WAY IS PAVED TO TAKE CASE OF LEO M. FRANK BEFORE FEDERAL COURT

Through New Attorneys Claim Is Made That the Prisoner's Constitutional Rights Were Violated When He Was Not Brought Into Court to Hear Jury's Verdict.

DECLARES HIS LAWYERS HAD NO RIGHT TO WAIVE HIS PRESENCE IN COURT

Judge Ben Hill Fixes Hearing on Extraordinary Motion and on Petition of the New Attorneys for Next Wednesday Morning—Attorneys Make Statements.

In event the fight is lost in the courts of Georgia to save the life of Leo M. Frank, the way was paved yesterday to carry his case before the highest tribunal of our land—the United States supreme court in Washington.

This was made possible at 10 o'clock Thursday morning when Attorney John L. Tye, recently employed by Leo Frank, brought out before Judge Ben Hill during the trial motion proceedings of the defense, the first constitutional rights issue of the Frank case.

Attorney Tye argued that the prisoner was unaware of the action of his attorneys, L. S. Rosser and Reuben R. Arnold, in waiving his appearance in the court-room at the time the verdict was rendered last August. He declared that the defendant is constitutionally entitled to being present at such a time, and that counsel had no legal right to waive his presence on counsel's own initiative.

Asks Verdict Set Aside.

Mr. Tye made a motion to set aside the verdict of the court on this particular ground. The motion was filed before Judge Hill, and will be argued next Wednesday morning at 10 o'clock, at which time Judge Hill has set the date for the formal hearing in his chambers in the old city hall building.

Attorney Tye's motion created a great surprise. The reading of his document preceded the filing of the motion for a new trial by Attorneys Arnold and Rosser on grounds of newly-discovered evidence.

It was even a surprise that the firm of Tye, Peebles & Jordan had been employed in the Frank defense. Members of Frank's counsel stated Thursday afternoon that this concern had been employed only recently, and that it was brought into the case by Frank himself.

Mr. Tye's Motion.

Mr. Tye's motion was based simply on the ground that the record failed to show that a defendant has not the right—and neither has counsel—to waive his presence at the time of a verdict announcement. Furthermore, that Frank knew nothing of the action of his lawyers in waiving his presence on the day the verdict of guilty was pronounced.

"Frank was deprived of his legal right to be present at the time the verdict was rendered," said Mr. Tye. "It is a constitutional rights issue."

Text of Exceptions.

Following the filing of both motions, Judge Hill ordered a rule nisi served on Solicitor Hugh Dorsey, which demands him to make a counter showing when the re-trial motions come up for argument Wednesday, and which also indefinitely stays the execution of Leo Frank, which was scheduled for this morning between the hours of 11 and 1 o'clock.

An exciting phase of the re-trial application Thursday was a lively tilt that ensued between Attorneys Rosser and Arnold and Attorney Hill, junior counsel for Jim Conley, when Mr. Arnold, in calling the names of a number of witnesses to be presented in their new trial movement, named Mr. Smith as one of the proposed witnesses who, he understood, had refused to make an affidavit.

Mr. Smith, who was sitting a few feet in the rear of Mr. Arnold, arose instantly to his feet, saying to the court:

"I have not refused to make any affidavit."

Mr. Arnold turned politely to the speaker, saying:

"I understand, Mr. Smith that Mr. J. F. Fife had said that you would not make the affidavit."

"Mr. Fife is mistaken," answered make the affidavit."

Whereupon Smith went to where Mr. Fife was sitting in the courtroom, bringing him before Judge Hill, asking this question:

"Did you ever state that I had refused to make such an affidavit?"

"No," was the answer. At which the matter was ended.

Witnesses for Defense.

The witnesses to be called by the defense in the hearing next Wednesday were announced Thursday as R. A. Stephens, assistant solicitor general; Detective John Black, of police headquarters, a star witness for the state; Bill Smith Conley's attorney; Dr. Roy F. Harris, and Mary Rich, the woman witness who tells of having seen Conley emerge from the rear of the pencil factory at 2:18 o'clock on the day of the Phagan tragedy.

The statement of Dr. Harris will be one of the most important foundations for the fight of the defense. It relates to his opinion that the hair found upon the lathing machine in the pencil factory did not compare with strands taken from the head of the murdered girl.

Dr. Harris made an affidavit Thursday morning shortly after the motions had been filed. So did John Black, the detective, and Mr. Stephens and Bill Smith. They will be presented during the argument.

GIRL'S ASSAILANT SOUGHT BY POSSE

White Man Attacks Ten-Year-Old Child, Then Threatens to Kill Her if She Tells.

A dozen plain clothes policemen and detectives are scouring the western side of the city in search of a white man about 30 years of age, wearing a black suit of clothes, brown hat, and with a black mustache, who yesterday about sundown attacked a 10-year-old girl.

The crime was committed near the child's home in an old outhouse in a vacant lot on Marietta street, near the National Furniture company.

The little girl stated that he called to her to come over to him, and that when she did so, he took her up in his arms and carried her into the empty house.

The squad of policemen and detectives who are working on the case are being assisted by a posse of citizens who live in the neighborhood of the young girl's home. Violence to the offender is probable if he happens to fall into the hands of the citizens.

The young girl did not tell her father until last night about 9 o'clock, stating that the man threatened to kill her if she told anyone of the affair. The police were immediately notified, and diligent search is being made.

TRADED ANOTHER CHILD FOR THE DUNBAR BOY

Girl Witness to Declare She Saw Tinker Make the Swap.

Opelousas, La., April 16.—The prosecution in the trial of W. G. Walters on the charge of kidnaping 5-year-old Robert Dunbar, will produce a witness who will swear to seeing Walters trade a boy for the child now in the possession of the Dunbars, according to a statement of District Attorney Garland here today. He said Miss Kate Collins, of Pegloden, Miss., saw the trade, and was close enough to identify both Walters and the boy.

This opens a wide range of possibilities in the case, chief of which is that the boy the Dunbars claim as their son really is Robert Dunbar, and that Bruce Anderson still is alive. Julia Anderson maintains the boy the Dunbars have is her son. If the testimony of Miss Collins is given as expected and substantiated it will not affect the charge against Walters under the Louisiana law.

CHOATE SAYS PACT MEANT TO INCLUDE SHIPS OF AMERICA

Official Correspondence Shows Treaty Was Intended to Exclude Exemption of Any American Vessels.

TAFT'S ADDRESS USED BY REPEAL ADVOCATES

The Ex-President Says He Thought He Was Granting Subsidy When He Signed Panama Canal Act.

Washington, April 16.—Joseph H. Choate, American ambassador to Great Britain during the negotiation of the Hay-Pauncefote treaty, believes correspondence with the British government at that time precludes the idea that American coastwise shipping can be exempted from paying tolls through the Panama canal.

Former President Taft, who signed the Panama canal act, containing the exemption clause, thought that in doing so he was granting a subsidy to American coastwise shipping, and believes that unless congress reverses itself the United States will have to submit the question to arbitration.

These points, both welcomed by repeal advocates, were brought out today at the hearing before the senate committee on inter-oceanic canals. Senator Simmons introduced a transcript of an address delivered by Mr. Taft before the Canadian club, at Ottawa last January, and Mr. Choate's views were submitted in a letter to Henry White, secretary of the American embassy at London, while Mr. Choate was ambassador, accompanied by letters addressed by him to Secretary of State Hay, explaining the progress of the negotiations.

Mr. Choate declared in a letter to Henry White, presented to the committee, that his official correspondence established beyond question the intent of the parties in the negotiations, that the treaty should mean exactly what it says, and excludes the possibility of the exemption of any kind of vessels of the United States. Equality between the United States and Great Britain is the constant theme.

In his speech Mr. Taft was quoted as saying: "We shall doubtless have

You Can Win an Automobile In The Constitution's $25,000 Campaign Just Announced

A few days ago a remarkable plan for the distribution of more than $25,000 in awards was presented to its friends and patrons by The Constitution.

Though yet young, the plan outlined has aroused vast interest in the possibilities of the contest. Thousands of inquiries attest this fact.

As the days go by many popular people are expected to receive nominations and to participate in the settlement of these—the most extensive awards ever offered by a southern newspaper.

This contest is open to everybody. Any gentleman in the state of Georgia or contiguous territory desiring to enter can do so through the name of his wife, mother, sister, cousin, lady friend, etc. The sentiment made repeatedly by The Constitution that this contest is open to every woman in his territory does not mean that both men and boys cannot participate in the contest through some lady relative or friend. With this proviso everybody is invited to enter this campaign.

Thus far, however, very few comparatively have realized that this is a golden opportunity for very great profit if properly used.

Wonderful Prizes.

A list of exceptionally meritable prizes aggregating a fortune in cost, to say nothing of a cash offer of a commission on all personal collections to non-prize winners, according to the rules of the contest, has as yet, not brought the response which could reasonably be expected from offers of such munificence.

Those who have not entered the race should not hesitate to do so, as the contest is young. Now is the time

STATE UNION LABOR TO ENTER POLITICS AS ORGANIZED BODY

Resolution Calling for Political Organization Unanimously Passed by Annual Convention at Macon.

EX-GOVERNOR BROWN SUBJECT OF ATTACK

Organized Union Labor of State Will Fight Former Governor if He Enters Race for United States Senate.

Macon, Ga., April 16.—(Special.)—The Georgia Federation of Labor, in annual convention here today, unanimously adopted a resolution authorizing the president of the federation to call a meeting of the delegations immediately after the convention adjourns for the purpose of organizing the state labor political association.

A resolution to this effect was introduced by Louis Marquardt, of Atlanta, chairman of the committee on president's message. It stated the object of the proposed association to be that of having labor legislation enacted and to get labor men in office wherever possible.

Though nothing was said in the resolution that would justify it, it was reported after today's meeting that one of the things that prompted the resolution was in order that an organized fight might be made against Joseph M. Brown if he announces for the United States senate.

The committee appointed at the last convention to make reply to former Governor Brown's alleged attack on organized labor reported today. The report was brief, simply stating that the committee had made answer to the address by the ex-governor "in a manner creditable to the movement and with honor and with dignity; the answer was printed and copies are available for all who want them."

The report ended by saying that "It is hoped that never again will the people of the state have their ears offended by such abuse."

Would Fight Brown's Candidacy.

When an effort was made by E. P. Anderson, of Rome, to have $143 left in what is known as the "Joe Brown fund" contributed to the striking textile workers at Rome, several delegates objected on the ground that "the money will be needed to fight Brown if he announces for the senate."

Other remarks uncomplimentary to the former governor were made by W. C. Puckett, of Atlanta, and C. C. Opry, of Macon.

President Marks, declared, however, that "it is more important to aid the textile workers than it is to fight Joe Brown." Finally, the convention voted $100 to the textile workers.

Legislation Indorsed.

The convention indorsed a number of legislative matters today, including the following:

Bill pending for a barber's license law.

Bill in congress providing that railroad firemen and roadmasters be required to stand efficiency tests.

Fifty-four hour bill to be presented to coming legislature providing that no women or minors work more than 54 hours in any one week or more than 10 a day.

Bill to create the office of state matron, who shall inspect factories in the interest of women and children employes and who shall have the backing of the state whenever cases are made against factory owners.

During the session today the secreta-

Gen. Huerta's Offer To Salute the Flag Accepted by Wilson

Formal Apology to United States for Arrest of Bluejackets Will Be Followed by Customary Return Salute to Mexican Tri-Color by America.

ALL ADMINISTRATION OFFICIALS BELIEVE THAT CRISIS IS ENDED

Time Not Yet Set for Firing Salute and Battleships Have Not Been Recalled—Large Naval Force Will Probably Be Kept in Mexican Waters.

Washington, April 16.—The United States government tonight accepted General Huerta's offer to salute the Stars and Stripes as an apology for the arrest of American bluejackets at Tampico a week ago today. The Huerta government's salute to the American flag will be answered with a salute to the tri-color of the Mexican nation.

This arrangement, the details of which were being finally arranged tonight in an exchange of official messages between Washington and Mexico City, ended, in the view of all high administration officials, the crisis that had resulted in the dispatch of American war fleets to Mexican waters. Executive officers and congressmen breathed a sigh of relief that the tension had passed.

No time has been set for the firing of the salute, and, until the details are arranged, no further orders will be sent to the American fleets now proceeding south. It is practically certain, however, that while many of the vessels will be turned back, others will continue south, and a substantially increased naval force will be maintained in Mexican waters.

INVARIABLE CUSTOM TO RETURN SALUTE.

Huerta's offer and request for a return salute caused President Wilson to ask for an opinion from the counsellor of the state department and navy department officials. All reported that it was the invariable custom in naval practice to return a salute, and cited precedents. The president also was informed that Rear Admiral Mayo, on making his original demand for a salute, agreed to return the courtesy.

Mr. Wilson said a return of a salute under such circumstances did not involve recognition of the Huerta government, but was merely an act of the same character as grasping the hand of an individual who was apologizing as he extended it. Secretary Bryan, too, took the view that the American salute would be given to the flag of the Mexican nation, just as much respected by the constitution allists as the Huerta government, and no technical recognition was involved.

No Orders to Fleet.

Precedents in which the United States returns the salute of other nations and who apologized in the were cited at the white house and navy department, and it was generally agreed in executive quarters, that General Huerta's compliance with the American demand had dissipated a tense situation. No orders to the American fleet to change its course will be given until the final details of the salute has been arranged.

In less than forty-eight hours after President Wilson had ordered the Atlantic and Pacific fleets to Mexican waters and had informed General Huerta that unless a salute was fired to atone for repeated offenses against the dignity of the United States there would be serious consequences, the answer came—a complete acceptance of the demand of the Washington government.

Immediately there was a change in the atmosphere of official Washington. As the storm clouds lifted and a wave of satisfaction spread through official circles, President Wilson arranged to go to White Sulphur Springs, W. Va., for the week-end, and Secretary Bryan,

INJURED IN CRASH, OFFICER IS DYING

Policeman J. W. McWilliams, While Riding a Motorcycle, Strikes a Wagon. His Skull Is Fractured.

Police Officer J. Walter McWilliams, Jr., while speeding out Flat Shoals road on his motorcycle last night about 7:30 o'clock, crashed into a wagon, striking the right front wheel. The officer was thrown over the handle bars of his machine, and his head struck the wheel, fracturing the skull about two inches. His forehead was terribly lacerated. As a result of the accident he is in a dying condition at the Grady hospital. The motorcycle was completely demolished, the frame being bent double, and the front wheel shattered.

The wagon was driven by an uncle of McWilliams named J. F. Brown, of Reynoldstown.

The accident occurred near the corner of Flat Shoals road and South Moreland avenue.

McWilliams is considered one of the gamest young policemen on the force, and is one of the best liked.

Dr. James N. Ellis was called in at the Grady hospital to perform an operation on the skull of the injured policeman. A hemorrhage underneath the skull had set in, and it was feared that the fractured skull was pressing on on the brain.

Officer McWilliams is patrol driver on the morning watch. He was not on duty at the time of his accident, but was out enjoying a ride on a motorcycle he had purchased only a few days ago.

VIVISECTOR ON TRIAL FOR CRUELTY TO DOGS

Six Members of Pennsylvania School Under Indictment.

Philadelphia, April 16.—The trial of Dr. Joshua E. Sweet, a member of the faculty of the medical school of the University of Pennsylvania, charged with cruelty to dogs after vivisection operations, was continued today in quarter sessions court here.

The prosecution was brought at the instance of the Woman's Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals. In addition to Dr. Sweet, five other physicians, members of the faculty, are under indictment. Witnesses testified that the accused had done nothing to alleviate the sufferings of dogs after they had been operated upon.

Counsel for Dr. Sweet, in opening the case of the defense, declared that everything possible known to science was done for the comfort of dogs that were operated on and that they were humanely asphyxiated when necessary.

Dr. Sweet and Dr. M. M. Pearce, also under indictment, called in their own behalf, denied charges of wanton cruel treatment, poor food and neglect.

Killed Saving Dog.

Charlotte, N. C., April 16.—An old Cherokee (Creian) Indian woman was struck and instantly killed by an Atlantic Coast Line train at Pembroke, N. C., when she attempted to save her dog, which was on the track ahead of the locomotive.

G. P. von HERRMANN, Section Director.

who is ill, planned to take his long delayed trip to Miami, Fla. Attention that had been temporarily diverted from the legislative program turned again to congressional routine.

The numerous happenings which led to the aggressive stand of the American government, the strong pressure brought to bear at Mexico City by Charge O'Shaughnessy and the diplomatic representatives of other governments, backed by advices from the French and German ambassadors at Washington, who learned from the state department the serious intentions of the Washington government, all had brought about a grave international crisis. Congress showed its readiness to stand by the administration, and the house committee on foreign affairs passed a resolution upholding the president's position.

Policy Not Changed.

While the president declared the firing of the salute would close the Tampico incident, it will have no particular bearing on the general Mexican policy of the administration. Other offenses, such as the arrest of a mail orderly at Vera Cruz, have been apologized for and the United States will continue its position of neutrality as between the two factions contending for the military supremacy of the southern republic.

Incidentally, the president, as well as Mr. Bryan, in their conversations on the situation, generally drew attention to official reports that had received praising General Villa and the constitutionalists for their treatment of prisoners and foreigners in the bloody battle at Torreon. Not a foreigner was injured, according to official reports from eye witnesses.

Huerta's offer was received in congress generally with approval, and members familiar with international precedents agreed that a return salute from American guns could not be regarded as recognition of the Huerta regime or in anywise as beneath the dignity of the United States.

Lodge Withdraws Remark.

Senator Lodge, ranking republican member of the foreign relations committee, who had said early in the day that to return the salute would nullify the effect of the apology, withdrew his criticism after a telephone conversation with Secretary Bryan. The Massachusetts senator was informed that naval officers and those familiar with precedents knew of no case where a salute was not returned and that, moreover, the statement that the salute would be returned was included in Rear Admiral Mayo's original demand. Mr. Lodge said he had been mistaken about it and expressed the hope that the custom in such cases would be made known to the country.

When Senator Shively, acting chairman of the foreign relations committee, visited the white house, he learned from Secretary Bryan of the proposal from General Huerta to yield to the American government. The Indiana senator, who had studied carefully all the possibilities in the situation, was quick to agree that the United States government could not refrain from answering the Mexican apologetic guns and, when questioned by senators at the capitol later, assured them that a return salute was in accordance with international custom.

For several hours Senator Shively's attention was engaged by his colleagues, who wanted assurances that a return salute could not be considered as a signal of recognition of the Huerta government. He flatly declared that it could not be so regarded; that the United States government had been dealing unofficially with the Huerta regime as a de facto government and had never extended it any official recognition; that the ultimatum had been served upon the de facto government because it was the only semblance of government from which reparation for insults could be asked.

Would Ignore Request.

During executive session late today senators discussed the reported Huerta position informally and it was agreed that the United States should not quibble over returning the salute, but there were some senators inclined to the view that the advance request from Huerta for a return of the salutes should be ignored.

"Demanding a salute of the flag, and do as we please afterwards" was the way one senator expressed his opinion.

"You may be sure of one thing," said Senator Clifford Wood Virginia, "that if a return of the Mexican salute by this government would mean recognition of the Huerta government, salutes will be no American salute in answer to Mexican apology. Another thing the country may be assured of, and that is that when President Wilson sets himself firmly as he has in this case there will be no surrender on his part."

Discussing the probability of allowing the use of the ships now en route to Mexican waters to proceed regardless of the acceptance of Huerta's offer, many members of congress expressed the opinion that the administration proposes to keep a firmer hand on the situation in the future and that further reasons for vigorous action may develop at any time.

FREE DRINKING CUPS ARE SOUGHT BY PERRY

Railroads Are Cited to Appear Before Railroad Commission and Show Cause.

At the meeting of the railroad commission Thursday, on motion of Commissioner Perry, the Seaboard Air Line and the Southern railway were cited to appear before the commission at the meeting May 1 to show cause why they were not properly complying with the law requiring all engines to provide cinder deflectors.

At a recent meeting of the commission all railroads of the state were required to provide individual drinking cups in stations and coaches, the same to be vended from a machine at a cost not to exceed one cent each.

On motion of Commissioner Perry, all roads in the state were cited to appear before the commission May 1 and show cause why the "one cent for each cup" should not be stricken from the order, thus making drinking cups free.

YARBROUGH CHARGES BEFORE GRAND JURY

Macon, Ga., April 16.—(Special.)—John W. Yarbrough was arraigned on commitment hearing in the municipal court today on the charge of arson, State Fire Marshal W. R. Joyner withdrawing the charge for the present. He will lay the matter before the grand jury, which convenes Monday.

The reason assigned for this action was that the prosecution was unable to have a couple of witnesses here today.

In the meantime, Yarbrough is still in jail being unable to make bond of $1,000, under which he has been held in connection with the charge that he gave Miss Irene Herndon a poisoned banana, to keep her from telling what she knew about the recent fire which destroyed the house in which Yarbrough lived.

It is claimed Yarbrough caused the fire which destroyed the house and that he later made an affidavit that all of his household goods had been destroyed, when in fact, he knew, project $1,200 insurance, when, in fact, $1 is claimed, the goods of his belongings were saved and secreted away in trunks.

WAY IS PAVED FOR CASE OF LEO FRANK

motion, which practically covers the entire document, is as follows:

"Because at the time said verdict was received and the jury trying the cause was discharged, the defendant, Leo M. Frank, was in the custody of the law and incarcerated in the common jail of Fulton county. He was present when said verdict was returned and the said jury discharged, as he had the right of the law to be, and as the law required that he should be.

"He did not waive said right, nor did he authorize anyone to waive it for him, nor consent that he should not be present. He did not even know that said verdict had been rendered in that said jury discharged until after the reception of the verdict and the discharge of the jury, and until after sentence of death had been passed upon him."

Relative to the action of Attorneys Arnold and Rosser in waiving the presence of their client, the motion reads:

"Defendant did not give to Rosser or Arnold or to Haas any authority to absent himself or to be absent from or to be absent himself, when said verdict was received and jury discharged, of which he did not have until after sentence of death had been passed upon him."

Denied Constitutional Right.

The document declares that Frank's absence from the court at the time of the verdict was involuntary, and that he was denied the constitutional right allowed him by the state and national laws. The motion is signed by Leonard Haas, Tye, Peoples & Jordan, H. J. Alexander and H. J. Haas.

Regarding the connection of Attorney Tye and his firm with the defense, Reuben R. Arnold and Luther Z. Rosser stated to the press Thursday afternoon that in nowise do they appear as counsel in the motion filed by Mr. Tye.

"During the trial of Mr. Frank," the two attorneys stated, "feeling against him on the part of some members of the public was so evident and pronounced as to greatly concern the trial judge for Frank's safety in the event of his acquittal. During the trial, the judge called attention several times to the danger of having Frank present at the reception of the verdict.

"Nothing, however, was done about this until the last day of the trial, and just a few minutes before the jury was charged. The judge again expressed grave apprehension and fear of Frank's safety should he be present at the reception of the verdict should it be a verdict of acquittal. We, as two of Frank's counsel, were present when the judge so expressed himself and the judge requested us to agree that Frank should not be present when the verdict of the jury was rendered, and that his counsel also should not be present. To this we agreed.

We Were Not Present.

"In the stress of excitement and in the multitude of things we had to do it never occurred to us to mention our agreement with the court either to Mr. Frank or to our associate counsel. As a matter of fact, neither our associate counsel nor Mr. Frank was present.

"Because of our participation in the agreement with the judge, as counsel, we feel that we ought not to take part in the attorneys in the motion to set judgment aside upon the ground of Frank's absence. The case is Leo Frank's, not ours, and it is his life, alone, that is at stake. Frank made no agreement with the court and was asked to make none. If, as a result of what happened he has been deprived of his legal rights, no fair-minded man can complain when Frank asks the law to correct a wrong done him.

"No agreement of this kind would ever have been made under sane and normal conditions. The agreement was made and carried out on both sides with the utmost good faith in promotion of what was thought to be in the interest of Frank's safety and of public tranquility."

Burns' Report Nearly Ready.

Attorney Reuben R. Arnold said to a reporter for The Constitution last night that the report of Detective Burns would positively be submitted before next Wednesday. He said also that Burns was expected back some time this week, possibly tomorrow.

"We do not know where Burns is at present," he said. "He did not even tell us. Neither do we know what phase of evidence he is working on. All that we have got from him is the assurance that his report will be made before the arguments on the retrial motion."

Solicitor Dorsey will return to Atlanta today from Valdosta, where he has been visiting. He was not present when the motions were filed before Judge Hill Thursday. His office was represented by E. A. Stephens, Dorsey's assistant.

to arbitrate the matter unless congress reverses itself. There are some hotheads that talk in absurd tones about the right of the United States to manage her own canal and her own property as she likes, no matter what she has agreed to, but this is all froth. These are the exploitivists. The idea of congress in passing the bill, and my own in signing it, was that we were thus giving a subsidy to our coastwise trade between New York and San Francisco and Boston and Seattle as we paid in the early days of our transcontinental railways.

"All I object to is being told, when I approve the publication of coastwise exemption, that I favor breaking a treaty. I am not in favor of breaking treaties, but the question is, what the treaty means."

STATE UNION LABOR TO ENTER POLITICS

ty was authorized to send a message of cheer and encouragement to Carl E. Person, in jail at Clinton, Ill., for, as one delegate expressed it, "killing a scab in self-defense."

The indications are that Columbus will be awarded the 1915 convention of the state federation, that being the only city that has extended an invitation so far. The next meeting place and new officers will be chosen tomorrow.

Move Attacks on Brown.

Preliminary to the public speaking tonight by Thomas S. Felder and Jerome Jones, editor of The Atlanta Journal of Labor, a short session of the convention was held, at which delegates heaped abuse upon the head of former Governor Brown in connection with his address on the duties of the military, as a result of the Georgia railroad strike.

Leonard J. Grossman, president of the Men's Equal Suffrage league, of Georgia, addressed the convention today in the interest of woman suffrage, and was given a warm welcome. The state federation has already indorsed woman suffrage.

RESULTS OF PRIMARY IN JEFFERSON COUNTY

Louisville, Ga., April 16.—(Special.)—Jefferson county held her primary today for county officers. With only one district yet to hear from returns show W. S. Murphy elected clerk of court; A. D. Jordan, treasurer; G. A. Rabun, receiver; D. C. Thomas, sheriff; J. K. Kinman, surveyor, and J. A. Morris, coroner.

For collector it will take an official count to see whether L. Peterson has defeated the incumbent, K. P. Walden. The greatest interest manifested was in the selection for sheriff. After a hard fight Sheriff J. J. Smith was defeated after having served in the office for ten years.

There was no opposition to Clerk W. S. Murphy, Treasurer A. D. Jordan and Surveyor J. K. Kinman.

Indications are that about 1,500 votes were polled over the county out of a registration of 1,832.

¶ Of course, the day of the custom shoe maker is gone. But if you were to see the care that is taken with every detail, the vigilant supervision of every stitch and eyelet, you'd declare that Thayer shoes are as painstakingly made as though by hand.

WOODWARD WELCOMES WATER AND LIGHT MEN

Two Hundred Delegates Assemble for Opening Session at the Piedmont Hotel.

The Tri-State Water and Light association of the Carolinas and Georgia opened its annual convention Thursday morning in the convention room of the Piedmont hotel with about 200 delegates in attendance. Mayor Woodward delivered the welcoming address, with response by W. F. Steiglitz, councilman of Columbia, S. C.

An invocation was delivered by Rev. W. C. Schaeffer, Jr., and A. J. Sproles, president of the association, gave the annual address of the president. Joel Hunter, of Atlanta, spoke along the lines of accounting systems for water and light departments, and a talk upon watt-hour meters was made by L. W. Carnagy, of Atlanta.

Forestry and Water Resources.

The convention adjourned for lunch and reopened at 2 o'clock, when H. S. Graves, chief forester of the department of agriculture, of Washington, D. C., spoke upon "Forestry and Water Resources." Mr. Graves said:

"The problem of control of our water sources is one of the most important problems of internal development of the country. Streams are becoming more irregular every year and the use of water resources becoming more and more intensive. The value of property affected either by floods or by irregularities of flow, has become so great as to make the control of streams relatively of much greater importance than formerly.

"Even where actual floods have not increased in amount, the damage by them has increased. Measures must therefore be taken immediately which only a few years ago were not essential. The constantly increasing demand upon water resources through our greater increased industrial development demands that the river problem be vigorously attacked at once."

This talk was followed by a scientific address of pronounced merit by M. F. Corin, of Philadelphia, upon "Water and Its Purification for Industrial Purposes."

Methodist Leaders Coming For Old-Fashioned Revival

Bishop John C. Kilgo, one of the great leaders in southern Methodism, arrives in Atlanta today to be one of the principal speakers at the big old-fashioned revival which starts tonight at 7:45 o'clock at St. Paul's Methodist church. The revival, which will go back to the old Sam Jones days for its inspection, will last for a week.

It is hoped the church will be filled to the doors tonight to welcome Bishop Kilgo, who is the principal speaker for the evening. There will be a strong service to open the Saturday morning meetings at 10:30 o'clock, led by Professor Excell, the famous revival leader who will be here to take charge of the music throughout the revival. A large chorus choir has been organized among the Methodists, which will participate in all of the services.

All Methodists, and, in fact, all the Protestant evangelical churches in Atlanta, are invited to the services and are urged to help make the revival a success.

At the 11 o'clock service Saturday, Bishop Kilgo will preach and on Saturday night at 7:45, he will preach again.

On Sunday there will be a Sunday school rally at 9:30 a. m., and preaching at the regular service at 11 o'clock, with Bishop Kilgo and other speakers.

On Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock, there will be a great mass meeting for men only, to be addressed by Bishop Kilgo. There will also be regular night services.

Dr. Plato Durham, the noted pulpit orator, will arrive Monday morning from Charlotte to assist Dr. Fraser and Bishop Kilgo in the revival, and Dr. Charles L. Goodell, pastor of St. Paul's church, New York, the largest Methodist church in the world, will be here early in the week. There will be other noted speakers and the program for next week's daily services will be announced Monday.

All the sessions will be held in St. Paul's church at the corner of Grant and Sidney streets. The Woodward ave. or Grant Park car runs right by the church door, while the East Hunter to Grant Park and the Decatur avenue to Grant Park pass within a short block or so from the church.

The headquarters for Bishop Kilgo and the other out-of-town speakers will be the Majestic hotel.

Dr. Fraser is planning to model these meetings after the old Methodist revivals which accomplished wonderful good throughout the south years ago, and which have been rather infrequent in this part of the country during the past few years. The object is not to confine the interest entirely to the Methodist church, but to hold a series of meetings, which will be of interest and benefit to the entire community.

OLD CASES RENEWED AGAINST THE CLUBS; STAR WITNESS HERE

Old cases which were docketed against the Theatrical club, the Metropolitan club, the Owls clubs and the Eagles club several months ago, and dismissed because the chief witness for the city against the locker clubs, W. C. Jones, left the city, will be renewed this morning. Five cases against these clubs will be tried by Judge Nash Broyles in police court, the city renewing the cases as Jones, the chief witness, has returned to the city.

The cases are docketed against A. R. Smith, of the Theatrical club; H. R. Smith, of the Metropolitan club; C. C. Raoul, of the Owls club; William Wolpert, of the Owls club, and S. R. Green, of the Eagles club.

SERVANT REMEMBERED IN WILL OF DR. TODD

Benjamin Pheatt, an old family servant, was not forgotten in the will of Dr. James Scott Todd, which was filed for probate yesterday with the ordinary. Dr. Todd left him $1,000, on which he is to receive the income, with the provision that, at the legatee's death, the principal is to go to the home for superannuated ministers of the North Georgia Methodist conference.

The will divides the remainder of Dr. Todd's fortune of $158,000, among his four children, Mrs. Louise Todd Wallace, James Scott Todd, Jr., James B. Todd and Henry W. Todd. From his daughter's share, $1,500 is to be taken and divided equally among the other three children. This, the will says, is in part justice to them for certain extra expenses incurred by the daughter during Dr. Todd's lifetime.

ALLEGED TIGER FOUND NEAR POLICE STATION

An alleged blind tiger was discovered by Sergeant Fain next door to police headquarters Thursday morning as the officer was on his way to the station house to report for the day's duty at 8 o'clock. As a result of his discovery an hour later two men, J. H. Smith, an aged man who rooms at 167 1-2 Decatur street, next door to the station house, and A. L. Williams, a horse trader, of Lakewood Heights, were fined by Judge Broyles $100.75 and $75.75, respectively.

Sergeant Fain testified that he saw Williams drive up to the rear of 167 1-2 Decatur street, and the old man came out and took from the buggy a suspicious-looking sack, which he discovered upon investigation to contain thirty bottles of whisky.

PASSENGERS SEE BOY FATALLY HURT BY CAR

James Gibson, a 14-year-old negro messenger boy, who lives at No. 182 Elliott street, was run over by a street car returning from the baseball park Thursday afternoon shortly before 3 o'clock at the corner of Peachtree and Harris streets. Both legs of the boy were severed at the hip and late last night he died at Grady hospital.

The boy was dragged by the car half a block, a number of horrified spectators witnessing the accident. Gibson was riding his bicycle, which hit the car, throwing him underneath the wheels.

L. J. DANIEL RETURNS TO BEDSIDE OF SON

L. C. Daniel, the young son of L. J. Daniel of Atlanta, who is attending college at Riverside Military academy at Gainesville, and who has been ill for some time with pneumonia, grew worse yesterday and his condition is critical.

His father, who returned Thursday morning from a trip to Gainesville to see his son, returned to the bedside again Thursday afternoon and will likely remain until the crisis is passed.

2,312 CASES TREATED BY ATLANTA CHARITIES

The Associated Charities of Atlanta has rendered its eighth annual report, which shows that 2,312 cases and 6,478 individuals were helped by the organization during the past year and $7,732.18 was expended in doing so.

This fund was devoted to the actual necessities of the needy. The report declares that Atlanta could not possibly afford to be without an institution like this to look after the many who need help.

ATHENS VISITED BY $45,000 FIRE

Athens, Ga., April 16.—(Special.)—Fire originated at 7:30 tonight in the store of Eberhardt & Davis, damaged that business and the stock of M. Link & Son, next door, to the extent of about $40,000, estimated, with $6,000 loss on the building, which is owned by the Deupree estate.

In the absence of the fire chief, the work of the department, against unusual bad luck, saved property in the big block valued at $600,000.

Style in clothes is like good breeding in a man,—without these, clothes and men are just ordinary.

Like good breeding, style comes from within; it's not temporary, nor mere veneer. Only skilled designing makes it evident, and lasting through months of wear.

WARN PUBLIC TO KEEP OFF RAILROAD TRACKS

Chamber of Commerce Committee Shows 5,000 Trespassers Are Killed Annually.

The public safety committee of the chamber of commerce met in the office of the chamber Thursday afternoon and discussed matters regarding public safety.

The committee decided to begin at once to educate the public in the dangers of trespassing on railroad tracks. Letters are being sent to every member of the chamber of commerce and other civic bodies of the state calling attention to the matter and asking that they agitate it in their various communities.

It is said that out of 10,000 people killed annually by railroads, 5,000 are trespassers. The railroads are not responsible, nor held liable, for deaths so caused, although they sometimes agree to pay burial expenses. Laws preventing such trespassing are now enforced in England and Germany.

The bill to be introduced at the next legislature restricting "pistol toting" is the outcome of careful consideration on the part of the public safety committee.

The committee on legislation, of the chamber of commerce, Albert Howell, Jr., chairman, is at present drawing a bill on hydrophobia to be presented at the next legislature, which requires the muzzling of all dogs in Ware county for a given period of time. This bill was drawn by request of the public safety committee.

Our observation is that it is mighty hard for a 19-year-old girl to have good teeth, two dimples and a grouch at the same time.

BAGWELL GRADUATE SCORES HOME RUN IN FIRST GAME WITH SUCCESS

Geo. W. Hoffer, After Only Eight Weeks' Training at Bagwell Business College, "Makes Good" in the Major League of Business Life. The Manager Writes That His Work Is Entirely Satisfactory.

GEO. W. HOFFER.

Every American boy knows instantly what it means when the captains says, "Play it safe." If you are going to make a "home run" to success—if you are going to "play it safe"—you must take the road which guarantees success.

The hundreds of letters received by Bagwell Business College from the leading business houses giving their unqualified indorsement to the efficiency of its graduates are most conclusive evidence of the superiority of Bagwell methods and systems.

Shorthand and typewriting, bookkeeping, banking and modern office methods as taught by this institution pave the way not only to immediate recompense in a paying situation, but to higher position, from membership and the time that life affords.

Skilled amanuenses, accountants and office assistants are in tremendous demand. The unskilled are a drug in the market. Atlanta business men are willing to pay large salaries to helpers that really help.

Atlanta, Ga., April 9, 1914.

Mr. J. O. Bagwell, President Bagwell Business College, Atlanta, Ga.

Dear Sir—Mr. George W. Hoffer, the young man whom we secured from your college, has been doing our stenographic work for the past two or three weeks in a very satisfactory manner. You may be sure that we would not keep him if his work was not satisfactory, as we have no time to waste in bothering with slow stenographers or correcting the errors of faulty typewriting.

Thanking you for your service in this connection, I am,

Very truly yours,

(Signed) W. A. ROGGERS, Mgr.

THE TIDE BEGINS TO RISE.

The most significant real estate development in Atlanta in a year is the purchase of the Chamberlin-Johnson-DuBose corner for $9,200 a front foot by the C. W. McClure Realty company. The price is top-notch for Atlanta real estate. The transaction was on a cash basis. No property exchanges or other considerations entered into it. The deal was not speculative.

A keynote feature is the record and character of the purchaser. C. W. McClure is not a plunger and does not trade on impulse. He is one of the most far-seeing and conservative business men in Atlanta. When he is willing to break all price precedents it means that a judicial expert believes the sluggishness of the past is at an end, and that the city is in for another period of substantial growth reflected in its every activity.

The briskness evident in the real estate market by the McClure purchase and by results from The Constitution's recent real estate special, means just one thing:

That business of every character will from this time forward move upward. The status of the realty market is as important a barometer in cities as the state of the steel market is in the country-at-large. In both instances a rise is sure forerunner of a forward impetus to general business.

The principle holds specifically with Atlanta which, by the national business consensus and as center of the southeast territory has been less touched by depression than any other part of the country, is in a position to show the first effects of revival on a large and buoyant scale. In this connection it is worth noting that temporary dullness has never impaired the value of Atlanta real estate. At each season of recurring activity values have attained higher levels than ever before.

The psychological moment is undoubtedly at hand for one of Atlanta's phenomenal forward movements in growth and business. Advices throughout Georgia, the southeast and the money centers generally are to the effect that the attention of capitalists and developers has been turned to Atlanta as never before by her success in winning a regional bank. The advertisement thus spread broadcast to the country could not have been bought by any amount of money. When men with funds waiting for investment see that Atlanta outranks cities like New Orleans, almost twice her size, and far outdistances other southern cities, the impulse to invest and locate in Atlanta is irresistible.

People want to be where success is created. They hunt "live" cities, not "dead" ones. That explains the trend of money and men to Atlanta.

And it also explains the top-notch real estate deal in Atlanta, which casts the shadow of the most prosperous year in Atlanta's history.

THE PROFIT IN PAINTING UP.

The clean-up and paint-up crusade now being preached and practiced in Atlanta has the two distinct phases of actual monetary profit and of ethical uplift.

The financial consideration arises in the fact that a house newly painted is a more valuable market asset than a dingy and unlovely house with the paint peeling off.

The aesthetic and ethical sides lie in the beneficent effect of bright and harmonious colors upon the mind of the mature adult, and their greater effect upon the receptive mind of the growing child.

A city made beautiful by color and cleanliness is a city more healthful to live in, from the mental as well as the physical standpoints. And it is a city that advertises its character in definite terms to the casual visitor from the four quarters of the earth.

These facts have concrete application in their bearing upon the horde of visitors to be expected during grand opera and Shrine week. They are also of permanent pertinence, since once Atlanta has seen the intrinsic and moral values in cleaning up and painting up, the creed is likely to be a self-perpetuating one.

CONGRESS BACKS PRESIDENT.

One of the most admirable traits of the American character is illustrated in the unanimity with which congressmen of every political complexion are backing the Mexican stand of President Wilson. During the prolonged and exasperating interchanges with Huerta there have been frequent criticisms of the president's policy. Now that the national dignity and honor are involved, and that matters seem nearing a crisis, all divergencies are forgotten and the president faces the situation strengthened with the consciousness that his hands are everywhere upheld.

Certainly no Latin-American country and no country in Europe can complain that the United States has not been patient enough in dealing with Mexico. It is a practical certainty that had the average European power been given the provocation visited on our own nation intervention would long ago have become a fact. And it is not assured that intervention would not have been without a selfish motive. As it is, the most carping critic and partisan cannot accuse the administration of any designs upon the territorial integrity of Mexico. We have waited, "watchfully," until Huerta has construed forbearance to be a weakness. It is time that he and the world were taught the distinction between constructive diplomacy and impotence to make a historic decision.

The press comment upon the president's determined attitude is almost universally of an approving and enthusiastic nature. The only exceptions come from those papers of nondescript or adjustable convictions, which now sneer unbelievingly at the very course into which they have been systematically striving to drive the president by every trick known to venom, malice, misrepresentation and studied insults to American intelligence.

BE A SPORT!

New Orleans, in addition to being picturesque and a charming place in which to live, is one of the best sporting towns in the world.

Among the first requisites of the good sport is to be a "good loser."

We fear the Crescent City is running badly off form with regard to the regional bank competition.

We live in an age of facts. Facts and figures are what counted in the regional bank competition. And that is why Atlanta got the bank.

But New Orleans' "grouch" will be only temporary.

The city is too "game," it has too splendid a past, too assured a future, to lose its head over hypothetical woes.

It is going to be a "good sport," just as soon as it realizes the futility of its present course.

There is plenty of "destiny" for all the southern cities—New Orleans near the top of the list.

TOUCHING SOLICITUDE.

A gently diverting feature in American politics today is disclosed in the complexion of the newspapers losing sleep over the possibility that congress may disregard the Panama canal tolls plank of the democratic platform.

Alas, however, these self-appointed keepers of the democratic platform are mostly republican, bull moose or mugwump.

An overwhelming preponderance of the bona fide democratic press is a unit back of the president's attitude.

Of course, it is not convenient for the republican, "bull moose" or mugwump press to take note of the fact that delegates to the Baltimore convention, which framed the free tolls plank they now hold to be the shibboleth of the party, have declared overwhelmingly against that predatory plank.

In the meantime, it is positively refreshing in these days of wars and rumors of wars to see such touching solicitude over the menace to the good old democratic party from the very foes so anxious to discredit its work and slash its throat. If the party's one hope of salvation lies with these self-constituted redeemers, dismal indeed are the prospects.

Also, Mr. Lind bears witness to the fact that one may gain a world of information by keeping a still tongue while others do the talking.

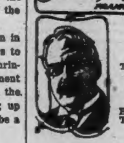

By way of celebrating her seventieth birthday Sarah Bernhardt may try out another farewell tour in this country.

Naturally, Uncle Sam is mad enough to whip the Mexican army he has been feeding at his border hotel.

As the chautauqua season approaches, bitter enemies of Bryan are circulating the story that the great lecturer has lost his voice.

The New Orleans View And Uncle Sam's View As to the Federal Bank

AS NEW ORLEANS SEES IT.

The following cartoon from The New Orleans Item seems to express sentiments typical in New Orleans as regards Atlanta's winning the regional bank.

AS UNCLE SAM SEES IT.

There is a slight variance between the views of New Orleans and those of the government, as expressed in the regional bank committee's analysis, here quoted, of the respective financial standing of New Orleans and Atlanta:

Capital and Loans and Individual Surplus. Discounts. Deposits.
Atlanta..... $5,000,000 $25,035,000 $24,348,000
New Orleans. 6,750,000 17,328,000 16,857,000

"Even more significant are the statistics of growth from September, 1904, to March, 1914:

Capital and Surplus.

			P.C. of
CITY.	Sept., 1904.	Mch., 1914.	Inc.
Atlanta.....	$ 2,410,000	$5,000,000	108
New Orleans....	6,250,000	6,750,000	8

Loans and Discounts.

			P.C. of
CITY.	Sept., 1904.	Mch., 1914.	Inc.
Atlanta.....	$10,325,000	$25,035,000	152
New Orleans....	20,082,000	17,328,000	*13

* Decrease.

Individual Deposits.

			P.C. of

New Orleans....	19,425,000	16,857,000	*13

* Decrease.

"The loans and discounts in the national banks of New Orleans at the time of the report, March 4, 1914, were less than those of the national banks of either Atlanta or Dallas."

COMMENT OF CONTEMPORARIES.

"Gin Fizz." That's All!

(From The Hattiesburg (Miss.) News.)

New Orleans, in our opinion, was the logical point for one of the regional banks to be located in the south; but did not get it. New Orleans is the logical point for a good many things it does not get. Atlanta gets everything it is entitled to, and some things—this bank, for instance—it is not entitled to; because Atlanta goes after things in a business way; while New Orleans goes after them in a gin fizz sort of way. Atlanta has more enterprise and energy to the man and to the square inch than any town in the south, unless it is Birmingham, and New Orleans has less.

Atlanta is strictly business; New Orleans is all froth and foam. The reason Atlanta is as large as it is, is because of its business hustle and business enterprise and business methods. New Orleans people as a class and as a whole eat more and drink more and work less and do less serious thinking, than the citizens of any town in America, so far as our observation goes.

"The Baby Act."

(From The Pensacola Journal.)

New Orleans is making a ridiculous spectacle of herself in the federal reserve bank matter and her whole attitude is characteristically New Orleanesca. The Crescent City has always been more or less (mostly more) of a hog, and the idea of any other southern city getting anything, when even a remote reason existed for New Orleans wanting it, never sits well with that greedy river port.

There is no good reason why New Orleans should have a federal reserve bank over either Atlanta or Dallas. Nobody in Texas or Arkansas want to do business in New Orleans. Nobody in Florida, Alabama, Tennessee or Georgia, and only a part of Mississippi, care to do business there. Florida and Alabama infinitely prefer Atlanta to New Orleans. The Pensacola and West Florida banking interests would also prefer Birmingham over either of them, but they all prefer Atlanta over the Louisiana city.

Federal reserve banks could not be located in both cities, and, that being true, it was a wise judgment that selected Atlanta, and that judgment will be approved by the banking and business interests which are to be served by Atlanta.

New Orleans ought to quit playing the baby.

DAILY GRIST from the STATE'S POLITICAL GRIND

GOVERNOR SLATON IS ADVOCATING NO ONE WHO IS RUNNING

Governor John M. Slaton, candidate for the United States senate, occupies the unique position in the great and glorious state of Georgia of advocating no one for governor or for any of the several fat political plums to be disposed of at the august primary. He is one of the very few men who is not worrying himself regarding the candidacy of someone. He is running his own race, and has no connection whatever with the race of anyone else. And, what is more, he will have no connection with any other race. He is, to use the words of the late Alexander Stephens, "totin' his own skillet."

Governor Slaton, on the eve of his departure for Reidsville, in Tattnall county, where he is scheduled to make an educational speech Friday night, expressed great satisfaction at the progress of his campaign thus far. Of the 250 or more letters he has received this week, only four were at all adverse. The others breathed the spirit of enthusiasm in a rare degree for this early stage of the game.

At the banquet at the Hotel Ansley Wednesday night the county commissioners from practically every county in the state gave him the most enthusiastic reception. He was invariably referred to as "Senator Slaton." He was particularly gratified at this reception for the reason that one of the longest speeches he ever made in the legislature was that delivered in 1905 advocating placing county convicts on the public roads. This speech was printed in The Constitution in full in July, 1905.

INTERESTING SITUATION ARISES IN BIBB COUNTY POLITICS

An interesting situation has arisen in the politics of Bibb county, and considerable gossip is going the rounds in regard to it. The name of Judge Nat E. Harris has been frequently mentioned as a possible or probable candidate for governor, and he has been warmly urged to make the race. Should he consent, he would, in all probability, be the last confederate veteran to enter such a contest in the state of Georgia. Judge Harris has a large and warm personal following, and is a man of delightful personality. For many years he has been closely identified with the industrial interests of Macon, and is prominent in church work.

From the camp of Thomas S. Felder, candidate for senator, there appears to have arisen a protest over the boom which has been launched in behalf of Judge Harris, the feeling being that two candidates for office from the same city would not stand as good show of election as if only one were running.

Friends of Judge Harris, on the other hand, feel that, on account of his splendid civic record, he should be given the undivided support of his home town and county, and that the ambitions of no one should stand in his way.

ACTION OF COBB COUNTY COMMITTEE BRINGS STILL ANOTHER PROTEST

Anent the action of the Cobb county executive committee in passing resolutions asking Governor Slaton to resign, in order that the Frank case might come up to him for official action, The Cobb Star, of recent date, has the following to say under the caption of "Indefensible Politics:"

"While we are not prepared to espouse the candidacy of Governor Slaton for the senate, and have never been a partisan of his, we do not hesitate to condemn the action of the democratic executive committee of Cobb county in calling for the resignation of the governor, alleging that in ture. He is seeking the judgeship of the city court of Floyd county, and will probably be unopposed. Judge John H. Reese, who has held the position for the past four years, will voluntarily retire to private life at the expiration of his term, on October 1, 1918.

Two other unopposed candidates are D. W. Simmons, for clerk of the superior court, and T. B. Owens, for county treasurer.

BIG REGISTRATION IN FRANKLIN; CANDIDATES FAST ANNOUNCING

Lavonia, Ga., April 16.—(Special.)—The Franklin county primary will be held on August 19 along with the state primary. Since the date for the primary has been fixed, there is a likelihood of a stir in political circles around here.

Colonel A. N. King has announced his candidacy for representative. Dr. T. S. Bonner has announced for the senate from the thirty-first district. Dr. Bonner lives in Franklin county. Candidates are out for all the other county offices, which insures a lively campaign.

Considerable interest is attached to the probable race for governor. The governor and the race for senate. Franklin county is thoroughly democratic, and the people have a way of doing as they please with votes, and going to the polls and casting their votes accordingly. Although Franklin is numbered among the small counties in the state, there are on the registration books of the county 4,071 names of voters.

Congressman Tribble will have no opposition in his race for congress this time. Some opposition was mentioned several weeks ago, but did not materialize.

BERRIEN COUNTY VOTERS ASK THOMAS TO ENTER THE RACE

Nashville, Ga., April 16.—(Special.)—Politics is booming in Berrien county. There are 2,500 registered voters.

A strong indorsement of Judge Thomas for governor is being forwarded to Valdosta, urging him to become a candidate.

FENCE OR NO FENCE ELECTION TO BE HELD IN THOMAS COUNTY

Thomasville, Ga., April 16.—(Special.)—In compliance with the petition of a number of the voters of the county, a "fence or no fence" election will be called for some time in July to decide what stand Thomas county will take in the settlement of this matter.

For some time past there has been a good deal said and written by the citizens of the county in regard to whether or not there should be a stock law, or what its advantages would be, and it will be decided at the polls. It is understood that the county is a good deal divided in sentiment, some factions favoring the law and others opposing it; but there is no doubt that the sentiment in the town is much stronger than within the last year, and it stands a good chance to carry.

ELBERT COUNTY VOTERS LIKE IDEA OF BOLOGE FOR GOVERNOR

Elberton, Ga., April 16.—(Special.)—The suggestion of Judge Horace M. Holden for governor has met with unusually warm support in this county and section. He is very popular in his old judicial circuit. His friends are urging him to get into the race.

His disposition and past record, without any questionable, make him a formidable candidate should he enter the race.

His administration of the affairs of that office is highly commended. The board at a recent meeting passed the following resolution unanimously:

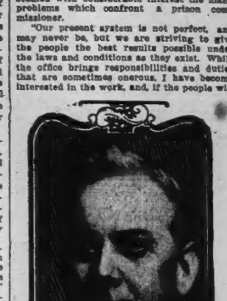

"Resolved, That we note with gratitude the splendid efforts of Hon. M. L. accord to me the customary indorsement of election to a full term. I shall give them my best efforts, and pledge myself to devote my time and whatever talents I possess to the discharge of my duties.

"The board, as now constituted, has one member from north Georgia, one from middle Georgia and one from south Georgia. I come from that great section of Georgia which is rapidly developing, and where a large part of our convicts are employed in working the public roads. I believe, other things being equal, that our section of the state should be represented on the prison commission."

LIVELY CONTESTS IN PROGRESS FOR FLOYD COUNTY OFFICES

Rome Ga., April 16.—(Special.)—The entries for the Floyd county primary, which will be held on April 28, will close tomorrow, and all candidates whose names are to appear on the official ballot must enter and pay their expenses before that time.

Lively contests are in progress for many of the county offices. One candidate who, it appears, will have no opposition, however, is Judge W. J. Nunnally, one of the present Floyd county representatives in the legislature. He is seeking the judgeship of the city court of Floyd county, and will probably be unopposed. Judge John H. Reese, who has held the position for the past four years, will voluntarily retire to private life at the expiration of his term, on October 1, 1918.

GEORGIA BANKERS WILL CONVENE IN CITY TODAY

Gen. H. Titus, of New York, Will Explain Federal Reserve Act.

Since Atlanta's selection as the site for one of the government regional banks, the federal reserve act has been the most discussed topic among Georgia bankers. The subject, in its most important aspects, will be explained before the meeting of Group 5, Georgia Bankers' association, at its meeting in Atlanta today.

The speaker will be George H. Titus, of New York, assistant cashier of the National City bank, one of the most noted financial institutions in the United States. Mr. Titus will speak on "Some Phases of the Federal Reserve Act," and will explain many points which have not been exactly made clear. Mr. Titus has made a study of the finer points of the law, and because of his knowledge of the currency situation throughout the country his advice and interpretations have been eagerly sought.

There will be several other speakers of note. "Rural Credits," another subject of keen interest among bankers, will be discussed by J. W. Vaughan, vice president of the Bank of Carterville. W. D. Thomson, of the law firm of Candler, Thomson & Hirsh, of Atlanta, will speak on "Legal Points in Everyday Banking."

The opening session will be held at 9 o'clock at the Piedmont Driving club. The local arrangement committee, composed of Carl H. Lewis, Central Bank and Trust company, Atlanta; T. J. Simpson, Exchange National, of Rome, and Ed L. Henderson, Commercial bank, Cedartown, have arranged an unusually attractive program for the entertainment of the visitors, numbering about 150. A luncheon will be served at the Driving club, and in the afternoon there will be a special program at Forest park, where the visitors will be taken to see the game between Atlanta and Nashville.

MOTORCYCLE EXPERTS HOLD MEETING FRIDAY

The last meeting of the motorcycle riders of Atlanta will be held at 124 Peachtree street at 8 o'clock Friday night. Every motorcycle in the city is asked to be present, as several things of importance will be brought up. All the riders that want to enter the next run, to be held Sunday, April 19, should be on hand to receive their numbers and time cards. This run will be held over a 190 mile course at the average speed of about twenty-five miles an hour. On one day next week, the riders will give a supper at the Ansley hotel, to award the gold medal to the winner of the three endurance runs. The next event that the riders will stage, will be an economy run. The winner of this event will be the man that can cover the greatest distance on a given amount of gasoline.

G. M. A. INSPECTION HELD BY CAPT. J. P. ROBINSON

The annual inspection of the Georgia Military academy was held Wednesday morning by Captain J. P. Robinson, of the general staff. The inspection was begun with dress parade, escort of colors, review and inspection. This was followed by Burt's manual to music, bayonet exercise, company drill in close and extended order, artillery drill, signaling, bridge construction, first aid to the injured, tent pitching, wall scaling and field maneuvers. The cadets were in splendid spirit and the exercises were witnessed by a large company of visitors in addition to Captain Robinson himself.

CARGILE WAS ALLOWED TO ATTEND FUNERAL

In the Constitution of Tuesday morning the statement was made that Governor Slaton had declined to allow Woodward Cargile, a convict serving a sentence in Butts county, to attend the funeral of his mother. This was an error, which grew out of two conflicting letters on the subject. Governor Slaton wrote the secretary of the prison commission, in the absence of members of the commission, giving Cargile permission to go to the funeral, and he availed himself of the permission.

Governor Slaton has been extremely liberal in such matters. Some time ago Thomas E. Spalding, who is serving a life term, was allowed to spend a week at Columbus visiting his sick wife.

QUARRELS WITH UNCLE AND THEN DISAPPEARS

City detectives, the county police and juvenile court officers are using their united efforts to locate Jack Stone, 12 years old, who disappeared from the home of his uncle, O. H. Starnes, in Custer Hill, late Wednesday afternoon, after a dispute with a younger cousin. Mr. Starnes states that Jack became angry because of a little dispute, and that when he did not come back at nightfall, a diligent search was instituted, but without success.

The missing boy is five feet tall, and weighs about eighty-five pounds. He is a blonde. When he left his uncle's home he wore a blue coat, gray trousers and a brown checked cap.

WOLFE WILL EXPLAIN FEDERAL RESERVE ACT

Atlanta bankers and business men have evinced keen interest in the announcement that C. Howard Wolfe, secretary of the clearing house section of the American Bankers' association and president of the New York chapter American Institute of Banking, will be in Atlanta to deliver an address on the "Federal Reserve Act" at 8 o'clock Friday night at the Carnegie library. A committee of local bankers have been at work creating interest in the lecture and it is expected that every banker and bank employee will be in attendance.

Many Women's Organizations To Work for Greater Hospital

The Atlanta Pan-Hellenic association pledged themselves at a meeting in the University club Thursday afternoon to work for the Greater Hospital movement. This organization represents several thousand young women, and they will undertake to interest the younger citizens of Atlanta who may not yet feel as keenly as they should their obligation as voters to exercise the right in the forthcoming primary.

Miss Elizabeth Kempton, president of the Atlanta Pan-Hellenic, presided at the meeting, and brought before the organization the subject of the Greater Hospital.

"Not only because it is the most needed and worthiest of Atlanta's institutions should we work for the Greater Hospital movement, but because we have been called upon by the federated organizations head, Mrs. Samuel Lumpkin, to engage in the work. It is that we might, in our first young efforts in organization, begin in the right and directed way that we federated with the city organization and that of the state, and this hospital movement being the first demand made upon us, we will not be found lacking in enthusiasm."

Daughters of Confederacy.

The Atlanta chapter, Daughters of the Confederacy, holding their regular meeting Thursday and celebrating Stonewall Jackson's birthday, indorsed enthusiastically the Greater Hospital movement, and passed resolutions to that effect. They pledged themselves to work for the passage of the bond issue, each woman to work in her own neighborhood.

"JIM CROW" ORDINANCE URGED BY ARMISTEAD

That the Georgia Railway and Power company should be forced to provide some method to prevent the intermingling of whites and blacks on street cars, is the belief of Alderman Jesse Armistead, who has drafted a "Jim Crow" ordinance to regulate passenger traffic on street cars.

Alderman Armistead's ordinance was filed with the police committee Thursday afternoon, and was referred to the ordinance committee for consideration.

The measure provides that the street car company adopt some method to separate the races. At present there are no signs in the cars, and frequently, according to the author of the resolution, innocent persons have been embarrassed by being forced to give up seats in the rear of the car and take other seats nearer the motorman.

If council adopts Alderman Armistead's ordinance, the street and electric railway committee of council will have authority to prescribe the method of separating the races.

The early morning temperature will be about 60 degrees and the temperature will rise to over 75 degrees during the middle of the day. Hardly any clouds will appear in the sky. The weather will probably remain fine for a day or two longer, unless somebody gets up a picnic.

Lopez-McMillan.

The wedding of Miss Irene Moise Lopez and Mr. Howard Osgood McMillan was a beautiful event of last night, which took place at 9 o'clock at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. David Hinton Lopez, on Piedmont avenue.

The lower floor of the house was thrown together and decorated with handsome palms, ferns and smilax, and in all of the apartments pink roses and sweet peas were the flowers used excepting the hall, where baskets of purple lilacs were effectively placed.

The ceremony took place in the drawing room, where the bridal party was grouped before a bank of palms and ferns. An aisle through which the wedding party passed was formed of ribbons held by the bride's brother, Mr. John Lopez, and by her cousin, Mr. Robert Campbell.

Mrs. Howard Merrill, of Salt Lake City, was matron of honor, and wore pink satin with draperies of pink chiffon cloth and tulle with rhinestone trimmings. Miss Madge Horn was maid of honor and was gowned in white chiffon, and she wore a pink bridesmaid veil of tulle. Both maid and matron of honor carried French baskets filled with pink sweet peas. Miss Dorothy De Leon and Master John Hines, both wearing white and carrying baskets of pink sweet peas, preceded the bride, who entered with her father. She was a lovely picture in her mother's wedding gown of ivory satin, made with court train and trimmed in rose point lace. Her veil of point applique lace was held in place with a wreath of orange blossoms and her flowers were white orchids and valley lilies.

The bride's mother wore a handsome gown of gold net embroidered in black.

At the reception, following the ceremony, Mrs. Moise De Leon, Mrs. Henry Hartley of South Carolina, Mrs. Joseph H. Hines, Mrs. Pettigrew and Mrs. John Harrison assisted in entertaining.

The bride's table in the dining room had as a centerpiece a long Italian forgery filled with white sweet peas. At the four corners of the table were silver forneries filled with pink sweet peas. The four Italian circle candlesticks had pink tapers and other details of the artistic table were in pink.

A feature was the bride's cake, heart-shaped and decorated in pink and white.

Miss Ruth Wing and Miss Jennie Knox served punch.

Mr. and Mrs. McMillan left for a wedding trip, and returning will be at home in Minneapolis, where the groom is engaged in business.

Card Party at Winecoff.

The educational committee of the Atlanta Woman's club will give a large party at the Winecoff hotel Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock for the benefit of the committee fund. There will be a prize offered at each table. Punch will be served during the game and dainty refreshments afterwards.

A large patronage is urged, as it is necessary to build up the educational fund before the club year is over. Mrs. Spencer Atkinson will be the hostess of the occasion.

Battle-Carroll.

A very pretty wedding was that of Miss Julia Amanda Battle, of this city, and Mr. Charles Allen Carroll, of Junction City, Ark., which was solemnized at the First Baptist church Wednesday, the Rev. Mr. Roberts performing the ceremony.

The bride was charming in a going-away suit of navy blue and carried a shower bouquet of white roses and valley lilies. The bridesmaids, Misses Hettie Brassell, Pauline Trimble, Annie Rosemore and Nellie McCall, also wore navy blue suits with corsage bouquets of pink roses.

The wedding march was played by Mr. John O'Donnelly, and Miss Mattie Ellis sang the beautifully appropriate "O, Perfect Love."

Immediately after the ceremony the bride and groom left for Junction City, Ark., where they will make their home.

Travelers' Aid Meeting.

The annual meeting of the Atlanta Woman's Missionary association will be held today (Friday) at the Central Congregational church, corner Ellis street and Carnegie way, at 3:30 p. m. The annual election of officers will be held. Rev. Mr. Shaefer will speak on the subject of "The Traveler's Aid Work Considered as Civic Betterment." Dr. DuBose will have charge of the devotional exercises, and there will be special music and an interesting meeting. Everybody is invited to attend and learn of the great work which is being carried on so quietly and efficiently.

The program of the Alliance Francaise next Friday at 3:15 o'clock at the University club, will be very entertaining.

Miss Marion Otis, an artist, will give a ten-minutes' talk on the art of painting on the stage. Miss Helen Muse will discuss the "Manon Lescaut" by l'abbe Prevost. The subject is very appropriate for from that book the libretto of "Manon" has been extracted. Mrs. Leitner, a fine student of French, will discuss the advantage of learning the French language.

Mrs. Slifer will close the meeting with a lecture on "Masterlink and His Work."

French quotations, as usual, will be asked.

Green-Fincher.

An interesting event of Wednesday afternoon was the wedding of Miss Ora Cordella Green to Mr. Horace Luther Fincher, which took place at the First M. E. church, Rev. H. M. DuBose performing the ceremony.

Easter-tide gave the suggestion for the wedding decorations and was beautifully embodied in great clusters of waxen lillies and white cosmos arranged about the altar interspersed with palms and ferns.

The wedding attendants included Miss Lelia Fincher, maid of honor; Mr. Allen M. Pierce, best man, and little Madaline, the attractive young daughter of Dr. and Mrs. W. H. Hine, was flower girl; she carried a shower basket of pink roses and valley lilies.

The lovely young bride made a charming picture in her traveling suit of Alice blue serge with hat and gloves to match. She carried a shower of bride roses, white orchids and valley lilies.

The maid of honor wore a handsome gown of blue crepe de chine, and carried pink roses.

Mr. and Mrs. Fincher left immediately after the ceremony for an extended trip north; upon their return they will be at home to their friends in Farlinger apartments, East avenue.

Denk-Weitnauer.

A pretty wedding of last evening was that of Miss Annie Denk and Mr. Carl Weitnauer, which took place at 4 o'clock at the German Lutheran church.

Clusters of Easter lilies against a background of palms and ferns were the decorations at the church.

Mrs. Carl Oelschlig, of Savannah, a sister of the bride, and Mrs. Milner Lafaite were matrons of honor and Miss Selena Brantley was maid of honor.

Miss Lottie Meunch, of Buchanan, Mich., Miss Minnie Silver and Miss Mamie Bleim were the bridesmaids.

Mr. Albert Weitnauer was his brother's best man and Mr. August Denk, Mr. Augustus Jordan, Mr. William Richter were groomsmen and the ushers were Mr. Henry Mennoh, Mr. Henry Frech, Mr. Carl Olschig, of Savannah, and Mr. C. L. Denk.

The bride was given away by her father, Mr. August Denk, and the Rev. George Gilbert officiated.

The bride was charming in a gown of white satin charmeuse, trimmed in princess lace and her tulle veil was caught with orange blossoms and she wore a diamond pendant.

She carried a shower of bride roses and valley lilies. The matrons of honor wore white satin gowns and carried pink roses. The maid of honor wore white lace over green satin and her flowers were pink rosebuds. The bridesmaids were gowned in Nile green crepe de chine gowns and carried Easter lillies. The bride's mother wore gray crepe de chine.

A large reception at the home of the bride's parents in Decatur, at which several hundred guests were entertained, followed the church ceremony.

The house was elaborately decorated with palms and ferns, Easter lillies, carnations and orange blossoms in artistic arrangement.

The bride's cake, beautifully decorated and wreathed about with orange blossoms, was in the center of the table in the dining room, and the candle shades and other details were in white and green.

Miss Ida Oleeberg, of Savannah, and Miss Crystal Bosche served punch and Mr. and Mrs. Denk were assisted in entertaining by a number of friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Weitnauer left for a wedding trip to Florida and on their return will be at home in Smyrna.

O. Stillman, in College Park. A profusion of white azaleas, Easter lilies and palms decorated the house. The ceremony took place in the drawing room, where the bridal party was grouped before an altar of greenery massed with white azaleas and Easter lillies.

The bride took a becoming traveling suit of mauve cloth, the coat opening over a lace blouse and the hat to match the gown. She carried orchids and lilies of the valley.

Mr. Paul Twitty, of Jacksonville, was best man, and little Misses Julia Broadwell and Mary Sullivan, flower girls of the bride, were the ribbon bearers, both wearing dainty white lingerie dresses and pink ribbons. Sure Way to Regain Robust Bloom of Youth

A smooth, velvety-soft skin, with a delicate peach-like bloom, is one of the Creator's most exquisite works. When the first bloom of youth is over, this beautiful tint and satiny lustre are rarely seen. How to preserve them—that's the question. Famous beauty experts abroad long have known that ordinary marcolized wax works wonders in this direction. It actually gives a new surface to the skin, restoring that marvelous girlish color and softness in a remarkable manner. An ounce of this wax, procurable at any druggstore, will correct a faded, freckled, worn-out or discolored complexion into one of captivating loveliness in less than two weeks. No special skill is necessary in applying the wax, it being smeared on at night like cold cream and washed off in the morning.

To remove wrinkles, or delay their formation, a face bath made by dissolving 1 oz. powdered saxolite in ½ pt. witch hazel, will be found wonderfully efficacious. This tones up relaxed skin, causing it to remain firm and smooth.—(adv.)

RATHER DEAD THAN ALIVE

Deplorable Condition of Lumpkin Lady Whose Troubles Multiplied Until Life Became Almost Unbearable.

Lumpkin, Ga.—Mrs. G. W. Booth, of this place, says: "I suffered with dumb chills and fever and was very irregular. Was also very nervous and weak, short of breath, couldn't do my housework without it being a burden, and then I began suffering untold misery in my left side and back. I got to where I would rather have been dead than alive.

I tried many remedies, but they failed to help me.

Finally, I purchased two bottles of Cardui, the woman's tonic, and began taking it according to directions. Cardui helped me right away. I believe it saved my life.

I cannot praise Cardui enough to my lady friends. It is certainly the medicine for suffering women and girls."

If you have any of the ailments so common to women, or if you feel the need of a good, strengthening tonic, we urge you to give Cardui a trial. It has helped thousands of women in its past 80 years of success, as is proven by the numerous enthusiastic letters of gratitude, similar to the above, which come to us every day.

Don't delay. Take letter from Mrs. Booth should convince you that Cardui is worth a trial. Get a bottle from your druggist today. You'll never regret it.

Beautiful Luncheon Given By Mrs. Charles McGehee

Mrs. Charles McGehee entertained seventy-five ladies at a beautiful luncheon yesterday in compliment to her guests, Mrs. Estes, of Columbus, and Mrs. Hopkins, of New York. The party assembled at 1:30 o'clock, and being the first large social event of the day since Easter, was marked by all the brightness and happiness of the spring season.

Mrs. McGehee was as lovely as the spring flowers surrounding her, and wore a taffeta gown in the soft shade coloring, the center of peach blossoms. Hems made in draped bouffants flushed and frummed in shadow lace. Mrs. Estes wore a graceful gown in the pastel tones of green and rose. Mrs. Hopkins' becoming gown was in pale gray chiffon and silk.

In the different apartments, where the guests were served in groups, there were spring flowers in all the delicacy of their color and perfume. In the library the jonquil and narcissus were used; in the living rooms pink roses and in the dining room pink roses and lilacs. In the center of the table was a silver loving cup filled with roses and lilacs, the bouquet tipped by a soft bow of lavender tulle.

An elegant repast was served including, substantials and dainties and punch.

The trying hats of the season did not try the beauty of Atlanta women, for they wear as gracefully the full panier skirts, as they did those narrower ones of last season. Parades of agrettes and flowers rivaled each in popularity, and to call any color more popular than another would be impossible. There were many smart toilets in black, and many in dark blue, and several smart toilets in the ever-popular gray shades.

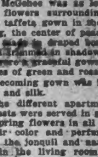

Mrs. Ogilsby wore a stylish toilet in all black, the short coat opening over a blouse of sheerest white lace. Mrs. Dubose wore a becoming hat in black chiffon. Mrs. W. E. Foster wore a black chiffon gown with satin stripes, her toque of all black.

Mrs. Willis Westmoreland's black moire silk suit was given a touch of color in blue velvet, and her hat upturned with blue, was given height in black paradise plumage. Mrs. Bates Block wore with a black taffeta coat suit a chiffon blouse in light blue and canary color, and her pretty hat, of black, was trimmed in spring flowers.

Mrs. H. H. Cobb wore a black taffeta gown combined with blue chiffon; Mrs. Lewis Beck wore with the smart suit of suits combining black moire and serge, a vest of flowered satin; her toque of black straw, trimmed in parades. The becoming black charmeuse gown worn by Mrs. Charles Soiple was embroidered in blue. Mrs. John Murphy wore with a French gown of black taffeta and white chiffon handsome ornaments in cut jet. Her toque was of black and an American Beauty rose was an effective color touch at the belt. Mrs. Frank Hawkins wore a sulphur-colored chiffon gown over black satin; her hat, trimmed in feather fancies, was most becoming.

Mrs. W. A. Speer wore an electric-blue silk showing a white check design. The high collar and chimesette front was of white lace, and finish was given in series-colored velvet ribbon. Mrs. Floyd McRae wore a pretty gray gown the coat figured in tiny flowers, and her hat, of white, trimmed in black and trimmed in flowers. Mrs. Quill Orme's gown was of gray chiffon with velvet trimmings of pansy color, and her hat was trimmed in pansies. Mrs. Lee Jordan wore a black taffeta gown with trimmings of white lace and chiffon, and her hat was flower-trimmed. Mrs. Shepherd Bryan wore a dark blue gown; her hat trimmed in American Beauties. Mrs. Hugh Richardson wore a beautiful gown of taupe-colored chiffon cloth; her hat was of blue, trimmed in roses. Mrs. Frank Inman wore blue brocade charmeuse; her hat, of black, trimmed in paradise plumes.

Crackers Split Double Bill; Slowest Games on Record; Early Game Today---2:45

The Crackers and Vols split a double-header at Ponce de Leon yesterday afternoon, the former winning first, 7 to 6, and the latter the second, 5 to 4.

It was an afternoon of lost opportunities for both sides, but especially for the Crackers, who had numerous chances to tie or win each game, failing in the second game by a single run.

Four hours and twenty minutes were consumed in playing the two five innings of the worst exhibitions of baseball ever perpetrated locally.

All Kinds of Ball.

There were all kinds of baseball in both games, good, bad and indifferent, but more of the last named two than the good.

The good plays were so few and far between that the bad ones far overshadowed them and makes it extremely difficult to recall the plays that were of the sort of bad ones that prevailed throughout.

The first game was won from behind by the Crackers' heavy artillery, the locals making some amends for their poor fielding by their splendid hitting.

Captain Weichence produced the final blow in the final inning of the first frame. A single, a steal and a sent McConnell scampering home with the winning tally.

Lost Opportunities.

Lost opportunities galore lost the second game, if you make allowance for the terrible mistakes made by every one in the second frame, when the Vols tallied five runs, principally on Cracker errors, though a few timely hits helped.

But after presenting the game to the Vols on a platter, as described, the lack of a timely blow at an opportune moment spilled the beans.

The teams meet again today. The game will be called at 2:45 to permit the Vols to catch a train home and the Crackers one for Memphis, where they play Saturday.

The locals return home April 27, playing in Memphis and Chattanooga while away.

HITCHCOCK HOLDS COMMODORES SAFE

His Teammates Pound Out Victory and Take Long Chances on the Base Lines. Score 8-2.

By Clark Howell, Jr.

Athens, Ga., April 16.—(Special.)—Georgia eliminated Auburn from the S. I. A. A. championship race here Thursday afternoon by taking the second game from the Commodores by a score of 8 to 2.

There was no doubt as to the result of the game from the very first, the locals getting seven runs in the first four innings, while the visitors did not get a hit until the sixth inning, and first went out in order until that stanza.

Hitchcock, on the mound for the Red and Black, pitched superb ball, letting the Tennesseans down with three hits, which allowing one secured from him during the afternoon. During the first four innings Hitchcock participated in every play, being recorded with ten assists in this time.

Roaring Ami Bikes, of football fame, was easy for the locals' pitcher, and his mate, connected with the scrudity with which the Georgians ran wild on the bases on "Goat" Brown, another football star, were the chief factors in the Commodores' defeat.

How Runs Scored.

Glun started the activities in the initial round of the game and was followed by McWhorter's triple to left center. On the next ball thrown McWhorter took a flying start and succeeded in stealing home.

Another was added in the second, when Owens walked, was sacrificed to second and scored on Hitchcock's long fly to center. Each team tallied in the third, Owens scoring on Esell's single.

In the sixth the visitors got one on Ginn's single, followed by Sykes' two-pip smash.

They shoved one more across in the ninth when Clarke scored on Harrison's grounder, a sacrifice hit and Holden's error of Turner's grounder. Ginn's fine throw to second had made this season.

Both teams got their last tally in the eighth, when Harrison was hit by pitcher, went to second on a wild pitch, to third on Holden's infield out, Third Baseman Turner hitting him in the back with the ball in an attempt to catch him at the plate.

HAMILTON BASIS FOR DAMAGE SUIT

St. Louis, Mo., April 16.—President Robert Hedges of the Locals' baseball team, and Earl Hamilton, pitcher, who disregarded his contract with the St. Louis Americans to sign with the Kansas City Federals and yesterday failed to return to St. Louis arrived here today from Columbus, Kan.

On his arrival Hamilton gave out the following signed statement:

"I want to make a public statement to the St. Louis fans and to my teammates. I was under written contract to play with the Browns in 1914 and 1915. It was a big mistake for them to go to Kansas City. I did not realize how big a mistake it was until I got to thinking it over.

"Mr. Hedges has always treated me right and when I got to thinking about it, and my contract I decided to do right."

President Hedges said he did not give Hamilton an increase in salary, but that the pitcher returned to the St. Louis team solely as the result of moral suasion.

Feds Sue.

Kansas City, April 16.—Earl Hamilton, pitcher for the Kansas City Federals last week and rejoined the St. Louis Americans yesterday, was made the defendant in a damage suit for $25,000 filed today by the local Federal club.

POP ANSON CONQUERED BY THE LURE OF GOLF

And Baseball Reporter Is Still Wondering What He Thinks of the Federals.

Attend, now, to "Pop" Anson's opinion of the Federals. All ready? "The old-time baseball star was found on the East Lake golf course with Homer George, manager of the Atlanta theatre. He was negotiating the sixteenth hole. So was Homer. They were both deeply interested in the business at hand.

"How about the Federals, Mr. Anson?" This is question No. 1 in all baseball interviews just now.)

"Huh?" The once famous Chicago manager distorted his face in the terrible manner of the golf devotee, and having completed a delicate approach gazed intently at the disturber and then at the ball.

This seemed a little off the question. It was repeated. "How, regarding the Federals?"

"Oh, yes," assented the veteran. At this point his opponent evinced symptoms of making the hole. "One minute, Homer," ordered the old-time star. "Now, I'll be temporary discouragement with the game." Pop Anson, who was in Atlanta en route to fill a vaudeville engagement—not at the Atlanta theatre—is a golf fiend. He was deeply interested in golf. "Pop" thought the best words.

"Say," he exclaimed, "it's the greatest game ever. Why what I've done! Moved out on within a block of Ansley park. Play every day. Two years ago I weighed 230 pounds. I'm down to 200 now. All golf. Great game. Great game.

"As for the Federals?"

Again the player stared a moment at the disturber, shook his head, evidently tried to make some mental connection between the Federals and the sixteenth hole, and, failing, returned to his approach.

HENRY JOHNSON TALKS OF SALE OF BUILDING

Lease Runs for Five Years, So Department Store Is Not Affected at All.

The following statement was made Thursday morning by Henry S. Johnson, president of the Chamberlin-Johnson-DuBose company, with reference to the sale of the property corner Whitehall and Hunter streets:

"We have a lease that runs for five years and the sale of the property will in no wise affect us. Our purpose is with renewed vigor to continue our business.

"Our financial condition and our business generally were never in better shape, and we are perfectly comfortable as to the outlook. Our business in 1913 was the most successful in the history of the firm, and so far this year our business condition shows a marked improvement over the corresponding period last year.

"We think we are amply able to take care of ourselves, in any event. We are not making any prophecies, but we have had a dream for many years past in the fact that we know what we want, and that dream comprehends a department store which concerns the pride of Atlanta, the pride of Georgia, and the pride of the south. If some time, somewhere, somehow, that dream should materialize, it is our cherished ambition to incorporate with our name and purpose nothing but the best type, the highest ideals, the cleanest atmosphere, that dwell within the realm of our thought for a business enterprise. We have had visions in the night time and many thoughts in the daytime, monumental in scope as to the future.

"To this extent we are dreamers with real reasons for an abundant faith that our dreams will be almost, if not quite, realized. To that end we shall think and plan and strive, and at this moment, at this time, we feel the exhilaration of hope and renewed purpose because the decks are now clear for concentrating the full force of our whole organization to the achievement of our goal.

"We take this occasion to express to the public our thanks for the success we have accomplished on this ground and our gratification at the cordial and many relations that have existed between ourselves and our immediate neighbors.

"In our entire past the people have been so good and true and loyal to us that when we think about them we feel a renewed impulse to compensate them with the very best thought and effort we can bring to bear for the material advancement and the realization of the business ideals of our community.

OPPOSES EXTENSION OF NEAR BEER ZONE

Declaring that the extension of the 1vy street near beer zone from Decatur to Edgewood avenue would have the effect of throwing open property values, Carl Hurt, through a representative, opposed a resolution fixing new boundary limits this afternoon. The resolution was offered by Councilman Jesse Lee and Alderman Jesse Mermistead at the meeting of the police committee, and after vigorous protests from property owners the police committee referred the measure back to council, with an adverse report. This action practically means the defeat of the resolution.

COTTON CLOSES AT STEADY PRICE

Renewed Demand for Old Crop Months and Forecast for Cold Weather in West Checks Selling.

New York, April 16.—Cotton was steadier today. Renewed demand for old crop months from spot houses brokers who were heavy buyers of last week, and forecasts for unsettled and colder weather in the western belt, appeared to check the selling movement and offerings were limited. Closing prices were steady and from 1 to 5 points lower on all months except April, which was nominally 5 points lower.

Liverpool did not fully meet yesterday's late rally here, and the local market opened steady at a decline of 3 to 4 points under overnight selling orders or scattering pressure. Offerings were not at first far from active, and prices soon steadied on covering of short interests, became firm on effective buyers following better Mexican news and less favorable weather predictions. The break of about 5 points from last week's high records on May contracts, seemed to have induced a substantial reduction in the trailing line of interest and in the absence of any important selling, no great volume of demand was necessary to advance prices. After selling about 7 points net higher, however, the market met with some realizing and closed at the eastern belt and the daily weather details resumed today for the season, showed favorable conditions generally over the belt.

The market closed quiet; middling uplands, 13.10; gulf, 13.35. No sales.

The weather map was favorable and the best reports thus far this season were received from the cotton belt. Advices were that a vast amount of planting was being done and reports from many parts of the belt were that with prevailing conditions one week would complete the crop, started a selling wave around the opening, but at the lowest the market was only 4 points under yesterday's last quotations.

The appearance of a buyer also started with a cold wave following, both of which checked the selling movement somewhat among shorts and stimulated a moderate amount of fresh buying.

Hubbard Bros. & Co.

New York, April 16.—(Special.)—The reaction went further today on a rather better tone to the foreign markets, which will have no change in the situation, as most merchants anticipate in their ideas of the future course of prices. Cotton yarns are firmer and the cotton mills, while they are likely to fall back on short time to overcome the feature of the depression in trade. At the same time the spot markets show the absence of any pressure, while the recent advance is sufficient to deter any short interest from the belief that interest smaller than at any time in a year.

John F. Black & Co.

New York, April 16.—(Special.)—It was a dull market today. The close was steady on an advance of 2 to 5 points. This was hardly a good response to the bullish weather news and it looks like a market that would break badly if the weather in the belt should be favorable. There was support today from leading spot interests, but the public will not buy, and the mill demand just now amounts to nothing. A few northern mills are offering cotton for sale. Liverpool is due to come up, changed to a point up.

The coffee market was dull and closed unchanged to 3 points up. This market has been marking time for some weeks and about due for another sharp fluctuation. It is a sale.

Jay, Bond & Co.

New York, April 16.—(Special.)—The market today has ruled steady at a small advance with business rather featureless. Unsettled weather in the western belt is reported during the night, but it has not served to steady October, although weather conditions in the central and eastern states are satisfactory at present. Business was in small volume and the interest is evidently awaiting a fresh incentive for renewed activity.

BIG SALES BREAK THE CORN MARKET

Selling General From Outset, But During Last Hour of Session the Market Collapsed Outright.

Chicago, April 16.—Immense sales of corn today broke the market. There were many defections from the bull side, and it looked as if a large number of heretofore stubborn holders had decided to stand out no longer against Argentine competition. After a fall that amounted in some cases to as much as 1-4@3-8 a bushel, prices closed heavy at a decline of 3 to 1 7-8@1 3-4c net. Other speculative articles all showed a setback—wheat 5-8@1-3 to 1c, oats 1-4@3-8 to 1-2c and provisions 12½@37½c to 42 1-2c.

Downward changes in the price of corn were so rapid at one time that execution of orders became next to impossible. Selling was general from the outset, with no sign of any important rally, but it was not until the last hour of the session that the market collapsed outright. Shorts appeared to have covered in the early previous, and there was no support from even that quarter. Meanwhile, bull leaders, who time and again of late have come to the rescue, appeared to have lost their courage.

Despondent corn, capturing consumers farther north daily from the gulf and farther east from the Atlantic seaboard, the burden of holders severe, especially in the May option with sentiment very much against it. Not a ready outlet in sight for the millions of bushels piled up in Chicago. The shutdown of a corn industry at St. Louis and the expected closing of another at Peoria added to the sources of weakness.

Wheat was depressed by the break in corn and by prospects for showers over the greater part of the spring wheat belt, particularly western Kansas. Lower cables and a forecast of heavier shipments from Danubian coast also in favor of the bears. Increasing talk of danger from Italian entanglements also tended to check selling.

In the oats crowd, active covering by shorts made prices comparatively steady.

Liquidating sales of provisions were on a scale that was a fitting parallel to the corn market. After a violent descent by packers, packers became good buyers and gave rise to a steadier feeling at the windup.

ATLANTA'S STRIDES FROM DAY TO DAY

Atlanta is to have in the downtown shopping district a building that will be the Woolworth of the south. It will be erected at the corner, where the corner of Hunter and Whitehall streets, the site recently bought from the Boynton-Cole Realty company, and which is now occupied by the Chamberlin-Johnson-DuBose company.

The price paid for this property was $460,000—$9,200 per front foot. It was one of the most important sales made in years, and goes a long way toward determining the stability of downtown property.

What is announced as the largest and most modern building in the south will be erected on the exploration the present lease held on the property, which has still five years to run. The first few floors of the proposed structure will be occupied by a Greater Sectare company, which already now has a number of stores throughout the south.

The upper floors will be devoted to offices. The site is admirably adapted to office purposes. It has a front of outside light exposure, combining the Whitehall and Hunter streets frontage with that on the wide alleys which already surround it.

Mr. McClure, in charge of the project, states that he wishes to do—to Atlanta what Woolworth has done for New York, in a slightly modified manner. He is one of Atlanta's most far-sighted investors. It was because of the purchase, he calls attention to the fact that Woolworth erected his New York skyscraper convenient to suburban trend and the traveling public.

Following out this idea, Mr. McClure says, he selected the Whitehall corner, which is equal distance from both passenger stations and only one block from all principal suburban lines. The property is in an L-shape, fronting 50 feet on Whitehall street and 204 feet on Hunter street.

An immense boom in Forsyth-street property will result, realty experts predict, from the work that is to be done ring done from the Whitehall street junction to Brotherton street. Gangs of convicts for several days have been at work grading the hump at the junction of Whitehall street and Gilmer in the hollow at Brotherton.

The grade will be changed considerably and an almost level thoroughfare will be the result. A strong retaining wall is in course of construction in the Brotherton street hollow and dirt is being thrown to the top as rapidly already. Work will be completed within a month or so, it is expected.

Wide interest was centered in real estate circles Thursday over the institution's exclusive announcement of the $460,000 sale of the Chamberlin-Johnson-DuBose corner at Whitehall and Hunter streets to the C. W. McClure realty company. The announcement carried this morning in The Constitution that Mr. McClure plans the erection of a southern Woolworth skyscraper on the site will create still greater interest.

The deal was made by R. R. Otis, of Otis & Hollidaay, who has given close attention to real estate in the south side. He figured prominently in the regrading and reclamation of Whitehall and Forsyth streets beyond Mitchell street and Trinity avenue, and had a hand in other big south side projects.

His most recent efforts were directed to the improvement of property on the white way lights for Mitchell and Pryor street along the route to the two railway stations.

Humphrey Says City Cannot Spare $1,200 For Shrine Decoration

Councilman W. G. Humphrey, chairman of the city finance committee, says he is in favor of decorating the city hall with electric lights for the Shriners' convention, but he does not believe it is necessary to spend $1,200 as suggested by the building committee. Chairman Humphrey says that it is simply impossible to spare $1,200 from the city treasury at this time.

He also says that it is possible for the city to get a good decoration for $200, and will recommend that the above amount be spent. Chairman Humphrey favors placing a permanent electric sign on the city hall building—a sign similar to the one on the city hall in Detroit, which can be changed for any convention.

BROUGHTON AGAIN NAMED PRESIDENT

Atlanta People on Roster of Officers of Sunday School Association—The Convention Comes to Close.

By Rev. Thomas M. Elliott.

Milledgeville, Ga., April 16.—(Special.)—The city of Atlanta and the Atlanta Sunday school workers came off with flying colors in the Georgia Sunday School association convention, which came to a close here tonight, for out of the forty-three officers and committeemen chosen for the coming year, Atlanta people occupy seventeen places of prominence and influence. The other sixteen places are distributed among the various cities and towns of the state.

A special instance of according honor to the state City occurred late last night, when pledges were being made by the counties of the state for the support of the association work for the coming year, and Atlanta's representatives stated that Atlanta's representative would increase their pledge of $1,000 of last year to $1,500 for this year. The audience of 2,000 people applauded vigorously as one man. Then when some one from Chicago asked "Where is Fulton county?" Dr. Marion McH. Hull replied, "In Atlanta," the applause broke out afresh and lasted for a minute, or more. Fulton county and Atlanta's pledge of $1,500 was more than four times that of any other county; Bibb county's pledge of $350 was the next highest.

In the selection of officers of the Georgia Sunday School association for another year the following named Atlanta people were chosen: Dr. Joseph Broughton, president; J. V. Welborn, treasurer; A. B. Caldwell, auditor; D. W. Sims, general and financial secretary; Miss Flora Davis, assistant secretary; Miss Daisy MaGee, superintendent of elementary work; John J. Eagan, C. A. LeCraw, W. T. Colquitt, Rev. W. C. Schaeffer, W. W. Reid, Marion McH. Hull, C. J. Kamper, C. D. Montgomery and Rev. Henry B. Mays, executive committeemen.

One of the leading other features of the convention today was the decision to send as delegates to the international convention to be held in Chicago in June, 120 men and women from Georgia. The names of these 120 Georgia men and women will be selected by the executive committee of the state association, and will be announced about the first of May.

Honor Roll of Counties.

The details of the program for today made prominent the work of the organized counties of the state. Of the seventy-eight counties that have been organized in the past two years, seventeen of them have attained banner standard of perfection. The representatives of these banner counties were today honored by having presented to them for their counties, beautiful banners. Counties thus recognized are Baldwin, Campbell, Carroll, Catoosa, Clarke, Henry, Jeff Davis, Newton, Spalding and Ware. Special honor was conferred on Henry county, since that county made greatest progress of any county in the state, and was awarded the banner of a gold star county. Not any county to be a banner county the requisites are that it be organized with county and division convention, with statistical reports submitted to the state association and contributions made for the work. A gold star county.

Addresses were made today and tonight by E. E. French, of Nashville; A. R. Caldwell, of Atlanta; Hammond Johnson, of Gainesville; W. L. Abbott, of Acworth; Dr. E. C. Dargan, of Macon; Dr. L. O. Bricker, of Atlanta; Rev. Henry B. Mays, of Atlanta; L. C. Pennington, of Eastman; Rev. W. B. Dillard, of Augusta.

At the noon hour a pastors' luncheon and conference was tendered the visiting preachers by the young ladies of the Georgia Sunday School association, located here. Several of the ministers made addresses at this conference.

The convention closed at a late hour tonight.

The place chosen for the next convention was not determined tonight, but will be placed at the decision of the executive committee.

The large number of delegates attending the conventions requires some restrictions of representation, which will be put in force before another convention.

OFFICERS ARE ELECTED BY KNIGHTS OF HONOR

The grand lodge, Knights of Honor, met at the Kimball yesterday and the following officers were elected for two years:

Grand dictator, O. R. Ruston, Glenville; grand vice dictator, R. B. Osborn, Hapeville; grand assistant dictator, Judge A. M. Pouts, Cartersville, Ga.; grand reporter and treasurer, T. H. Shockley, Marietta; grand guardian, A. E. Shulhafer, Atlanta; grand sentinel, S. R. Johnson; representative to the supreme lodge, L. S. Matthews, Cedartown.

E. C. Wood, of New York, supreme dictator, made an official visit to the grand lodge and was accorded a warm welcome by that body. Mr. Wood left last night for Columbia, S. C., to visit the grand lodge of South Carolina, and will then visit the grand lodges of Massachusetts and Rhode Island. He is accompanied by Ernest R. Johnston, supreme vice dictator, next to the highest office in the order in the United States. The Knights of Honor is the oldest national fraternal order in existence.

RETAIL CREDIT COMPANY HOLDS HOUSE-WARMING

The Retail Credit company held a house warming in their new offices in the Healey building yesterday, which was attended by the officers, and about 150 of their friends, including many ladies.

Caton Woolford, president; T. G. Woolford, secretary and treasurer, and C. C. Hill, vice president, welcomed the guests. Delicious refreshments were served.

Building Healthy, Happy Youngsters

Thoughtful parents are finding out that a child's strongest hold on future success and usefulness is a strong body and healthy brain.

Body and nerve tissue, as well as brain cells, are formed from the food one eats.

It is clear, then, that to feel right generally means to be right.

Grape-Nuts

is made of selected wheat and malted barley, and contains all the rich nutriment of these greatest food grains, including the vital mineral salts (Phosphate of Potash, etc.) in just the right proportion, grown in the grain.

When Grape-Nuts is selected, the greatest building food in the world is put to work, and the various parts of the body—bones, muscles, nerves and brain—can take up the particular kind of nourishment that each requires.

Grape-Nuts is an ideal food. It is scientifically baked, easy of digestion, and comes ready to eat direct from the tightly sealed package—fresh, and crisp.

Children like the delicious flavour and thrive on Grape-Nuts.

STEWARDS AND PASTOR DISCUSS LOCKER CLUBS

Strict Secrecy Enjoined Upon All Attending Meeting at First Methodist.

Strict secrecy was enjoined upon all those who participated Thursday night in a special conference between the stewards of the First Methodist church and its pastor, the Rev. H. M. DuBose. It is understood, however that the main object of the meeting was to formulate definitely the future attitude toward locker clubs of the church and its pastor.

The necessity for such action is said to have arisen from the wide divergence of the views of Dr. DuBose and a considerable portion of his congregation. This divergence is believed to have been occasioned by the discussion of Dr. DuBose's attitude in the resolutions recently adopted by the ministerial association. These resolutions were at first understood to forbid members of churches from belonging to locker clubs under penalty of discipline. In a subsequent letter this construction was disclaimed by the members of the union. The intent, it was said, was to condemn locker clubs, but not to threaten church members who belonged to them.

When questioned last night, Dr. DuBose and the stewards wished nothing said about the matter. He was asked if his own attitude on locker clubs had undergone any change.

"None whatever," he answered.

"Is it to be understood that you are opposed to them?" he was asked.

"It certainly is," he replied.

"And that you are opposed to the members of your congregation belonging to them?"

"Yes, sir."

The meeting of the stewards lasted for two hours. The participants were united in their refusal to tell what had occurred.

WIN AN AUTOMOBILE IN PRIZE CAMPAIGN

to start. It costs nothing to be nominated, or honored in this campaign.

Nothing is necessary except the presentation of the name of the prospective candidate to this office in person or by mail.

No matter where or in what part of the territory she may be located, the opportunity is the same as that of any other contestant to obtain one of the great awards.

Thirteen automobiles head the list; thirteen motor cars, all acknowledged leaders in their class.

Think of it! It is absolutely within your power to possess one of these fine machines without the expenditure of a cent upon your part.

All on the Same Footing.

To carry an enterprise of this magnitude through is no small undertaking, but careful arrangements have been made and a system devised so equitable and fair that all who participate in the contest are assured an equal chance.

The magnificent awards make up a list of costly gifts that should furnish incentive for every endeavor upon the part of every alert, ambitious person throughout the state and contiguous territory.

Among those who have thus far indicated a desire to take part in the contest are a few who heretofore have been interested in similar enterprises. These will surely make themselves count in their favor during this opportunity, as they realize the handicap that sometimes occurs in campaigns of this sort through the hesitancy of a candidate to enter and delay in the organization of support.

Waiting often compels a candidate to put forth greater effort than would have otherwise been necessary had that candidate begun at the beginning.

Simple rules govern this contest, and all is done that can be done to place the rich awards within easy reach of industrious, conscientious workers.

The Constitution is doing its share toward helping you. Are you willing to do your part toward helping yourself? Do yourself justice, accept this opportunity today and send in your name. Do not delay. Do it today!

Every energetic candidate who enters this race will receive an award. Cut out the nomination blank, which is found on the editorial page of this issue, fill in your name or that of a friend and send in today, and full particulars will be furnished you by return mail. If you live outside of the city, if, however, you live in Atlanta, call on the Contest Department in person or call Bell phone Main 5000, or Atlanta phone 4404, and the Contest Department of the Constitution will give you the desired information.

About the Prizes.

Thirteen automobiles head the list of magnificent prizes. Four as grand division prizes and nine as district prizes.

These cars were selected with special regard to the greatest value of the money invested.

As the first grand prize to be awarded in each division to the candidate for the largest number of votes in each division, regardless of district. The Constitution offers an automobile conceded to be equal to any car in the world of its class. It is known as the "Oakland" 6-60 seven-passenger touring car, fully equipped, beautiful to the artistic eye. Beautiful to the eye that sees beyond the outward forms and notes the perfection of mechanical arrangement and adjustment, beautiful to those who desire luxury personified in style and comfort, and beautiful indeed to those who see in the graceful lines perfect and comfortable arrangements. A dependable motor car, and one that approaches the ideal in mechanical perfection.

The second prize in each of the grand divisions is the Velie 4-25 five-passenger touring car. The Velie is beautiful in design, and the body lines are developed along the most advanced ideas, and has long since been known as a car that will go day in and day out over all kinds of roads anywhere and free from mechanical difficulties. These cars, in addition to having the usual equipment, are also equipped with Gray & Davis electric starter and lighting of the most advanced type.

District Prizes.

In each of the nine districts an award was selected, thought to be commensurate with the efforts of those who obtain the highest score in votes after the first of the second grand division prizes have been given out. After carefully considering the desirability of many and various things, the conclusion was reached that an automobile should head the district prize list. Then the question arose as to which of the numerous motor cars upon the market should be chosen. Many good cars could be had, but after considerable negotiation The Constitution was able to make satisfactory terms with the Overland Southern Automobile company for nine five-passenger Overland touring cars, Model 79 T, one for each district, as cars embodying all of the qualifications demanded by The Constitution.

The Overland five-passenger touring car is one of the very best automobiles on the market today at the price. Many higher-priced cars of no greater beauty or contour are giving no greater service. It is a roomy five-passenger model, richly upholstered, insuring perfection comfort.

AD MEN PLEDGE AID TO GREATER HOSPITAL

AT THE THEATERS.

Otis Skinner in "Kismet."

(At the Atlanta.)

Klaw & Erlanger and Harrison Grey Fiske's gorgeous production of Edward Knoblauch's Oriental drama, "Kismet," with Otis Skinner in his great role of Hadji, the beggar, will be the attraction at the Atlanta, for four night, opening Monday. A matinee will be given Wednesday. The immense success of the play in the eastern cities last season indicates that it will be the dramatic and musical event of the theatrical year. Mr. Skinner's role of Hajj affords every opportunity for the display of this splendid actor's genius in characterization. The supporting company numbers one hundred people and includes George Gaul, Willard Webster, Owen Meech, Richard Scott, Daniel Jarrett, Charles Newsom, William Lorens, Harry Somers, Harold Skinner, Ernest Leeman, Merle Madders, Grace Hampton, Genevieve Blaine, Rose Coates and Nannie Palmer. Seats are now on sale.

"Smashing the Vice Trust."

(At the Atlanta.)

Hundreds of men are flocking to the Atlanta this week at both matinee and night performances to see the spectacular and interesting white slave picture, "Smashing the Vice Trust," which is playing when seen. Men are likewise being attracted by the offering which is highly sensational and stirring. Ten scene of innocent girls are shown with the ways followed by vice to secure recruits. District Attorney Whitman is shown in his raids on the various houses of ill fame and on the leaders of the vice trust. Altogether an interesting entertainment of two hours is offered in the views.

Keith Vaudeville.

(At the Forsyth.)

There will be but four more performances of the Forsyth this week ending the engagements of a group of vaudeville stars that have made up one of the cleverest shows the busy theater has yet offered. Louis Simon and his company of brilliant musical comedy experts present "The New Persian Garden," and it is a winner all through. Mr. Simon is top in this act that makes it one of the big bits of modern vaudeville. Stuart Barnes, the singing comedian, has scored a hit that is one of the biggest ever registered at the Forsyth and the comedy character playlet presented by Mr. and Mrs. Jimmie Hodges is brought winner of more than ordinary quality. Next week's bill has been announced. It will bring to Atlanta one of the greatest of all the dramatic successes in vaudeville, Joseph Hart's "The Cameo Girl," with a company of eight players and a wealth of scenery and effects.

"Across the Desert."

(At the Bijou.)

There will be four more performances of "Across the Desert," the melodrama which has proven such a big drawing card for the Bijou this week. H. Walter Vanden, stage director of the company, is author of the play. In it Riddle Black has a part which affords him ample opportunity for the display of that brand of humor for which he is famous. The company has now but one rehearsing next week's offering. As yet no name has been selected for the new play. Black has offered $50 to any patron of the Bijou who, after having seen the play, can suggest the most appropriate title for it.

"Dope."

(At the Grand.)

The attendance at the Grand this week is increasing with each performance. This is itself is the best recommendation the sensational feature film "Dope" could have. Theatergoers who have seen the picture pronounce it the best acted they have seen. Herman Lieb, the well-known actor, is featured, and it is said the late Mr. Reed, hearing after witnessing the vaudeville version of Mr. Lieb's "Dope" stated: "There is the most promising young actor I have seen on the stage today." In the picture version Mr. Lieb is surrounded by an all-star cast of Broadway favorites, among them Laura Nelson Hall. The Grand is showing "Dope" twice daily at 3 and 8:30 o'clock p. m.
