MONEY AVAILABLE, SCHOOL BOARD GETS BUSY ON BUILDINGS

Contracts Being Drawn for Three New Schools, Actual Work to Begin Monday. Other Bids Asked.

MAYOR WILL APPROVE JUNE FINANCE SHEET

Big Repair Corps Organized to Place All Buildings in First-Class Condition—To Overhaul Plumbing and Heating.

With the announcement Tuesday by Mayor Woodward that he would approve the June finance sheet, the school board is busy on building contracts and the actual work to begin Monday.

The board feels that it now has free rein to prosecute its work of school improvement, and within the next few days expects to let contracts for several new buildings and many new additions and extensions that will be a decided step toward placing Atlanta's schools on a high standard of superiority.

Thousands of parents will rejoice with their children in the fact that as a result of general council action in granting a liberal appropriation for extensions and additional teachers all double sessions will be abolished, sanitary, well-lighted and properly ventilated quarters will be provided and every child will be furnished a desk.

The Metra Goldsmith school will cost $172,000; the county four-story, six-story, Milton avenue school is $1,800; the Lucile avenue school, $35,115.

The board Tuesday agreed to direct to proceed at once to secure bids for the erection of a new school at South Atlanta on a lot that has been donated by Clark university for that purpose.

The board next week will let the contracts for the building of a four-story, open-air annex at the tenth street school, for which council has appropriated $1,000. They will also erect before the schools open in the fall an auditorium at tenth street school, to cost about $700.

At Tuesday's session the board decided the construction of the new schools, and later making additions to the new schools will necessitate grading and the building of foundations, and will require more time for completion than additions to building now in use.

Options have already been gotten on property adjacent to several of the schools that have been crowded on lots that did not permit playgrounds for children and the board will be situated as soon as the ground is cleared.

Special attention will be given by the board to the heating and plumbing in good form of the various school buildings, and the board will consider the plans and specifications for these features and to the environment around the children.

No provision has been made for painting and heating of the proposed new buildings, but the building committee was directed to prepare plans and specifications for these features and to the environment around the children.

Over a thousand dollars has been appropriated by council for the repair and maintenance of the school buildings and the board will employ additional workmen to do the work on all the buildings on the school grounds so that minor repairs and repairs on all the buildings can be made before the close of the summer.

A corps of plasterers, painters and masons will go to work on the walls of the buildings, and the board expects to have the buildings in ship-shape so that visiting patrons will have no cause to complain of the conditions under which their children study.

The board of education has three contracts for the building of three new schools, and the actual work to begin Monday.

Threaten to Tighten Reins on Chief, Who Is Charged With Being Amenable to "Outside Influences."

"VICE IS SCATTERED PROMISCUOUSLY OVER CITY," SAYS REPORT

Charges Department Lacking in Organization and That Beavers Fails to Exercise Disciplinary Control

Police Chief James L. Beavers was severely rapped and the police department criticized in the "efficiency report" of the police probe committee, compiled some time ago to investigate charges by leading citizens of inefficiency against the police chief and the department, which was rendered to the police board at last night's monthly meeting.

Chief Beavers is charged with being too amenable to "outside influence" and recommendations for "tightening the reins on him" are made. He is also criticized for failure to exercise proper disciplinary control over the department with the consequent result that the department is lacking in organization and efficiency.

Chief T. S. Talbot, who is in charge of the police department, is also criticized in the report as being inefficient, and it is recommended that a field report be kept watch over the detectives in the field. As a whole the patrolmen are praised in the report as being efficient, but are criticized for failure in many instances to pay strict attention to business. They are assailed for wasting time conversing with one another while on duty and also with citizens.

The probation department is recommended to be reorganized and changes in the keeping of records in the station sergeant's office are better controlled. Chains and sergents of police are reported for not having better control of the patrolmen. Juvenile probation officers and matrons are also criticized for failure to pay strict attention to business. They are assailed for wasting time conversing with one another while on duty and also with citizens.

The resolution was referred to the board Tuesday in line with that directed Monday. It carries with it a provision to make the maximum salary for a grade teacher $34, and the minimum $20. The minimum salary for the principal is $40, and the maximum $60. The majority of the members of the board favor the resolution, and its passage is expected. It will then be transmitted to the general council for consideration.

Notwithstanding his political defects, he was acclaimed as the "peerless leader" of democracy and was supported by a large personal following. He made speeches in nearly every city and town in the country and his bitter political fights with his support have kept him in the forefront of public attention, always dramatically and in circumstances of vivid nationwide interest.

When Mr. Bryan returned from a trip around the world in 1910 and was greeted by a great crowd in Madison Square garden his speech advocating government ownership of railroads stirred up a sensation in domestic politics. It was shortly after this that Woodrow Wilson, then president of Princeton university, wrote the famous letter to Bryan in which he declared that the speech made him feel that Mr. Bryan "ought to be knocked into a cocked hat."

Bryan led Clark for Wilson. The record of Mr. Wilson as governor of New Jersey was progressive legislation attracted Mr. Bryan to him and he visited the governor at Trenton. He was subsequently instructed as a delegate to Clark Clark. Mr. Bryan caused another sensation at the Baltimore convention in 1912 by his fight on the Tammany leaders in New York.

Mr. Bryan's resignation as secretary of state because of a question of principle at a critical moment in the nation's history, added another devotion to a spectacular career—a life devoted to a glorious political campaign, a life devoted to a glorious political campaign, a life devoted to a glorious political campaign.

Attracting attention when he went to congress in 1891, he leaped into prominence at once with a speech that electrified his audience. The tall, lanky westerner had early earned the name of "Boy orator of the Platte." His famous "Cross of Gold and Crown of Thorns" speech in 1896 at the Democratic convention won for him the nomination for the presidency. When the Spanish-American war broke out he enlisted and went to the front as colonel of a regiment he helped to form. On his return he again came into prominence at the democratic convention of 1900 and throughout his campaign against McKinley advocating the granting of independence to the Philippines and a policy of "anti-imperialism."

SUMMER SCHOOLS START JUNE 21

Session Will Last for Ten Weeks—Miss Laura M. Smith Named as Director, 1,300 Pupils.

Atlanta's summer schools for public school pupils, who failed of promotion in their grades during the season just closed will begin Monday, June 21, and continue for ten weeks, according to an official announcement by the board of education, which met Tuesday afternoon and worked over many details for the operation for the first time of a system of vocational schools.

Miss Laura M. Smith, literary supervisor in the public school system, was elected director of summer schools, and Miss Ora Stampf was named as assistant. The teachers for the schools will be named at a meeting of the board to be held later in the week.

Since there are about 1,300 pupils recommended by their teachers to take the summer tutoring, about ten or twelve school buildings will be needed for the work. They will be designated by the board at the special session next Monday. Forty teachers will be employed to teach the grades. No provision has been made for the high school pupils who were deficient in their studies, and it is probable that some of the high school work will be taught in the summer schools.

The board adopted a resolution requiring that pupils who are deficient in their studies at the beginning of the school year shall be given the opportunity of being kept in the same grade two years," said President R. J. Giffin, of the board of education.

By action of the board of education the schools will hold one session daily, beginning at 8:30 o'clock and concluding at noon. The board was of the opinion that the children should not be required to attend the school rooms during the hot afternoons of the summer.

"We desire to impress on the parents of the pupils that the summer school is not intended as a penalty," said Giffin, "but as a means of giving the child the opportunity of completing his education and will at the same time be able to continue with their classes without the embarrassment of being kept in the same grade two years," said President R. J. Giffin, of the board of education.

The operation of the parent is asked in putting into operation this new department for our school system. It is a great service that is being done for them. We will employ the best teachers available and will teach all of the grades. It will be ten weeks of special tutoring that will be worth probably as much to some as the nine months' course has done them.

Within the next few days the board will issue an official notice to the public, designating the schools to be used during the summer, the rules and regulations and the dates for registering.

A resolution was introduced in the board Tuesday in line with that directed Monday. It carries with it a provision to make the maximum salary for a grade teacher $34, and the minimum $20. HE HAS LEFT THE CABINET

Who has resigned the portfolio of secretary of state in the Wilson cabinet. Mr. Bryan resigned because his views differed from those of President Wilson in regard to the note to be sent to Germany. In resigning Mr. Bryan declared that prevention of war was nearest his heart. Mr. Bryan, however, announced that he would continue to give political support to President Wilson.

FRANK DECISION WILL BE MADE PUBLIC TODAY

When the Prison Commission Makes Report, Frank's Counsel Will Ask Hearing Soon.

The prison commission will make its report to Governor Stanton on the Leo Frank hearing this morning.

This was stated by Commissioner Tuesday afternoon. No inkling of the nature of the decision, however, would be given.

In event the report is made as early as this morning, counsel for the convicted man will appear immediately before Governor Stanton and request him to give them a hearing at 3 o'clock Thursday morning.

They will present an appeal in Frank's behalf, with possibly new psychological moment in the democratic convention won for him the nomination for the presidency. Bryan Opposed Any Action In Regard to the Lusitania That Even Looked to War

Resignation of Secretary Was Immediately Accepted and the Note to Germany Will Be Cabled as Framed by President Wilson—Utmost Good Feeling Marked Retirement of Bryan, and He Will Continue to Support President Wilson Politically—There Has Been Friction Ever Since the First Note Sent by United States in Regard to Lusitania.

Washington, June 8.—William Jennings Bryan, three times democratic candidate for the presidency of the United States, and author of nearly thirty peace treaties with the principal nations of the world, resigned today as secretary of state as a dramatic sequel to his disagreement with President Wilson over the government's policy toward Germany.

The resignation was accepted by the president. The cabinet then approved the response which had been prepared to the German reply to the Lusitania note. Acting Secretary Robert Lansing will sign the document, and tomorrow it will be cabled to Berlin.

Secretary Bryan will return to private life tomorrow, when his resignation takes effect. It was learned that he intends to continue his political support of the president.

Rather than sign the document which he believed might possibly draw the United States into war, Mr. Bryan submitted his resignation in a letter declaring that "the issue involved is of such moment that to remain a member of the cabinet would be as unfair to you as it would be to the cause which is nearest my heart, namely, the prevention of war."

The president accepted the resignation in a letter of regret, and expressed deep personal feeling of affection. The letters constituting the official announcement of Mr. Bryan's departure from the cabinet to private life were made public at the white house at 9 o'clock tonight.

FORCEFUL COURSE BY UNITED STATES AGAINST GERMANY

FEAR OF WAR MOVED BERLIN

Secretary Bryan's letter of resignation was as follows:

"My Dear Mr. President—I wish to state that I have reached the conclusion that I should return to you the commission of secretary of state with which you honored me at the beginning of your administration. I cannot join without violating what I believe to be the obligations of my office and the issue involved is of such moment that to remain a member of the cabinet would be as unfair to you as it would be to the cause which is nearest my heart, namely, the prevention of war."

He therefore, respectfully tender my resignation, to take effect when the hour is first, and to prefer, earlier hour, alike desirous of reaching a peaceful solution of the problems arising out of the use of submarine warfare and the employment of our selves differing irreconcilably as to the declaration of war, and to speak out.

AUSTRIAN BOMBS HURLED AT VENICE

Vienna Reports Aerial Bombardment of Italian City. Italians Making Gradual Progress Along Isonzo River.

Vienna, June 2.—(Via London).—The following official communication was issued tonight:
"A telegram from our naval command states that naval flying machine L-47, Commander Bonfeld and Observer Naval Cadet von Strobel, this morning successfully bombarded Venice and dropped bombs on a balloon shed at Murano (8 miles northeast of Venice) and also on an enemy torpedo boat destroyer."

Another official communication tells of the destruction of an Italian airplane by an Austrian aeroplane. It says:
"The Italian alpine Clitta Di Ferrara, returning from Fiume this morning was attacked, set on fire and destroyed by our naval aeroplane L-48, commanded by Lieutenant Glasling and with Naval Cadet von Fritsch as observer. Two officers and five men of the crew were captured."

GRADUAL PROGRESS MADE BY ITALIANS.
Udine, June 2.—(Via Chiasso and Paris).—Italian forces today were engaged with the Austrians on the eastern banks of the Isonzo, north of Tolmino. They are fighting also around Gradisca, evidently with the intention of encircling that point.
Monterio has been occupied, as have the mountains between the Isonzo and Idria rivers. These positions dominate the towns of Volcans, Ronins, Canale and Dacia, all on the Isonzo.
On the sea operations are being conducted with the idea of gaining possession of the Gulf of Fanzano, whence it will be easier to attack Monfalcone.

POSITIONS TAKEN BY THE ITALIANS.
Rome, June 2.—(Via Paris).—Italian troops are proceeding methodically to take possession of the most important positions all along the frontier, according to a statement signed by General Cadorna, chief of the Italian staff, issued at general Italian headquarters. The statement follows:
"Our advanced troops proceeded methodically to take possession of the most important positions beyond the frontier all along the line, meeting with slight resistance. It was during a closely contested artillery duel continued on the plateau of Lavarone and Fogaric."
"The same is the case all along the Isonzo river from Caporetto to the sea, where we are in close contact with the enemy. Strong advance formation protected by powerful artillery actually have reached this important line with the object of establishing themselves solidly at the most suitable passage and of installing there bridge heads commanding the banks thereby insuring safe crossings."
"Beyond the Caporetto mountains, our troops are continuing the heavy fighting of June 4-6 against the Austrians positions which are situated on the opposite slope. We have gained firm footholds on both banks of the river and are seriously threatening Tolmino."
"Along the lower course of the Isonzo, after spanning the river with military bridges, large detachments of our troops, preceded by a reconnoitering force of cavalry, succeeded in crossing to the eastern bank, where they now are fortifying themselves by this maneuver we are situated along the Isonzo front the same liberty of action as on our other fronts. This is important because heavy detachments of troops may thus be employed easily when the time is ripe. Our losses have been relatively light."
"Our troops celebrated the national holiday, offering to their sovereign—who is ever present with them—proofs of their high esteem by their courage, their spirit of self-sacrifice and highest patriotic sentiment."

GERMAN TROOPS TO OPPOSE ITALIANS.
Innsbruck, Austria, June 2.—(By telegraph to Bucharest, June 2, via Paris).—Extensive preparations are being made by the Austrians to resist the Italian invasion. General Danil arrived at Trent yesterday from the Russian front to take command of one of the Austrian armies. A considerable number of German troops also has been brought into the Trent region.
The Austrians are reinforcing their line all along the Isonzo, where an engagement over a wide front is developing. Heavy artillery is being brought in from the eastern front by the Austrians for use on the Isonzo.

ITALIANS PREPARE FOR GENERAL ATTACK.
Vienna, June 2.—(Via London).—The Austrian war office has issued the following in regard to operations against the Italians:

"In the Italian coastal district the enemy apparently is preparing a general attack against our positions on the Isonzo river. In his isolated attacks heretofore our positions have been well reinforced with heavy losses."

"In the Carinthian and Tyrol frontier districts the Italians have been stepping up artillery fire without success. An Alpine detachment which occupied Monte Piano, south of Laido, was driven off by our troops. The district of Aik was visited by plundering Garibaldians."

"Paradise—it would have taken the railway two weeks to have laid her out."

VIEWS OF JUDGE GARY ON STEEL DECISION

Pittsburg, June 2.—Judge James H. Reed, chairman of the Carnegie steel company and a director of the United States Steel corporation, made public tonight a letter from Judge G. H. Gary, chairman of the steel corporation, to presidents of subsidiary companies, discussing the recent decision of the federal courts and its effect on the policy of the corporation. The letter says the decision "showed that it has been our intention and effort to conduct our affairs that we would not be injured to our employees, our customers, our competitors or the general public."
"We must not now make the mistake of supporting that, under this decision, we would be justified in changing the course heretofore pursued. We must not become indifferent or careless. We must positively maintain the standard of propriety which we have been following."

C. E. Man for Governor.
Baltimore, Mass., June 2.—William Shaw, general secretary of the United Society of Christian Endeavor, today announced his acceptance of the nomination for governor tendered him at the recent convention of the prohibition party.

John Redmond was "suspended" on the very first day he sat in parliament.

MAYO VICE ADMIRAL; TOLD HUERTA TO SALUTE

Wilson Promotes Officer Who Precipitated the Crisis at Vera Cruz.

Washington, June 8.—Rear Admiral Henry T. Mayo, commander of the first division of the Atlantic fleet, was designated today by President Wilson as vice admiral of the navy. He is the first of three vice admirals to be appointed. Admiral Mayo will be second in command of the Atlantic fleet and continue in command of the first division. He was appointed under one of the final acts of the last congress which authorized the creation of three admirals and three vice admirals to hold their grades until relieved. No decision yet has been reached on the appointment of a vice admiral for the Pacific fleet, and it was held to be possible that some would be named for the comparatively small Asiatic fleet. Admiral Winterhalter, now on route to the Far East to take command of that fleet, will soon make recommendations on the advisability of such an appointment. Admiral Mayo is the officer who demanded a salute to the Stars and Stripes by General Huerta precipitating the crisis which led to the American occupation of Vera Cruz.

SUBMARINES SINK NEUTRAL VESSELS

Three Norwegian Ships Sent to Bottom—Belgian Steamer Torpedoed and Seventeen Lives Lost.

London, June 8.—The Belgian steamer Menapier has been sent to the bottom by a German torpedo near the North Foreland. Out of twenty-three persons on board only six were saved. The captain, his wife and his daughter, the first mate and the pilot and twelve members of the crew lost their lives.

The Belgian steamer Menapier of 1,425 tons, was 231 feet long. She was built in Sunderland in 1912 and was owned in Antwerp. The North Foreland is in Kent county, on the North Sea.

The survivors were landed today at Margate. One of them, badly injured, was sent to a hospital. The survivors say the Menapier sank in a few minutes.

THREE NORWAY SHIPS SUNK BY SUBMARINES

London, June 8.—The Norwegian vessels Trudvang and Superb have been sunk by German submarines. The Trudvang, a steamer of 616 tons, was 224 feet long. The Superb was a bark of 1,393 tons. The Trudvang was hailed by a German submarine soon after midnight yesterday off St. Anne's head. The captain was ordered to bring his papers aboard the submarine, whose commander gave the crew twenty minutes to take to the boats.

The submarine then sent twelve shells into the Trudvang. The shooting brought out a patrol boat from Milfordhaven, which picked up the skipper and crew numbering thirteen, from the boats. During the operation the submarine attempted vainly to torpedo the patrol boat.

The men from the Trudvang were landed today at Margate. High explosives were placed on board the vessel after the crew had taken to the boats. Seventeen survivors were landed today at Margate.

Another Norwegian steamer sunk is the Glittertid, of 375 tons. This vessel was built in 1913 and was 148 feet long. The crew of the Glittertid was landed today at Margate.

The crew of the Glittertid was landed today at Margate. The vessel, with a lumber cargo, was on her way from Hull to the coast of Norway when she encountered the submarine. The Germans fired at the vessel and she was sunk. The crew was saved.

FRENCH BARK SENT TO BOTTOM

London, June 8.—The crew of eleven men of the French barkentine LaLiberte has been sent to the bottom. The vessel was shelled and sunk by a German submarine in the channel after the crew had given time to get away from her.

MAKED CHILDREN BEG FOR BREAD

Little Ones Die Before Doors at Which They Beg in Mexico City—Conditions Are Appalling.

San Antonio, Texas, June 8.—Mexico City's streets are filled with paupers begging for food, and the death rate is averaging 400 a day, many of them children, who die from hunger, a letter received here today from J. Jamieson Swarman, for 15 years a merchant in the capital, asserted: "While our residents are dying of hunger," said the letter, "the soldiers of Zapata are robbing, stealing, killing and destroying. President Roque Gonzalez Garza is in charge of the situation, but he is unable to offer any relief. He already has confiscated all foodstuffs in the stores, private residences and restaurants for distribution among the poor and middle classes. He was enabled to give each family enough rations to last them through seventy-two hours if they practiced economy. "All day the streets are filled with paupers begging for a bite to eat. Most of the street beggars are women with babies in arms. "At night, naked children go to the doorsteps of the richer Mexicans to plead for food, and when morning comes the little bodies are stiff. Ambulances are removing their bodies by the hundreds every day. It is estimated the death rate is 400 persons a day."

BAVARIAN KING SEES "GREATER GERMANY"
Amsterdam, June 2.—(Via London.)—Extension of the German empire beyond the old frontiers to "recover" against future attack" was predicted by King Ludwig, of Bavaria, in a speech yesterday before the Canal League, according to a telegram from Munich. His majesty said in his speech:

"The English declared war I said, I am glad, because now we can settle accounts with our enemies, not least we may hope to see the final communication with the sea for central and south Germany."
Ten months have elapsed and much precious blood has been shed. But will not have been in vain. The fruits of the war will be the same. The extension of the empire with extension beyond the old frontiers is far as we are able to secure it against future attack.

ACADEMY ESTABLISHED BY EMORY TRUSTEES

Students Hear Eloquent Addresses by Col. Fitzhugh and Senator Bryan.

Emory College, Oxford, Ga., June 2.—(Special.)—Yesterday was the day for Emory University students to hear two of the most eloquent addresses ever given to them by two of the nation's great leaders.

Colonel Fitzhugh, although a native of Mississippi, has lived in Memphis, Tenn., for many years, where he stands at the head of the bar. His public addresses are described as "logic set on fire."

Tuesday he gave a masterly discussion of the majesty of law. With a graceful exordium he advanced to the presentation of his subject in a well ordered argument of great power. He showed the moral law, like the laws of nature, was inseparable in its operation, and that those who lawlessness dare its infraction, are doomed to disappointment and defeat.

At the conclusion of the address he was voted a rising vote of thanks and a standing ovation. Proceeding, he insisted upon the sanctity of civil law and that those who lawlessness dare its infraction, are doomed to disappointment and defeat.

As was foretold yesterday, the board of trustees has abolished the old law department, and established the Emory University academy of law, which will be held at the college, but under separate government from the college.

One of the most important and commendable buildings on the grounds has been set apart for the academy. A building suitable for it, and admirably fitted for the school of medicine in the use of the students of the school.

The Emory University academy will draw to parents who have sons whom they wish to have prepared for college in a thorough manner.

These departments, which have been great heretofore, will now be far better equipped. Appropriate have been made for them with the special view of enabling the students to prepare for the school of medicine in the use of the students of the school.

It is also announced that students who take two years of bachelor of science course in Emory college may, after two additional years in the school of medicine, receive their B. S. degree, and then receive the degree of Doctor of Medicine at the end of two years.

June Bride Crop Putting Calamity Howlers to Shame
Shows of Rice and Old Shoes More Plentiful Than Ever Before in the Ken of the Oldest Citizens.

Fort fares the June bride to testify to the fact that "hard times" is solely a matter of history.

Abundant rice and valleys of old shoes fling the calamity howlers' greens back to his face.

There have been more brides so far this month than in any other year since cows grazed at Five Points, and Captains "Doc" Burleigh were fishing in the vicinity of the Candler building.

This is attested to by Mrs. J. W. Payne, matron at the Terminal station, who observes most of the brides and grooms who come to and depart from Atlanta on bridal tours.

Witness her views on the subject: "I have been attached to the Terminal station for years," she told a reporter for The Constitution Tuesday afternoon. "But never before have I seen so many bridal parties, both coming and leaving Atlanta."

"I don't take this to be any sign of hard times. On the contrary, when people can furnish that most hazardous of luxuries, matrimony, it certainly is nothing but an indication of prosperity."

June marriages have started off with a rush, it seems. It is early in the month, and there has been an average of one or two bridal parties a day leaving Atlanta, while numbers have come into the city.

MANAGER OF NEGRO THEATER IS FINED UNDER "BLUE LAWS"

J. P. Race was fined $10.75 in the police court Tuesday afternoon for keeping open last Sunday the Majestic theater on Auburn avenue.

The theater is for negroes and two witnesses testified that they were charged 5 cents admission. The regular Sunday price, they said, had been two for a "pinny."

Race said the theater was kept open for the benefit of the widows and orphans of Belgium and that only voluntary offerings were taken for admission.

Class Club Meets.
The 1915 class of Miss Hanna's school met last afternoon at the home of Mrs. W. J. Scroggs, 22nd and Peach streets. Mrs. Scroggs was president, Miss Jewell Kelly secretary and Miss Nell Morris treasurer.

Ripley-Terrell.
The wedding of Miss Laura Kathryn Ripley and Mr. Edward R. Terrell was a pretty event of last evening, taking place at 8:30 at the home of only the members of the two families and a few intimate friends. The house was beautifully decorated with ferns and a profusion of pink and white flowers. The improvised altar at one end of the drawing room, was a massing of hollyhocks and ferns with pink hydrangeas. Before the ceremony, the bride wore a gown of blue, and the wedding music was played by Miss Nora Terrell and Lena Holt of Columbia. William C. Terrell and Mrs. Terrell were the little ribbon bearers, who preceded the bride to the altar.

Miss Mattie Bell Ripley and Miss Sarah Terrell were maids of honor and Alice Houston was flower girl.
The ceremony was performed by Dr. Patton, of the Presbyterian church, who entered the room with her father. A lovely picture in white and tulle, her hair was caught with orange blossoms and a shower of white roses and valley lilies.
The maids of honor wore gowns of pink tulle over pink and carried pink bouquets. The bride wore a gown of white lingerie dress with pink ribbons and carried a basket of pink sweetpeas.
The bride's mother wore a gown of black net embroidered in sequins and combined with tulle.
An informal reception followed the ceremony. Mr. and Mrs. Terrell left for a wedding trip and on their return will be at home with Mr. and Mrs. Ripley.

TWO YOUNG RUNAWAYS ARE HELD AT CULLEDEN
Culleden, Ga., June 8.—(Special.)—Two of the youngest runaways ever seen in Culleden arrived here this afternoon. They give their names as the Harvey Woods, brothers, aged 11 and 12, respectively. They state their father lives in Columbus and works with the Columbus Iron works, and his name is William Woods. They say they ran on a visit to Valley and left there this morning, walking the 20 miles to Culleden today. This is manifestly untrue, as they were during the time of the war.

tee against other violations of American rights.

Count von Bernstorff, the German ambassador, called on Secretary Lansing early in the day to inform him that, although the embassy quarters had been removed to Cedarhurst, L. I., he would remain here indefinitely.

Later in the day Mr. Lansing announced that the German embassy had been removed to Cedarhurst, L. I., and that the German ambassador would remain here indefinitely.

The report of this investigation came to hand today and is believed to have been one of the things which decided the cabinet to take more active steps against other violations of American rights.

NOTE OF DEFIANCE
SOUNDED IN BERLIN

American dispatches (Via London) George Bernhard, writing in the Vossische Zeitung today says:

Whether the British ship had weapons and ammunition is not the question. President Wilson is less important than the honor of the American flag.

We confidently hope that our government will not be deterred by such a distortion of facts. If President Wilson wants a decisive answer from us, he cannot get it other than that the Lusitania was a British ship with contraband cargo.

ABOUT THE FRYE
Berlin, June 8.—(Via London) June 8, 1915. —Germany has sent a note to the United States regarding the American consular officer in Berlin, Mr. Frye, who was sunk by the German submarine U-20 on the night of January 19, 1915.

The note reiterates the original position of Germany, which was that the ship should be sent to the American government.

The American government asked that compensation should be paid for the destruction of the vessel without waiting for a decision by the prize court.

Germany, although ready to indemnify the owners for their loss in case, under the provisions of the German-American treaty, holds as a general principle that owing to the possibility that other than Americans have interests in the prize court should first pass on all cases.

President Woolson of Liquor Association Makes Attack on Prohibition.

Cincinnati, June 8.—Opponents of prohibition and exponents of temperance held full sway at the opening sessions of the annual convention of the National Wholesale Liquor Dealers here today.

They took men who call themselves republicans and democrats and at the same time are endeavoring to foist prohibition on those great parties," said Congressman Jacob M. Hecker, of Missouri, "let them say they have not seen with a national prohibition party for the last quarter of a century and let them get into the prohibition party with all other political malcontents who would be glad to ride into public view on this single issue."

"We must be our own guard against that type of man who will secretly pledge himself in advance of his nomination and election to support any measure or any other measure, simply that he may obtain the favor of some party."

Delegates were welcomed by Mayor Spaulding, who said: "I am in favor of temperance, I believe in the widest range of human liberty consistent with the happiness of all concerned. I believe in the right of no person should be deprived of opportunity to enjoy himself, or partake of the pleasures of life, so long as that which he does will benefit himself, simply because some other person cannot control himself."

Efficiency in Liquor.
"The solution of what is commonly called the liquor question depends upon what we consider the problem to be," said William Woolson, Jr., of Peoria, Ill., president of the association.

"The prohibitionists," continued Mr. Woolson, "would have us believe that the abolishment of the legitimate manufacture and sale of liquor would remove entirely the demand and stop drinking absolutely; that the nation would be much better off and that the individual living in its padded and perfumed atmosphere would be happy and contented, more efficient and more moral to the community, longer lived, stronger minded; that it would remove murder and crime of all kinds, remove the cause of poverty and ill-health and do away with alcoholism."

A VICTORY FOR ATLANTA.

The Constitution will be permitted a pardonable pride in the victory just won for Atlanta in the unanimous passage by the city council of the June financial sheet...

Finally, early in the present year, The Constitution succeeded in riveting attention upon the undoubted evils of the school situation. A meeting of Atlanta women was called at the Carnegie Library.

At that time cold water was thrown on the proposal. All said it would be utterly impossible to get money enough to take the schools out of the woods.

It is to be expected there will be considerable complaint over the operations of the Cummins amendment to the Interstate Commerce law, which requires that persons making an interstate journey, by common carrier, shall personally value their baggage and pay the small fee required for it.

The women of Atlanta never made a nobler, better fight than for Atlanta's schools. Associated with them in the work in the various stages were the Atlanta Federation of Trades, which presented a strong and telling report on school conditions; the Ad. Men's club of Atlanta, the Atlanta Rotary club and other civic organizations.

It must be recalled, however, that this appropriation of $85,000 is but the beginning of the rehabilitation of Atlanta's school system. It was an imperative necessity to meet emergency conditions; to prepare the schools to take care of the demands upon them coming fall. Through its expenditure military conditions will be bettered, there will be a seat provided for every child and double sessions will be done every year.

We must not lose sight of the fact that this appropriation merely catches up the slack, fitting the schools out of the mud. If we stop there, another year or two or three will find us in the same position and with the same problems to face. We cannot go on making appropriations for patchwork; we must build for permanency.

The city council has begun work. It faced an unquestioned duty which was not without its difficulties, and it met it in the spirit of accord and determination in action that meets a great deal more for Atlanta than the passage of this single appropriation. It gives assurance of response to necessity, wherever it is found to exist, that will be prompt and effectual.

The further necessity exists for making permanent and lasting improvement in the public school plant. It must be developed to the point where it can take care of the natural increase from year to year, and not have to turn away hundreds of children, every one of whom is entitled to its benefits.

It has been said that, for this purpose, Atlanta needs several new school buildings; it is council's next duty to make provision for building them. Delay in this matter is as dangerous as would have been failure to pass the June financial sheet. We must keep at the school problem until it is completely solved; until Atlanta once more has what she used to have—the best equipped as well as the best administered school system in the south.

JUDGE CHARLES S. REID.

Singularly enough death has taken almost in identical manner in the past two weeks two well-known men occupying similar public positions and alike in many of their personal characteristics. Judge Charles S. Reid, of the superior court of the Stone Mountain circuit, has been suddenly taken off in the height of his career of usefulness and in the midst of his performance of duty, just as was Judge Robert T. Daniel, of the Flint circuit, who was stricken at the close of an address delivered before the Old Fellows at Fitzgerald.

Both men were popular; they were more than that; they were beloved. They were about the same age. They were men of ability demonstrated in public service. They were men of more than ordinary kindness of heart; they were humanitarians. In the coincident death of these two superior court judges, Georgia has lost two men upright and vigorous in her service, and whom it will be difficult to replace.

Through the comparison neither of them can suffer. It was suggested by similarity of characteristics, of position and of death itself. Judge Reid lived a life of service to state and fellowman. He was rich in the esteem and regard of friends everywhere for whom he had resources. To the bench he carried the same humanitarian traits that marked his personal relations, yet demonstrated his ability in remarkable degree to co-ordinate his personal feelings with duty to the state. A personal husband and father, after whom any man might do well to pattern, he measured up to every standard of a noble citizen.

THE NEW BAGGAGE LAW.

It is to be expected there will be considerable complaint over the operations of the Cummins amendment to the Interstate Commerce law, which requires that persons making an interstate journey, by common carrier, shall personally value their baggage and pay the small fee required for it.

JUST FROM GEORGIA

The Meaning Takes the Sky. He doesn't heed what people say of fire along the line. But goes on in his old-time way and lets his bright light shine. Comes up the highway of the East and tells the Night goodby. Without the license of the dark the Morning takes the sky.

Voices of birds and singing streams—an early thrill of song; The world awakens from its dream—the night is over and so long! So waken the hours more when sorrow makes us sigh, But O the blessedness of Light when Morning takes the sky!

Polka that have stood the fire of genius for years are strangely averse to standing the fire of June up and down a long furrow from spring to autumn.

Some men are quick to act on the advice about "showing the world your brightest face." They know the dark one for the help-less folks at home.

Life never is really idle. When there are no more blessings to count we always manage to keep busy creating life to climb, live on across and hurricanize to get that there are no stormy hands.

WHAT DO I CARE FOR THE WAR?

Moreover, such a history as President Wilson's, however accurate and valuable it may be to supplement. For instance, he states: "In 1619, the year George Yeardley came to set up the first colony, the continent ages before the voyage of Columbus, of the cave dwellers, the cliff dwellers, the mounds and the semi-civilization that grew up to great, the conquering Spaniard and to him destroyed."

Contrast that brief statement with the fuller detail which we find in some general history such as the "History of Our Country" (which may mean the only one of this country), and one sees at once how it needs to be supplemented. It fails to tell us how the continent would like to know about the introduction of negroes into this country.

JUNE BRIDES.

June brides form one of the principal products of the newly created month which we are now inhaling with deep pleasure. In the month approaches June in the turning of blithe and happy maidens into flushed and beaming young women, who, with fear upon a cake which is threatening to explode at any minute. From the first to the last of the month, the wedding bells of an annual number of American young men and will conduct them out of the church and into the matrimonial web with steps.

In the first place vast numbers of young women are being married and high schools in the month and the young men who have been waiting up months for the furniture dealer's bill any longer.

In the second place, rice, roses and wedding cake are being used in one and the same do not look so depressing.

In the third place the girl who becomes a bride in the month is expected to be able to learn how to build the fire in the morning.

The Stowers and sunbines of June are very beautiful but not so beautiful as the young men who are being married in the month of June and who are being married in the month of June.

PUBLICATION OF HISTORY

By President Wilson

It is Warmly Commended

Editor Constitution: I am very much pleased by the great interest which you have planned to publish "A History of the American People" by President Woodrow Wilson. It is a most important and timely work.

There is no part of our knowledge that is more important than that which is contained in the history of our people. It is the history of our people that is the history of our country.

It is estimating the unusual mental and moral equipment of President Wilson, his clear intellectual grasp of great national and international questions, and his keen insight into the great problems of the day.

REVIVALISTS BEFORE SUNDAY.

Revels followed the passing of 1914 and 1915 and the great Moody campaign followed the hard times of 1913. It was the first of the year that Charles M. Alexander, in Boston, during 37 days in January-February, 1915, held nearly a thousand revival meetings for the people and made more than $5,000 converts.

It was Dr. Chapman who started Billy Sunday on his revival work who was almost afraid six years ago that "Billy will work the first year and then he will never stray is just burning him up."

John Wesley traveled 57,000 miles preached around the world and was a great revivalist. He was a great revivalist.

After George Whitefield's first sermon as a pastor of the Church of England it was planned by his bishop that he drove 15 years in the world. This was in the early eighteenth century. "I hope," said the bishop, "the madman will not be forgotten before next Sunday."

Peter Cartwright, the "backwoods preacher" who started the revival of 1850 in Tennessee and Kentucky, was a rough mountaineer in dancing party into such a state one night that it was quarantined.

Charles G. Finney, an American revivalist, invented the term "anxious seat" in a meeting at which he was preaching. "I want you," said Dwight L. Moody, in a meeting at which he was preaching, "There is a fountain of life. You must give up your business and come with me. The man was in a state of such a sweet-anxious comrade for years."

Sam Jones, the "mountain evangelist" who was a great revivalist, was a great revivalist. "Oppy" Smith is really a gypsy—a full-blooded Romany. He never slept in a bed till he was 17.

Billy Sunday's platform gymnastics have now been revived in the spirit of 1850 of Dr. De Witt Talmage.

As for revival itself, it was the Rev. Len Rayburn, of the First Baptist Church, who fifteen years ago declared that Peter "aloped his trinity" in the attempt to walk the Sea of Galilee.

Vacation Schools Would Prove Great Benefit to Children.

The lost opportunity to a child for an education never returns" was the wise saying of a Woodrow Wilson in a recent magazine urging school improvement.

Simultaneously, Judge Tisdell, of Atlanta's Juvenile Court, is addressing a gathering of influential citizens, urging them to work for a state law for compulsory school attendance. His statement especially related to the problem of the low wages of a large element of girls, their inefficiency and wandering higher wage, and their ignorance and limited school training giving little hope of treated efficiency.

Mr. Beaumont Davison, in his last report as chairman of the Clearance Board for Unemployed, declared that work in behalf of the unskilled working girl is a law that will compel school attendance when indifference and carelessness fall in their part or the girl lacks initiative or courage.

It is not only for a law of compulsory school attendance, but for the introduction of vocational training in some form in the public schools.

The heads of the various local and state institutions looking after unfortunate or neglected girls after all argue in favor of a compulsory education law that will produce statistics to prove that with very few exceptions these unfortunate girls are either illiterate entirely, or have the faintest knowledge of the common school system.

Relates to All Children. The mayor's message relates not only to the unfortunate children, but to all the children of the community. It is the child in rich or poor, bright or less mentally advanced, who has the opportunity to be educated, the basis of which is built in his life is the duty of the state.

The school system of a progressive municipality should be such that every child who enters it should be able to make the most of it. It is the duty of the state to provide for the child in rich or poor, bright or less mentally advanced, who has the opportunity to be educated, the basis of which is built in his life is the duty of the state.

Though optimism is all of us would prompt our faith in every child's career before he has had the best equipment for the struggle that the average child has to make his way through life.

Pending action of the state in legislation for compulsory school attendance, the board of education in Atlanta has taken a progressive step in the effort to establish school attendance for every child who enters the schools. It is the duty of the state to provide for the child in rich or poor, bright or less mentally advanced, who has the opportunity to be educated, the basis of which is built in his life is the duty of the state.

The board proposes to establish vacation schools and require children to attend them. It is the duty of the state to provide for the child in rich or poor, bright or less mentally advanced, who has the opportunity to be educated, the basis of which is built in his life is the duty of the state.

CERTAIN MEN ARE OVER-RIDING THE LAW OF GEORGIA IN HER CAPITAL CITY THEY CAUSE THE USELESS FRICTION IN ATLANTA WHICH HURTS YOU

"Examine yourselves, whether ye be in the faith; prove your own selves. Know ye not your own selves, how that Jesus Christ is in, except ye be reprobates?"—II Cor. XIII, 5.

"There is a Norse legend— "A man thought he was pursued by a monster. "His stacks were fired, his barns unroofed, his cattle destroyed, his lands blasted, his first born slain. So he lay in wait for the monster, where it lived in the chasm near his house, and in the darkness of night he saw it.

"With a cry he rushed upon it— "Long he wrestled with it, reeling, staggering, falling, and rising again; but at length a flood of strength came to him, and he overthrew it, and stood over it, covering it, conquering it, with its back against his thigh, and his hand at its throat. Then he drew his knife to kill it, and the moon shot through a cloud, opening an alley of light about it; and he saw its face, an lo— "The face of the monster was his own.

"Hugh Black comments— "We must learn that a man is his worst enemy—may, that the only enemy we have to fear is ourself; and that we must come to close quarters with self; for it is only— "When the fight's begun with himself "A man's worth something." Paul wrote—

"EXAMINE YOURSELVES" A morning paper suggests self-examination for the city, asking: "What is the matter with Atlanta? Why is it the matter? And what is the remedy?" You know. Is it not this? Men are over-riding the law of Georgia— Men, blind to the effect of their attacks upon the city—men, who would not actually steal a dollar, are helping to try to steal the reputation of Atlanta's Chief of Police and her force. The Police Chiefs of America, at their annual meeting in May, cheered the Chief to the echo for his address upon police efficiency, while carping critics here were trying to bolster a charge of inefficiency. The cause? Those opposed to law enforcement against the social evil, saloons and locker clubs. They know that to continue law-breaking they must break the Chief. The liquor traffic and an honest, and by revoking the licenses of together indefinitely in the Capital of a Prohibition State: one or the other will leave. We suggest: The liquor traffic will have to go. We ask: Only obedience to law.

LOVERS OF ATLANTA Had hoped that the Mayor and Council would purge the capital of Georgia of the shame of open disregard for law by refusing to renew the beer saloon licenses which expire July 1st, and by revoking the licenses of saloons and locker-clubs which do not expire at that time. Heretofore Mayor and Council have licensed law-breakers to break the law, thus hampering honest policemen. Can this not stop? If city officials, over the protest of citizens, persist in selling to men the privilege of breaking law, what is the private citizen to do? Has he any course open, to free himself from the stigma of sharing in the sale of liquor, excepting the injunction? Again we appeal to COUNCIL AND MAYOR Respectfully we ask that you, as our representatives, refuse to renew the licenses of beer saloons about to expire. We beg you to revoke those licenses which do not expire July 1st. We appeal to every private citizen and to every public official to help to put an end to strife in Atlanta—uphold respect for law and decency. Are you causing useless friction in your city? "Examine yourselves— "Prove your own selves." THE EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE.
