

FOR "DEEDING" CASHIEN HAS SCORED

Former Georgian Denounced by California Railway Commission—Is Accused of Gouging $1,096,000.

San Francisco Cal., May 23.—America that its order was made necessary by the "vandalism" of the United Railroads of San Francisco of upward of $1,096,000 by the corporation's former president, Patrick Cahiuen, on the authorization of directors and stockholders, the California railroad commission gave reluctant consent today to the borrowing of more money by the United Railroads for the purchase of rolling stock.

To Watch Each Move. The commission instructed the company to report each move made in carrying out the order, advised that dividends should be suspended until the outstanding indebtedness is met and announced that because the same stockholders who had authorized the direction of funds still were in control it behooved the company to watch its operations of the management.

On an opinion expressed in this order, the commission said its auditor found that in August, 1912, the directors of the United Railroads had adopted a blanket resolution, approving all previous expenditures made by Cahiuen, of whatever nature, and authorizing him to make any further expenditures that he "might consider for the best interests of the company."

This same action was taken later at stockholders' meeting. Cahiuen's $1,096,000 Note Worth $2. Following this, Cahiuen, in 1913, withdrew $1,096,000 from the investment in shares of the Bolinas Irrigation farm, a land-selling project, which afterwards collapsed. The commission, however, it has been stated, held that the money ever went into the hands of the stockholders. The railroad has to show for the $1,096,000 in Cahiuen's promissory note, which was listed in the books of the company. By James Lillenthal, who succeeded his president.

"This whole transaction is a fraud," declared the commission, and that "Mr. Cahiuen and the stockholders are joined in this plunder which was perpetrated by the resolution of the board."

Deal by Cahiuen. Cleveland, Ohio, May 23.—Mr. Cahiuen at his home on Cleveland boulevard made clear to the directors that he had spent funds of the railway company to his own purpose.

The statement of the railroad commission in substance, it has been stated, was that the money was expended on the railroad, not on the company, and that it was not to be used to pay off the company's debt.

General P. Graves Dies in Washington. Father of John Temple Graves Was Oldest Alumnus of University.

Washington, May 23.—(Special.)—General James P. Graves, of this city, formerly of College Park, Ga., died here about 7 o'clock tonight at the apartment of his son, Hon. John Temple Graves, editor of The Atlanta Georgian.

General Graves was 84 years old. He was the oldest of the graduates of the University of Georgia. He was a member of the board of trustees of the University of Georgia, and had served as adjutant general in the war of 1861-65.

Death came after an illness of only a few hours. The body will be taken to Atlanta tomorrow, and the funeral will be held Tuesday, with interment at West Hill cemetery. The arrangements for the funeral will be announced later.

General Graves resided in College Park up to a few years ago. The announcement of the death of General Graves has been received with deep sorrow throughout Georgia, where he was universally respected and loved.

Spooners in Park Are Given a Ride to Police Station. Because of their alleged persistency in spooning in Piedmont Park, a young couple was sent to police station last night by Officer Mullen.

Police Officer Mullen, who was on duty last night, saw the couple in the act of spooning in a secluded spot at the northern part of the park. He ordered them to leave, and when they refused, he took them to the police station.

The couple were later released by Assistant Chief Just under collateral of $100 each. The couple were later released by Assistant Chief Just under collateral of $100 each.

H. H. HARLAND DEARS DEATH BY DROWNING
Prominent Business Man Had Gone Down for Third Time in East Lake When Rescued.

One of Atlanta's prominent business men and a club member of the Atlanta Athletic club narrowly escaped death by drowning at East Lake Saturday afternoon.

John H. Harland, assistant secretary and treasurer of Post & Davies, had gone down the third time, when M. R. McClellan, standing on the porch of the boat house, saw the drowning man.

By the time the trio of swimmers reached Mr. Harland, he was sinking, and in a helmsman condition.

They asked him by the arms and pulled him into the raft. He was all right when he was brought ashore, but a moment was left.

Realizing that he must seek quick recovery, Harland is an expert swimmer, and he was able to get up on his feet.

Modern Declares Woman in Modern Garb on Streets May Be Virtuous, But That He Is From Missouri.

The most scathing denunciation of modern dress of women that has ever been delivered by a preacher was heard last night by hundreds of people at the street meeting conducted by the Baptist religious campaign workers.

The women of today who dress in the indecent costume that is a fashionable just now are the greatest menace to the nation and to the morals of America, said the speaker today.

"I never see a woman on the street in modern dress but I think, 'You may be a virtuous and respectable woman, but I'm from Missouri. I will believe it' he shouted.

"The dress that are being worn now will excite the evil passions of men as well when they are worn by virtuous women as when they are worn by harlots. The society women today are dressing like pagans and absolutely filthy."

Score Atlanta Women. "And you reporters," continued the speaker, "you are doing a great wrong. Atlanta in the morning through the columns of your papers that I said would excite the evil passions of men."

At the close of the exhortation made by the speaker a number of his listeners came forward, and they either signed a petition or were given a tract.

At the street meetings were held at various parts of the city, and the women of the city were urged to sign a petition to the city council to pass a law against the wearing of modern dress.

WHERE WILL THE FIFTH REGIMENT ENTER CAMP?

Where and when will the Fifth regiment go into camp this summer? This question is a matter of interest to the officers and men of the regiment, as July 1 is the usual month for the departure of the regiment, and no orders have been received by the local military division as to the Mexican situation.

Colonel Griffin, Jr., of the Fifth regiment, admitted that there was an increasing number of men and officers asking for information, so that they could arrange their vacation both with respect to the least possible inconvenience to their employers and also with reference to their employment in the summer.

While the camp orders are issued by the office of the adjutant general of Georgia, they really emanate from the division of military operations, and the several efforts of Colonel Griffin, Jr., to get information from the adjutant general, have not yet resulted in any definite answer.

At a meeting of the officers has been called by the regimental commander of the Army for Monday night, and it is probable that camp will be discussed, but the real purpose of the meeting is to appoint a committee and outline plans for a local entertainment for the men of the regiment, to which their sweethearts will be invited.

In the past few months the regiment has been only enroute in street drills for the entertainment of the public, but also for the "fair" at the army, thus giving the officers and men an opportunity to become better acquainted with the citizens of Atlanta, and to see how the boys spend their time.

The election for major to fill the vacancy caused by the promotion of Lieutenant Colonel Walter C. Hendrix will come on Monday night. Captain O. Palmer and Captain W. H. Leahy are the candidates for promotion.

W. C. A. TO GIVE PAGEANT OF SPRING

Atlanta's most elaborate amateur performance will be staged in the Atlanta theater next Saturday—matinee and night—when the Young Women's Pageant Association produces the "Pageant of Spring."

For the past three months the preparation has been in progress, and the two hundred children, girls and boys, who will take part in the pageant, are being trained in the gymnasium of the Young Women's Pageant Association.

The performance will be beautifully staged, and the costumes are being constructed. The costumes are new and colorful, and the dances have been trained to technical and traditional accuracy. The pageant will be a most interesting and beautiful production.

Miss Betner has made a close study of pageantry abroad, and is a pupil of Louis Chailat, of New York, who, for years, was director of the pageant in the city of New York. Much of the local pageant will be the creation of Miss Betner.

Tickets for both performances will be reserved at the box office of the Atlanta. A record sale is expected.

MICHAELS TO CONDUCT SERVICE FOR THE DEAF

At St. Mark's church this morning at 11 o'clock there will be special services for the deaf conducted in sign by Rev. J. W. Michaels, evangelist to the deaf, with the Southern Baptist home mission board.

The deaf who attend the service will take part in it by hymn and recitation, and the entire service will be in the beautiful expressive signs used by the deaf and dumb. All the deaf and their friends are cordially invited to attend this special service.

DIRECTING PLANS FOR PHOTOGRAPHERS MEET

R. W. Waltham, of Birmingham, N. Y. representative of the Photographers' Association of America, arrived in Atlanta to direct the preparations for the annual convention of that body, which will be held in the Auditorium in June. The convention will bring to Atlanta 1,200 delegates and nearly a thousand more visitors from every state in the union and most of the provinces of Canada.

SCANDINAVIANS CRYING FOR NATIONAL DEFENSE

Norway and Sweden May Join to Stop Encroachment by the Great Powers.

Christiania, May 22.—The western half of the Scandinavian peninsula, like the eastern half, has become agitated by the problem of national defense. The candidate for a strengthened armament appears almost daily to assume some new phase of popular interest, and it is believed that the common demand for protection against encroachment by any of the European powers may bring Norway and Sweden together again to the extent of a defensive alliance.

The Norwegian parliament has recently been popularly criticized for its action in the peace treaties. It has been conspicuous in the peace movement ever since it was entrusted by the late Alfred Nobel with the distribution of the Nobel peace prizes each year, and further, it has during the last seven years called faithfully upon an integrity rarely shown by Germany, France and England, by which the neutrality of Norway should be strictly observed in case of European war.

The people of the Scandinavian peninsula—whether they be Norwegians or Swedes—have no thoughts of expansion, but want to be kept out of the political turmoil which during the last few years has agitated Europe. Fears that integrity treaties are available have become popular among Scandinavians since the Balkan wars, when it was seen that Turkey profited little by its treaties, as guaranteed by the powers. In a war between the triple alliance and the triple alliance, the Scandinavian peninsula, with its safe and excellent ports, might be of such value to any of the belligerents as to make them of opinion to leave it in the way of action. If such were the case, it was feared that Norway and Sweden might against their will be drawn into war.

Recognition of this is the moving factor in the talk of a military alliance between Norway and Sweden for mutual defense and neutrality. Both nations are exercised over possible dangers from the east. It is believed, however, that no European power at war with another would be able to detach enough of its military forces to operate against the well fortified Scandinavian peninsula without exposing its own ports and frontier to the enemy.

It is evident that the people of Norway are inclined to favor this view, and it is doubtful if the political situation in the Scandinavian peninsula, which is not yet alarmed by the political situation in the Balkans, will be able to resist the general call from the people for strong action in the defense, larger appropriations for army and navy, better fortifications of the forts and longer military service.

Parliament recently has lengthened the service in the navy from half a year to a full year, and a bill for longer service in the army, which now is 144 days, is in preparation. There is general demand for more years' service in the army, and all the parties except the socialists have declared their willingness to bear heavier military burdens.

The central of Norway's constitution, which will be celebrated this year, will give an important role to the national assembly, which now has hundred members. The assembly will have the right to propose laws, and to elect and dismiss the government. The general view is that the assembly should have increased authority in such that private individuals are subscribing toward funds. Landed societies particularly are busy everywhere collecting money, and numerous local organizations are planning to buy military supplies for their special districts, and banks and business houses are giving of their last year's profits to the defense.

A patriotic zeal, something like the stimulus used in the United States, is to be placed on mail, is proving a powerful factor in the movement. It bears the words, "I'll defend my land," and the money to go for defense.

The churches also have been taking up collections for the same purpose. Nobody appears willing to offer anything for the security of the country, except the socialists, who are against any kind of military preparations. The other parties are confident that in case of war even the security of socialists would be the ranks of citizens in defense of Scandinavia.

TO VACCINATION LAW GERMANS ARE OPPOSED

Widespread Objection to Being Compelled to Submit to Treatment.

Berlin, May 22.—A discussion in the Bundestag has just shown that there is widespread opposition in Germany to compulsory vaccination. On a motion a commission composed equally of friends and opponents of vaccination for the purpose of studying the whole question, party lines were completely obliterated, and the motion failed only by a tie vote. It was brought forward in answer to numerous petitions for a change in the present law, which has been in force for forty years.

The anti-vaccinationists claimed that compulsory vaccination was a health hazard, and that it was a violation of the right of individual liberty. They pointed out that in 1912, when the law was last amended, it was found that thirty-two deaths were thus caused in Prussia in 1912. They further asserted that measures of coercion for obtaining lymph from calves have themselves admitted the impossibility of getting a pure lymph in all cases. The German law does not provide for compulsory vaccination, but the police authorities have everywhere construed it as giving them the right to require vaccination, and when it becomes necessary they use compulsion. The representative of the imperial health office, however, said that they were not in favor of compulsory vaccination, where socialists speaker claimed that some parents have been punished five or six times for refusing to have their children vaccinated, and some of them were sent to prison. He added, however, to act contrary to their conscience in having their children vaccinated, and the example of 21,000, where a conscience clause was adopted some years ago, was held up for imitation by Germany. He said that Italy was now pointed out as worthy of study, where vaccination was practiced so extensively as in this country, and that it was a small point so frequent. Dr. Kirchhoff all this by displaying a statistical table showing a reduction in smallpox cases since the present law was passed.

Even the man who is liberal to a fault is usually stingy with his wife when the cooking isn't bad.

As a general thing, if our appetite is good the cooking isn't bad.

When the other side does it, it is punishment. When our side does it, it is a possibility.

Novelty washables

The Keely wash goods store sells no wash goods other than the most dependable kind, at any time. Even in this, our most important thin goods season, with value-giving as its primary object, there is not one yard that we cannot thoroughly indorse.

Many of the prices are lower than we have been privileged to make for several seasons. These savings, important at any time, are made doubly important from the fact that it is just the beginning of the sheer cotton goods demand.

The beauty of the styles, the quality of the materials and the clean faultless printing and weaving of the fabrics will win praise and admiration.

Country Club Dance

THE bodice of the gown on the left is of yellow chiffon veiling an underwaist of shadow lace. The skirt is of yellow satin over which are suspended two tunics of shadow lace whose upward lift in front accentuates the fashionable insouciant pose. The girdle is of yellow satin, ornamented by a cerise rose. The cape is of blue brocaded velvet, with a lining of figured satin.

topped with a ruch of black tulle. The little bodice and band of lace overlapping the girdle are of white chantilly. The slippers are a silvery gray with rhinestone buckles.

The gown on the left is composed of Italian blue satin. A drapery of fine net falls from the shoulders in two tassel finished points, partially concealing a large flat bow of black velvet. The black note is again carried out in the hem and narrow train. The slippers are of blue satin.

In asserted by those who should be informed that the settlement of the land question has been a vexed problem, but that matter has now been brought to a stage that confidence in its ultimate adjustment is expressed freely.

Substantial Progress Made.

The conference was in session for two hours tonight. When it adjourned the delegates who made substantial progress. One of those in attendance said that he believed the duration of the mediation labors would be shorter than they had expected. He made statement as to the progress character of their deliberations. He made, but enough was disclosed to indicate that the subcommittee under consideration took a wide range and the delegates were in general accord upon the results to be desired and secured earnestly upon the work of achieving a solution of all the problems presented.

CARRANZA HESITATES ABOUT MEDIATION.

Washington, May 23.—Another exchange of telegrams tonight between General Carranza and Emilio Zaranza, minister of the interior in the constitutional cabinet, left the question of representation of the Carranzistas at the Niagara Falls conference undecided.

Jose Vasconcelos, prominently mentioned in diplomatic circles as a likely mediator should Carranza's attitude be to have a representative at the Niagara meeting—if for nothing more than to give information to Carranza and confer with Mr. Zaranza, who, in turn, conferred with Secretary Bryan.

The exchange with the constitutionalist chief first followed.

Mr. Vasconcelos reiterated as he had no indication that the constitutionalists might participate in the mediation, but that he was willing to be declared he had stepped over in Washington while on his way to San Antonio from where he expects to join Carranza in Mexico.

Mr. Zaranza's conference with the secretary of state, followed by a prolonged conference today between Mr. Bryan, John Lind and Charles A. Douglas, attorney for the constitutionalist agency, after which Mr. Bryan went to the white house, gave rise in some circles to a feeling of optimism that the process of mediation might be facilitated by some sort of participation by the Carranzistas.

Word to Come From Carranza.

Among all the constitutionalists here, the Carranzistas are in a position to let word of General Carranza's intentions come from the chief of the revolutionists.

Of those close to the cause continued to express their doubt of Carranza's willingness to take any position which might be interpreted as participating in a mediation concerning the internal affairs of the republic.

It became definitely known tonight that the plan for a commission from the government to Carranza to discuss the transition period has not found favor with the Carranzistas. The former charge (Osburn) left the Mexican capital.

At the direction of the state department, a list of Mexicans who might be turned "over" to Carranza as a possible council of notables to form a provisional government, and maintain order in Mexico City should the Carranzistas take power, were ready to be supplied.

This list was headed by Luis Men-

REPORTS

There's a lovely bit of woodland where

Where the air is fragrant, laden, laden with perfume.
Where the pines are moaning softly
And the long gray mosses grow with every breeze that blows.
Nearby, a tiny brooklet goes tinkling clear and sweet.
Seeking the place where the river and the murmuring ocean meet.
The birds go soaring merrily of music
the very best,
Every shrub, every tree, every flower seems to breathe the one word
"Test!"

There's rest for the wounded spirit and rest for the weary brain.
In an hour spent in this sylvan nook away from the world and its strain.
Thank God, for the few such spots that are left, where Nature can hold sway.
Where those who know and prize her well can commune with her for a day.

PLAN MANY REFORMS IN JUDICIAL SYSTEM

Recommendations to Be Con-

Augusta, Ga., May 22.—(Special).—Growing out of the advocacy by Judge Henry C. Hammond, of the Augusta circuit, of the necessity for a reformation of the judicial system of Georgia, there will be presented to the thirty-first annual meeting of the Georgia Bar association, which convenes at Tybee, June 18, a plan looking to that result.

these: Abolish all elective courts and elective justices of the peace; give the courts of appeals exclusive jurisdiction in all first cases, and transfer all civil jurisdiction to the supreme court; have no superior courts but one in each county (or offender) in all counties, and render judgment at the first term where no appeal is taken; have no county judges at the county seat; have a county judge in cases involving not over $500, with a jury of six instead of twelve; no jury in cases not so commanded in original petition or answer.

solidity, uniform, except for such lower courts recently created for Atlanta; but one trial and one review, except as to constitutional questions; general competition of business, especially by eliminating many long jury trials; the fee system, now universal, in the free minds of many, will be eliminated. The action of the lawyers at the convention will be awaited with keen interest.

that pending trust legislation be applied to their views. While there will still be some surprises to old-fashioned minds that the executive branch of the government should be added to the legislative branch, it shall do or not do, it is none of our business. It is only to be welcomed that a limit has at last been placed to the subservience of the administration to the whims of the labor to dictate orders in the name of labor.

How far domination by this special class can go is being evidenced just now in the dispatches from the Colonies.

This demand involves the extreme situation in which the strikers are working in the manner that should be adopted from earning their livelihood in the occupation they have adopted. Ordinarily, the strikers are not the strikers involve only differences between the owners on one side and the employees on the other side. But it is just this case that is the most serious.

of their fundamental difficulties. It is the nonunion worker, the man unwilling to deal with labor organizations, who complicates the situation in our own copper country.

Is he to be coerced into doing something he does not want to do? Has he not exactly as much right to keep out of the union and to keep on working according to his conscientious convictions as a union man has to enroll himself with others and to work or not to work as his preference suggests?

The United States government has taken a strange attitude toward these year," it has sided with the unions. The Associated General Contractors declared that unionism must continue in this country, practically pledging the government to active aid in accomplishing its ends. It even declared that if this attitude were one only of alliance with workers against employers, it would be open to criticism but when it stands for restriction of personal liberty of workers themselves it is fairly astounding in a government that has proclaimed the principle of equal rights to all.

That a halt has been called in the progress toward distinctions and exemption of privilege is plain.

JEALOUSY CAUSED FIGHT IN WHICH MAN IS SHOT

Clude Ireland Injured Following Alleged Attack on
W. M. Hill With Knife.

W. M. Hill, of Ormshead park, shot at the neck of Clude Ireland, of Chestnut street, Saturday morning, at the corner of Kennedy and Chestnut streets, as the result, according to eye-witnesses, of an attack by Ireland on Hill with a knife, because Hill had been visiting his sweetheart, Miss Annie Abright, 15 years old, of 171 Bellwood avenue.

Hill then called up the police station from the Owl drug store and asked the police to send an officer out to arrest him, saying that he had shot a man in self-defense.

Officer James L. Palmer answered the call, and took Hill into custody, sending Ireland to the Grady hospital.

Will Hunt, Police Sergeant.

The physicians at the hospital late Saturday afternoon stated that the wound would not prove serious.

Hill stated that for the first time he visited Miss Abright on Monday night, and that on Tuesday morning Ireland met him in the street, and while he was engaged in delivering some laundry for the Excelsior Laundry, and threatened to kill him if he ever did so again, and ordered him never to be seen in that neighborhood again.

He stated that several times during the week he was followed by Ireland, who threatened his life with a knife, on account of the young lady. He claims that he has been followed by Ireland since that time.

He did not wish to have any trouble about the young lady, and he said that Friday that if he ever came over on that side of town again he would kill him.

Asks for Protection.

Saturday morning when he reported for business he found that he had been followed by Ireland, and was not allowed to deliver his laundry. He was then called up by police station and requested that Policeman Roberts, a personal friend of his, be sent to the Owl drug store to meet him, and accompany him for protection, as he did not wish any trouble with Ireland.

When he was arrested at the drug store, he was taken to the Grady hospital, and Ireland appeared with him, claiming that he was his brother-in-law, and that he was with him to get on his way to the Grady hospital.

He was then taken to the Grady hospital, and Ireland appeared with him, claiming that he was his brother-in-law, and that he was with him to get on his way to the Grady hospital.

WITHDRAWS HIS SUIT AGAINST BOND ISSUE

The suit to declare void the $175,000 bond and bond issue by which was formed the merger of the Georgia Railway and Power company, instituted by Lamon M. Parsons, was dismissed by his attorney, Robert A. Allen, and Judge Arthur Howell, Saturday afternoon.

The court, dismissing the suit, said Parsons asserting that he had been misled by the Georgia Railway and Power company, and that the allegations of his suit are incorrect.

The court also ordered the return of the $175,000 bonds submitted by the Parsons' action follows the filing of the petition.

You can make your skin what you would love to have it

Your skin like the rest of your body is continually changing. Every day, in washing, you rub off dead skin. As this old skin dies, new forms.

This is your opportunity—make this new skin what you would love to have it by using the following treatment regularly.

Make this treatment a daily habit

Just before retiring, rub in gently a warm water lather of Woodbury's Facial Soap—until the skin is softened, the pores opened and the face feels fresh and clear. Rinse in cooler water, then apply cold water—the colder the better—for a full minute. Whenever possible, rub your face for a few minutes with a piece of ice. Always dry the skin thoroughly.

Use this treatment persistently for ten days and your skin will show a marked improvement. Use Woodbury's regularly thereafter, and before long your skin will take on that greater loveliness which the steady use of Woodbury's always brings.

Woodbury's Facial Soap costs little a cake. No one knows at the price after their first cake.

Do this today—Now! Tear out the illustration of the cake below and put it in your purse as a reminder to get Woodbury's. Tear out the cake now. Take it to your druggist or hair dresser today. Begin tonight to get the benefit of this facial soap. For sale by dealers everywhere.

Mrs. Peel Announces Annual Pageant at the Auditorium

The Joseph Haberman Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, will present their second annual June pageant, and hope to receive the usual generous patronage of the public in the Auditorium, June 24 and 25. This pageant was composed by Mrs. William Lawson Peel, who has devoted to it several years of study and research. So wonderful was this work considered by Mr. Seide, the learned and experienced technical director of the Metropolitan opera, that he voluntarily offered the scenery, scenic effects and 140,000 drop cues to be used on this occasion. Mr. Kahn in graciously confirming this said: "Nothing is too good for Atlanta." Not only that, but Mr. Seide has made elaborate water color drawings, showing the accurate setting of each scene.

The pageant enters from the front of the Auditorium, proceeds through a broad aisle to the stage, disappearing. A mass of victory composed for the occasion by the musical organization will be played on the grand organ. The tableaux chantant at dancer will then be given. These have been arranged with consummate skill and artistic ability by Mrs. Henry Bernard Scott.

The music, solos, quartettes and choruses is under the direction of Dr. Edwin Kraft, the city organist. The dancing is in charge of Professor Mahler.

Each event is in the hands of a competent chairman. Many ladies and gentlemen from the different parts of the state, as well as from all over the south, will be among those taking part.

Founders' Day Celebrated.
On Thursday afternoon the most enthusiastic body of the Atlanta alumnae of the Alpha Delta Pi society met in the parlors of the Georgian to celebrate the Founders' Day. This month the society has reached the twenty-fifth anniversary of its year adding progress and prosperity, and entering the third decade of its life. Many of the original members who ever work to keep the inspiration and enthusiasm which the "grand old frat" has so long put forth. A most interesting and entertaining afternoon was spent, and many of Atlanta's prominent women were present to celebrate the birthday of the society. Mrs. Stewart, president of the society, gave some out-of-town Alpha Delta PIs were present, among whom was Mrs. Lillian Moore Lawton of Birmingham, Ala., for

REAL ESTATE THE SUNDAY CONSTITUTION'S SPECIAL PAGE DEVOTED TO REALTY AND BUILDING

BUILDING FIGURES RAPIDLY GROWING

Year 1914 Now Only $70,000
Behind 1913—Ford Permit of $275,000 Will Wipe Out the Deficit.

It looks very much now as if, in spite of the tremendous start that May of 1913 had over May of 1914 in building figures, the month of this year will run last May close race.

That the first of June will show a substantial increase in building figures over the year of 1913 up to June is assumed, and unless the figures for the rest of 1914 dwindle to absolutely microscopic proportions, the year will beat last year by a good healthy margin.

This year is now behind last year by about $70,000. The Ford permit of $275,000 will be issued before the end of May and this will much more than wipe out this deficit.

The figures of May of last year showed a total of slightly over $60,000. The figures of this May to date are approximately $125,000. The Ford permit and the general run of business may be reasonably expected to make up this deficit for the month.

THIS AGENCY DEALS IN PROPERTY EXCHANGES

E. J. Witt Opens Office of Witt's Dixie Land Exchange at 710-712 Peters Bldg.

E. J. Witt, who is well known in real estate circles in Atlanta, has established a new agency under the style of Witt's Dixie Land exchange, and has opened offices at Nos. 710-712 Peters building.

In this office, as the name of the agency indicates, Mr. Witt will devote his attention especially to the exchange of properties. While there are many agents who do a large property exchange business, the agency of Mr. Witt in specializing in this is unique.

In addition to this feature, Mr. Witt will place on the market a new residence subdivision, known as Brookwood park, lying in the Spring, Williams and Sixteenth streets neighborhood.

Of this subdivision Mr. Witt says: "Brookwood park is the only close-in subdivision that has been offered to Atlanta investors since Atlanta park years ago. And it is the only such subdivision that has been offered on the monthly installment plan."

Mr. Witt has with him a staff of ten people on this property who will open the sales of it Monday morning. He will increase his staff to twelve.

In the office with Mr. Witt is Joseph N. Walker, contractor and builder, who will handle the construction department in connection with the agency.

Mr. Witt has been in the real estate business in Atlanta for twelve years and has been connected with some of the largest and most successful agencies. He was for a number of years with Charles H. Black. He left the Charles F. Glover Realty company to enter into a business of his own.

ATLANTA WANTS REALTY MEN HERE IN 1915

Two Committees Working to Send Big Delegation to Pittsburg Convention in July.

The Atlanta Real Estate board has made up its mind to lead the 1915 convention of the National Association of Real Estate Exchanges for Atlanta, and to lead and two committees are working hard to get up a large delegation to go to the Pittsburgh meeting in July.

Among the real estate board, the Atlanta convention board, the Atlanta chamber of commerce and the Georgia chamber of commerce will be asked to send representatives. The support of the convention board has been assured, and it is anticipated that the support of other boards will be forthcoming.

Many of the chamber's staunch supporters are found in the membership of the real estate board, and the board may be expected to be well represented.

Looking Back.
It is wonderful if the convention still holds in Pittsburgh. At times it is so crowded that it is impossible to get in.

Scenes of Grading and Building Activity in Eastman Park

Eastman Park, a beautifully wooded subdivision owned and operated by F. C. Eastman, is making splendid progress. Within the past three months four bungalows have been built with all modern conveniences, and were sold before completion.

The park is situated less than three miles from the center of the city, being just outside of the city limits. The purchase of this property are relieved from the city assessments, yet they have all the city improvements and its advantages combined with a semi-country life, affording a most ideal place in which to live, free from the cramped quarters, noise and dust of the city streets.

Mr. Eastman has been developing this park for several months and now offers it to the public for inspection and sale. Several thousand feet of sidewalk have been laid together with residence park, about fifteen minutes' extension of the city water main rise from the heart of the business district. Numerous centers on double track car service avenue, city feet in width, and sewer which passes directly through the park for several miles, have been put in, affording a five minute schedule, graded, with the addition of sewers taking either the English avenue of

Chelsea Heights--An Ideal Residence Development Near Decatur

SCENES OF STREET-BUILDING IN THE CHELSEA HEIGHTS PROPERTY.

"Going is better," says E. C. Rapley, sales manager of the Chelsea Land company, and he has something worth saying and believing in, too.

Chelsea Heights lies between Druid Hills and Decatur, a section which in recent years has become very popular as a residence section and which seems destined to remain increasingly in favor. "In the pathway of Atlanta's grandest and greatest growth," in the way Mr. Rapley characterizes the property.

The Chelsea Land company is cutting and grading the streets and winding drives through the property and converting it into a modern place of tennis courts and swimming pools and residence in every particular.

The property has on it beautiful sports. Chelsea Heights is two blocks park places and a splendid natural spring. Ultimately the Chelsea Land company intends to develop these into ideal parks and playgrounds, with paved streets are within two blocks.

Babbage Apartment Building in Ansley Park Nearly Completed

This is a drawing made by A. N. Cantor, the architect, of the Babbage apartment building, which are now nearing completion on Lafayette drive in Ansley Park. This handsome structure, facing on the sweeping curve of the drive, presents an imposing appearance, and is a distinct addition to the many beautiful buildings of Ansley Park. The rest of the building will be in the neighborhood of $40,000.

The leasing of the apartments has been placed in the hands of the department of the M. L. Thresher agency.

ATTRACTIVE LOTS BRING GOOD PRICES

Large Crowd Attends the Auction Held on Saturday Afternoon at the Peachtree Heights Park.

Eight attractive lots were sold at auction in Peachtree Heights park yesterday afternoon, and brought a total of $25,000.

Forty or fifty automobiles carried on a large part of the crowd of general hundred persons who attended the auction, and several lots of land were shown in the property, particularly in the addition to it of flaming arc street lights distinguishing it from other home subdivisions.

The auction was conducted by Steve R. Johnston, well-known auctioneer, and began at lot 19-B, in block 11-A, high, well-shaded lot, with 1824 feet frontage and more than 500 feet deep, facing Rivers road near the junction of Hibernia and Battle avenue.

This lot was sold at $15 per front foot and finally knocked down to George H. Argard for $270 per foot, or a total of $2,565. It was considered one of the best purchases of the day.

The other lots sold and the prices they brought were as follows: Lot 19, block 11, 1015 feet front and 170 feet deep, sold to George H. Argard for $21.50 per foot, total $2,197.50.

Lot 18-A, block 11, 181 feet front, sold to George S. Lowndes at $20 per foot, total $3,620.

Lot 17, block 11, 105 feet front, sold to George S. Lowndes at $20 per foot, total $2,100.

Lot 12, block 11, 108 feet front, sold to George S. Lowndes at $20 per foot, total $2,160.

Lot 11, block 11, 528 feet front, sold to Jack Hawkins at $21 per foot, total $11,088.

Lot 10-A, block 11, 210 feet front, sold to George S. Lowndes at $20 per foot, total $4,200.

Lot 9, block 11, at the corner of Kennesaw avenue and Rivers road, one block from Peachtree, 175 feet front, sold to George H. Argard at $14.50 per foot, total $2,531.25.

Mr. Rivers' statement.
P. Rivers, who controls the Peachtree Heights park subdivision, made a statement at the auction, calling attention to the quality of the property offered.

Mr. Rivers pointed out that this property was situated in the heart of the city, and that it was impossible to find a better location in the north without traversing Peachtree Heights park.

Nassau Street's First Building

Here is the building, which has just been completed on Nassau street by H. J. Bruce. The development of Nassau street is one of the most important of the city and the property facing on it was one of the most daring feats of promotion that Atlanta real estate has seen in years. This is the first building to be erected on the new street, it consists of three stories on the ground floor, with apartments above.

PROMINENT MAN HERE LAST WEEK

President of American Cigar Company Spends Day at Capital City Tobacco Company.

A prominent visitor in Atlanta last week was A. L. Sylvester, president of the American Cigar Company of New York City. Mr. Sylvester, who is a native of Cuba, came to New York last Monday, especially to spend the day with Messrs. Carlton and Malone, who are the Atlanta representatives of the company. Mr. Sylvester had been down in Cuba for some time, where he has important interests. He is president of the Havana-American Tobacco company, makers of the La Preferencia cigar, of which 7,000,000 were distributed last year. His distribution is confined to the United States. La Preferencia is doubtless the largest selling cigar in the United States. The American Cigar company are distributors for La Preferencia in Georgia and South Carolina. Mr. Sylvester expressed himself enthusiastically over the distribution of the cigar in this city.

1. An extremely popular mode of the spring is the clever combination of contrasting colors. In this model brown duvetyne is well combined with buff colored crepe, figured with a motive in a darker tone. The Gladstone collar and vest are of sheer, white linen. The tiny black binding on the vest and the black binding on the shoulder straps and apron make a chic finish. The buff colored turban in tassel straw is ornamented by a single black quill.

2. Here is jauntyness of outline which harmonizes with the spring mood. The material used is radine in dull blue. The broad collar and the undersleeves are of white faille and the little hat of black milan straw has a flaring brim of blue maline. Two thin black feathers hold the brim tilted from the face on one side.

3. A ripple cloth morning dress in the new brown. The snug little blouse is almost a coat and over the narrow skirt is hung a tunic as long as to almost become an overskirt. The cuff and sash are of black faille and the tilted black hat of milan straw has against the brim, two soft pompos of this charming new color.

4. Combining a suggestion of both dress and suit, this tailored morning frock fulfills many duties. The material used is cinder grey wipcord, and it is collared, cuffed and girdled in Roman stripe faille. The simplicity of the blouse and the excellent lines of the skirt are charming features. The close-fitting round hat has an upstanding flare of grey maline.

5. The placing of the black sash and the deep girde and stitched seams give this morning dress an air of individuality. The material used is the ever popular soft serge in antique blue. The collar and vest are of heavy white crepe and the hat, one of the most popular of the spring models, is like milan straw wreathed in tight roses and black leaves.

In the Social Whirl

By Sam Dooly

The annual election of the Piedmont Driving Club Tuesday evening and the reception following was the significant social event of the week, and one to initiate a gay summer for the star-atmosphere. Besides the regular dinner-dance every Saturday night, with dinner served at French tables, there is an informal dancing every evening, the orchestra to play from 5 until 11 o'clock. The management announces that dinners can be served each evening to those giving the club due notice, the same provision for luncheon or afternoon teas.

The unanimous re-election of Mr. James H. Nunnally was a fitting tribute to his efficient management of the club and his acceptance was an expression of his unselfish interest in one of Atlanta's institutions which stands for more than the pleasure of the few, but serves as a home for the city-at-large may entertain distinguished visitors.

THE QUALITIES OF LEADERSHIP

It is rare that executive ability and the social talent are so combined that the man possessing them can express the one without a loss to the other. Mr. Nunnally's case is the ideal instance, generous to his mode of entertaining, thoughtful of every individual, and yet looking after the business and the club management as he would his own personal affairs. He has an able assistant in Mr. Brooks Morgan, who brings to the office of vice president the same qualities of executive ability and hospitality that make him the good citizen and the ideal host.

The governing board, including Messrs. Jack Bonding, Preston Wright, John E. Cohen, John E. Murphy and Harold Hester, complete a board of management who sustain the club a continuance of the dignity and exclusiveness for which it stands as one of the city's most necessary institutions.

After the election Wednesday evening the members of the club found the ladies awaiting them on the terrace with a glass of champagne. An orchestra concert was presented and a supper was served, the lights of many Japanese lanterns made a charming and fresco picture of the representative gathering.

BEAUTIFUL RECEPTION

Mrs. Nunnally, who assisted Mr. Nunnally receive, was beautifully dressed in a white silk gown, which showed a flower design in blue and lilac flowers. The draped skirt was trimmed in flounces of lace, and a picture was given in blue velvet ribbon, delicately applied. Her smart hat was of black. Mrs. Forrest Adams wore a beautiful toilet in white embroidered chiffon and lace, her hat trimmed in French roses. Mrs. Frank Adams wore a picture in a blue tulle gown, quality fashioned, her hat of black velvet. Mrs. Parson's turquoise blue silk gown had an overdress of white embroidered mull, her leghorn hat trimmed in roses. Mrs. Len Crow wore a white and black brocaded gown over a white silk, a white straw hat trimmed in coral-colored plumes.

Mrs. Cleary, of California, wore a pale pink acordion plaited chiffon gown, her hat of black. Mrs. Parson's turquoise blue silk gown had an overdress of white embroidered mull, her leghorn hat trimmed in roses. Mrs. Len Crow wore a white and black brocaded gown over a white silk, a white straw hat trimmed in coral-colored plumes.

then designed by Dr. Sagaray re-planting the gold wires, which are so fine that after the work is completed the patient has no pain. The doctor is now planting 50,000 hair threads in the new frame of gold left in the scalp. The hair becomes perfectly natural after a capsule of tissue forms around the gold knot. The inflammation soon entirely disappears within ten days after the operation and no evil results have ensued from any of the planting. The hair grows as naturally as did the hair before after the operation and the doctor's earliest patient, who underwent the operation seven years ago, has a beautiful head of natural glossy hair.

WEST END PARK

IT OCCUPIES AN IMPORTANT POSITION IN THE CITY'S RESIDENTIAL STRUCTURE

YEAR BY YEAR West End Park grows in importance. There were skeptical ones at first who said it would not amount to much. They had seen before many a half-baked subdivision put on the market; and they thought West End Park might be similar. They had seen additions laid off, lots staked out, streets hastily scratched on the surface, paved principally with good intentions and broken promises, like a certain famous highway we read about in history.

The skeptical ones now admit that West End Park is on the map. It is an integral part of the city's residential structure. You should take a look at it now.

We claim that W. J. Davis was distinctly a public benefactor when he took charge of the hundred or more acres that lay wild out on the edge of town and converted it into a residential park. The system of streets as laid out in West End Park constitutes a model that might well be followed in laying out similar subdivisions.

On Saturday, May 30, at 3:30 o'clock, we want you to be our guest at a public reception to be held at West End Park. At this time we will put up at auction twenty-one choice lots, and will let them go for whatever they bring.

We want you to come out to this reception whether you have in mind buying a lot or not. You will see and learn much that will be of advantage. One thing you will learn by coming out to this auction is the surprising rate at which Atlanta grows. There used to be a long skip place between old West End and the new addition; but now this is all built up and West End Park is closely knitted up to the city.

Another thing that you will observe with pleasure and possible surprise is the beauty and variety of the dwellings in West End Park. Hundreds of dwellings of the advanced bungalow type can be seen. Anyone who is interested in house construction, should visit West End Park in order to obtain advanced ideas. The word has been freely passed along that in West End Park you can learn something about the right kind of house to build so as to tempt someone to live in it.

So in all good faith we are getting ready for a sure enough auction on next Saturday. It may not be exactly the best time to hold a public sale, as viewed from the seller's standpoint, but it is decided by a good time from the buyer's standpoint.

We have urged Will Davis to wait until later on, but he says let the lots go.

THINK OF IT!

WITH TILE SIDEWALKS, city water, sewers, electricity; beautiful homes, and large lots, with two separate car lines, on sixty-foot graded and cherted avenues. Can you beat this most stupendously generous offer anywhere?

HOMES

ALL HOUSES ARE BRICK AND STONE FRONT; double floored, hot and cold water plumbing and porcelain enamel fixtures, electrical wiring and fixtures, large front and back verandas, stained floors, tinted walls, tile sidewalks, city water and no taxes. Many such homes have recently been built and sold, and many more homes are now being built in Eastman Park. Go out and look at these homes today. A wonderful opportunity awaits you!

I ASK

ANY MAN to show anywhere in Fulton county a more beautiful or handsomely wooded subdivision than Eastman Park—Regardless of price.

WHY?

BECAUSE there is not a single washed out lot, gully or bad drain in all the sixty lots now left for sale, nor a single lot that lies even so much as a foot below the street.

ATTENTION CONTRACTORS AND HOME BUILDERS

STONE cost you nothing.

BRICK cost you nothing.

HAULING cost you nothing.

BUILD your home on beautiful Virginia Ave., at the end of Highland Ave. car line.

WE HAVE 5 PERFECT LOTS ON VIRGINIA AVE. AND HERE IS OUR PROPOSITION BELOW

TO EVERY PARTY buying one of these beautiful elevated shady lots on Virginia Ave., and will agree to build at once, we will give you all the stone you need and place it on your lot. We have hundreds of tons of stone already out and on the ground. We will also furnish free of charge all the fine press brick you can use in your house free of charge, and place it on your lot.

WE FURNISH ALL OF THE OUTSIDE DRESS EXCEPT THE HAT OR COVER, FREE OF CHARGE

WE HAVE on hand several car loads of fine brick and tons of rock. We are anxious to build up one of the nicest streets in the city in order to make our other 50 lots valuable. We can afford to give this material for five of our choicest lots, as we have it on hand. We have plans that we would like to submit to you, or you can get your own build.

TAKE A LOOK AT

THE CORNER of Virginia Ave., Highland Ave. and Todd Road. Here you will find a lot two feet above the sidewalk and as level as a floor, facing north; has a frontage of 120 feet on Virginia Ave., 252 feet on the Todd Road; also faces Highland Ave. Price is now and has been all along, $3,500. We put on this lot all the stone you can use, makes no difference, one ton or fifty tons; all the fine press brick you need. No charge at all.

LOOK AT 4 LOTS

OPPOSITE the fine brick home just purchased by Mr. W. C. Reese, which he will move into in a few days. These four lots are decidedly the finest and most beautiful shady lots in the city, facing south. We are anxious for four picture houses here and would like to have them all built of brick. And why not? The brick cost you nothing. You can afford to take them as a gift. We place them on your lot for you.

VIRGINIA AVE. CORNER

WE HAVE another Virginia Ave. corner lot, all outside material furnished free, and all stone for foundation cost nothing. It might pay you to investigate.

WE ARE GOING TO BUILD

UP A MOST beautiful street at any cost to us, and our loss on the 4 or 5 houses will be your gain. The street is 60 feet wide and is passed up for new chert this year from Highland Ave. to Boulevard and Piedmont Park. Will you join us on this proposition? We will not make this offer but for 5 lots. Call Ivy 8311.

AUGUSTA'S SOCIAL SIDE

AUGUSTA, Ga., May 22.—(Special Correspondent.)—Invitations have been issued by Mr. and Mrs. Albert W. Adams to the marriage of their daughter, Miss Anna Adams, to Mr. John H. Adams, at 1 o'clock, at the First Presbyterian church. The engagement of this popular young couple has been known to their friends and the occasion of much cordial felicitations. The bride-to-be is a popular daughter in a popular and charming household, where good fellowship, genuine hospitality and gracious cordiality abound. The groom is a worthy representative of a family whose name is a household word in the south. Dr. Adams is a member of the faculty of the medical college of the University of Georgia, who has made many friends since he came to make his home in Augusta.

Atlanta seems to have more than all other cities the largest number of social circles. There are no knockers among the great crowd who were there. Everybody brings back reports of a great time, a wonderful success.

Mrs. Wm. Ballard announces the approaching marriage of her daughter, Miss Anna Ballard, to Mr. Joseph C. Ballard, at 1 o'clock, at the First Presbyterian church in North Augusta. For the summer, the principal feature being the reading of "The Book of the Dead" by the U. N. and I. faculty. Mrs. J. L. Beeson had charge of the current events circle, and read it with the usual success that attends her appearances. Miss Alice Leasure Tucker delighted those present with two songs. The chorus of the various committees were given, and it was decided that the club would meet again in September.

On Thursday afternoon of last week the club met at the home of Mrs. J. L. Beeson, and a delightful hour spent playing cards. After the games the guests enjoyed a well-served luncheon.

Thursday night the G. M. C. band gave a concert in the chapel that was well attended and very much enjoyed. Friday afternoon, the music department, under the direction of Miss Gertrude Treanor, gave a recital, the pupils showing evidence of unusual training.

The champion debate came off on Friday night, the commencement exercises of the school. The speaker was given a hearty ovation and the speaker play at the day to go with the senior play at the Grand theater that afternoon. The competitive trials. The graduating address will be delivered by Hon. J. B. Bittell, a state superintendent of schools at Atlanta.

Friday afternoon, Mrs. Henry Good, was hostess to the basket band, the meeting being one of much interest. The children came out in groups dressed to represent the various things pertaining to spring in the order: The Birds, Rain, Frogs, Wind, Rainbows, Sunbeams, Gardens, and Flowers.

A pretty study in lavender and purple, the freshmen colors, was Aikman study hall on Saturday evening. At which time this class entertained at a little play called "Two Niguns and a Day at College". There were many laughable incidents woven around the dilemma of one girl who impersonated another and was quite cleverly put on her feet by the class.

Misses J. C. Adams, Mary, Pearl, Shackerlee, Beatrice, Thomas, Mary Thompson, Mattie Ellen Turner, Winifred Will, Nan Whitcomb, and Hannah Williams. After the delightful program, black cream in lavender and white, with lead cakes, was served, on each plate a spray of purple veronica, thus carrying out the color scheme.

At the home of Mrs. J. W. Kirby, on Tuesday afternoon, the ladies of the Methodist church gave a silver tea, which was enjoyed by the large number of guests present. A musical program was rendered, making the afternoon very pleasant.

WHILE of course there are serious cases of feminine ills that nothing but a surgical operation will remedy, the indisputable fact remains that hundreds of operations have been avoided by the wonderful medicinal virtue of

and the very best proof of this is the unsolicited and grateful letters of the recovered ones themselves. By special permission we publish here four of them out of hundreds we have:—

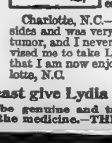

Logansport, Ind.—"My baby was over a year old and I blasted till I was a burden to myself. I suffered from female trouble so I could not stand on my feet and I felt like millions of needles were pricking me all over. At last my doctor told me that all that would save me was an operation, but this I refused. I felt my husband on my mind and I felt like I would submit to any operation. He did so and I improved right along. I am now doing all my work and my other suffering women will try my feelings. I will recommend it to all I know.—Mrs. DANIEL D. D. DALY, 110 Franklin Street, Logansport, Ind.

Cleveland, Ohio.—"My left side pained me so for several years that I expected to have to undergo an operation, but the first bottle I took of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound relieved me of the pains in my side and I continued to use until I became regular and free from pains. I had asked several doctors if there was anything I could take to help me and they said there was nothing that they knew of. I am thankful for such a good medicine and will always give it the highest praise.—Mrs. C. H. GIFFIN, 7305 Madison Avenue, Cleveland, Ohio.

Deerfield, Ill.—"I was sick in bed and three of the best physicians said I would have to be taken to the hospital for an operation as I had something growing in my left side. I refused to submit to the operation and took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound—and it worked a miracle in my case, and I feel better than I have for years.—Mrs. LARNA A. GAWRON, 3300 Elk East William Street, Deerfield, Ill.

Charlotte, N.C.—"I was in bad health for two years, with pains in both sides and was very nervous. I had a growth which the doctor said was a tumor, and I never could get it out. I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and I feel better than I have for years.—Mrs. ROSA SUE, 18 Wilcox St., Charlotte, N.C.

It would seem wise before undergoing an operation to at least give Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a trial. RELIABLE TESTIMONY—All our testimonials are guaranteed to be genuine and truthful. They came to us entirely unsolicited and are sincere expressions of gratitude for actual benefits received from the medicine.—THE LYDIA E. PINKHAM MED. CO., LYNN, MASS.

In making my selections for the players that I have arranged on the above team I have confined myself to those who have been playing during the season that I have left out of the team because I am not sure of their ability as yet. I have not included any of the players who have been playing during the season that I have left out of the team because I am not sure of their ability as yet.

With proper care should prove one of the best and most useful men in college baseball. He is young and fast, a good runner, a fine batter and an all-around baseball player.

As to the second baseman, George Harrison, of Georgia, is a good player, a good runner, a fine batter and an all-around baseball player. He is a class all by himself. A good player, a good runner, a fine batter and an all-around baseball player.

EWING BOND BREAKS RECORD FOR 220 YARDS

Ann Arbor, Mich., May 23.—With a night wind at his back, Ewing Bond, of the University of Michigan, broke the world's record in the 220 yard dash by covering the distance in 31.4 seconds. The figure is not official, inasmuch as the time was not taken by a standard timekeeper.

CORNELL CREWS WIN OVER TWO OLD RIVALS

Ithaca, N. Y., May 23.—Cornell varsity and freshman crews clearly demonstrated their superiority over the Princeton and Yale crews here today by capturing both two-mile events.

The varsity race, which was started first, was delayed until almost eight o'clock by the choppy condition of the Cayuga lake course. In this event Cornell's freshman crew, which was coached by Princeton's coach, won the race in 19:14.5, while Princeton's crew finished in 19:38.5.

Adjustable Shelves—Made of substantial tin-plated wire, which will not interfere with the air circulation.

Drain Pipes and Traps—Easily accessible and removable for cleaning.

Circulation—The air circulation is absolutely dry. A wet cloth placed on one of the refrigerator shelves will dry quicker than on the outside. Matches stored for a month will strike freely afterward.

Before Spending Your Good Money for A Refrigerator, You Should Know That there are many good Refrigerators in the market, as well as many that are not so good. The Odorless is one of the best made and this detail tells why:

Cases—Made of carefully selected kiln-dried oak—not ash or pine, stained to imitate oak—but genuine oak itself. Heavy raised front panels, rounded corners; each joint dovetailed and glued.

Insulation—Exterior case, one thickness of heavy WOOL INSULATING FELT; one space DEAD AIR; one quilt insulif. Interior cases and inner lining of one piece porcelain. This system of insulation is superior to all hair felt, charcoal ground cork and mineral wool methods. Come in and we'll explain why.

Provision Chambers—Of white porcelain, made the same way as porcelain bath tubs. Indestructible, and without a joint or seam.

Ice Chambers—Lined with heavy galvanized steel and each joint neatly seamed. Corners forged up as in an ordinary cake pan; leakage is impossible.

Adjustable Shelves—Made of substantial tin-plated wire, which will not interfere with the air circulation.

Drain Pipes and Traps—Easily accessible and removable for cleaning.

Circulation—The air circulation is absolutely dry. A wet cloth placed on one of the refrigerator shelves will dry quicker than on the outside. Matches stored for a month will strike freely afterward.

Despite the Superior Goodness of These Refrigerators, They Are All Specially Priced Thus:

The possibility of a war in Mexico is not out of the way. The rate decision is expected at almost any time now, with hopes entertained that it will be rendered before the end of May, although the belief of the better informed interests is that the interstate commerce commission will not act until the summer.

Financial markets will have the weight of the Mexican uncertainties over them for a long time to come, apparently, and there is little hope that the situation there will be entirely cleared up before the end of the summer. The 7 per cent dividend rate at least before the end of this year. If there is not another slump in earnings during the next fiscal year, it is believed that the higher rate will be restored some time in 1955.

Shipment of Gold.

The engagement and shipment of

While exchange rates have been most favorable to the shipment of gold bars, the supply is very small, and those engaging gold have been forced to take coin and pay the premium on it. Further shipments of gold coin are expected to fall crop moving.

The copper metal market is dull, with buyers placing orders only for nearby needs. Sales have been made at 14½ cents a pound. The high rate of production in recent months has dissipated fears that there might be a shortage of the metal, although it is the highest point in long time during this week, having made a record not seen since the panic of 1907. Increasing imports and declining exports, in other words, the turning of the trade balance against the United States, accounts for the high exchange. Abroad, wheat was very strong as a result of reports of damage to winter grain by Hessian fly and other insects. These reports were made by leading export agents by leading grain papers and in the government weather reports. While the American wheat has been advancing to increase their gold holdings. An advance in the English bank rate may have to be resorted to to protect the Bank of England's gold reserves. Money rates here show no sign of advance in spite of the drain on the gold supply both for Europe and for the United States. It is probable that the crop of winter wheat harvested will be the greatest on record. Corn advanced in sympathy with wheat. Bad crop news and bullish activity were responsible for a further advance in cotton to the best levels of recent weeks. There has been a noticeable
