

SUBPOENAS OUT FOR SCORE OF MEN IN LOBBY PROBE

Some of Names Furnished by President Wilson, It Is Generally Understood at the Capital.

RIVAL SUGAR CAMPS PITCHED AT CAPITAL

Committee Finds That Both Factions Maintain General Offices and Have Carried on Organized Fight.

Washington, June 4.—The dragnet was spread today in the senate's probe of "the lobby." Subpoenas for a score of men were issued. It was generally understood here that some of the names were furnished by President Wilson and that others were those which developed in the testimony of senators. The new witnesses are to be heard next week. Some of the names are being kept secret. Mr. Chairman Overton today gave out this partial list:

Aaron Gove, Denver; Dr. S. W. McClure, Salt Lake City, secretary of the National Wool Growers' association; Henry F. Ozard, New York, prominent in the best sugar industry; Edward F. Dickinson and Jules Godchaux, representing Louisiana sugar interests; Sidney M. Ballou, E. E. Paxton, H. D. Mead and Walter G. Smith, also understood to be interested in sugar tariff affairs; John F. Hamburg, New York; Harry Irwin, H. T. Alexander, Trenton, N. J.; Frank Gordon, Buford Lynch and John Carroll, all of Washington. Some of these are men whom senators have testified appeared in "a legitimate capacity."

The list indicates the apparent purpose of the committee to question representatives of both the free sugar and anti-free sugar camps who have been conducting a vigorous campaign in Washington.

Rival War Camp.

Ramifications of the sugar tariff fight being conducted outside the halls of congress gave the committee a busy two hours late this afternoon. With Senator Ransdell, of Louisiana, as the chief witness, members of the investigating committee pried into every phase of the fight between the free sugar and anti-free sugar forces; and established the fact that general offices are maintained by both factions, and that a systematic and organized fight has been carried on for and against the tariff provision. Indorsed by President Wilson.

The activity of the sugar tariff forces was partially responsible for President Wilson's statement that powerful lobbying influences are at work in Washington to effect changes in the tariff bill. Several names were added today to the list of persons who are being subpoenaed by the senate committee, and who will testify Saturday as to whether or not they are "lobbyists." The bureau maintained here by the Louisiana Sugar growers, and various persons who have been connected with the anti-free sugar fight.

Activity of Sugar Growers.

Sensational economic disclosures freely the organized activity of the Louisiana Sugar Cane growers, but he believed little money had been spent, as compared with the amount spent by Claus Spreckels, the Federal Sugar Refining company, and Frank C. Lowry, of New York, who is an employee of that company, in the attempts to create a public sentiment in favor of free sugar.

"I urged the Louisiana people to organize two years ago and combat this false sentiment which has been created in favor of free sugar," he said, "but they did not act in time."

The investigating committee had progressed little more than half through the list of senators today and there were indications that Senator Overman would ask the senate tomorrow for an extension of the ten days allowed for the probe.

President's Suggestions.

This new turn of affairs many believe is "one of the suggestions" President Wilson made at his recent conference with Chairman Overman and Senator Reed, of the investigating committee, and many of the president's friends predict it will be Mr. Wilson's answer to the testimony of many senators that they have seen no lobbyists in Washington and know of no attempts to influence congressmen against the Underwood bill.

While the subpoenas are being served and the committee is preparing for the examination of the new witnesses, senators will continue to be examined. When the committee reassembled today it had nearly half of the senate still waiting.

To Organize Bookblacks.

New York, June 4.—Steps are being taken to organize a union of bootblacks in New York. In this connection the estimate is made that there are over 60,000 of them in the city, or about every 130 persons. In many cases their earnings are as low as $5 a week and those who are employed by the standholders complain of long hours.

ORDERS FOR WOMAN'S EDITION CAN STILL BE FILLED

In anticipation of the large demand for the Woman's Edition a considerable surplus was printed. Notwithstanding the large sale in Atlanta and the state, limited orders can still be filled at 10 cents per copy, postage prepaid to all addresses.

WIRES FROM NEAR AND FAR BRING CONGRATULATIONS ON FEAT OF WOMAN'S EDITION

No publication of any nature has ever been accorded the praise and appreciation of the people of Georgia as did the Woman's Edition of The Atlanta Constitution, issued on Wednesday. This beautiful and colossal edition since the moment it rolled from the Constitution presses has commanded the wonder and admiration of the entire state. Until late last night telegrams of congratulation from prominent people in all parts of Georgia poured into The Constitution office in an unbroken stream. These are some of the things that the people of Georgia think about this unique edition:

Proved Woman's Importance.

Americus, Ga., June 4.—(Special.)—The splendid edition of the club women of Georgia of The Constitution was read with great interest and pleasure. This work demonstrates the great importance of the Georgia Federation of Women's Clubs as factors in the making of moral, social and political betterment. Their efforts are deeply appreciated, and the worthy cause for which they are striving should and will meet with universal approval and support. M. M. WHEEY, Mayor of Americus.

Mayor Rowe Calls It Splendid.

Athens, Ga., June 4.—(Special.)—The splendid edition gotten out in the realization of an endowment fund in memory of Mrs. Ella F. White is but one evidence of what enthusiasm, system, energy, tact and loving interest can accomplish. Taking advantage of the generous offer of The Constitution, the good women of the Federation of Women's Clubs in Georgia have produced a piece of newspaper work which is monumental in more than one way. The matter reveals the activities of the clubs, the manner indicates the ability of the staff, the immense paper evidences the ability to consummate large things in a cherished cause. H. J. ROWE, Mayor of Athens.

An Argument For Suffrage.

Waycross, Ga., June 4.—(Special.)—The woman's edition is a splendid example of successful newspaper work. It amply demonstrates that Georgia women succeed at anything they take in hand. Their activity is the greatest influence in the state for good health, moral education, temperance, proper care of unfortunates, improved labor conditions, protection of women and children, and development of local civic pride. Their interest ennobles every undertaking and inspires men to greater and more useful efforts. Let us bring this influence into the political affairs of the state. Women suffrage would mean clean politics and the conduct of public affairs for the benefit of the people. HARRY D. REED, Mayor of Waycross.

Macon's Mayor Lauds Edition.

Macon, Ga., June 4.—(Special.)—The lovely woman-made Constitution of today is the climax of the modern newspaper world. It is a colossal compendium of woman's work in every branch of the art gallery of Georgia beauties. The edition is the most unique in the history of southern newspapers, and proves that woman's will, heart and brain can accomplish much. I don't know who deserves the congratulations most—The Constitution, on issuing such a paper, or the women's brains that made it such a splendid journalistic achievement. JOHN T. MOORE, Mayor of Macon.

Cover Kansas With Papers.

Fitzgerald, Ga., June 4.—(Special.)—The Woman's Edition of The Constitution, out today, reflects great credit upon the distinguished women of Georgia, and The Constitution, to the my vacation of thirty days this summer reading a portion of its contents. Send a copy of this paper to the mayor of every town in the state of Kansas if you can spare them, sending bill to me. The club women of the west have accomplished much for their states, and I want them to know what our Georgia women are doing. It was a great undertaking and magnificently executed and I am gratified to note that the south Georgia women played an important part in this inaudible enterprise. A. B. COOK, Mayor of Fitzgerald.

Presents It in Book Form.

Columbus, Ga., June 4.—(Special.)—The Woman's Edition of The Constitution is a beautiful and interesting tribute to the memory of a noble Georgia woman, whose life was devoted to the organization and federation of woman's clubs, designed for the preservation of southern traditions and the promotion of social and intellectual culture in our state. The Woman's Edition will perpetuate the memory of Mrs. White and has inaugurated a movement designed to continue her work with unabated zeal. It speaks for the talent, skill and enterprising of the women by whom it is edited and for the liberality of The Constitution Publishing company in placing the plant at their disposal. The Woman's Edition of The Constitution is too valuable and interesting to be cast lightly aside. It should be preserved in book form. L. H. CHAPPELL, Mayor of Columbus.

Roscoe Luke Congratulates.

Thomasville, Ga., June 4.—(Special.)—The hundred and twenty-six page edition of The Constitution issued by the women of Georgia is a splendid journalistic and typographical feat. This edition will make apparent to the people of the nation the fact that Georgia's womanhood is productive of results helpful to the manhood and womanhood of the state. It will make our own people appreciative of the enormous weight and influence the club women of Georgia have in the development of our resources and the training of our citizens for better lives. Many congratulations to you and to the publishers and editors of this edition of your always splendid paper. ROSCOE LUKE, Mayor of Thomasville.

A Journalistic Achievement.

Griffin, Ga., June 4.—(Special.)—Permit me to offer sincere congratulations upon the magnificent journalistic achievement recorded by your management and Georgia's noble and capable club women in issuing the splendid special Woman's Edition of The Constitution this morning. I am convinced that its beneficial results are bound to be commensurate with its own far reaching publicity scope as well as with the lofty spirit, the rare talent, and wonderful energy of those who made it such a distinct and significant success. Personally I am delighted with the very attractive page which the able and patriotic club women of Griffin contributed to the adornment and interest of the edition. J. H. SMITH, Mayor of Griffin.

An Impetus to Club Work.

Albany, Ga., June 4.—(Special.)—The Woman's Edition of The Constitution, which reached Albany with its hundred and twenty-six pages of interesting and important news, came fully up to my expectations and beyond the expectations of our people. I think the women of Georgia deserve the heartiest congratulations upon the splendid success which they have made of this enterprise. The edition will, no doubt, prove a great impetus to the work of

CASTRO IN FLORIDA, DECLARES VENEZUELAN

Key West, Fla., June 4.—United States Immigration officials are tonight investigating a rumor that Cipriano Castro came here yesterday from Havana in the guise of a Cuban merchant. A resident of the Latin colony, who claims to know the former president of Venezuela well, stated tonight that he believed the man who registered at a local hotel was Castro. The man supposed to be Castro has disappeared.

EX-AMBASSADOR'S WIFE CHARGED WITH KILLING

Bridgewater, Conn., June 4.—Charged with homicide, Mrs. S. L. Woodford, wife of the former United States ambassador to Spain, was arrested today and placed under $2,500 bonds, because the automobile in which she and her husband were driving yesterday, near here, Mrs. Woodford and her chauffeur were both arrested.

BOY TIED TO HORSE, IS HORRIBLY MANGLED

Huntsville, Ala., June 4.—(Special.)—News reached here last night of an unusual accident that may result in the death of a young boy, the son of Mrs. George Powers, at New Market. The boy and one or two others were playing with a horse that they were unable to hold, so they conceived the idea of tying the animal to the Powers' boy. The horse took fright, and ran through a thicket and a fence, mangling the Powers boy in a frightful manner.

Each copy weighed a little less than two pounds, and contained approximately 8 cents worth of white paper. One hundred and ten thousand pounds of paper, more than two car loads, were consumed. If all the pages of all the copies printed were placed end to end, it would make a ribbon of paper approximately 4,000 miles in length, reaching one-sixth around the earth, or 500 miles more than from New York to San Francisco. It would make a sheet of paper 41 feet in width across the entire state of Georgia from east to west.

The circulation was 60,000 copies, practically all of it sold and paid for in advance of publication. The paper was 126 pages in size, the largest single issue of a newspaper, according to all available records, ever issued in Georgia, and one of the largest ever issued in the south.

The edition contained 1,215 individual advertisements. The total space occupied by advertisements was 2,253 inches.

TWO GOVERNORS PRAISE WOMAN'S EDITION ISSUE

From Governor-Elect.

"This morning's edition of The Constitution is a magnificent tribute to the enterprise and ability of the federated women of Georgia. I had naturally expected a splendid issue of The Constitution as the result of the combined efforts of the women of the state, but I am frank to say that the result was far beyond my expectations. I have never seen anything that approached it, and I offer my hearty congratulations both to the Georgia Federation of Women's Clubs and The Constitution. The edition, besides being a deserved tribute to the memory of Mrs. White, one of Georgia's noblest women, means much in bringing the splendid work of Georgia's federated women into the public eye, and giving the citizens of the state generally an idea of what they are really accomplishing. No single factor in Georgia is doing more for the general betterment of the state than these women, and too much praise cannot be given to The Constitution for the magnificent help it is giving them in their work. JOHN M. SLATON, "Governor-elect."

From the Governor.

"The Ella F. White Memorial Edition of The Constitution is more than an incident in the annals of journalism. It is a strange and triumphant chapter in the history of the state of Georgia. For here we witness, in the pages of one issue of a newspaper, the glory and the sweetness that is the historic meaning of womanhood; the fullness of its achievement of today and the bewildering promise of its dawning destiny. Through my long business and public life I am somewhat familiar with the manifold intricacies of the newspaper. I know that in the creation and maintenance of its many departments it affords a drastic test of ability, as the word is understood in the sphere of ideals and in the sphere of worldly success. And to me this special edition, its contents ranging the activities of home and of commerce, is vivid illustration that our women possess the capacity of executive business direction, as well as the gentler graces of the sex. "Every Georgian should exit in this exhibit. For it vindicates that nobility of the woman of the traditional fireside, who reared sweetest memorials to her achieving sisters; and it visits upon us with powerful emphasis the refreshing knowledge that, with no prejudice to gentleness and fragrance, the wife and the mother of our day is equipped for the material tasks of the twentieth century. SELLERS CHOSEN TEMPORARY HEAD

Member of Mercer Faculty Takes Jameson's Place Until Permanent Successor Is Found.

Macon, Ga., June 4.—(Special.)—The board of trustees of Mercer university late this afternoon elected Judge J. G. McCall, of Quitman, president of the board to succeed Dr. E. C. Dargan, who resigned because he should retain the presidency of the board he would be unable to surrender his constitutional rights and resign from the prudenial committee. Dr. G. W. Garner, of Macon, was elected secretary of the board, to succeed E. N. Jelks, who resigned for the same reason that Dr. Dargan gave up the presidency. Both Dr. Dargan and Mr. Jelks retain places as members of the board of trustees but neither are now members of the prudenial committee. Professor J. F. Sellers, a member of the Mercer faculty, was elected temporary president of Mercer, to serve until the successor of Dr. Jameson can be chosen. Judge McCall, the new president of the board and ex-officio chairman of a committee of five, which will be named by him, to nominate a successor to Dr. Jameson. This committee

ATLANTA IS PAINTED AS AN IMMORAL CITY

Philadelphia Ministers Are Told Gate City Is Worse Than Frisco.

Philadelphia, Pa., June 4.—(Special.)—The Rev. S. Lane Batten, the chairman of the social service commission of the Baptist church in this city, yesterday addressed a meeting of the ministers of that denomination in Crozer hall. The ministers were devising ways and means to prevent a recurrence of the social evil so that the vice quarantine in this city can become permanent. Dr. Batten said, in enumerating some of the conditions which he had found in other cities:

"While I was in Atlanta three weeks ago I had a splendid opportunity to investigate conditions there. While they have eliminated the 'red-light district' completely, they have not stopped solicitation upon the streets, and some of the women of the city are more corrupt than any I have ever seen."

"With Dr. Baley, of this city, we decided to take a walk down one of the city's prominent thoroughfares. I took one side of the street and he the other. I was solicited for immoral purposes nineteen times, and my brother minister twenty-one times, each by different women. Three whom we talked to told us they could take us to places that were not suppressed, and from the descriptions they gave us, and from their proposals, can safely say that San Francisco, in her worse days, was no worse than the great Georgia city."

H. Gassaway Davis Hurt, Elkton, Va., June 4.—Henry Gassaway Davis, democratic vice presidential candidate in 1904, was painfully but not seriously injured today when he was thrown from his horse after the animal had been bitten by a

"WHITE SLAVERY" FLOURISHED HERE, SAY BURNS MEN

Startling Conditions in Atlanta Revealed in Statement Given Out Wednesday by Marion Jackson.

YOUNG GIRL OFFERED DETECTIVE BY MOTHER

Officers Making Investigation for Men and Religion Find No Evidences of Police Corruption.

In the employ of the Men and Religion Forward Movement, a squad of Burns detectives for an entire month investigated vice conditions in Atlanta in an effort to expose suspected "graft" and corruption in the police department. After thirty days of futile probe they reported that they had been absolutely unable to secure evidence of corrupt practice in any form.

It was revealed, however, that a revolting "white slavery" condition existed in the city, and that out of many transactions there had unearthed, one transaction characteristic in which a mother had endeavored to barter her 15-year-old daughter to a white slaver for the sum of $25. The offer was made to a Burns detective, posing as a tenderloin cadet.

This revelation was made yesterday by Marion Jackson to a Constitution reporter. Mr. Jackson is president of the executive committee of the religious movement, and has been a dominant figure in its successful reform enterprises. The investigation by Burns experts was made only a short while previous to the war on the restricted zone made by Chief Beavers.

Chief Not Aware of Probe.

The chief, however, was not aware of the probe. It was made ostensibly for the purpose of exposing, probable corruption of the police, relative to practice in the tenderloin which was then in existence. Although Mr. Jackson did not state positively the prime motive for the probe, it is hinted that if bribery were found to have existed, the results would have been as severe as those which to launch a campaign to close the tenderloin.

During the present grand jury investigation of the police department, Mr. Jackson's revelation is of singular interest in its connection with the fact that such graft did not exist during the days of the tenderloin, it is highly improbable that the city suffers such a condition at this time. Atlanta's reputation, he says, appears to be as model and moral as that of any metropolis in America. Such also was the expression of Chief Beavers, who told of implicit confidence he placed in his men of all ranks.

Visit Leading Resorts.

When the Burns experts undertook the task of exposing suspected corruption among the police as it related to the inmates and resort operators of the vice district, the leading houses of Manhattan avenue and other "officially regulated" zones were filled with operatives in all manner of guises.

After thirty days' search, during which daily reports were submitted to the Men & Religion executive committee, their investigation was dropped. Not even "peanut graft" was unearthed. Mr. Jackson says, however, that although the suspicion of police corruption was found to have been baseless, the investigators revealed a revolving system of "white slavery" which they alleged was practiced in the resort section of the city. Young girls, fresh from the country and rural districts, upon arriving in the city, were watched and trailed by cadets, the experts reported.

Women employees of the city, made acquainted with cadets, most of whom were handsome and invariably well-dressed, were stripped of virtue under the pretense of love or promise of marriage, and afterwards lured into the resort section of the city, where they were sold to a factory girl from the rural section were the easiest they, it was reported, and the percentage of this class that fell into the scarlet life was alarming.

The mother is a well-known figure in police circles. She recently was sent by Recorder Broyles for thirty days in the stockade for operating a house of ill-fame. She darsingly offered her child, a pretty girl who had just returned from serving a sentence in the Home of the Good Shepherd in Cincinnati, to the Burns man for the sum of $25. This attempted deal was reported to the executive committee, and is now a matter of record.

In commenting on the Philadelphia story in which a Baptist minister of that city publicly charges that conditions in Atlanta are worse than those of San Francisco during its "palmiest" days, Mr. Jackson says that it was not the first time he had heard the preacher's statements to the effect that in a single night in the Gate City he had been solicited by as many as nineteen girls.

To refute the minister's story, Mr. Jackson says that when it first gained circulation, he and John J. Egan, chairman of the executive committee, and E. A. Best, editor of the Constitution, a periodical which had carried an article commenting on the vice situation in Atlanta, walked the streets of the city Saturday night a week ago in an effort to encounter "girls of the pavement."

No Girl Approached.

"We walked down Peachtree street, Decatur, Ivy and a number of other streets, including Whitehall," stated Mr. Jackson. "We did not see a girl or woman who even looked suspicious much less accosted us. It was Saturday night, too, and surely if 'scarlet women' infested our streets, as the Philadelphia preacher declares they do, they would have been out in full force that night."

He stated further that after a night's treading the streets, he and Mr. Egan went home, leaving the editor at his hotel, the Piedmont. Mr. Best, after writing for an hour or so in his room, returned to the streets, thinking that he would be able to encounter "girls of the pavement" at the midnight hour. Although he walked up and down most all of the downtown side streets he abandoned his futile search in an hour.

FEARFUL CASE OF PILES CURED

Suffered Intensely, Relief Brought Instantly.

The same soothing, healing antiseptic medication that makes Resinol so remarkably successful for skin troubles affords immediate relief in the most distressing cases of itching, painful and bleeding piles. Miss Mazie Russell, 1254 N. Gay St., Baltimore, writes:

April 24, 1913.—"I had a most severe case of piles. I suffered day and night. I could not sleep or even lie down, and everyone told me the only relief for me would be an operation, and that I dreaded. I was almost wild with pain. I read of Resinol Soap and Resinol Ointment and sent for samples. The first application gave me instant relief. After using only two jars of Resinol Ointment and Resinol Soap, I can truthfully say that Resinol completely cured me."

"I hope all other poor sufferers will read of Resinol as I know it will help them as it did me, for I can never say enough in praise of it—for it does more than is even claimed for it." (Signed) Mazie Russell.

Better proof, even than such a letter, is to try Resinol yourself and see how quickly the trouble disappears. For free trial write to Dept. 46-S, Resinol, Baltimore, Md. Resinol Ointment and Resinol Soap are sold by all druggists.

Georgia Women Jubilant Over Success of Edition

The federated women of Georgia are most happy over the success of the Woman's Edition of The Constitution, published yesterday.

Mrs. Z. I. Fitzpatrick, president, arrived on a belated train at noon from the success of the edition.

"I feel," said she, "that nothing in all the splendidly useful life of the federation has ever carried the unifying force of the work for this edition. The force of the work as this edition of the state has been brought forward and developed by it and by its light we see many of the strong, new leaders which every organized movement must continue to produce. The Ella F. White edition is, to my somewhat prejudiced mind, a wonderfully satisfactory product and one which is worthy of the name it bears and the work it will promote."

Mrs. Willet Talks.

"The Woman's Edition demonstrated the talents of the women of Georgia, as well as their beautiful spirit of co-operation," said Mrs. Hugh Willet, executive of the federation, and a member of the editorial committee. "There was brought out also in the edition the fact that while the club women do wonderful work in philanthropy, education and social service, leaders which every organized movement must continue to produce. The Ella F. White edition is, to my somewhat prejudiced mind, a wonderfully satisfactory product and one which is worthy of the name it bears and the work it will promote."

Surprised Themselves.

"Much as we had all expected of the Ella F. White Edition, I venture to say that its finished effect was one of the joyous surprises of every person's life," said Mrs. Otley. "Good as the paper is it is not half as remarkable as is the work that brought it into being, and the most marked characteristic of this work was its composite nature."

"Those who have been for four months close to the grind of the thing know that the whole enterprise has been from the very beginning like a wonderful piece of machinery, from which, at any time, if any single bit of individual effort (and there were hundreds of such) had fallen short, the whole thing would have tumbled and rocked. But nobody did fall; every woman did even more than she was asked and that is why all the women in Atlanta, and in Georgia are so happy today."

Joy Meeting Held in Tifton.

While the Atlanta women met to rejoice over the success of The Woman's Edition, enthusiastic club women everywhere were celebrating with them. From Mrs. H. H. Tift, of Tifton, Ga., comes the following:

"I was in the newspaper business something like thirteen years. For uniqueness, the most remarkable special edition I ever saw was when Sir Alfred Harmsworth—now Lord Northcliffe—came over to this country and issued his tabloid edition of the New York World. As every old newspaper man knows, however, the average special edition is simply a lot of junk sufficient to fill in and carry the advertising matter."

"In feature discrimination, in human interest appeal, in getting hold of real live situations, the editors of the Woman's Edition have shown that they could serve up real stuff instead of Club-dub."

"The southern temperament, responsive and impressionistic, is peculiarly susceptible to successful journalistic work, and the opportunity given by The Constitution to its host of female contributors for this special edition, will lead to the development, doubtless, of a lot of talent hitherto unknown."

"The permanent editorial staff of The Constitution is to be congratulated and the editorial organization for the

Atlanta Greatly Pleased Over Woman's Edition

Everybody in Atlanta was delighted with the Woman's Edition of The Constitution, published yesterday, and from all parts of the city have come nothing but congratulations and words of commendation for the women who worked so hard and faithfully to get out this wonderful edition and accomplished their object in such an admirable manner.

Mayor James G. Woodruff.

Here are some of the things the leading people of the city have had to say about the paper.

"I was greatly surprised when I read through the columns. Every article and news item fairly throbbled with color and interest. In fact, I found so much of interest that I sincerely believe I will be several weeks reading it all."

"The Constitution has been the means, through its enterprise in getting out this issue, of bringing woman's sphere of work closer to the readers of newspapers. I would like to see a copy of the edition in every home in Georgia. Surely, there is no better chronicle of history which women of Atlanta are making."

"I am going to have a copy of the edition in my right-hand drawer at my home, and will have several copies at my home."

"The ladies who made the edition the success it is have done a great work for Atlanta and Georgia."

Alfred C. Newell.

"The Woman's Edition of The Atlanta Constitution is noteworthy. From the standpoint of sentiment it is a wonderful tribute to the late Mrs. Harry White. From the technical viewpoint it far surpasses the average special edition."

"I was in the newspaper business something like thirteen years. For uniqueness, the most remarkable special edition I ever saw was when Sir Alfred Harmsworth—now Lord Northcliffe—came over to this country and issued his tabloid edition of the New York World. As every old newspaper man knows, however, the average special edition is simply a lot of junk sufficient to fill in and carry the advertising matter."

"In feature discrimination, in human interest appeal, in getting hold of real live situations, the editors of the Woman's Edition have shown that they could serve up real stuff instead of Club-dub."

"The southern temperament, responsive and impressionistic, is peculiarly susceptible to successful journalistic work, and the opportunity given by The Constitution to its host of female contributors for this special edition, will lead to the development, doubtless, of a lot of talent hitherto unknown."

"The permanent editorial staff of The Constitution is to be congratulated and the editorial organization for the Woman's Edition is to be super-gratulated.

M. L. Reitzels.

"It was a pleasure to see the beautiful permanent editorial staff of The Constitution today. The ladies in charge certainly covered themselves with glory and proved that men are not the only ones who can get out a good newspaper."

Judge Joseph H. Lumpkin.

"The Woman's Edition of The Atlanta Constitution surpasses anything of its nature that I have ever seen. It was a wonderful paper. The ladies who edited the edition displayed great ability, taste and tact."

Judge Beverly D. Evans.

"I found the Woman's Edition of The Atlanta Constitution by one of the most interesting publications I have ever seen. The matter published in its columns was well selected and well treated. The ladies brought out in this edition a great deal of interesting information that none other than the women could have compiled and placed before the public in the proper light. In its mechanical features it was a work of art."

Game Warden Jesse Mercer.

"When I saw the Woman's Edition of The Atlanta Constitution this morning I was first astonished at the size of it, but when I had begun to read it myself I still more astonished at the interesting and interesting nature of the material. I have not yet had time to read it all. I think that it is one of the most interesting issues of any newspaper I have ever seen. It is a great paper!"

Secretary of State Phil Cook.

"The Woman's Edition of The Atlanta Constitution is an extraordinary paper, as glanced through hurriedly and now aside as an ordinary newspaper. It contains a mass of interesting facts that are worth pondering over and digesting. I spent two hours reading it as soon as I got it this morning, but have not yet finished it. I have laid it aside to read the rest of it and when I have finished it I am going to keep the copy."

Adjutant General J. Van Holt Neph.

"For any one to have attempted the publication of an edition of the paper as the Woman's Edition of The Atlanta Constitution was a gigantic undertaking, but for this enterprise to have been undertaken by women absolutely unacquainted with newspaper work and to have been made the perfect thing they made of it is wonderful. It is an extremely interesting and valuable volume. The ladies are to be congratulated."

O. C. Fuller.

"It would be rather presumptuous to criticize a novel before you have read it. I am inclined to think the publication is a complete success. So far it is only a casual observation. I have read the larger part of the news pages in that casual reading, however, I have been attracted by a number of features I shall take time to read. I must say, however, that the paper shows conclusively and beyond all doubt that the women of Georgia can do when they have decided to get busy."

John Dean Stewart.

"Never before have I seen a daily paper carrying as many pages as The Atlanta Constitution showed this morning. No I have not read it, but its general appearance makes me as anxious to read it as the announcement of a new novel by my favorite author. Glancing over the pages I see the names of writers who have always been attractive, and at my leisure I will read what they have written for the biggest paper I have ever seen—a paper carrying more words than the ordinary novel."

Chief James Beavers.

"The Woman's Edition is a characteristic of the Atlanta Constitution. It is great. The women behind it are to be commended for their snap and pluck and every other good quality that typified their efforts. It was a wonder, that edition was, and Atlanta is proud to be proud of its women who issued it."

Judge Nash Broyles.

"It was monumental to the enterprise and industry of the Atlanta Constitution. I though I expected a great achievement I was dumfounded when I saw what a tip-roaring success had been made of it. When it comes to energy and vigor and the getting of results, there's nothing that can compare with Atlanta's women. I don't need further support in that statement—The Constitution's Woman's Edition is proof undeniably. It proves it beyond a doubt."

LAWYERS WILL SPEAK FOR A MEDAL TONIGHT

Seniors of the Atlanta Law school will hold their final meeting today at 8 o'clock, at which time the successful candidates for graduation will be announced. A feature of the meeting will be the report of the committee in charge of all final arrangements for commencement.

R. H. Lindsay, chairman; J. J. Stoen and W. E. Morgan comprise this committee, and they urge all candidates for a degree to attend the meeting this afternoon.

The faculty prize in declamation will be awarded to the best declaimer at 8 o'clock this evening at the law school. The speakers follow: Robert E. Lee Cone, Samuel M. Castleton, George Northen, M. J. Woods, Pierce Burns, Harry Terrell, Allen A. Dowds, Richard H. Gordon, Willie L. Eichel, and J. L. Leonard Grossman, who was entered in the contest, but withdrew because of his victory in the debate Monday night, was elected by the contestants to preside over the competition for the faculty prize. The judges will be Judge John S. Candler, Judge John T. Pendleton and M. L. Brittain.

Miss Douglas Better.

The many friends of Miss Helen Douglas, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hamilton Douglas, will be glad to learn that she is convalescing after a very serious operation for appendicitis. Though her case aroused the grave concern of attending physicians because the appendix had become badly dislocated before the operation, her resisting powers have encouraged those who are in constant attendance upon her. She is expected to return to her home in the city in a few days. The operation, which was performed last Monday, but is gradually improving.

May Adopt Rome Plan.

Representatives of all of the Protestant churches of the city will meet tomorrow night for the purpose of discussing the adoption of the "Rome plan" of closing the lockers clubs in Macon. This was the subject of a Sunday address by Hon. Sashorn Wright, of Rome, who contends that every locker club in the city is being operated illegally, and can be closed by securing injunctions against them.

Success of Woman's Edition Celebrated by a Reception

The assembly room of The Constitution office, which has been used by the women of the Georgia Federation during the work preceding the publication of their edition of the paper, threw off yesterday the atmosphere of work and presented a picture of happy celebration and entertainment. The management of The Constitution were the hosts of the occasion, and the endowment committee of the Georgia Federation and the publisher of the Woman's Edition were the guests. Mrs. F. J. Sprattling, chairman of the reception committee, appointed by Mrs. Lindsay Johnson, acted as official hostess.

No invitations had been issued except the general invitation issued to all workers and friends of the enterprise, this was extended through the columns of the paper. Among the first visitors were a group of out-of-town workers who came to celebrate with their Atlanta sisters. Mrs. Robert Daniel, of Griffin, chairman of the sixth district, came to bring greetings and congratulations from the club women and that section. Mrs. A. O. Granger came from Cartersville, bearing Mrs. Willet were the recipients of telegrams from many prominent club women, who could not be present. Mrs. Hamilton brought greetings from the club women of Decatur and messages of congratulation came from College Park.

A Happy Surprise.

A happy incident was the arrival of Mrs. Z. I. Fitzpatrick, president of the Georgia Federation, and publisher of the Woman's Edition. She was warmly cheered on her arrival and was most happy in her response, assuring the Atlanta committee of the heartfelt appreciation for the work they had put in the edition, distance keeping the state women from doing all they would have done had it been possible. In turn, she was congratulated for the splendid work done by the women of the section under her inspiring leadership.

The Federation colors of white and green were expressed in the decorations of the room, which had palms backed against the walls and white flowers everywhere.

From a table etched in smilax and centered with a bowl of snowballs, dainty sandwiches were served from the little letter trays so familiar to the newspaper office, these decorated in bows of green and white and smilax.

A delicious punch was served and around the table the ladies roared with delight telegrams from the leading men and women of the state congratulating them on the success of the edition.

R. E. LEE INSTITUTE CLOSING EXERCISES

Thomaston, Ga., June 4.—(Special.) R. E. Lee Institute has closed the most successful year in its history. The commencement exercises were brought to a close Tuesday evening by the graduating exercises. The commencement sermon was preached by Rev. J. S. Jenkins, of Atlanta, and was a strong discourse on missions. Monday morning Miss C. S. Parrish delivered her lecture on "Changing Ideals."

Men DO Read Advertisements.

There has been some lively discussion on this subject lately and at a dinner of advertising men in one of the larger cities recently a prominent advertiser rose and asserted that "after all, very few men read advertisements."

"You are absolutely wrong," retorted another advertising man, the manager of advertising in a department store. "We had a sale of shirts one day last week that was the most successful in the history of our business. Ninety-nine per cent of those who came in and bought were men. They came in direct response to our newspaper advertisement."

Everywhere in every station of life men find interest in advertising. It may not be clothing, shoes or hats; but it may be something that relates to real estate, banking, the stock market, to automobiles—to any of the thousand and one things that constantly form the subject of wideawake advertising.

FRANK WANTED GUN TO TAKE HIS LIFE, SAYS NEGRO COOK

Sensational Affidavit Made for the Police by Minola McKnight, Servant in Leo Frank's Home.

Fully as startling as the recent confession of James Conley, an affidavit purporting to have been sworn to by Minola McKnight, the servant girl of the Frank household, was given out to the newspapers yesterday afternoon by Chief Lanford. The detectives assert it is the "final straw" in the mass of evidence they boast of having accumulated.

a gun with which to kill himself, and that he asked, "Why could I be guilty of murder?" The affidavit further states that Frank arrived home on the crime date about 1:30 o'clock in the afternoon, and without eating dinner, left within less than ten minutes. He returned at 7 o'clock at night, the negro swears. Also, she declares that her name was attached to the document of her own free will and accord, and that she was not threatened or persuaded in any form.

Stands Sponsor for Woman. She was released from prison on an agreement between her counsel, George Gordon, and Chief Lanford, ordered to produce her at the trial, the detective chief declares. If she would be given freedom, and would stand sponsor for her presence, as long as she reports daily to police headquarters and shows no inclination to leave, Lanford says, she will not be molested. Otherwise, she will be returned to prison and held until the courts take up the case.

Attorney William M. Smith, counsel for James Conley, the negro sweeper, was asked Wednesday afternoon if he had formulated the line of defense to be presented by his client in case Conley was accused by Frank's defense of the murder, as is the present outlook. He answered:

"Conley will need no defense. By the time he is accused, if he is, Frank will have been convicted of the crime." It was announced from Solicitor Dorsey's office Wednesday that the Phoenix case will go before the courts during the week of June 30 instead of the 23d, as has been predicted. No definite decision has been reached, however, it is understood that Dorsey will be ready for Frank's trial at the latter date, and that unless there are reasons for delay on the part of the defense, the case will proceed expeditiously.

The servant girl's affidavit follows in full: State of Georgia, County of Fulton: Personally appeared before me, a notary public in and for the above state and county, Minola McKnight, who lives in the rear of 351 Fulliam street, Atlanta, Ga., who, being duly sworn, deposes and says: Saturday morning, April 26, 1915, Mr. Frank left home about 3 o'clock, and Albert, my husband, was there Saturday, too; Albert got there, I guess, about a quarter after 1, and was there when Mr. Frank came for dinner, which was about half-past one, but Mr. Frank did not eat any dinner and he left in about ten minutes after he got there.

Mr. Frank came back to the house at 7 o'clock that night, and Albert was there when he got there. I remember one home that evening, but he came back, but I don't know what time he got there, but he came some time before Mr. Frank did, and Mr. Frank sat supper that night about 8 o'clock, and when I left about 8 o'clock I left Mr. Frank there.

Sunday morning I got there about 8 o'clock, and there was an automobile standing in front of the house, but I didn't pay any attention to it, but I saw a man in the automobile get a bucket of water and pour into it, Miss Lucile (Mr. Frank's wife), was downstairs, and Mrs. Selig was upstairs. Albert was there Sunday morning, but I don't remember what time he got there. When I called them down to breakfast about half-past eight, I found that Mr. Frank was gone, and Mrs. Selig eat breakfast and Miss Lucile didn't eat until Mr. Frank came back and they eat breakfast together. I didn't hear them say anything at the breakfast table, but after dinner I understood them to say that a girl and Mr. Frank were caught at the office Saturday.

I don't know who said it, but Miss Lucile and Mr. Frank were talking after dinner. I didn't know the girl was killed until Monday evening. I understood them to say it was a Jew girl, and I asked Miss Lucile, and she said it was a Gentile.

Frank Said It Was Bad. On Tuesday Mr. Frank says to me: "It is mighty bad, Minola. I might have to go to jail about this girl, and I don't know anything about it." I heard Mrs. Ravin, Mrs. Frank's sister, tell Miss Lucile that it was mighty bad, and Miss Lucile said, "Yes, it is. I am going to get after her about it." I don't know what they were talking about.

Sunday Miss Lucile said to Mrs. Selig that Mr. Frank didn't sleep so good Saturday night. She said he was drunk and wouldn't let her sleep with him, and she said she slept on the floor on the rug by the bed because he was drinking. Miss Lucile said Sunday that Mr. Frank told her she was drunk, that he was in trouble; that he didn't know the reason why she would murder, and he told his wife to get his pistol and let him kill himself. I heard Miss Lucile say that Mrs. Selig, if she got away with Mrs. Selig might be bad; she didn't know what to think. I haven't heard Miss Lucile say whether she believed it or not. I don't know why Mrs. Frank didn't come to see her husband, but it was a pretty good while before she came to see him, maybe two weeks. She would tell me, "Wasn't it mighty bad that he was locked up?" and she said: "Minola, I don't know what am going to do."

Told Her to Stay. When I left home to go to the solicitor general's office, they told me to mind what I said. They paid me $3.50 a week, but last week they paid me $4, and the week she paid me $5.50. But at the time of this murder I was getting $3.50 a week, and the week right after the murder I don't remember how much they paid me. The next week $4, and the next week $4. One week Mrs. Selig gave me $5, but it was not for my work, and they didn't tell what it was for. They just said, "Here is $5, Minola." But of course I understood what they meant, but they didn't tell me anything at the time. I understood it was a tip for me to keep quiet. They would tell me to mind how I talked, and Miss Lucile would give me a hint. Question: "Was that the reason you didn't tell the solicitor yesterday all about this—that Miss Lucile and the others had told you not to say anything about what had happened out there?"

"Yes, sir." Question: "Is that true?" "Yes, sir." Question: "And that is the reason why you would rather have been locked up last night than tell this?" "Yes, sir." Question: "Has Mr. Pickett or Mr. Cravens, or Mr. Campbell, or Mr. (Detective Starnes, evidently), influenced you in any way or threatened you in any way to make this statement?"

"No, sir." Question: "You make it of your own free will and accord, in their presence and the presence of Mr. Gordon, your attorney?" "Yes, sir." MINOLA MCKNIGHT. Sworn to and subscribed before me this third day of June, 1915. (Signed) G. C. FEBRUARY.

GEORGIA HOTEL MEN WILL MEET AT TYBEE

Atlanta members of the Georgia Hotel Men's association are making reservations at the New Tybee hotel, Tybee Island, Ga., for June 13 and 14 when they will attend the annual meeting of that body. The chief business scheduled for the consideration of the hotel men will concern legislative matters in which they are all interested.

Those who will attend the state convention will leave in a body over the Central of Georgia railroad at 8:30 o'clock on the night of June 12, and will be joined by the Macon delegation as they pass through that city, en route to Savannah, where they will be the guests of J. Newcomb, manager of the Savannah hotel, who will entertain with a luncheon and an automobile ride. A lively business session followed by a dip in the surf and good times galore are in store for those who will attend the meeting.

Stewards to Have Picnic. The Atlanta branch of the International Stewards' association will hold their annual picnic Thursday, June 12, at the Burns club, and the members and their guests are anticipating a pleasant outing. The party will go out in special trolleys to the Burns club at 8 o'clock, returning at 6, and in addition to the thirty-six members of the association, with their wives, they have also invited the produce dealers and commission and supply men of the city. The stewards and managers of practically every hotel and restaurant in Atlanta are active members of this association. Luke Kohler, of the Transportation club, is president, and L. Dupin, of Durand's restaurant, is secretary. Special invitations for the picnic are being distributed.

TECH COMMENCEMENT BEGINS NEXT FRIDAY

Twenty-Fifth Anniversary of Growing Institution Will Be Celebrated Then.

Tech commencement of 1915, which begins next Friday, will see the finish of twenty-five years of the institution's life. The growth of the school in the last quarter of a century has been phenomenal.

During the eight years that Dr. Matheson has been president of the school, it has grown and improved in every way with wonderful rapidity.

The campus today comprises twenty-five acres, with sixteen buildings, aggregating a total valuation of approximately $800,000. The faculty has been greatly increased; the standard of the courses of instruction has been raised, and numerous other improvements along all lines connected with the institution have been made.

Opens Friday Night. The commencement exercises will open next Friday night at 8:15 o'clock in the Tech M. C. auditorium, with a debate by the Henry W. Grady Literary society. The freshmen's oratorical contest will take place on the following day in the same building. Dr. Thomas E. Green, of Chicago, will deliver the baccalaureate sermon in St. Luke's Episcopal church at 11 o'clock Sunday morning, June 8, taking as the subject of his discourse "A Veiled Vision."

At 10 o'clock Monday, June 9, there will be a meeting of the school trustees. At 3 p. m. in the Tech Y. M. C. A. Dr. P. P. Clayton, United States commissioner of education, will deliver a literary address. From 5 p. m. to 7 p. m. President K. G. Matheson will hold a reception. At 8 p. m. one of the features of the commencement, the junior prom, will be held on the campus.

Founders' Day. Thursday, June 10, is "Founders' day." At 9 a. m. there will be a meeting of the alumni in the Tech Y. M. C. A. auditorium. At 10:30 Founders' day exercises are scheduled in the auditorium; at 2:30 Class day exercises and program on the campus; at 8:15 C. Alphonso Smith, Ph. D., J. J., will deliver the Founders' day oration in the Grand Opera house; at 9:30 p. m. there will be a reception by Governor and Mrs. Joseph M. Brown at the mansion. Wednesday, June 11, the boys will be given a chance to show what they have accomplished. From 8:30 to 10 a. m. a show exhibit will be held. At 10:30 graduating exercises will be held in the Grand Opera house. Dr. Herbert S. Bigelow, of Cincinnati, as commencement orator, will deliver an address on "Old Institutions and New Ideas." At 1:30 delegates, trustees, faculty, alumni and graduation class will attend the chamber of commerce luncheon.

Luncheon Will Be Given. A luncheon in honor of the distinguished graduates, trustees and faculty of the Georgia School of Technology will be given at the Capital City club Wednesday, June 11, at 1:30 o'clock, by the Atlanta chamber of commerce. In giving this luncheon the chamber will show the high regard in which this college is held by the citizens of Atlanta, and wish to fittingly recognize its twenty-fifth anniversary, which will be on that date. It is hoped that every member of the chamber who can be present will do so, as a fitting tribute to the work of the school. Plates will be $3 each, and it is hoped that those attending will send in their checks immediately to Thomas P. Meador, treasurer.

The committee on arrangements is as follows: Meel R. Wilkinson, chairman; John W. Grant, J. B. McCrary, Joel Hunter, A. R. Colcord, George M. Howe, W. P. Winn, Samuel A. Carter, Wilmer L. Moore, Robert Greer, V. H. Krieger, Paul Necross, St. Elmo Massengale, David Woodward, J. S. Floyd, W. P. Waltham, F. J. Paxon, F. M. Inman, W. W. Orr, S. B. Turman, J. T. Halteman, H. M. Whitte, E. THE SENATE'S VAUDEVILLE.

However praiseworthy the purpose, the inevitable effect of the senate's tariff probe of itself is to cast each one of its members under the suspicion of being a crook at the expense of his country's welfare.

The tariff affects every part and parcel of the economic, industrial, commercial and social scheme in this country. Every one of the hundreds of manufactured items, ranging from a needle to a road roller, is affected by some one schedule.

Such is the ridiculous cul de sac into which the senate has deliberately led itself. Hereafter, we assume, and the assumption is a logical one, investment in legitimate enterprises is to disqualify men for legislative service.

The state rang with sinister indictments of prominent men, dead and living. It was alleged the "interests" had Georgia by the throat; that they infested the legislature and twisted statesmen round their fingers.

It is a pity some more practical and less senuous way of insuring the party's program could not have been chosen, and especially is it a pity that the senate has set about to prove that it is not made up of an aggregation of crooks.

Will Georgia never outlive the Ollie Taylor faké? Here is our good and usually judicious friend, Collier's Weekly, floundering at this late date in the mire, even less excusably than the jovial Life, of New York.

Were not our knowledge of Collier's so thorough we should be inclined to fear it had fallen into the too common habit of ostracizing facts.

Once and for all—Ollie Taylor was not sentenced to a reformatory until he should have reached his majority. Under one of the most beneficent laws in this or any other state he was given an indeterminate sentence.

We are just beginning to catch the full significance of Life's plaint that it is often impossible to overtake the harm done by a fake.

A WONDERFUL SHOWING.

The parade with which the grocers and butchers and general food supply men of Atlanta yesterday inaugurated their weekly half-holiday was one of the most striking in the history of the city.

Throughout the afternoon the 7,000 and more employers and employees enjoyed a well-earned rest, all the retail establishments in the city being closed.

The answer to Hitchcock's rejoinder is the experience of the business men of the country. It is a matter of record that the administration of the department under Hitchcock was the worst in fifty years rather than the best.

Gossip Caught in Corridor

Washington, June 4.—(Special.)—Short-term enlistments to induce young men to enter the army and secure the training that would make them effective fighters in case of need is being earnestly discussed by army strategists.

Representative Julius Kahn, of California, who favors the method of creating an army reserve, recently shattered one of the illusions of the anti-militarists by this story: "Some people think an army could spring up in the night and fight its equal in numbers."

Short-Term Enlistments. There is no doubt that many young men would enjoy the advantages of a short term in the army, but are deterred by the long enlistment term required.

Mr. Kahn favors an army reserve; that is, men who have a short term with the colors, and are then subject to call for a short term of years after returning to their regular work in the industrial world.

The World's Mysteries

WHO KILLED GENERAL BRADDOCK?

Readers are familiar with the fact that General Edward Braddock, the commander of the British forces in America, was killed near Pittsburgh, in July, 1755, in the war against the French and Indians.

But who killed General Braddock? The story has been told that the deed was done by a provincial named Thomas Fawcett.

Another account says the general was killed by Captain Robert Allison.

Braddock, in his extreme self-confidence and presumption, disregarding the warnings of Washington, fell into an ambush of French and Indians seven miles from Fort Duquesne.

Work, then, while the blood is warm and the bones are elastic. Work while the muscles are supple and the head is clear.

A Defense of the Oyster. Dr. Carl L. Alsberg, in a recent address, comes to the defense of the oyster.

The widespread and growing fear that the oyster is a source of disease and is not a safe food undoubtedly is one of the factors that adds to the pressure of the high cost of living.

It follows that as people stop eating oysters they eat more meat—possibly more expensive meat.

As a general proposition, it is fair to state that people run less risk of contracting typhoid fever from oysters than they do from drinking raw milk.

Every pound of food taken from the sea relieves the land of producing a corresponding amount of meat and so releases so many acres for the production of grain and fruit.

One of the young men in the boarding house had the double fault of slowness in paying his bill and fussiness about the table service.

When the British forces fell into ambushes in Braddock's campaign, and many of them had been killed, especially officers, because they could not see the enemy among the trees and bushes.

This officer, instead of shooting the general as he was ordered, shot several horses from under him; and when Captain Allison saw that he was disobeying orders, he took the gun out of his hands and shot Braddock himself.

Although this story might cause some doubt, there is no essential improbability in the statement, for, it is said that in the Mexican war and later in the civil war cases often occurred in which officers purposely shot their own men in order to protect the lives of the soldiers from useless slaughter.

In this battle Braddock braved every danger. His secretary was shot dead; both his English aides were disabled early in the engagement, leaving Washington alone to distribute the orders.

Another account says the general was killed by Captain Robert Allison.

JURY WILL PROBE DICTAGRAPH ROW

A. L. Colyar, Jr., George M. Gentry and G. C. Febuary Summoned at Request of Chief Lanford

An investigation of the separate phases of the row resulting from the dictagraph traps is to be conducted by Attorney Thomas B. Felder and Mayor James G. Woodard. It is believed to be forecast on the dictagraph by the summoning before it of A. L. Colyar, Jr., George M. Gentry and G. C. Febuary. All these men played an important part in the performance and were summoned. It is claimed as the request made by Chief Lanford, chief of the detective department.

One of the most startling features of the afternoon session was the probing into the affairs of Police Commissioner William C. Fain. Allen Young, a real estate dealer, put upon the stand and is said to have been asked to furnish proof in regard to the revelations in which Fain was said to have been the central figure in a carousal in an Ivy street house.

It is claimed that Fain also mistreated one of the women most brutally and that when the police arrested the women's screams and raised the place they arrested Fain who was later given custody by order of higher police officials.

Mr. Fain made the following statement to a Constitution reporter: In answer to the charges which appeared against me in an afternoon paper, I beg to say, in justice to my friends and the public that I am not in the least surprised at any accusations that have been or may be brought against me or any other city official, who is publicly known as a strong supporter of the law, and chief of police and his administration of the police department.

As the main issue was directed at him and his department it is but natural that the same miscreants would attack his supporters with the hope of at least sway the public opinion to suit their ends regardless of the cost to others.

As for the accusations against me they are of such absurdity their origin of such unfeeling purpose, their author so insignificant that I do not care to waste my time in further discussion of the matter but I am perfectly willing for the people who know me and the better ones with whom I am not acquainted to judge for themselves.

The other four witnesses who were called before the jury were Colonel Felder who testified on Tuesday, Police Chief James L. Beavers, J. D. Skaggs, agent for the Southern Express company and Thomas Butts, a near elevator boy for the Southern hotel.

The fact that Mr. Skaggs was summoned and that another man whose name was not given, but who was maintaining with the solicitor in regard to the operation of locker clubs in Atlanta, makes it appear that the question of liquor as connected with vice and immorality will be taken up in a complete report at the end of the term of the present grand jury.

During the morning session Colonel Felder declared in a public statement that he had never held Chief Beavers to be connected with the persons who had been charged with the dictagraph case. He said he had never said anything that he could be construed to reflect upon the police chief himself.

Grocers and Butchers Celebrate Wednesday Half-Holiday

Two scenes in the big parade on Wednesday afternoon, when three miles of wagons and cars crowded streets.

Grocers' and Butchers Parade Witnessed by Many Thousands

The great parade of the grocers and butchers yesterday afternoon celebrating the first weekly half-holiday, which will be observed on Wednesdays by both the wholesale and retail establishments through the month of July and August was a monumental affair both in its proportions and significance.

Three miles of carts, delivery vans, wagons and gaily decorated floats starting at the state capitol about 2 o'clock and winding through the main business and residential parts of the city told the story of the half-holiday for the thousands who are engaged in the business of feeding the city.

Incidentally it also served fair warning upon all houses in the city that a marketing must be done before 2 o'clock in the afternoon else the cupboard must perform bare. Or Wednesdays no grocery stores or butcher shops will be open during this half holiday to be a thorough going success—that is to work satisfactorily to both merchant and patron—the co-operation of the housewives of Atlanta is absolutely necessary.

The parade Wednesday afternoon was unprecedented by anything ever seen in the city of Atlanta. With portly butchers for all the world like the famous one in the tale of Jack and the Beanstalk jolly grocers who would have delighted the heart of Peck's Bad Boy and beautiful fairy to the pageant of the grocers and butchers seemed to have marched by magic straight from the open pages of a child's story book down into Twelfth street.

As the royal procession of the grocers and butchers passed through the streets they showered upon the thousands of spectators who thronged the sidewalks and windows in advertising novelties, souvenirs and confetti. And great were the shouts and laughter which greeted the holiday makers from their friends upon the pavement or in the city whose business was not represented in the parade. The little one horse dray of the corner grocer, attired in gala array trailed in the wake of the pretentious columns of auto vans of the biggest concerns in town in such numbers that the procession seemed literally to stretch back over the edge of the world.

CLARK HOWELL IS THANKED BY ENDOWMENT COMMITTEE

The Ella F. White endowment committee of the Georgia Federation of Women's clubs call grateful attention to the fact that the successful Women's Edition of June 4 was the result not alone of four months of hard work but quite as much of a number of years of close official relation between the Georgia Federation and its official organ, The Atlanta Constitution.

Only out of such long use and common knowledge of a complex subject could such an achievement as today's edit on have been brought about.

To the Editor in Chief Mr. Clark Howell the thanks of all organized women in this state should go not only for the present opportunity but for many years of courteous consideration during which he has shown himself to be unfailingly the discerning friend of the best in organized effort.

Mrs. Z. I. Fitzpatrick, Mrs. H. H. Tift, Tifton; Mrs. M. A. Lipscomb, Athens; Mrs. A. O. Granger, Cartersville; Mrs. H. M. Willet, Mrs. Charles J. Haden, Mrs. J. K. Otley, Mrs. J. Lindsey Johnson, Rome.

The Atlanta Old Guard returned from its mission of peace in the east Wednesday morning. Early morning trains brought members from Savannah, where the last reception was tendered to the Georgia Hussars. The battalion returned from New York by steamship.

Colonel J. R. Smith who acquired the title of reverend while in the east, declared that the tour was wonderful. He said that in every city the guard was royally treated. The Atlantians were met by the military in every city and receptions and banquets were the order.

In Washington President Wilson went out and met the guard and in Baltimore the whole town turned out to see the visitors.

OLD GUARD IS HOME FROM TRIP TO EAST

"Tour Was Just One Good Thing After Another," Declares Col. J. R. Smith

Atlanta's Old Guard returned from its mission of peace in the east Wednesday morning. Early morning trains brought members from Savannah, where the last reception was tendered to the Georgia Hussars. The battalion returned from New York by steamship.

Colonel J. R. Smith who acquired the title of reverend while in the east, declared that the tour was wonderful. He said that in every city the guard was royally treated. The Atlantians were met by the military in every city and receptions and banquets were the order.

In Washington President Wilson went out and met the guard and in Baltimore the whole town turned out to see the visitors.

There was a big military parade in Philadelphia. Colonel Smith explained suddenly there came a downpour of rain and the parade disbanded. The Old Guard did not break rank but marched alone to the strains of Dixie to the pier where we took a boat. I never heard such cheering. There were thousands on hand to say farewell.

In New York two dinners were given in honor of the guard. We were on the front pages of the newspapers in Boston deeds to the city were made out and turned over to us. The guard took part in the memorial exercises on the monument The New Haven Grays entertained us. I tell you it was just one good thing after the other.

Colonel Smith said that the battalion enjoyed every minute of the trip. He made the announcement that next year the Old Guard would probably go to Europe.

AUGUSTAN IS NAMED CONSUL TO SAXONY

Washington, June 4.—(Special)—In the batch of diplomatic nominations which President Wilson is expected to send to the senate tomorrow the following are expected:

Minister to Switzerland Pleasant A. Stovall of Savannah, consul general at Dresden, Charles G. Presley of Augusta. For some time it has been known that Mr. Stovall would get a good diplomatic post but his nomination has been held up for some unaccountable reason.

Mr. Presley will succeed T. St. John Gaffney of New York who is a unique character among American diplomatists.

TO SEARCH SEAS FOR DYING WOMAN'S HUSBAND

New Bedford, Mass., June 4.—A tug boat has been chartered to go to the Hatteras whaling grounds to find the missing schooner A. M. Nicholson and bring Captain Horace Smith to the bedside of his sick wife.

When the Nicholson left New Bedford two months ago Mrs. Smith accompanied her husband but being taken suddenly ill was landed on Block Island. The whaling schooner then resumed her voyage.

Butts' School Census Shows 3,799 Children

Jackson Ga. June 4.—(Special)—Complete figures for the school census of Butts county show 3,799 children between the ages of 5 and 18 an increase of 92 over the census taken five years ago. The increase means that the county will receive $275 or thereabouts more of the state fund for the next year.

Blacks Spirited Away.

Knoxville Tenn. June 4.—Preston Jones, William Lyle and Haynes Terry (three negroes) were spirited away from Knox county jail this morning and taken to Chattanooga for safe keeping. NEW TRIAL IS SOUGHT FOR CHARLES BECKER

Schepp's Testimony Basis of Action Taken to Free New York Officer

New York June 4.—A new trial for Charles Becker, the police lieutenant convicted of the murder of Herman Rosenthal and now in the 14th house at Sing Sing was sought in the supreme court today on four grounds.

First, that new evidence had been discovered second that the verdict of conviction was contrary to law and against the weight of the testimony third that Sam H. Haas a juror was separated from the other Jurymen on two occasions when he visited a dentist's office fourth that a new trial should be granted in the interests of justice. The action was made before Justice Goff who presided at Becker's trial.

Joseph A. Shay Becker's lawyer submitted twenty-four affidavits most of which have already been made public of newspaper reporters and others who talked with Sam Schepp when he returned to New York from Cuba. These affidavits are in support of the contention that Schepp was an accomplice of Jack Rose in the murder and that therefore his testimony should have been considered as such.

OPEN TOWN CANDIDATE WINS IN LOS ANGELES

Los Angeles June 4.—Enthusiastic crowds thronged the streets last night and early today to cheer the overthrow in the election yesterday of the good government organization which has been in the ascendant in city politics since the recall of Mayor Harper five years ago. The announcement of the election to the majority of Police Judge H. H. Rose an independent candidate who ran without the support of one of the six newspapers of the city caused the demonstration. The complete returns early today Rose was conceded a majority of 7,000 over John W. Shank city attorney of the good government organization and candidate of the municipal conference. The election was the climax of a spirited campaign.

Pose a candidacy was assailed by practically every minister of the city on the ground that his election would be followed by an "open town" regime.

Mrs. Webb's Reception.

A delightful occasion was the reception given by Mrs. Guy Webb at her home, "The Pines," in Decatur yesterday afternoon in honor of Miss Marie Wright, a bride-elect, and for Miss Willie Norton, of Social Circle. The house was beautifully decorated with palms and ferns and a profusion of pink and white sweet peas and baskets filled with pink roses. A large plateau of pink and white sweet peas was the centerpiece of the table in the dining room. Silver candelabra had pink silk shades, and all other details of the pretty table were in pink and white. The punch bowl, on the porch, was presided over by Miss Margaret Brentley. Mrs. Webb wore a gown of blue charmeuse with draped with marquisette of the same shade. Assisting in entertaining were: Mrs. W. H. Hamilton, Mrs. H. W. Cantrell, Mrs. O. D. Kelley, Mrs. M. J. Wright, Mrs. C. M. Triple, Mrs. T. D. Poole, Misses Georgia Weeks, Carrie Weeks, Lucile Moore, Lizzie Moore and Ruth Harris.

Mrs. Brown to Entertain.

Mrs. J. Dops Brown will entertain twenty guests at bridge this afternoon in compliment to Mrs. William Gray, of Richmond, who is the guest of Mrs. Fairfax Montague, and for Mrs. John Brown, who has recently come to Atlanta to make her home.

Mrs. White's Reception.

A beautiful reception yesterday was that given by Mrs. Warren D. White, the occasion assembling a large company to meet her daughter, Mrs. Daniel Glasgow, of Tyrone, Pa.; Miss Lira

Andrews, a bride-elect, and Mrs. Elizabeth Hall, of Washington, D. C. The bride-elect, who is being married at the house of Mrs. J. W. Yess at 1000 reception rooms, and pink sweet peas and Killarney roses in profusion were used with effect. The tea table was picturesque in pink, its centerpiece a basket of roses.

Assisting in entertaining were Mrs. George W. Andrews, Mrs. Frank Markey, Mrs. John R. Wilkinson, Mrs. S. C. Dobbs, Mrs. W. A. Candler, Miss John E. Pickett, Mrs. Fay Wilson, Mrs. W. M. Pain, Mrs. R. C. Turner, Miss Pauline Norman, Miss Kate Baker, Miss Jennie Sue Bell and Miss Annie Mae Patterson, and punch was served by Miss Mildred Harris and Miss Louise Pettilo.

Bridal Dinner.

Mr. and Mrs. Mitchell King will entertain at dinner Saturday, the 14th, in compliment to Miss Martha Francis and Mr. Claud Douthett, Miss Annie Lyle and Mr. Marion Harper.

Children's Party.

Miss Elizabeth Owens will celebrate her birthday with an afternoon party Saturday night at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. William D. Owens, in Druid Hills. Sixty boys and girls are invited.

Miss McKenzie's Luncheon.

Miss Annie Lee McKenzie's luncheon yesterday was a beautiful occasion, artistic in plan and of happiest spirit. Mrs. Charles T. Hopkins, Jr., was the pretty guest of honor, and ten young married women were invited to meet her. The central decoration was an oblong plateau of lavender sweet peas, out of which rose a silver candelabra with silver shades. At each end were baskets of lavender sweet peas, the handles tied with lavender tulle, at which were poised yellow butterflies. The hand-painted place cards were miniature dancers in lavender and pretty

NEW PLAY TO BE FEATURE OF ATHENS COMMENCEMENT

Athens, Ga., June 4.—(Special.)—The Thalia play, followed by the pantomime, on the evening of Friday night next week, will begin commencement at the university. The first play ever written by a member of the Thalia is to be put on "The House on the Sands," by Ed. B. Dunlap, of Gainesville, who has produced a clever three-act play with the first scenes laid in the mountains of north Georgia, with which the author is familiar; the last acts in the governor's mansion in Atlanta. There is no "jinx" attached to the fact that the play is to be presented on Friday, the 13th, of nineteen-thirteen, and that there were really and truly a slight of the work of a member of the oldest dramatic club of any college in the south.

There are a good many elements which combine to center interest on this production of the work of a member of the oldest dramatic club of any college in the south. The lead is to be taken by James M. Lynch, of Florence, S. C., whose splendor did work in serious parts. The other leads are: Clark Howell, Jr., Louis Pinkusson, of Atlanta; Alton Reed, Bennett Coynour, of Cartersville, and Charles Jacobson, of Atlanta. The feminine roles are to be taken by Miss Mary Lydon, who has directed the Thalia for several years; Miss May and Elizabeth Smith, honorary members of the club this year, and little Miss Nella Avery, a talented child in amateur plays.

PEACHTREE REPAVING URGED BY CITIZENS

The County Commissioners Will Take Up Request at Meeting on Tuesday. The question of repaving Peachtree road between Fifteenth street and Buckhead, which was set for a hearing Wednesday before the county commissioners, was ordered postponed by the body until its special meeting, called for next Tuesday, to settle the matter of paying on courthouse contracts. Peachtree road has long since become badly worn and in need of repair and for several weeks various property owners and others who daily travel the highway have been beseeching the commissioners for relief for the situation.

The matter was not taken up on the day set for a hearing has proved a disappointment to all who are concerned in it, and it is expected that when the board again takes the question up that its individual members will be urged again to take action. Traffic is Dangerous. The worst part of the roadway at present is near Buckhead and between there and the city, and in places the ruts are so badly worn as to make traffic dangerous.

The pavement between Sixth and Fifteenth streets has recently been repaved and convicts are now working on the road beyond Buckhead that extends to the county line. This work leaves the long stretch between Fifteenth street and Buckhead with a long gap far below that of other sections.

"We realize as well as any one on the road," said Commissioner W. Tom Winn, when asked for a statement, "Wednesday night in regard to the situation and the commissioners are anxious to remedy the present status of affairs. I know that the pavement of this road which is the main thoroughfare of the county is in far worse condition than that of many less important roads, and will urge that it be remedied."

The roadway is now constructed of water-bound macadam, which has been "rolled" by the city, and which has now been rendered soft and unfit for heavy or frequent travel.

New Pavement Needed. "What should be done is to put a new pavement on the road, or at least to resurface it as was done further in, but the question in my mind is, whether or not we are able to do this now, with other work we already have mapped out."

"If we can do no more at present than to remedy affairs by rolling and patching the roadway and oiling it thoroughly, I will urge that this course be taken and then next year we can give the highway a new pavement, or at least a complete resurfacing."

Behind the movement for a new pavement in keeping with the needs of Peachtree road are many of the most influential citizens and land owners in that section. They are daily urging upon the commissioners the need for action this summer.

Griffin, Ga., June 4.—(Special.)—A great amount of damage was done by a storm that has just visited this county. Lightning struck Will Moss, who was plowing in a field, killing him instantly. The Henry Starks was knocked from his porch to the ground in an unconscious condition, while part of his house roof was destroyed by lightning. For an hour or more the entire electric lighting and power system of Griffin was put out of commission.

The farming communities of the county suffered serious damage also. In the Mount Zion camp ground community a severe hail-storm was experienced, which did heavy damage to young cotton and corn, as well as ruining thousands of oats. Some of the young corn will have to be replanted, while practically all of the cotton will have to be plowed up and planted over again. This is especially true where the young cotton had been chopped. The scope of country visited by the hail-storm covers about 5,000 acres of land.

St. Louis, June 4.—Further evidence of the intention of the receivers for the St. Louis and San Francisco railroad to inaugurate a policy of strict economy was given today when one of the receivers intimated to a reporter that B. F. Yoakum would not be retained as chairman of the board.

"Mr. Yoakum now has no voice in the affairs of the road," said the receiver. "His status will be determined after we have gone over the affairs of the road with Circuit Judge Sanborn. It is possible Mr. Yoakum will be retained as chairman of the board."

It was stated here today that the receivers would save $200,000 a year by cutting salaries of high officials.

TEXAS BEGINS SUIT AGAINST OIL TRUST

Corsicana, Texas, June 4.—Investigation of books and records continued by the state of Texas in its suit to oust the Magnolia and Corsicana Petroleum companies from Texas and to penalize them and the Standard Oil companies of New York and New Jersey and certain individuals over $98,000,000. The state attorneys said they would be through with the books in six to eight days. The investigation of records was done for the information of state's attorney, and the results were not made public.

A PERFECT SIGHT WITH TETTER

Face and Hands Would Itch and Burn. All Scaly and Would Peel Off. Could Not Put Hands in Water. Cuticura Soap and Ointment Completely Cured.

Rileyville, Va.—"I was cured of tetter by Cuticura Soap and Ointment. I suffered with a burning and itching. My face and hands got full of red and white spots and would itch and burn, and after a long time they got all scaly and would peel off. I was a perfect sight. My face had ugly, scaly spots all over it; my hands would swell and cause me so much misery I could scarcely work at all. I could not put my hands in water and if I did I would suffer terribly for hours after. I could not sleep at all and was ashamed to face any of my neighbors. I suffered terribly. My face was almost a mass of sores, all scaly and cracked open. I tried all kinds of remedies but not one proved successful until a friend told me of Cuticura Soap and Ointment. I used them by directions and was completely cured in about three weeks. I had never a sign of ever returning." (Signed) Miss Mary Osterback, May 14, 1912.

Cuticura Soap 25c and Cuticura Ointment 50c are sold everywhere. Liberal sample of each mailed free, with 32-p. Skin Book. Address post-card "Cuticura, Dept. T, Boston."

RAIN BREAKS DROUGHT IN SOUTHWEST GEORGIA

Plentiful Showers in Dougherty and Thomas Put Crops in Flourishing Condition. Albany, Ga., June 4.—(Special.)—A wonderful improvement in the condition of crops in this section of the state has taken place within the last few days, the result of copious rains following a season of dry weather, which resulted in considerable damage, and was causing a good deal of uneasiness. Cotton, which thrives with a minimum of moisture, had held its own during the dry weather, and is now growing at a wonderfully rapid rate. The corn crop has improved 50 per cent, farmers declare, within the past week, and present indications are that a fine yield will be made. The acreage in corn is believed to have been considerably increased over last year in his section of the state. The oat crop, now being harvested, is one of the poorest made in recent years, and farmers are therefore more than usually concerned about the corn crop. The rains have certainly interfered with the harvesting of summer oats, this being a continuation of the run of hard luck which the crops have encountered almost from the time it was planted.

Baltimore Md., June 4.—To determine the cause of his death, the vital organs of E. O. Painter, millionaire fertilizer manufacturer of Florida, are being examined by a chemist connected with Johns Hopkins hospital. On the result of the investigation, it is said, will depend the payment of about $1,100,000 in life insurance.

Painter met his death when he fell overboard from a ferryboat on the St. Johns river about two weeks ago. Whether Painter was drowned or died from poison is the question at issue.

club women not only in Georgia, but throughout the south.

H. A. TARVER, Mayor of Albany.

Men of LaGrange Congratulate Women.

LaGrange, Ga., June 4.—(Special.)—The Woman's edition of The Constitution issued today is a credit both to the Constitution and to the women of Georgia. It demonstrates the fact that the women's clubs of the state are like the Woman's club of LaGrange—working and planning in anything they undertake. The men of LaGrange congratulate the women of Georgia over the edition, and wish for the women's clubs of Georgia the greatest year's work in their history.

J. D. BARNARD, Mayor of LaGrange.

Madison Proud of Edition.

Madison, Ga., June 4.—(Special.)—Madison is rinking with praises at the phenomenal success of The Constitution of this date, under the auspices of the club women of Georgia. Our pride and interest are accentuated by having furnished two great factors in this unparalleled success of modern journalism. We claim both the state-president, Mrs. Z. I. Fitzpatrick, and the eighth district president, Mrs. W. C. Sheppard. Madison joins the rest of the state in sincere congratulations to The Constitution and the club women of Georgia on the magnificent success of the women's club special.

R. W. ADAMS, Mayor of Madison.

THEATERS. Musical Tabloid.

(At the Bijou.)

The Bijou is drawing record audiences this week with the merry musical tabloid, "The Call of the Wild." The musical, pretty girls, up-to-date production, scenery and light effects, all go to make this attraction a remarkable one at the prices, and just the sort of warm-weather show to entertain Bijou patrons. Daily matinees at 3 o'clock, except Monday and Saturday, when there are two matinees—at 2:30 and 4. Night shows, 7:30 and 9.

Keith Vaudeville.

(At the Forsyth.)

With Lillian Shaw heading the bill and six other acts making up the program, and every one of the seven numbers a positive hit, there is little wonder that the Forsyth is being teated to its holding capacity this week. It is precisely the sort of show that has made the Forsyth one of the most popular places of amusement in the land. Headlining the bill for next week will be Rheem's Athletic Girls, a quartet of pretty maidens, who are expert in boxing, wrestling and bag-punching. This is one of the feature acts of vaudeville and should be a great drawing card. Others on the bill will be Travato, the eccentric violinist, and John and Mae Burke, in one of the cleverest comedy acts in vaudeville.

WILL NOT MERGE WITH WESLEYAN COLLEGE

LaGrange Female Trustees Deny That Absorption or Lease of School Is Contemplated.

LaGrange, Ga., June 4.—(Special.)—By action of the board of trustees of the LaGrange Female college during its session which closed Tuesday night, all negotiations looking to the leasing or merging in any way of the LaGrange Female college with Wesleyan college were called off, and a united and unanimous board decided to begin work at once looking to the enlargement and improvement of the institution, looking to the point where it will be surpassed by none in the south.

In addition to some ten or fifteen local trustees, the following out-of-town trustees were present: Dr. J. P. Wardlaw, Cordele; Rev. S. S. Beik, Atlanta; Rev. John S. Jenkins, Atlanta; Rev. Frank Baker, Atlanta; W. G. Jones, Elberton; Rev. G. W. Duvall, Marietta, and T. J. Christian, Elberton.

In regard to the negotiations which had been pending looking to the leasing or leasing of the LaGrange Female college by Wesleyan college, the board issued the following statement through Major J. M. Barnard, chairman, and Colonel A. H. Thompson, secretary:

"The board of trustees of the LaGrange Female college has just held its regular annual meeting, and authorizes the statement that the college has closed a most successful year, and that the reported lease of this institution to the board of trustees of Wesleyan Female college is not only incorrect and misleading, but that such an arrangement is not contemplated. While negotiations to that end were considered, they have now been called off and steps will be taken immediately looking to the bank endowment fund to place the LaGrange Female college in the front rank of institutions of its kind in the south. Application will also be made immediately to have the college officially recognized in the educational institutions of the south, and whatever requirements are made in order to place the institution in such class will be met."

McGaughey; M. of E., C. H. Lehman.

SELLERS CHOSEN TEMPORARY HEAD

will be named shortly and will begin at once casting about for a good man. The new prudential committee for Mercer will consist of Judge McCall and Mr. Garner, the president and secretary of the board of trustees, the new president of the university and three other members to be named by Judge McCall.

This morning, after accepting the resignation of Dr. Jameson, the board of trustees voluntarily presented him with $1,000. This was done because Dr. Jameson still had another year to serve and will be set to considerable expense because of his being asked to resign.

There were never any definite charges made either against Dr. Jameson or the members of the prudential committee, but the trouble between them had been brewing for five or six years.

It is seen that Dr. Jameson, on one side and the prudential committee on the other, did not jibe at all and were continually rubbing each other the wrong way.

They were lined up on opposite sides of every question that affected Mercer and the whole problem resolved itself into one of the trustees cleaning out both factions and putting in entirely new men.

FINANCE QUESTION.

One of the things that is said to have aided in bringing about the situation was the handling of the finances of Mercer. Three of the members of the prudential committee, Messrs. L. M. Miller, J. M. Mason and directors of the Commercial National Bank, and it is said that Dr. Jameson was not at all pleased with the fact that the funds of the college were handled exclusively by that bank. This, however, was only one of many little things which, coupled with Dr. Jameson's attitude relative to the Mercer removal question, made it necessary for the faculty to take drastic action.

Dr. S. J. Jameson today tendered to the board of trustees his resignation as president. The prudential committee of the university, with the exception of its constitutional members, also resigned. The resignations were in response to a resolution adopted by the trustees at a meeting held last night.

It is said the disagreement between Dr. Jameson and the trustees was augmented by the president's action in regard to fraternal organizations at the university and by alleged ruptures with members of the faculty.

MANY NAMES SUGGESTED.

After receiving the resignations of the president and the prudential committee this morning, the board of trustees this afternoon began consideration of a possible successor to Dr. Jameson. A number have been mentioned, including Dr. E. C. Dargan, of Macon; Rev. John E. Kirk, of Savannah; Mr. L. B. Brittain, state school commissioner; Professor E. T. Holmes, president of Gordon institute, at Barnesville; and Judge T. A. Parker, of Waycross.

It is possible, however, that none of these will be accepted and the trustees may go outside the state for the new president. It was stated some time ago that if Dr. Jameson resigned with a national reputation as an educator, one who would be able to give Mercer a higher standing than it now enjoys.

JAMESON'S FAREWELL ADDRESS.

This morning when Dr. Jameson had completed his farewell address in chapel he was given an ovation.

"The news of my resignation will cause pleasure to some and sorrow to others," said Dr. Jameson, in addressing the student body. "For myself, I can gladly take both sides by the hand, even though unwillingly to the bosom. I am glad and sorry to leave.

"It is needless to say that I have not made blunders. Most people do, but some—very, very few—do not. Unfortunately, I belong to the larger class—that class which does blunder at times.

"I do not know whether I will remain in Georgia. I have not decided yet what I will do. I do not intend to leave the state, you know, though some people would love to have me go. But no matter where I go I will always be at the call of Mercer and you boys whenever I am needed. Whatever the differences may have been between myself and others (I love you all with all my heart. Some of you do not agree with me, but I love you just the same and I leave your institution with no ill-will in my heart).

"May God bless you. May He bless every student and friend of Mercer. May He bless you all and bless you abundantly. Be true to Him and be true to man. Good-bye."

Do the Youngsters Read the Advertisements?

Indeed they do—some of them. That is, some of the advertisements.

Every real boy is interested in outdoor sport—baseball, tennis, walking, running, boating, fishing, swimming, and everything else that the summer season brings along.

He needs ever so many things—and he buys at such stores as advertise in papers like THE CONSTITUTION.

And he, too, is interested in advertising.

For girls like to play tennis; they like canoeing; they love bathing, walking, riding and all other forms of healthy outdoor life.

All of which means that they must have suitable toggery, and that they will buy from merchants who cater suitably to their needs.

It will pay merchants at this season to dwell upon the requirements of young people, and it will likewise pay young people to follow the advertising of local merchants.

A tip in time saves money.

RECRUITING STATION RAIDED BY OFFICERS

Soldiers and Prize Fighters Are Arrested on Disorderly Conduct Charges.

Uncle Sam's soldiers were caught off their guard when Detectives Pittman and Carter raided the recruiting station last night, arrested several of the men, some of them in uniform, and preferred charges of disorderly conduct against them.

The soldiers were engaged in sundry games, it is charged, and little expected the surprise which awaited them in their arrest. Among those men against whom charges were preferred was J. R. Haralson, who just enlisted in the army on Wednesday; W. G. Saunders, John Buttman, Elmer Petty, A. Silverman, J. M. Mason, Lewis Levy and Kid Young.

BISHOP CANDLER OPENS CORDELE CHAUTAUQUA

Cordele, Ga., June 4.—(Special.)—The Cordele chautauqua opened this morning under most auspicious circumstances. In compliance with Mayor Heador's proclamation, declaring a half holiday, all of the business houses were closed and an audience that filled to overflowing the immense chautauqua auditorium heard the opening sermon by Bishop Warren A. Candler, declared to be on the most powerful discourses ever delivered here. Dr. Frederick A. Cook, in his lecture "My Conquest of the North Pole" will be heard by many out-of-town people tomorrow evening.

Eat This Food During Summer

Be careful what you eat during hot weather. What you need is food that nourishes but does not heat the body.

Faust Spaghetti fits right into that class. It is a high gluten food—a bone, muscle and flesh former—but contains practically no fat, therefore cannot heat the body.

FAUST SPAGHETTI

makes a savory, appetizing dish. It can be served in a great many ways that appeal to the palate. It is easily prepared—it makes a nutritious, non-heating meal during the summer. Write for free recipe book, "Spaghetti and Its Uses." Faust Spaghetti put up in air-tight, moisture-proof packages.

REPORTS of games in some of the small Georgia towns have been reported incorrectly during the past two weeks. The party on which have been making a practice of reporting the results of their games in error are doing the reliable reporters in error.

SECOND TIME. RUBEN BUSH, the New Orleans soft ball star, turned in the low medal score on Tuesday and in so doing has the honor of being low medalist two years. In 1911, when the tournament was held in Nashville, Bush led the field.

ATLANTA OFFICIAL. GEORGE ADAM, one of the local golf cranks, was elected vice president of the Georgia Golf Association at the meeting Tuesday night and is receiving the congratulations of his many friends. Memphis beat us out in the 1914 tournament which will be held in the Blue City.

ATLANTA IN GUIDE. THE GOLFING world of Atlanta is represented fully in the 1913 Official Spalding's Golf Guide, which is just from the press. Three papers written by the Constitution's sporting editor and six photos of Atlanta players appear in the guide and a good story about the Southern Golf Association, with a photo of the former champions.

ANOTHER COMEBACK. THE ORIGINAL comeback of them all is Helme Peitz. The other day when all the Cardinals' catchers were laid up with injuries Peitz took his place behind the platter and caught like he used to in the '90's, when he was a star. He pitched to the bases beautifully, drove out a triple and scored one of his team's two runs.

RECORD BREAKERS. WHO jumped on poor old Walter Johnson and stopped his consecutive record of the Browns. Who broke Cleveland's winning streak—the Browns. Who—and you could go on indefinitely. They are not good for much else but as record breakers they are in a class by themselves.

HOUSE OF JOHNSON. ONE NAME that is causing them to sit up and take notice this season in the baseball world is Johnson or to make it more thorough Johnson, Walter Smoke Ball Johnson of Washington; Indian Johnson of Cincinnati; John Johnson, the pool man of the American league; Doc Johnson of Cleveland, and Jack Johnson of St. Louis are all cutting up.

VIVE LA FRANCE. THE FRENCH have taken their place in the front ranks of sportsmen lately. Of course there is the great Frenchman, Roger Lenoir, but lately France sprang into prominence by Goux winning the international sweepstakes in his Peugeot, and Carpenter stopping Bombardier Weils.

MADISON WINS TWO. Madison, Ga., June 4.—(Special.)—Madison made a clean sweep of the series with Lithonia team today by winning a double-header the first, 3 to 1, and the second, 3 to 1. Madison has a fine team and will make it interesting to all comers. Emory college team plays here tomorrow and Friday.

TIE ON WEDNESDAY—LOOKOUTS HERE TODAY

Rain Brings Game to Close With Count Standing 2 to 2; Dent Deserved a Victory

By Dick Jemison. The Crackers and the Billikens played a 2 to 2 tie Wednesday afternoon in an endeavor to play off the postponed game of Saturday, which was broken up by a storm, but rain butted into the festivities again. The Billikens had been retired in their half of the eighth in one, two, three order, when the rain put the pastime to an end for the rest of the afternoon, the score reverting to the seventh and even innings.

Only one run of the four scored was earned. This was a home-run smash by Walker in the opening session. The rest were directly attributed to errors.

But despite the errors the fielding was excellent afterwards, the infielders of both sides, especially Bisland and Alpermann, for the Crackers, and Knaupp and Manning, for Montgomery, handled some hard-hit chances in excellent style.

The Crackers tied it in their half. Long got a life on Manning's error of his lap, was sacrificed to second by Welchone, and when Manning threw badly to the Rabbit kept on to third, scoring on Alpermann's pinch swing to left.

The Crackers took the lead in the fourth. Bisland, first up, cracked a bludge to left, went to third on a wild pitch and scored when Chapman hit to Wares and the latter's throw was too late to the plate to get Bisland.

Chapman has the honor of making the first Cincinnati hit on the local grounds since the institution of the rule by President Kavanaugh. The Billikens tied it in the seventh, when, with one on, Kutina drew a free ticket; Jantzen hit in front of the plate and Chapman pegged the ball to the right field bank, Kutina scoring and Jantzen going to third. The latter was thrown out trying to steal home.

No umpires were hired for the game, and none were assigned, so George Robe, for the Crackers, and Bagby, for the Billikens, acted as umpires. In this connection, we recommend to President Kavanaugh that he fire two members of his present staff and appoint Robe and Bagby their officials.

The players kicked a little, which is only a habit, after all, but on a no hit single decision did they have a holier coming.

Cubs 5, Doves 0. Chicago, June 4.—Daring base running, coupled with bunched hits today enabled Chicago to shut out Boston, the first of the eastern teams to invade this city, 5 to 0.

Reds 4, Dodgers 3. Cincinnati, June 4.—Cincinnati went into seventh place in the pennant race today by defeating Brooklyn 4 to 3 and Boston losing to Chicago.

Italians Ruler. Rome, June 4.—King Victor Emmanuel, with his principal aide-camp, General Ugo Brusati, today made a flight in a military dirigible balloon at the army flying grounds at Bracciano.

Georgia-Alabama. Opelika, Ala., June 4.—(Special.)—Opelika defeated Gadsden in a pitchers' battle 1 to 0.

Newnan 4, Lagrange 0. Lagrange, Ga., June 4.—(Special.)—A double-header was played in Lagrange today between the Crackers and Newnan.

Tabasco Kid's Lookouts Play Locals at Poncey; Musser Twirls Opener

Norman ("Tabasco Kid") Eberfeld and his Chattanooga Lookouts will be the attraction at Ponce de Leon park today, Friday and Saturday, a series of games that promises to be as closely played as it will be interesting.

SOUTH ATLANTIC. Scouts 5, Peaches 3. Macon, Ga., June 4.—When Voss hit Hawkins, the second man to face him in the first inning today, he started a mess of trouble that left him the game, 5 to 3.

Waycross 7, Thomasville 4. Waycross, Ga., June 4.—(Special.)—Waycross hit when hits counted today, defeating Thomasville 7 to 4.

Cordele 12, Brunswick 4. Brunswick, Ga., June 4.—(Special.)—In decidedly the poorest played game of the season, Cordele defeated Brunswick 12 to 4.

Valdosta 5, Americus 0. Americus, Ga., June 4.—(Special.)—Valdosta copped the series here by taking the game this afternoon, shutting out Americus by score of 5 to 0.

MIKE MURPHY GOES TO BEYOND

Great Trainer Passed Away Wednesday Morning—Was in Charge of America's Olympic Teams.

Philadelphia, June 4.—(Special.)—Mike Murphy, famous as a developer of athletes, died shortly after 3 o'clock this morning. Death was due to a complication of diseases. Never a robust man, Mike Murphy had been practically dying for the past fifteen years. About eight years ago he was at death's door, but he pulled through and was later able to render great service in his chosen calling.

AMERICAN POLO TEAM IS NAMED

New York, June 4.—The American Polo association announced this afternoon the following line-up of the American team which will defend the international cup at Meadowbrook next Tuesday.

No. 1—L. E. Stoddard.
No. 2—Devereaux Milburn.
No. 3—Foxhall Keene.
No. 4—Malcolm Stevenson.
A more sweeping change in the line-up of the cup defenders could hardly have been made. Not only have three members of the crack team of 1911 been entirely eliminated from this year's team, but Devereaux Milburn has been shifted from back to No. 2.

WILL OF MRS. DODD FOUGHT BY RELATIVES

They Declare That She Was Laboring Under an Insane Delusion.

Claiming that the late Mrs. Barbara C. Dodd, who, by her will, left a $100,000 bequest to Mercer university and smaller donations to other institutions, labored under an insane delusion which amounted to a monomania, seven of her relatives filed yesterday with the ordinary of Fulton county, their caveats objecting to the petition of Charles E. Currier, the executor, who is seeking to have the will probated.

2 FRENCH JOURNALISTS FIGHT BLOODLESS DUEL

Paris, June 4.—A duel was fought today by leading literary men of Paris, Paul Hervieu, the academicien, or "Imperialist," offended by a critical paragraph which appeared in the Action Francaise, had challenged Leon Daudet, the chief editor of that paper, and the couple met at the Cafe Paris. Four shots were exchanged, but neither was hit. A reconciliation was brought about.

TOURNEY SPLITS INTO SIX FLIGHTS

Montgomery, Ala., June 4.—Today's play, which brought out several sensational features, brought the tournament of the Southern Golf association to the stage of the various flights, play in which begins at 8 o'clock tomorrow morning. Only the local men remain in the championship flight.

The greatest game of the day was that of Seiden, of Macon, and Ward, of Birmingham, the former coming from behind, trying his opponent at the eighteenth hole and winning out on the nineteenth. Jacoby disappointed a big gallery by losing his first hole to Tyson, but showed excellent form thereafter, winning easily.

MEXICAN REBELS TAKE MATAMORAS

Federal Defenders, Without Ammunition and Unofficered, Slip Away, Leaving Constitutionals in Control.

Brownsville, Texas, June 4.—The city of Matamoras, an important border port of entry, fell into the hands of Mexican constitutionalists today without further fighting or with little desperate fighting which characterized the long struggle yesterday.

Exclusive "More Mileage" advantages in Diamond Tires that cost no more

The greatest mileage at the least expense is what you most desire in a tire.

This is what we have demanded from our Chemists, our Engineers, our Tire Builders and factory experts—and here is their answer—

Diamond (No Clinch) Tires

Chemists: Vitalized Rubber—pure; lustrous, young rubber put through a process that toughens and makes it road-resisting, with no loss of life or elasticity.

Engineers: Perfect 3-Point Rim Contact, that prevents all forms of rim troubles, such as cutting against the rim and breaking above the bead.

Tire Builders: A No-Clinch more air-tight tire, giving added resiliency and perfect balanced construction.

Then we protected the inner tube with a No-Pinch Safety Flap.

And, best of all, these exclusive Diamond advantages cost you no more. They insure liberal mileage and freedom from tire troubles.

So this time buy Diamond Vitalized Rubber Tires—you can get them to fit your rims at any of the

25,000 Diamond Dealers always at your Service

COTTON MADE ADVANCE FROM 3 TO 9 POINTS

Liverpool Was Better Than Due and There Was Continental Buying.

New York, June 4.—The cotton market was quiet today, but prices just about recovered yesterday's loss, and the close was steady at a net advance of from 3 to 9 points.

The opening was steady at an advance of 1 point on August, but generally to 1 1/2 points lower than yesterday's closing, which was encouraged by a favorable view of weather conditions and the bearish average of private crop accounts.

London, June 4.—Cotton market was moderately depressed today by bearish crop and weather news, and by the downward movement of prices in the stock market.

House of Representatives connections were credited with selling here by balance during the day and the talk around the ring suggested a bearish average of local sentiment, but offerings were at no time very heavy or aggressive.

New Orleans Cotton.

New Orleans, June 4.—The cotton market was moderately depressed today by bearish crop and weather news, and by the downward movement of prices in the stock market.

On the opening, the tone was steady and prices were 3 to 11 points down. Moderate covering came out on the first call and a little later the increase of showers in the Gulf and the fact that prices had increased at the market.

Cotton Region Bulletin.

Atlanta, June 4.—For the 24 hours ending 8 a. m. 75th meridian time.

Table with columns for STATIONS, DISTRICT, and various weather metrics like temperature, humidity, and wind.

Heavy Rains.

Alabama—Birmingham, 1.42; Georgia—Fort Gaines, 1.00; Louisiana—Baton Rouge, 1.60.

Paris Rainfall.

Clarendon, 0.18; Paris, 0.04; Milledge, 0.21; Lookdale, 0.00.

Remarks.

Shattered showers are reported from all except New Orleans district. Temperatures are somewhat lower throughout the belt.

Minimum temperatures are for 12-hour period ending at 4 a. m. 75th meridian time.

Maximum temperatures are for 12-hour period ending at 4 p. m. 75th meridian time.

Notes.

The average highest and lowest temperatures are made up at each center from the actual number of reports received.

Percentage of precipitation from the number of stations reporting 0.10 inch or more. The "state of weather" is that prevailing at time of observation.

WHEAT PRICES FELL ON BREAK IN STOCKS

Market Closed Nervous and Seven-Eighths to One and Three-Eighths Off.

Chicago, June 4.—Wheat prices tumbled today mainly because of the break in the stock market.

Wheat prices at first were higher, but new investment demands were soon satisfied, and when owners evinced a tendency to realize on holdings, the market balked.

Corn reacted with wheat, after touching the highest level of the season. The early advance was due chiefly to covering by related shorts.

COFFEE.

New York, June 4.—Coffee futures opened barely steady at a decline of 23 to 25 points, under renewed selling for both local and foreign account.

DECLINE IN STOCKS DUE TO LIQUIDATION

Market Was Flooded With Selling Orders at Its Opening. Bonds Weak.

New York, June 4.—Liquidation on a large scale, together with a series of bear drives, caused a severe disturbance in the stock market during the first half of today's session.

The initial downward impulse came from London, where American securities were depressed substantially in some instances before the opening here.

Further decline in stocks today led to the calling off loans, and while the effect upon the money market has not been pronounced, bankers predicted stiffer rates before the end of the month.

Opinions

SOME STRONG FRIENDS OF THE ATLANTA NATIONAL BANK have claimed that the increasing popularity of this old established institution is due to the unvarying conservatism with which all their business is transacted.

MACON COPS FIRED FOR GETTING DRUNK

Macon, Ga., June 4.—(Special).—Because they looked too long upon the wine, while it was red, two Macon policemen today found themselves without beats to walk. They were Thomas Middleton and W. N. Shinholser, the latter one of the veterans of the local force.

CHARGES LAWYERS SUBSIDIZE PRESS

Macon, Ga., June 4.—(Special).—Indicative of his feelings with reference to the attacks which have been made upon him by the "muckrakers," Judge Emory Speer, of the United States district court, in addressing the Mercer law class graduates this afternoon, said: "I have looked with growing misapprobation on the tendency of the lawyers of today to subsidize the newspaper reporters. This practice is in effect throughout the country, and I want to caution you in this regard. You will find in the end that the lawyer must stand on his own merit after all the populace watches your actions in the courtroom, and each time that you are prominently mentioned in the press they will begin to suspect a motive for the mention of your name. And don't be afraid of the muckraker. Do you know what a muckraker is? He is a newspaper liar. They are everywhere. They seek to damage you, to lie about you, to overthrow you."

CALLS TOBACCO DECREE OBVIOUS SUBTERFUGE

Washington, June 4.—Attorney General McReynolds today declared that he always had regarded the final decree intended to dissolve the tobacco trust as an obvious subterfuge and a subterfuge of justice, and if there were any proper and just way by which he could cure the evil he would do it. As an immediate step he is considering proposing to congress a graduated excise tax on tobacco manufactures.

PIONEER WOMEN GIVE PICNIC AND DANCE VIRGINIA REEL

MRS. MARTHA LUMPKIN COMPTON. Now of Decatur, from whom Atlanta took her former name, "Marthaville." MRS. JULIA CARLYLE WITHERS. The first baby born at "Terminus," Atlanta's first name.

Belles and beaux of the sixties and seventies and a few even of the fifties picnicked yesterday at the hospitable home of Mrs. V. P. Sisson in Kirkwood and maids and matrons of today, a few favored ones, joined in and shared the day's happiness. It was the annual outdoor meeting of the Pioneer Women's society, and at the invitation of Mrs. Sisson, one of the loveliest of the members, they spread at long tables on her wide front lawn their elaborate luncheon, while fruit punch, ice cream and coffee were served from near-by tables under the trees.

Athens, Home of Mrs. White, Enthuses Over Woman's Edition

Athens, Ga., June 4.—(Special).—The mammoth edition of The Constitution which reached Athens this morning was greeted by exclamations of surprise and delight for though the Athens people, where the late president of the Women's club, Mrs. Ella F. White, made her home from the time she became a bride till her death, were expecting a great paper, they were overwhelmed with the handsome 126-page edition. Not only did the women who did such splendid work come in for the praise, but the management of the paper who made the enterprise possible, received unstinted commendation for their generous treatment of the project.

City Federation to Hold Annual Meeting Friday

The city federation will hold its annual meeting on Friday, June 6. The morning session at 10:30 will be devoted to reports of the clubs, and the afternoon session at 3 p. m. to civic organizations. The federation has grown in the fourteen years of its existence until today it includes almost every philanthropic, ethical and civic movement in Atlanta, numbering in all 84 organizations.

Classroom Shop Work Exhibit Given by Tech High School

The Technological High school of Atlanta yesterday held for the benefit of the eighth grade school graduates an exhibit of class room shop work in woodcraft and metal, which it is claimed, is unsurpassed by any technological high school in the south. Principal C. S. Culver says he finds nothing that resembles a home in a thirty-third year, but quite the opposite. The year 1913 found this high school ending with a banner year that has been unsurpassed by its annual records since its installation in 1908.
