished to retain Dr. Walker, and S. M. Inman urged the presbytery not to grant the release, but others said Dr. that Walker should not be held here if he deemed best to go to Long Beach.

Dr. Walker said that when the left an influential church and accepted the one in Atlanta, it was understood that a new church was to be built in another part of the city. He declared he did not think himself aggressive enough to lead a downtown church; that he was not the man to draw crowds at the present location. He also said that his wife's health was not good in Atlanta and that the western climate was more agreeable with her. However, Dr. Walker expressed regret that these things were so.

He will leave for California after the first Sunday in April.

MINISTERS INDORSE LOCKER CLUB STAND

Baptists Agree With Position Recently Taken by Dr. Charles Daniel.

Agreeing with the stand on locker clubs recently taken by Dr. Charles W. Daniel, pastor First Baptist church, the Baptist ministers' conference yesterday passed the following resolutions of indorsement:

"First, as citizens and ministers we deem it as an incontestable proposition that no citizen should participate in, aid or abet or encourage violation of a law of the state, and such an action we deem incompatible with patriotism and civic honor.

"Second, as ministers, we are persuaded and we hope to persuade the members of our congregations that it is incompatible with the Christian religion to engage in or to encourage a traffic that degrades the lives of men whom Christ came into the world to save, and that it is doubly repugnant to Christian morality to do so in disregard of the laws of the state.

"We submit to the reason of every man that according to the law of our state, recently construed by the court of last resort, a social club with a United States revenue license to engage in the sale of whisky is violating the statute, and every member shares the responsibility, whether he actually makes purchases of intoxicants or not.

"The position of Christian citizens holding membership in one of these clubs is indefensible, and it is, therefore,

"Resolved, That as citizens and ministers seeking to serve the state, we heartily approve and commend the stand of the First Baptist church, taken March 13."

BUMPER FRUIT CROP PROMISED GEORGIA

Small Damage Done by Cold in South Georgia, None in North Georgia.

With no appreciable damage to the south Georgia fruit crop, and the north Georgia crop unscathed, the Georgia Fruit exchange predicts a bumper fruit crop for Georgia, provided, however, that there is no weather of particular severity during the rest of the spring months.

W. W. Chase, of the state entomological department, has just been to north Georgia, and he predicts a 100 per cent crop for that end of the state. The south Georgia crop, it is believed, has not been greatly damaged.

COTTON DECLINED UNDER REALIZING

Opening at Advance, the Market Became Easy Under Realizing by Old Longs—Spot Steady.

New York, March 23.—The demand from old crop shorts was less urgent today, and after starting at new high prices for the movement, the cotton market eased off under realizing and selling for a reaction. The close was barely steady and from 8 to 9 points net lower.

There appeared to be quite a good many over-Sunday buying orders around the ring at the opening, and first prices were unchanged to 6 points higher, with May contracts selling at 12.31, or approximately $4 per bale above the low records of two weeks ago. There was a good deal of realizing by old longs or recent buyers around these figures, and the market soon turned easier with selling encouraged by talk of a weaker technical position and reports of better weather in the south. Liverpool and leading spot interests were again fair buyers of May and July, but the demand was not so general or so pressing as it was last week, and as prices eased off without attracting increased support, selling for a reaction became a little more active.

There was no change in the general character of southern spot news, however, and fluctuations became irregular after a break of some 10 to 12 points from the high level of the morning, although offerings showed a tendency to increase on moderate rallies, and the close was at practically the low point of the day.

Not long ago, May contracts in New York were selling 140 points under May-June in Liverpool, and at the high point of this morning the difference had been reduced to 105 points. The talk around the local ring indicated that this was taken as reflecting a very considerable reduction in both straddle and speculative short lines and the appearance of March selling orders in the hands of spot house brokers at 80 points over May also seemed to relieve the anxiety of remaining near-month shorts.

Private cables reported that there had been a warehouse fire near Bombay, India, involving about 100,000 bales of cotton, which may have encouraged some of the early buying.

Hubbard Bros. & Co.

New York, March 23.—A large amount of cotton was destroyed by fire in Bombay yesterday. The quantity was estimated at some 60,000 bales of Indian cotton. This calamity advanced Liverpool, where the cotton had been hedged. Under the American arbitrage, offerings came upon that market. Our market advanced under this arbitrage. Demand here and there was much realizing of long cotton, together with some local selling for a reaction after so long an advance. So the market finally closed barely steady, some 8 to 7 points lower than yesterday. It is evident that the arbitrage interest is being transferred at a very rapid rate and that but little new buying is coming into this market. The real short interest seems to have been in Liverpool. It is thought that March is at about as great a premium as it will reach.

John F. Black & Co.

New York, March 23.—(Special.)—The people who are long of March are short of May, and March was sold today in an effort to get the other months down. The market was a narrow one and there was no active support. March, which could be forced almost anywhere on a squeeze, closed six down. May and July were eight down and new crop months showed the same decline. The bull side lacks the proper sort of support, but it is very dangerous to be short on either May or July. Liverpool is due to come one to two points down. The bulls made an effort today at the opening of the coffee market and marked prices up about ten points. There was nothing to this advance, however, except manipulation. The break came during the afternoon and the close was barely steady at a net decline for the day of four points.

New Orleans Cotton.

New Orleans, March 23.—Cotton had an easy undertone today and fell off 12 to 16 points, closing barely steady at the lowest. The market was down from the opening and showed no recuperative power. Selling for the most part was set down to the account of recent buyers. A moderate volume of selling came from the short side.

No attention was paid to bullish features. The cotton fire at Bombay and the good tone in the Liverpool and Manchester markets hardly did more than steady the local market at the decline.

Much weather talk was in evidence and it was claimed that some selling was due to the fact that the cold wave over the week-end was not as severe as expected.

NORTHERN PACIFIC LED THE ADVANCE

Stock Market Showed Considerable Strength at the Opening, Especially Among Railroads.

New York, March 23.—An uneven course was pursued by the stock market today, but at the close prices were above last week's final range. The session was enlivened occasionally by brief periods of active speculation, although most of the time the market lay quiet.

Strength was displayed at the opening. New Haven began the day 1¼ higher, influenced by announcement of a settlement in the negotiations for dissolution of the system. The stock quickly lost its advantage, however. Bearish traders made a concerted attack, and the list surrendered the opening gains, which in some cases amounted to a point. But the decline failed to bring out stocks, and the market reated around Saturday's closing level until the afternoon, when another advance was begun.

The Hill stocks led the upturn, on which Northern Pacific rose more than 3 points. The familiar rumor that Great Northern would take over the Northern Pacific's interest in Burlington, opening the way for an extra distribution on Northern Pacific, was revived, but there was no authentic information.

The upward movement spread through the list, being helped on by reports of impending developments of a favorable nature in the Mexican situation. New Haven advanced with the general list, as did Baltimore and Ohio, despite its poor report for February. Among the industrials, the coppers benefited from the increased demand and high prices for the metal here and broad. Steel made a poorer showing than the other leaders, but ultimately joined in the general movement upward.

The bond market hesitated for a time, but later rose with stocks.

Total sales $2,825,000. United States bonds unchanged on call.

MEDICOS ARE EASY FOR THE CRACKERS

Locals Win, 13 to 2, Without Half Trying — Only Blanked in Two Innings. Toyed With Doctors.

The Crackers had a frolic yesterday afternoon when they played the Atlanta Medical college and won a 13-to-2 victory.

It was just a question of by how large a score the Crackers could win from the start. They toyed with the young doctors, taking all kinds of chances and getting careless at any and all times, or the score might have been twice the size.

Lawrence and Doscher divided the hitting honors for the Crackers, the former working four innings, with only two bingles recorded against him and no runs. Doscher allowed four bingles and two runs. Both twirlers only opened up at times during the game and then only briefly.

Eibel Hit Hard.

Eibel, with four bingles, and Schwind and Reynolds, with three each, led the attack for the Crackers. Every other man got one or more hits during the fracas.

Schwind's single and Welchonce's double scored one in the first. Singles by Eibel and Reynolds scored another in the third.

Welchonce's dife on an error and singles by Long, Flanagan and Eibel scored two in the fourth. Reynolds' single, Doscher's sacrifice and singles by McConnell and Schwind scored two more in the fifth.

At the end of this inning the Crackers went out on the field with only two men retired. It was too much trouble to come back in, so they stayed out, the side being retired on two outs.

A base on balls to Welchonce, singles by Flanagan, Eibel and Manush, with stolen bases by Eibel and Manush, Reynolds' double, a couple of errors and McConnell's single scored five runs in the sixth.

A base on balls to Flanagan, his steal, Eibel's double and two passed balls scored two more in the seventh.

The two Medics runs came in the eighth on Smith's double, Blackburn's infield hit, Eibel's wild throw and a single by Dewberry.

Stewart Donnelly v. Jimmy Perry. Ten rounds.

Battling Kelly v. Young Goldman. Eight rounds.

Young Shepard v. Kid Wonder. Eight rounds.

Shepard Thomas v. Billy Hooper. Six rounds.

This is the card that the Georgia Athletic club, at James and Cone streets, has arranged for the boxing fans for tonight's show, the second that the new boxing club has staged.

Thirty rounds of good boxing, featuring all classes of milling from the slugging kind to the most scientific, divided into four bouts, and all for the usual price of admission. The first battle will start at 8:30 o'clock.

The prelims and the semi-windup need no boosting. The six boys listed in those bouts are willing mixers, appear to be very evenly matched, and local boxing fans are sure to get their money's worth out of any one of these bouts alone.

The main bout should be the best that has ever been staged here between welterweights. Jimmy Perry is too well known and his ability unquestioned for any lengthy treatise on his ability. Jimmy says he is in the best shape of his career. No more need be said if this is the case.

Donnelly will be making his bow to the Atlanta boxing public in this mill. He happened to blow into Atlanta when Hanlon was forced to cancel the mill and grabbed his place for the main bout.

It is rather an odd coincidence that promoters in the east and west have been trying to match these boys for some time, but something has always interfered, and that Atlanta gets the bouts purely by accident.

Donnelly has a string of clippings from the papers of the east and west showing that he has fought some of the best boys in the business. The wise boxing men of Atlanta declare that Jimmy Perry is going to have the best battle of his life in this mill.

Although it has not been definitely arranged, the winner of this bout will probably be given a bout with one of the best welters in the business.

All the seats at the club have been numbered, and when a fan purchases a seat he will get just what he pays for, no more. Everything has been splendidly arranged for tonight's show.

Reserved seat tickets are on sale at Tumlin Bros.' stores.

Capital City Country Club Invites Newspaper Golfers To Practice Over Course

The Capital City Country club has extended a cordial invitation to the newspaper golfers of Atlanta to play over the Brookwood course.

This invitation issued Monday morning gives the newspaper boys of Atlanta the privilege of practicing over the course during the present week.

The committee in charge of the arrangements of the golf tournament for the handsome silver loving cup to be presented by Colonel W. T. Gentry, of the Southern Bell Telephone and Telegraph company, announces that the tournament will probably start next week.

The course will be open to the newspaper men for practice all this week and during the duration of the tournament.

The plans of the tournament have not been fully worked out as yet, but it is more than likely that a stroke handicap will be used this time instead of the hole handicap as used at the last tournament.

NEWARK CHAMPS PLAY CRACKERS

The Newark International league club, champions of that league last season, will be the opponents of the Crackers today and tomorrow at Ponce de Leon park.

This series of games will be for the championship of the two leagues, both teams being pennant-winners in their respective organizations during the past campaign.

It is coincident also that the two pennant winners should be led by managers by the name of Smith, Harry, of Newark, and Billy, of Atlanta. This lends to the interest.

On the Newark lineup are two players who are well known here, Heinie Zimmerman, who played center field for the Crackers a couple of seasons ago, and Harry Swacina, who played first base for the Mobile Gulls, in this league.

The other players will receive their first introduction to local fandom in these games.

Frank Browning will probably twirl the game for the Crackers. He will start and go just as far as his arm and the opposition will permit. All the pitchers are going to get longer workouts daily until the season opens.

GRAMMAR SCHOOLS TO PLAY SECOND ROUND

The second round of games in the local grammar school league will be played Tuesday afternoon.

The teams scheduled to play on the north side are Edgewood v. Boulevard, at southeast Piedmont; Oakland v. Davis, at southeast Piedmont, and Tenth v. Ivy, at southwest Piedmont.

The games on the south side are: Formwalt v. Battle Hill, at Brisbine park; Peeples v. Hill, at Brisbine, and Fraser v. Walker, at Grant park.

All the above games will be played Tuesday afternoon, if the weather man will kindly warm up the atmosphere somewhat.

COLLEGE GAMES

Tech v. Atlanta Medical College at Grant field.

South Carolina v. Lafayette at Columbia.

North Carolina v. Wake Forest at Chapel Hill.

Washington and Lee v. Bucknell at Lexington.

Trinity v. Eastern at Durham.

South Carolina 8, Lafayette 7.

Columbia, S. C., March 23.—The University of South Carolina's baseball team today defeated the Lafayette college nine from Eaton, Pa., here, 9 to 7. South Carolina outbatted the visitors, but fielding honors were about even. The teams meet again tomorrow and Wednesday.

At Davidson, N. C.—Davidson College 8, Catawba College 1.

ATLANTA MEDICOS WILL PLAY JACKETS

The Atlanta Medical college will line up against the Tech Yellow Jackets at Grant field this afternoon. The game will commence promptly at 3:30 o'clock.

This ought to prove a mighty interesting game, as both teams are about equal in strength, judging from their performance to date. A small admission fee will be charged.

The first real games of the Jackets will be staged Friday and Saturday, when Mike Donahue leads his Auburn team against the Jackets, a double-header being on the bill for Saturday.

EXHIBITION GAMES

Newark in Atlanta.
Phillies in Raleigh.
Yankees in Memphis.
Browns in Birmingham.
Dodgers in Chattanooga.
Macon v. Gordon in Barnesville.
Louisville v. Tennessee in Knoxville.
Cubs in Nashville.

SENTELL ARRIVES FOR NELSON BOUT

Jack Sentell, the Jacksonville lightweight, breezed into Atlanta yesterday, and started light work to finish his training for his fight with Terry Nelson, at the Columbia theater Wednesday night.

Jack is confident of putting Nelson away without extending himself to ten rounds. He is the Jacksonville boy is the most optimistic boy that has yet tackled Nelson. But he knows the game, and from his records and what has been written about him by sport scribes his class ranks with the best boys in the lightweight division.

Nelson is not overlooking anything in this match with Sentell. Terry has been working hard. He boxed ten rounds Monday and displayed more cleverness and a harder punch than he has displayed in any of his fights. Terry's friends are backing him heavily against Sentell, taking all the money offered against his chances and forcing Sentell's followers to narrow the odds.

In addition to the Sentell-Nelson fight, Manager Hammond has signed up Bobby Laroux and Kid Wonder for six rounds. Both boys are game and are fairly clever, and should put up a rattling good match.

The preliminary will be between Young Sharkey and Bat Clarke. This is the fight fans have demanded from the Columbia promoters. Clarke's showing in his most recent fights brought forth a request from admirers that he be matched with a good boy. Young Sharkey was induced to take him on for four rounds.

As an added attraction, the Columbia will stage a battle royal with five fighters in the ring.

PARK DEPARTMENT LEAGUE WILL BE FORMED TONIGHT

The Park Department league, the latest of the Amateur baseball leagues of the city, will be permanently organized at a meeting to be held at the city hall tonight at 6 o'clock.

This meeting will be held in the office of General Manager of Parks Dan Carey, who is the organizer of the league. Mr. Carey has associated with him in conducting the affairs of the league City Clerk Walter Taylor and the three city hall reporters of the Atlanta newspapers.

Five teams have already entered the league. They are: Southern Shops, Grant Park, Oakland City, Jonathans and Jones Avenues. All others desiring to enter are requested to have a representative at the meeting tonight.

A pennant will be awarded to the winning team and trophies to the leading batter, base runner and pitcher. A post-season series with the Bank league, of Macon, will probably be arranged at the conclusion of the season.

Crackers at Minstrels; Knights of Columbus Entertain at Banquet

Bill Smith and his Crackers were the guests of the local Knights of Columbus at the opening performance of Nell O'Brien's minstrels last night at the Atlanta theater.

After the performance, the minstrel troupe and the ball players were the guests of the local knights at a banquet.

Mr. O'Brien is a member of the Knights of Columbus, and the attendance at the local performance and the banquet afterwards was a compliment to him.

ATLANTA'S STRIDES FROM DAY TO DAY

There has been no greater factor, perhaps, in the upbuilding of suburban residence sections around Atlanta than the country clubs. This is particularly true of the East Lake club, whose clubhouse burned to the ground Sunday night, wherefore it will come as an announcement of import to both realty agents and real estate owners in that section that the clubhouse will be rebuilt.

A number of splendid residence subdivisions have been promoted around East Lake, and the same territory has been the scene of much speculative and investment buying. Numbers of people have large holdings there now which are being and are to be developed.

It is important, therefore, to many more than just the club members that the clubhouse be resault.

The plans for the new clubhouse, of course, are not yet complete, but it is expected that the new building will cost between $75,000 and $100,000, and will be larger and more imposing than the old house.

Building Permits.

The building permits, which have intermittently run ahead and dropped behind the permits of the corresponding period for last year, are once more advancing. It is expected that with the coming of good weather the increase will be much more rapid and steady, and that the year of 1914 will outstrip last year by a good, healthy margin.

The permit for the Babbage apartments, on LaFayette drive, in Ansley Park, was granted on Monday. The permit calls for a $60,000 building.

Prospective Business.

Monday being always a more or less dull day in all lines of business, the fact that there were few announcements of interest to realty men made yesterday is not startling.

The general outlook of the realty market, considering of course the matter of weather, is regarded as good.

There are a number of good-sized deals in the contract stage, and it is expected that some of these will be ready for print before the end of the present week.

Those Dresses Go on Sale Here Today

There are upwards of four hundred in all—not one worth less than $25. Many worth $30 and $35. In fact, we've taken a number of $25 to $35 dresses in similar or identical styles from stocks and marked them $16.75—we knew we couldn't get full price for them when dresses just as good were here at $16.75.

25 Different Styles in Black and Colors

Dresses included the smart chiffon taffetas; the fashionable crepe de chines; the popular crepe poplins. All the new style touches—tunic and tiered skirts, flounces and flanges; bustle and bouffant draperies. Rose Beads 50c

Fair and Fragrant: The Richest Necklace in Nature's Realm

—Years ago the early Spanish Monks in California had a process of working rose petals into a pulp and then molding them into beads. Hardening like adamant, the beads held inviolate the sweet odor of the rose. But the process was slow and tedious; the beads consequently costly, and the art died. This lost art has been revived. Machinery, working with the skill of a thousand fingers, now reproduces even better beads than the Monks made. Miniature roses no larger than beads are shown in old blue, purple, green or black. Between each bead or two is a gold bead, forming a charming necklace. Various odors in addition to rose. By mail, 4c extra.

WEST CONFERS WITH PRESIDENT

In Regard to A. P. Adams. The Georgia Senator Also States Views on Pending National Questions.

Washington, March 23.—(Special.)—President Wilson's attitude regarding the appointment of A. Pratt Adams, of Savannah, as United States attorney for the southern district of Georgia, apparently coincides with that of the attorney general, meaning that before Mr. Adams is appointed the partnership of Mr. Adams with his father, Judge Samuel B. Adams, must be dissolved. This is the impression gained by Senator West, who took the case to the president today. Alexander Akerman, too, will probably be retained in office until the naval stores prosecutions are ended.

In the meantime Senator West is writing Mr. Adams of the situation with a view to finding out if he will accept the place if it is necessary for the partnership to be dissolved. Heretofore Mr. Adams has given Senator West the impression that he would not withdraw from the partnership.

West's Views on National Questions.

Senator West also assured the president of his support of the proposal to repeal the free tolls provision in the Panama canal act.

He told him also that he is in favor of granting to the roads in the south a 5 per cent increase in freight rates. While the president has been silent on this question, as it is in the hands of the interstate commerce commission, it is generally understood that he favors the increase, and will favor it actively whenever it may be proper for him to do so.

Senator West protested to the president against an indiscriminate prohibition of interlocking directors, declaring that such a law will seriously injure the interests of Georgia and other like states. He maintains that an active interest of leading men in many enterprises in small communities aids these communities in development and to prohibit such varied interests would be a deterriment.

He urged a limit to the operation of the law; for example, having it apply only to corporations having a capital stock of a million dollars or more.

Darien-Brunswick Mail Service.

Representatives Edwards and Walker were assured at the postoffice department that mail service will be established soon between Darien and Brunswick, on the Georgia Coast and Piedmont railways, and that other improvements on this route will probably be inaugurated. The link between Darien and Brunswick has been only recently completed.

Spence Not Confirmed.

Further delay in the confirmation of Judge W. N. Spence, of Camilla, to be district attorney of the third division of Alaska was caused today by the fact that the senate judiciary committee did not report his name. A subcommittee will act on his case, however, and report to the full committee at a special meeting Wednesday. Judge Spence arrived last week to be sworn in.

Fight on Negro Judge.

Senators Hoke Smith, West, Overman, Vardaman, Reed and other southern senators will organize an active fight against the confirmation of Robert H. Terrell, a negro, who has been appointed as judge on the municipal court of the district of Columbia. Senator Smith voted against a favorable report of the judiciary committee today.

To Regulate Cotton Exchanges.

Senator Hoke Smith has received several letters from cotton producers and cotton mill men from Georgia, as well as from other sections of the country, commending his speech on a bill to regulate cotton exchanges. Wall street newspapers are aroused, and have been printing broadsides following his speech of last week. He expects to speak again when the bill is called before the senate.

Georgia Postmasters.

The president today nominated S. A. S. Sparks, Sr., for postmaster at Lafayette, and John H. Hodges for postmaster at Perry.

AT THE THEATERS.

Neil O'Brien Minstrels.

(At the Atlanta.)

It's just naturally not human for anybody to play a banjo like Eddie Ross does in Neil O'Brien's minstrels.

The moment he picks up "the Africa harp," the same being the nomenclature by which Eddie designates it, the instrument becomes inspired. Instantly it gives forth such an astonishing assemblage of sounds and in such astonishing syncopational sequence as has never before fallen upon the ears of an Atlanta audience. And all the while you would never guess, by his facial expression or motion of his hand, that Eddie is even struggling on the verge of being aware that the banjo is so much as remotely in his vicinity.

You may have gathered by now that it was the performance of Eddie Ross from which I gathered most entertainmetn at the Atlanta theater last night.

That is not to say that Eddie Ross is the whole show—not by any manner of means.

The entire performance is live, breezy, funny and melodious, and there were doubtless other features that appealed equally as much as others.

For instance, Neil O'Brien is as inimitable as ever. He has a good, laughable, clean line of jokes, and his parcel post sketch is very funny.

The dancing acts are refreshingly out of the ordinary.

Neither could one think of the show without recalling Major C. Nowak, who towers two hands high and throughout the second part gives one the vague sense of being afraid that he is in continual danger of being misplaced and lost.

Neither could one feel that he had been to a good minstrel show without seeing Lucien York, Ben Treadwell, Louis Gregg, Bill Sharpe and Willard Patterson. They were all there.

They will also be present at the matinee and night performances today.

NED M'INTOSH.

"Ziegfeld Follies."

(At the Atlanta.)

Seats are now selling at the Atlanta for the return engagement of the famous "Ziegfeld Follies," which are to play here Wednesday and Thursday, with a matinee Thursday. Despite the big demand, there are hundreds of choice seats for any performance of the big show. At the matinee Thursday the management will distribute to every lady present a souvenir in the shape of a toilet article of real value. The engagement of the massive show promises to exceed that of ten days ago. Never was so much interest shown in any production, for never was any show of the massive size of the "Follies" played here before. All the stars and the beauty chorus return.

Keith Vaudeville.

(At the Forsyth.)

Dances, sketches, songs and the like are with us every day, but now and then comes a regular act—set apart from all the others. Comes the time, even in a well-conducted vaudeville show, when men and women forget their dignity and laugh right out in school.

All of which is introductory to the remark that Charlie Howard is just about the funniest "souse" that ever paraded on a Forsyth stage. If all "drunks" could give as much pleasure to the people before whom they appear, then, perhaps, there would be a legitimate excuse for intoxication.

The way he staggers across a stage, with a larger bottle of whisky powders every trip, brought bowls of merriment from the crowd. He is assisted by James Ratliff, a popular vocalist, and by Dorothy Hayden, a graceful dancer.

And, of course, it would not do to neglect giving credit for a large part of the success of this week's bill to Little Chip and Mary Marble. Ever favorites here, since the days of the old Bijou Musical Stock company, they receive the glad hand on this appearance and then proceed to show they deserve all the kind things said and thought of them for, lo, this many long years. They are appearing in a sketch entitled "The Land of the Dykes."

The Great Asahi and his Japanese troupe of gymnasts mystify by their feats of magic and interest by their clever balancing. Asahi makes fountains appear on every part of the stage, and performs many other equally wonderful tricks.

Herbert and Claribel Farjeon please in a fanciful idea that is well acted; a novelty is the movie picture of Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Castle in the newest dances; and the Tom Toms get many a laugh from the crowd. The audience likes Elida Morris. Her first song is as old as the hills, but when she comes out for the second song dressed in white, well, the gown is enough to make almost any man her admirer.

"The Girl of Eagle Ranch."

(At the Bijou.)

As a genuine "thriller," this week's play at the Bijou is just about the best that Eddie Mack and his associate players have presented this season. "The Girl of Eagle Ranch" is one perpetual thrill. It was written by Walter VanDyke, stage manager of the company, and that it pleased was manifest.

Miss Anna Brandt played "the girl" and received a hearty welcome, while much approval was given the work of Miss Marie Claire and Miss Alice Delaine.

Eddie Black, as the sheriff, was responsible for a great amount of fun, and he was ably seconded by John Allen. Frederick Baldwin played a rather difficult role easily and gracefully, while Walter VanDyke and George Ross were excellent in parts which afforded opportunity for good acting. Frank Dare, an old favorite, was back in the cast and portrayed a villainous Mexican to perfection. R. H. Turner came in for a lion's share of approval.

Between acts F. C. Bucher sang "In the Valley of the Moon" and "Dixie Land Piccolo Band" and was heartily applauded.

"A Pair of Jacks."

(At the Columbia.)

Full of laughter—all good-sized laughs at that—plenty of action and musical numbers that are not frayed around the edges, "A Pair of Jacks," in which George Milton and Jennie Delmar are featured, opened another week's engagement at the Columbia theater last night. In the cast there are thirty people who are just as clever as any seen in burlesque in Atlanta. Frank Beaumont, Dot Woods and Tom Willard lend valuable support to the principals.

Even though there was no merit to the show itself, the olio is worth seeing. Sid Vincent and Irene Lorne are the headliners in a song and dance act that got the crowd in a good humor and held it to the last number. The Densmore Sisters won added laurels in their dance number, and Marie Woods, "The Nightingale," was pleasing in her melody numbers.

CIVIC FEDERATION TO HELP FARMERS

Department on Farm Conditions and Rural Betterment Organized—Dr. Kirkland, of Atlanta, Speaks.

New York, March 23.—The development of American farming is to be undertaken by the National Civic federation, which organized today a department on agricultural conditions and rural betterment. The executive committee held a luncheon today at which noted speakers discussed the farming industry. They held that co-operation and systematized organization among farmers was necessary if the industry in the United States were to be brought up to the standard obtaining in other countries.

Dr. Grace Kirkland a Speaker.

The decision to aid the farmers was contained in a resolution adopted at the suggestion of Dr. Albert Shaw, who declared education and standardization were factors toward solution of the problem. The committee authorized its chairman, Seth Low, president of the federation, and toastmaster at the luncheon, to appoint a plan and scope committee.

The speakers with Dr. Shaw and Mr. Low were Andrew Carnegie, Lieutenant Governor Sheffield Ingalls, of Kansas; Dr. Grace Kirkland, of Atlanta, Ga., representing the Farmers' Educational and Co-operative union; Leonard G. Robinson, general manager of the Jewish Agricultural and Industrial Aid society; Dr. L. W. Johnson, of the federal department of agriculture and others. Attending the luncheon were men interested in farming representing the city of New York, various states and the national government.

Andrew Carnegie told of farming conditions in Scotland, Denmark and in the American west. He described co-operation as it works out in California. "That is what we need," he said. "That will do more to meet the conditions of the farmer than anything else possibly can."

Vital Human Problem.

Leonard G. Robinson alluded to farming as a "vital human problem" that will not be solved by the self-seeker or the visionary. "What is needed," he said, "is an organization of such unquestionable sponshirship and predominance as to command general confidence. I cannot think of any organization so eminently qualified to assume that commanding position as the National Civic federation. If this new agricultural department accomplishes nothing more than the elimination of the visionary, the self-seeker, the irresponsible, from the agricultural field it will perform a signal public service and fully justify its creation."

If a movement among farmers is to be of practical value, Dr. Grace Kirkland said, the leaders must be from the farmers' ranks. "The trouble is," she declared, "to get the average white American over 21 to do what you want him to do, and in order to do this the leaders must be of their own class."

Dr. Albert Shaw said that before American farmers can call themselves efficient or capable they must know how to raise beef in the east and dairy products in the south.

In Other Countries.

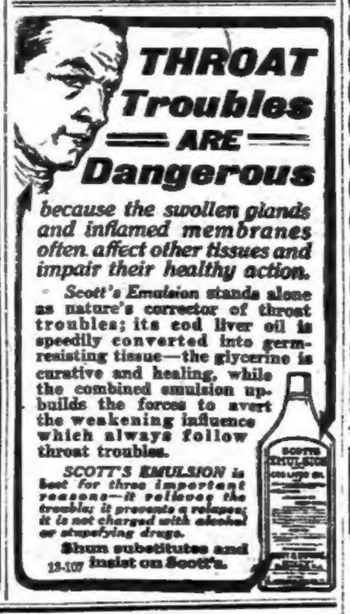
Mr. Ingalls compared the United States unfavorably with other countries in agricultural development, although he admitted that by means of numerous state and national departments of agriculture, the nation had become a recognized expert in promulgation of agricultural theories.

"Other nations," he said, "have passed us in the application of these theories. Comparing farming by standards set for other business, I would say that the troubles of American agriculture are due largely to waste in production, to lack of organized systems for purchase of supplies, and to a failure to utilize credit facilities."

Thaw Wants More Time.

Concord, N. H., March 23.—Counsel for Harry K. Thaw announced tonight that they had filed a motion for an extension of time for completing the final brief in the extradition proceedings before the federal court. The brief, which is voluminous, will go to the printers tomorrow and probably will be ready for filing by the end of the week. It was to have been submitted to the court Wednesday.

THROAT Troubles ARE Dangerous



because the swollen glands and inflamed membranes often affect other tissues and impair their healthy action.

Scott's Emulsion stands alone as nature's corrector of throat troubles; its cod liver oil is speedily converted into germ-resisting tissue—the glycerine is curative and healing, while the combined emulsion upbuilds the forces to avert the weakening influence which always follow throat troubles.

SCOTT'S EMULSION is best for three important reasons—it relieves the trouble, it prevents a relapse, it is not charged with alcohol or stupefying drugs.

Shun substitutes and insist on Scott's.

41 BLOODED HORSES PERISH IN FLAMES

Fort Riley, Kan., March 23.—Forty-one blooded horses belonging to the service school on the United States military reservation were burned today in a fire that destroyed the school stables. The mounts were being schooled as jumpers and a number of them were to enter the military contests to be held in Madison Square Garden. Two high-priced horses, including the stallion Vestibule, presented to the school by August Belmont, were rescued.
