Judge Kirtland says that he is not yet ready to say for certain that he will run.

A Good Sentiment
To Pass Down the Line

Philadelphia, May 27, 1914.
Editor Constitution: Mr. E. C. Simmons of St. Louis, says a lot in a few words in the following expression of business optimism with which he began a recent letter to the salesmen of the Simmons Hardware com-

"DON'T WORRY.
"War or no war, freight rates or no freight rates, tariff or no tariff, baseball or no baseball, grape-juice or champagne—the farmer is still on the job.
"DON'T FORGET HIM."
Perhaps you may like to pass this cheer

DOING NOTHING
By GEORGE MATTHEW ADAMS.

The hardest thing in this world for a healthy man is to Do Nothing. The real idlers are a menace to the community. Because they are either ill or abnormal. No human being ever stands on this earth with health and will.

Once let a man realize that he is Stronger and Healthier and you can't keep him from working any more than you can keep him from eating, for it is a natural function.

The man who Does Nothing is worse than

Do Something, no matter how trivial, so long as it is to some purpose, and little by little, day by day, you cannot help but rise and grow, limiting your Success only by the height of your Ideals.

Accepting Man.

The vestal Peace, now stands beside the
Of Janus, and she seeks to close them
Is sorrow looks she on, the while she waits—
And shall not wait in vain—although, the
Of Man

Of strife is near us, now, and, through the land
 We're loud alarm sounds. Hark! to his tread!
 He marches fast: we hear his loud command.
 And see him drawing nigh with upreared
 head.
 We love sweet Peace, but Justice more than all.

And one we hold in more esteem than she.
Accept we even Mara, when at her call:
And, so, grim Mara shall, then, her servant be—
Shall bow his head to Justice—that goddess grand—
Revered by all in this, our own free land.

Like a Philosopher.
(From Answers, London)
"John, John," exclaimed little Mrs. Jones.

"Can't imagine," came the reply. "Forgotten to break something—eh?"

"Cook casually poured petrol on the kitchen fire to make it burn up!"

"Petrol? Petrol? And didn't it explode?"

"Yes—I should think it did! It nearly blew the silly woman through the window!"

"Oh, well," mused the husband, "It wouldn't really have mattered if it had."

PLANS ARE NOW ON FOOT FOR A NEW TERMINAL

Grants of Macon Property to Be Transferred to New Terminal Company.

Macon, Ga., May 29.—(Special.)—At the coming session of the legislature the Central of Georgia Railway company will submit an amendment to the bill passed at the last session transferring certain grants from the city of Macon to the railway to be used for terminal purposes, including the closing of Cherry street, between Fifth and Seventh streets, and Fifth street, and in addition, the utilization of a portion of Fifth street, for truckage purposes, transferring these grants to a terminal company, which will be formed here for the purpose of erecting the new $1,500,000 terminal in which all of the railroads entering the city will have an interest.

It was at first the intention of the Central railway to go ahead and build the new terminal without assistance, and then lease it to other roads for a certain stated annual sum. Since then, however, the other roads have entered into the plan for a terminal company.

There is little doubt but that the proposed amendment will be passed without opposition.

Refused to Pay Street Tax.

A number of the most prominent business men in Macon were in record's court this morning for the first time as prisoners. They had been summoned for failure to pay their street taxes, though only one went to trial, the others all paying up before their cases were called.

J. P. Blaisdell was the one who refused to pay, and he was convicted and fined $5. Immediately his attorney appeared in the courtroom, and after a short trial, the case was dismissed.

There is considerable damage being done to the corn and other crops in this section by the prolonged drought. The loss of the crop is estimated at $100,000.

There is little doubt but that the drought is about 15 per cent better, having been planted early with a good stand.

Practically all of the crop in this section is up with a good stand, and the drought has been going on for several weeks.
