

GREAT OVATION GIVEN WILSON WHEN CROWD TAKES STEWMENT AS PRESIDENT THAT HE' RUN AGAIN

President Raps Republicans, Defends His Administration and Declares Democratic President Would Have Won in November.

SAYS COUNTRY WANTS SHIP PURCHASE BILL; PREDICTS ITS SUCCESS

Democratic Party Is More Progressive Than Republican, He States—Styles Himself an "Animated Conservative."

Indianapolis, Ind., January 8.—President Wilson, in a Jackson day speech here today, voiced what his hearers interpreted as a hint that he might be a candidate for the presidency again in 1916. The audience of more than 4,000 people rose to their feet and cheered until the president called for quiet.

The president had been discussing the Mexican question. Referring to his belief that he knew the temperaments and principles of the American people, he added that he would not sit to stay where he was if he did not understand them.

"There may come a time," he went on, "when the American people will have to judge whether I know what I am talking about or not."

There was a slight pause, and then the crowd began cheering. Realizing the construction which had been put on his words, the president held up his hand for silence, and said:

"I did not mean to stir up anything. That was merely preparatory to saying that for at least two more years I am free to think I know the American people."

Attacks Republican Party.

Previously the president had attacked the republican party, defended the record of his administration on the Mexican policy, the tariff and currency, and declared that a careful examination of the returns from the elections last November showed that if it had been a presidential year a democrat would have had a majority of about thirty in the electoral college.

The president criticized republican senators opposing the government ship purchase bill, whom he characterized as "self-styled friends of business."

He said the republican party has not had a new idea in thirty years, and that "the republicans are too busy to do anything but sit on the lid."

He added that the country wants the ship purchase bill enacted into law, and "will have it."

Mr. Wilson gravely spoke warning democrats not to break the solidarity of the party. He declared those who did would gain an unfavorable position for themselves.

Wilson Urges Team Play.

"If a man won't play on a team he must get off the team," he said, and later spoke of himself as the "captain of the democratic team for the present."

The president spoke briefly of Mexico. He said the people there are entitled to liberty, "no matter how long they take in determining it." Speaking slowly and carefully, he declared that "so far as my influence goes, while I am president, nobody shall interfere with them."

"Have not European nations taken as long as they wanted, and spilled much blood as they pleased, to get their own affairs, he continued, "and shall we deny the same right to Mexico, No, No, No."

Much of Mr. Wilson's address was devoted to the independent and progressive voters. He said about one-third of the republican party is progressive and about two-thirds of the republican party is conservative. "Therefore," he added, "the democratic party is more progressive than the republican. He declared that most of the voters of the country are independent, but that it was his ambition to have them vote with the democrats. He spoke of himself as an "animated conservative."

America as Preserver.

The president said the people of the United States should not pay too much attention to the European war, but should keep their own affairs in good order. He closed his address with a fervent expression of the hope that the time might come when the United States could be instrumental in restoring peace.

Business conditions were taken up briefly. He characterized talk of business depression as a "state of mind." He said the democratic party already had done much to free business, and that its program was to do more. Whenever the country really wants something besides talk, he added, it turns to the democratic party.

The president advocated establishment of a great federal employment bureau, said some means should be found for quickening and cheapening the processes of the courts, and spoke of the necessity of conserving the administration conservative bill.

Cheering interrupted the president at frequent intervals during his address. Immediately after his speech the president went to the home of Mayor Ball, who was confined to his bed by illness, and later to the home of Mrs. Ball, who was confined to her bed by illness. He was accompanied by Mrs. Wilson, who was also confined to her bed by illness. He was accompanied by Mrs. Wilson, who was also confined to her bed by illness.

JUDGE ELLIS TAKES CHARGE OF ASSETS OF EMPIRE LIFE CO.

Application of J. E. Brown et al. Renewed, and the Hearing Is Set for January 16.

RECEIVER IS ASKED BY COMMISSIONER WRIGHT

In Accordance With His Petition; He Is Appointed by Judge Hammond, of the Augusta Circuit.

Attorneys for Judge J. E. Brown et al. against the Empire Life insurance company, last night renewed their petition before Judge Ellis, of Walton superior court, asking a receiver for the insurance company.

Judge Ellis last night, by a special order, assumed jurisdiction of the assets of the insurance company and of the company in Atlanta. He also showed cause why he should not appoint a receiver for the company.

By this action Judge Ellis holds the assets of the company in Atlanta. The petition of Judge J. E. Brown et al. charges the company with gross mismanagement and alleges it has been hopelessly insolvent for the past six months.

On Friday afternoon another petition was filed by Attorney General Warren Grice, at the instance of Insurance Commissioner W. A. Wright, with the judge, asking that if it had been a presidential year a democrat would have had a majority of about thirty in the electoral college.

The Empire Life insurance company's home office is in Augusta. Its headquarters in Atlanta.

W. W. Reid, president of the Empire Life insurance company, stated last night that the company is not a receiver for the company.

A dispatch from Augusta last night stated that Judge Henry C. Hammond had granted the petition, signing an order that the receiver be appointed.

Commissioner Wright's Petition.

In the insurance commissioner's petition it was set forth that as a result of recent litigation and the wide publicity given to the litigation and on account of abnormal conditions, there have been many requests from policyholders for policy loans, which the company has been unable to meet, and that for these reasons the insurance commissioner believes that it is not best for the company to continue its business under the present conditions.

He, therefore, asks the court to turn over the affairs of the company to him for liquidation. He also asks that the affairs of the company be turned over to him for liquidation whenever the company is unable to meet its obligations. He also asks that the affairs of the company be turned over to him for liquidation whenever the company is unable to meet its obligations.

"And I can tell things that will make her regret she ever thought of divorce," warmly declared Miss Davis to newspaper men yesterday afternoon. "I can show plainly enough that she should be in the home of a sick man. I'll tell why and how she's already done him irretrievable harm."

Despite the declaration of Mrs. Hight that she would return to her husband's home, the divorcee, however, tonight has taken into custody last night by the detectives in connection with the robbery.

About $1,000 worth of stolen goods, including jewelry, watches, pistols, clothes and many other articles, many of which have been identified by owners in connection with recent daylight burglaries, have been recovered.

On information given by two young actresses, under arrest, about the robbery, the detectives last night arrested the five boys Friday morning. The actresses are Clara Oliver, 12 years old, and Billie Brown, 12. They were arrested for having stolen goods from a store.

When their rooms at 44 East Mitchell street were searched the detectives found large quantities of stolen goods, which they said their boy friends had given them.

England Sends Inconclusive Reply to American Protest; Further Discussion Necessary

ITALY AND RUMANIA ABOUT TO CAST LOT ON SIDE OF ALIES IN GREAT STRUGGLE

Italian Minister Sends Firm Reply to Austria's Protest Over Occupation of Avlona, Declares a Dispatch From Milan.

Washington, January 8.—Secretary Bryan late today announced receipt of Great Britain's reply to the American note respecting interruption of American commerce.

The note will be made public Sunday afternoon by agreement between the state department and the British foreign office.

British department officials read the British note carefully, but would make no comment in advance of publication. That it is inconclusive in many respects, and will lead to a further diplomatic exchange, was learned from authoritative quarters. Some points, such as the question of proof at the time of detention of ships and length of time required for examination, remain undetermined.

ADVANCE OF RUSSIANS ACROSS CARPATHIANS ADMITTED BY AUSTRIA

Small Advances Made by Allies at Nearly All Points Despite the Bad Weather. Lull in Fighting in Poland.

Vienna, January 8.—(Via London, 8:07 a. m.)—The Secolo asserts that Count Leopold von Berchtold, Austrian minister of foreign affairs, has sent a note to Italy protesting against the Italian occupation of Avlona, Albania.

Baron Sidney Sonnino, Italian minister of foreign affairs, has sent a firm reply, says the paper.

London, January 8.—(3:37 a. m.)—Rumania is mobilizing 500,000 men, of which number half a million form the field army. Rumania will strike, even should Italy decide not to enter the war, says The Morning Post's Bucharest correspondent.

From Paris comes a report that Rumania and Italy have reached an agreement to enter the war simultaneously. Winter storms and floods, while they hamper the Russian offensive military operations, have not kept the armies in the east and west from pursuing the offensive at isolated points along the two extended fronts.

TURKS SURRENDERING BY THE THOUSANDS.

In the snow-covered hills of the Caucasus the Turkish soldiers are surrendering to the allied troops who are reported to be surrendering by thousands. In Finland, the allied army is held up on the banks of rivers between him and Warsaw, and in Galicia, where the Russians have been compelled to halt their advance, does seem to be an almost entire lull in the fighting.

The Russians continue their forward movement in the Carpathians and in Bukovina. The French army in France attacks have been made at many points, followed by artillery operations, sapping and mining operations. The Russian offensive has been made in the vicinity of Rethel, but were compelled to give ground in the Argonne, where the German aimed some of their first big guns.

Catholic Clergy Maltreated
and Religious Institutions
Destroyed by Germans,
Declares British Report.

London, January 8.—At the request of the Belgian legation in London the British press bureau today issued detailed allegations of the maltreatment of Catholic clergy in Belgium and the destruction of their institutions by German troops.

The statement says churches and religious houses were destroyed or profaned in almost every village and in many towns where the German troops passed. In most cases the edifices were utilized as stables and prisons, and when not placed in safe hiding, the sacred vessels were stolen.

The statement declares members of the clergy have been subjected to special indignities at the hands of German soldiers. In the dioceses of Liège, Namur, Malines and Ghent many priests and others connected with the churches were either shot or hanged. Many other priests were carried off to Germany, where they appear to have been subjected to abominable usage.

The following specific instances are given in the statement of the press bureau:

"August 21.—An American and a Spanish priest, among a group of seventy civilians, were dragged about four miles from place to place all day and mounted, insulted and threatened with military execution. They were taken to the church at Camperhout and shot up for the night."

"August 21.—The priest of Duesen, an invalid 87 years old, suffering from disease, was accused by the Germans of having fired on them. He was arrested, hoisted on a cannon, and thrown into a ditch, tortured and shot."

A witness deposes that he saw the priest Colredo brought into Aarschot, August 24, with three wounded men. The Germans made an English lay and took him to the town hall, where they shot him and cast his body into the river."

A priest makes the following deposition: "August 15 German soldiers advanced into the village of Dender, began to burn and pillage on the river that shoals had been fired on."

CARVER NEAR DEATH FROM ESCAPING GAS

Farmer From Swords, Ga., Is Found in Hotel in Critical Condition.

G. C. Carver, a farmer of Swords, Ga., is near death at the city hospital as the result of escaping gas, which had filled his sleeping room in a local hotel.

Carver was found shortly after 12 o'clock Friday afternoon by the negro porter of the Read hotel, 1514 Decatur street, when the negro opened the door to clean up the room. He was lying in an unconscious condition across the bed and the windows of the room were tightly pulled down. Gas, escaping from the jet, had filled the room.

Carver remained in an unconscious condition for hours at the hospital, where he was rushed, and oxygen pumped into his lungs.

It is believed by the hospital physicians that he attempted to take his life by asphyxiation.

D. V. Keith, the night clerk of the hotel, said that Carver came to the hotel Thursday night about 11 o'clock, apparently in a normal condition, and registered for a night's lodging.

One hundred and seventy-five men were burned and twenty-seven civilians were murdered. The Germans had killed every man, woman and child who was in the village.

They proposed to hang him. They carried him into a house which was on fire, but dragged him out again. They carried him into a house which was on fire, but dragged him out again. They carried him into a house which was on fire, but dragged him out again.

Continuing, the statement says the commission of inquiry collected evidence that in the diocese of Malines alone twenty-six priests were killed without cause. Similar atrocities occurred in other dioceses. In the Liège diocese ten priests were shot, and in the Namur diocese twenty priests were killed. The priest of Spontin was first hung up by the feet, then by the hands and placed with bayonets in the diocese of Tournai a bishop, 74 years old, was tried as a hero and executed by a soldier. Three ecclesiastics were shot in this diocese.

The statement concludes with these words: "Nothing can demonstrate more clearly the tendency of the Germans to deal with the clergy of the church as they deal with the people of the country. They have no regard for the lives of the clergy, and they have no regard for the lives of the people."

Alleged Arrest of Cardinal Brings Conflicting Reports

Mercier Not Arrested, According to Kaiser's Explanation to Vatican.

Rome, January 8.—Germany has sent to the Vatican an explanation of the Mercier incident, in which it says there is absolutely no truth in the report that the cardinal was arrested by German authorities in Belgium, or even confined to his own palace or prevented from leaving it.

The German authorities entrusted with the most delicate and difficult task of maintaining order in Belgium and convincing the hostile population of that country of their sincere desire for their good, simply addressed to Cardinal Mercier a most deferential prayer that he abstain from any attitude which might make difficult the accomplishment of their duty, or ultimately entail risk to the Belgian people.

In following that course the Germans, the explanation says, had in mind the fulfillment of the Christian duty, "which must be particularly dear to a minister of the church, of avoiding the shedding of blood."

"Any agitation or tumult arising from even an indirect cause," the German communication concludes, "will render necessary severe measures on the part of the troops for the restoration of order."

London, January 8.—Reuter's Associated Press correspondent sent the following: "According to a Berlin telegram, tonight's issue of the North German Gazette published the following inspired communication: 'The archbishop of Malines, Cardinal Mercier, issued a Christmas pastoral letter which he directed should be read in the pulpits of all the churches in his diocese January 1 and 2 and 3.'

"The statement concludes with these words: 'Nothing can demonstrate more clearly the tendency of the Germans to deal with the clergy of the church as they deal with the people of the country. They have no regard for the lives of the clergy, and they have no regard for the lives of the people.'"

EXPRESSION OF REGRET FORWARDED BY CANADA

Dominion Government Offers to Compensate for Shooting on Border.

Ottawa, January 8.—Canadian government authorities have forwarded to the United States government at Washington formal expressions of regret on the part of the dominion of Canada for the killing of Walter Smith and the wounding of Charles Dorech by Canadian militiamen. The dominion government also has offered to compensate the wounded man and the family of the dead man.

The expression of the Canadian government was sent to the American government through Sir Cecil Spring-Rice, British ambassador at Washington. The authorities intimated their action was taken before the dispatch of the United States government's note to Great Britain on the subject. The course of the Canadian government it was said, was prompted by "an act of grace" and was not necessarily an admission of liability.

Canadian Soldiers Arrested. Toronto, January 8.—A provincial constable, a corporal and two privates were arrested at Port Erie today on warrants issued at the instance of the attorney general of the province of Ontario, charging them with manslaughter in connection with the death of Walter Smith and the wounding of Charles Dorech, American citizens, at Port Erie on December 28 last. The men were held without bail.

Smith and Dorech were shot by Canadian militiamen while hunting ducks on the Canadian side of the Niagara river in alleged violation of the dominion game laws. The United States sent a formal protest to Great Britain requesting the punishment of those guilty of the shooting.

The men arrested today on charges of manslaughter are Thomas W. Deane, provincial constable; Archie Macdonald, corporal; and Edward McIntosh and Leslie Kinnman, privates.

J. B. Loefer, attorney general of Ontario, who caused the issuance of the writs, said today that the department had preferred the charges on its own initiative and had not asked for them by the imperial or dominion governments.

The attorney general added that he felt that the four men should stand trial in the provincial courts. The constable, it was announced, had been suspended from the force.

A Great, Fine Remnant Sale of the Silks and Woolens Favored This Season

Hundreds and hundreds of remnants—the silks and the woolens of the now, in a Chamberlin-Johnson-DuBose Co. Sale. Here, then, we have genuine savings.

Remnants are the natural "by-product" of a healthy business. They are the proof of their own worth.

But we cannot keep remnants—they get in our way. So we take a day every now and then, when they have accumulated to a certain degree, and dispose of them.

But this particular sale—Inventory brought out a great quantity of them, and this, coupled with the fact that we are turning into a new season—we will hold our greatest Remnant Sale.

That the "Build new" campaign inaugurated by the Atlanta Chamber of Commerce is making wide strides is indicated from various sources.

The figures in the office of the building inspector show that the number of permits for building has increased over the past year, and that the number of permits for building has increased over the past year.

Builders are apparently realizing that, despite the somewhat halting rate of interest demanded for building money in normal times, the liberal offer made possible by the chamber makes it slightly desirable for them to build now.
