PRINCIPLES OF HUMANITY HAVE NOT BEEN ALTERED.

With regard to the sinking of the steamer Cuba, by which an American citizen lost his life, the government of the United States is surprised to find the imperial German government contending that an effort on the part of a merchantman to escape capture and secure assistance alters the obligation of the officer seeking to make the capture in respect of the safety of the lives of those on board the merchantman, although the vessel had ceased her attempt to escape when torpedoed. There have been in the minds of statesmen and of international jurists throughout the development of naval warfare, and the government of the United States does not understand that they have ever been held to alter the principles of humanity upon which it has insisted. Nothing but actual forcible resistance or continued efforts to escape by flight when ordered to stop for the purpose of visit on the part of the merchantman has ever been held to affect the lives of her passengers or crew. The government of the United States, however, does not understand that the imperial German government is seeking in this case to relieve itself of liability, but only intends to set forth the circumstances which led the commander of the submarine to allow himself to be hurried into the course which he took.

CONTENTION OF GERMANS CONSIDERED IRRELEVANT

"Whatever may be the contentions of the imperial German government regarding the carriage of contraband of war on board the Lusitania or regarding the explosion of that material by the loss of which she was sunk, in the view of this government these contentions are irrelevant to the question of the legality of the methods used by the imperial German authorities in sinking the vessel.

"But the sinking of passenger ships involves principles of humanity which transcend all national and political considerations. It is the duty of the government of the United States to protest against the sinking of the Lusitania, and to demand that the imperial German government recognize and acknowledge, out of the ordinary subjects of diplomatic discussion, of international law, and of the principles of humanity, that the sinking of a great steamer, primarily a conveyance for passengers and carrying more than a thousand souls, is no part of the conduct of the war, was torpedoed and sunk without so much as a change of a warning, and that men, women and children were brought to their untimely deaths in circumstances unparalleled in modern warfare.

"The fact that more than one hundred American citizens were among those who perished, and that the duty of the government of the United States to protest against the sinking of the Lusitania, and to demand that the imperial German government recognize and acknowledge, out of the ordinary subjects of diplomatic discussion, of international law, and of the principles of humanity, that the sinking of a great steamer, primarily a conveyance for passengers and carrying more than a thousand souls, is no part of the conduct of the war, was torpedoed and sunk without so much as a change of a warning, and that men, women and children were brought to their untimely deaths in circumstances unparalleled in modern warfare.

OFFERS GOOD OFFICES TO MITIGATE WAR.

"The government of the United States is happy to observe that your excellency's note closes with the intimation that the imperial German government is willing, now as before, to accept the good offices of the United States in an attempt to come to an understanding with the government of Great Britain, by which the provocation and conditions of the war upon the seas be changed. The government of the United States would consider it a privilege this to serve the interests of the world. It stands ready at any time to convey to either government any intimation or suggestion the other may be willing to have it convey, and cordially invites the imperial German government to make use of its services in this way at its convenience.

"The whole world is concerned in anything that may bring about even a partial accommodation of interests or in any way mitigate the horrors of the present distressing conflict between the parties to the war, and whatever may be the opinion of the imperial German government, have been the provocation and the circumstantial justification for the past acts of its commissioners at sea, the government of the United States consistently looks to see an understanding of the government of Germany vindicated in all cases where Americans have been wronged or their rights as neutrals injured.

"The government of the United States therefore very solemnly renews the representation of its note transmitted to the imperial German government on the 15th instant, and reiterates its intimation upon the principles of humanity, and its cordial invitation to the imperial German government to make use of its services in this way at its convenience.

WILL SEEK TO CHANGE BOND ELECTION RULES

Alderman Albert Thomson, with the backing of general consent, will seek to secure the passage by the next general assembly of a charter amendment giving Atlanta the authority to issue bonds after two-thirds of the number of votes polled at a bond election are favorable to the issue.

The matter has been placed in the hands of City Attorney Mayo to take the necessary legal steps to secure the amendment, and when the assembly convenes general council, with their favoring the amendment, will see to its passage.

The present law is that two-thirds of the registered vote is necessary to carry a bond election, while, under the

For extra good cooking always use Cottolene

For biscuits, pie-crust, cakes and doughnuts, and for frying, Cottolene is supreme, because it is the purest cooking fat and possesses important food values.

Cottolene

It is an exact combination of specially refined cottonseed oil of a grade so high it is not listed on the market, with pure beef-tallow from selected fat beef steers. It is this peculiar combination which gives Cottolene its unexcelled cooking qualities. There are imitations, but there is no substitute for Cottolene.

For economy, as well as for good cooking, use Cottolene. You will require a third less of it than of any other shortening or cooking fat. Any one who can cook or bake at all can cook and bake better with Cottolene. Arrange with your grocer for a regular supply. Write our General Office, Chicago, for a free copy of our real cook book—"HOME HELPS."

Informal Dinner-Dance For Debutante Belles

An ideal summer time party was the informal dinner-dance given last night at the home of Mrs. Charles I. Ryan at the Piedmont Driving club in compliment to Miss Ellen Vesting Wise, of Richmond, and who is visiting Mr. and Mrs. John S. Cohen.

Miss Lucile Kuhn shared the honors of the occasion, an eighty-five guests were present. They were seated for dinner at tables of eight and eight on the flower colored terrace and each table was decorated with tall baskets of sweet peas in all their colors, the baskets held with pink tulle, in which were caught great quantities of garden peas.

Lanterns shaded festoons of electric green and red, and the scene was one of picturesque beauty. Dinner was followed by dancing on the terrace.

The two lovely honor guests were crowned in white, Miss Wise wearing a crown of white flowers and Miss Kuhn wearing a crown of white flowers and white ribbons. Miss Kuhn's becoming toilet was of red and black, made with flounces and having finish in rose color; Miss Isabel Kuhn wore white tulle and lace.

Habersham Players Score in Shakespearean Play

In a veritable "Forest of Arden," almost in the heart of the residential portion of Atlanta, the "Habersham Players" made their debut yesterday afternoon in that popular, though difficult, Shakespearean drama, "As You Like It."

The site, so carefully adaptable for outdoor productions, in the woods on the hill just beyond the property of Charles J. Haden, on Peachtree road, and bounded on the other side by Colman's Park, was a most picturesque scene.

Entrance to the grounds was through a grove of great trees. A dance of field daisies farther down, both sides leading to a lawn, where the play was to be held, was a most picturesque scene. The play was a most picturesque scene.

The Elastic Webbing in Rengo Belt Reducing Corsets

is of extra strength and so placed as to confine and reduce the appearance of heaviness below the hips with a full sense of active freedom. But the fundamental reason for Rengo Belt popularity is the famous Rengo Belt feature over the abdomen which has straightened the lines without painful compression. The success of this exclusive idea has made Rengo Belt corsets the leading reducing corsets of America.

The materials and tailoring are thoroughly strong—without which other reducing corsets fail. The bonding is of double watch-spring steels—very pliable but extra strong—elastic webbing.

The Ogechee and its cargo are consigned to various persons, several of whom already have procured the release of their goods without recourse to prize court.

ALDERMEN ADOPT THE MONEY SHEET

Mayor Woodward Sends Message to Board in Which He Declares in Favor of Better Schools.

Without a dissenting vote the aldermanic board Thursday concurred in the June finance sheet unanimously passed by council Monday afternoon. Alderman Jesse W. Armistead, who was in the chair, did not oppose the sheet, although he brought in a minority report at general council meeting.

Mayor Woodward will sign the sheet, probably this morning, and all of the extensive improvements provided for in the budget will begin without delay. Members of the aldermanic board stated Thursday that it was largely due to the fact that the sheet carried a liberal appropriation for schools, and The Constitution's campaign for better schools that the sheet passed on record time and without opposition.

In a message read to the aldermanic board Mayor Woodward stated that he opposed overestimating the city's anticipated income, and believed that the finance committee had anticipated about $100,000 more than was reasonable. He said their only chance to check the year within the income would be to close up when the October finance sheet is made up.

The mayor said he would not disapprove the sheet, and would not dissent on record as being a champion of better public schools by giving reasons for his course as follows: "I do not dissent from any drastic action in the matter of veto at this time, because of the fact that it would delay needed improvements in our school department and possibly retard the movement of the Southeastern Fair association, in which the city is under contract with that association to hold their fair on these grounds this fall."

The mayor points out that the sheet exceeds the estimated income by the department heads by about $40,000. He says that the city is under contract in expending the appropriation, so that it will be necessary to carry on current city expenses.

After hearing the message Alderman Albert Thomson told the board that they should weigh carefully the words of the mayor, and offered a motion that the aldermanic board should continue to express to the mayor the appreciation of the aldermanic board for his courage and advice, and for the conservative message concerning the city's finances. Mr. C. H. Kelley offered a second to the effect that the aldermanic board should elect Clerk Walter Taylor, cognizant of the past political differences between the mayor and the aldermanic board, in question, appointed to the board by permission to substitute two other names. He declared he would never be able to convince the mayor that "it really happened."

Branding as malicious and false the reports that he would retire from the race for re-election as chief of the Atlanta fire department and throw his strength in general council to Captain Bill Terrell, Chief W. B. Cummings Thursday declared that he would be in the race to the finish and felt assured of election in July.

The report was quite general that Chief Cummings had been advised by his physician to retire from the race and save himself the strenuous campaign; that the chief's health had not been good for some time and that after so many years of active service he needed a rest.

"Those reports are but another evidence of the underhanded methods employed by some of the opposing men and were couched up with a view to weakening me in general council," said the chief. "I intend to smoke out those fully of such malicious reports and I want to brand them as false in every particular," declared Chief Cummings.

"I have never been in better health than now. I have not been ill in twenty-five years and in all that time have not consulted a physician about myself, my friends, and I have enough to assure my re-election will not allow such reports to influence them, but will respect such reports to influence them."

Supporters of Captain Cody are equalized in their election to succeed Chief Cummings.

BEGIN WORK NEXT WEEK ON PARK IMPROVEMENT

Manager Cochran Holds Conference With County Commissioner Mills.

With the passage of the June finance sheet carrying a liberal appropriation for the city parks, Park Manager J. O. Cochran has already begun plans for extensive improvements to begin next week. The first of these improvements will be the opening of the drives in Piedmont park. The drives of Grand park have been completed with the aid of the county and are now in better condition than ever before.

Manager Cochran Thursday held a conference with Oscar Mills, of the county board, and was pledged his cooperation in making improvements in several of the parks before the end of the summer. Mr. Mills told of visits to some of the greatest park systems of the nation on his recent trip through the north, east and middle west.

This afternoon Mr. Mills will accompany Manager Cochran on a tour of the parks of Atlanta and together they will work out a program for the summer.

Mr. Mills is in favor of building the municipal golf course at Moseley park and says that he found in his recent trip north that the municipal links are quite popular.

A big dam is being built at Milledgeville by the county gang, and when completed will provide for one of the most attractive lakes in the city.

PEDESTRIAN KILLED BY TRAM CAR

Robert Horton, Old and Respected Resident of Union City, Instantly Killed on Atlanta-Fairburn Line.

Union City, Ga., June 10.—(Special.) Robert Horton, a resident of Union City, was killed on the tracks of the Atlanta-Fairburn interurban line by one of its cars at 1:15 o'clock Thursday afternoon.

Mr. Horton was within 300 yards of the Atlanta and Newport depot at the time he was struck, and several persons saw the tragedy.

Mr. Horton was waiting at the side of the track and on account of noise being made by a nearby freight train did not hear the warning whistle of the approaching trolley.

Mr. Horton was walking directly into the car.

Motorman Calvin Doris was running his car slowly, going, it was thought, not over 15 miles an hour.

Mr. Horton was fully expecting him to stop aside before the car reached him.

Conductor Charlie Martin was in charge of the car.

Mr. Horton was one of the oldest and most respected residents of Union City, having been here for 40 years.

He is survived by his wife and five sons. He was a member of the Atlanta Athletic Club, of the Atlanta Golf and Country Club, and of the Atlanta Y. M. C. A.

Funeral services will be held at 10 o'clock Saturday morning at the residence of Mrs. Horton, 1215 North Peach street.

C. W. SMITH IS URGED AS REVISOR

Councilman From Ninth May Become Judge of Stone Mountain Circuit.

That Attorney Charles Whitford Smith, councilman from the ninth ward, will be named by Governor Gilchrist to succeed the late Judge S. R. Reid, of the Stone Mountain circuit, was quite generally believed Thursday.

Mr. Smith has already presented his name to the governor and a mass meeting of his friends held in Decatur last night in which he would not be a candidate for the office.

Sports Crackers Move On to New Leagues Today

Lord Protests Locals' Win; Williams Crossed Memphis; Thompson Hurls Splendidly

By Herbert Caldwell.

Memphis, Tenn., June 10.—(Special.)—One week little push of the bats by Otto Williams brought about all sorts of emotion and set the scenery for a 1-0 victory for Atlanta over Memphis this afternoon in the seventh inning.

The week little push thought by him, was not the least of a push looked for by Press Crackers, the Chick second baseman and that's where all the commotion started.

When things had quieted down and finished the game under present circumstances, the Memphis manager, Lord, with the count standing on one to one, Williams crossed the plate to hit for Williams hit the ball and Crutcher, who was on first, stepped on the base and Williams was going to hunt.

In spite of this, the ground Williams crossed the Chick by trying to get the ball, Crutcher stepped into right. Moran set foot when Williams hit the ball and Crutcher, who was on first, stepped on the base and Williams was going to hunt.

FINAL PLEA FOR FRANK

TO BE MADE SATURDAY

Remarks of the Governor

Contrasted as Meaning That He Would Pass on Appeal.

The final plea for a commutation of the death sentence imposed on Leo Frank for the killing of Mary Phagan will be heard by Governor Duffell Saturday morning at 9 o'clock. The time was agreed upon by attorneys representing Frank and Solicitor Hugh Dorsey at a meeting in the governor's office Thursday morning. That Governor Duffell will act upon the petition for clemency and not pass it to his successor was deduced from remarks the governor made during the conference. The attorneys representing Frank were W. M. Howard, of Augusta; M. J. Yeomans, of Dawson, and Harry Alexander and Leonard Haas, of Atlanta. Solicitor Dorsey represented the state.

Saturday Agreed Upon. Attorney Howard made the formal motion for a hearing and the governor asked both sides what time would be agreeable Saturday morning at 9 o'clock. "Park Johnnies," LKO comedy.

From Solicitor Dorsey's remarks it is thought probable that several out-of-town gentlemen who likely appear and ask to be heard. He did not state who they were.

Attorney Howard outlined the argument that he would present for executive clemency. He said that the governor would be asked to review what had been presented to a prison commission—Judge Ross's letter, the letters of Jim Conley to Maude Carter and the opinion written by Mrs. Frank to the prison commission, the report of physicians who examined Frank, and the opinion of handwriting experts.

Attorney Howard told the governor that it would take about ten hours to read the records. Solicitor Dorsey said he believed it would take about two days.

Remarks of Governor. The remarks made by the governor, which it was believed indicated that he would hear the petition and make a decision before Judge Harris became Governor, were as follows: "I have my message to the legislature to give you my opinion on the case. I have my message to the legislature to give you my opinion on the case. I have my message to the legislature to give you my opinion on the case."

ATLANTA'S STRIDES

FROM DAY TO DAY

East Lake bonds of $30,000, to be used in municipal and school improvements which were voted last Friday by the late Judge Rice, of the Stone Mountain circuit (this being one of the last circuits to be abolished) were sold by Howard Geldert, town clerk, next Sunday, or the first part of next week.

East Lake property has advanced in value since the passage of these bonds. Recently, and at the present time, three residences are under process of construction. These residences were commenced some time before the passage of the bonds and recent electric utility charges being held by the builders that East Lake property is being advanced.

Mrs. M. J. Randolph is just completing a handsome one-story residence at eight-room frame residence at the northeast corner of Fair street and Carter avenue. This handsome residence represents an investment of $5,000, and is erected on a lot 75x100.

A Mr. Dillard is erecting a smaller residence in the same neighborhood. A ten-room frame residence on the northeast corner of Fair street and Daniel avenue, at a cost of $4,000. This residence is being erected on a lot 100x200.

VALUE RECEIVED

The past year has taught lots of us the real value of money; has taught us to be a little more careful in spending it, and when we do, to insist on getting value received.

We have recently had built, under our own supervision, several modern, furnace heated, six-room bungalows, that we will guarantee to represent better value for $3,500 than any similar places in the city. We think you will agree with us after an inspection of the property.
