JAPAN TO TURN CHINA INTO A BATTLEGROUND

It is Proposed to Plant Strong Japanese Garrisons All Over China.

London, September 29.—A Peking dispatch to the Daily Telegraph says that Japan is preparing to make China a battleground. Her rivalry with Russia was not ended by the late war. No Russo-Japanese agreements whatever exist covering Mongolia or other states quibbling in the Far East. The Japanese policy is to plant garrisons all over China by establishing without territorial leases, thereby maintaining the integrity of China by forestalling others. At Hankow the government of 2,000 men will be retained. Another probably will be planted at Peking. Special Japanese concessions for the railway will be retained at Nanking, which policy will be retained in Chinese waters. There will be no danger to British interests in China under the new policy.

AMERICAN COTTON WANTED BY JAPAN

San Francisco, September 29.—Because of the rapidly increasing trade between the United States and Japan, a shortage of trans-Pacific vessels is experienced by the Mitsui company of this city, who has just returned from Japan. Japan will become the greatest purchaser of cotton and other raw materials in the world, said Nagashima today. Last year Japan imported 2,000,000 bales of cotton. This year she will import 3,000,000. The development of China and Manchuria is being advanced by the Japanese. An era of industrial activity without parallel in the history of the world is started. The empire is one great work shop. Labor is plentiful and the material is secure. It will not be many years before Japan will become the United States' biggest purchaser of cotton.

The priest's answers were all correct. The priest's brain is brought to a point which is not made known. Kirby and other alienists will suggest the man further tomorrow and their report is expected to be given Mr. Whitman by next Monday.

TURKEY AND BULGARIA UNITE AGAINST GREECE

Greece Must Yield or Fight the United Bulgarian and Turkish Armies.

Constantinople, September 29.—The treaty of peace between Turkey and Bulgaria was signed by the plenipotentiaries of the two nations. The menacing language of the newspapers representing the Turkish military element which now practically occupies the government saddle, confirms the uncompromising attitude adopted by Turkey in demands upon Greece. One paper says: "Greece is bound to yield on the question of the islands in the Aegean sea before the united Bulgarian and Turkish armies."

TO SETTLE PARENTAGE OF AN INCUBATOR BABY

Washington, September 29.—One of the anxious cases to come before the supreme court during the session which opens in a few days is one in which the court will be called upon to determine the parentage of an "incubator baby" viewed by thousands at the Louisiana Purchase Exposition at St. Louis. Lottie Bleakley, of Topeka, Kan., claims to be the mother of the two-month-old child, which she says she found in the streets of Topeka. She has sought possession of the child, now nine months old and appears before the court as a prosecuting witness against the woman who is charged with having kidnapped the girl from her home in Topeka. Mrs. Bleakley claims that the child was her own, but that she had a few days after it was born.

CHINESE LOAN PACT HAS BEEN DISSOLVED

London, September 29.—The British government announced today the dissolution of the Chinese loan pact from which the United States withdrew. The pact, which was signed in 1911, had not worked to the satisfaction of the United States. The pact provided for a loan of $50,000,000 to the Chinese government. The British government took the initiative in its dissolution. It is explained because of the failure of the pact to provide for the interests of the United States. They had made of the agreement simply a loan to the Chinese government. The pact was not to be a loan to the Chinese government, but a loan to the Chinese people. The pact was not to be a loan to the Chinese government, but a loan to the Chinese people.

MEN AND RELIGION BULLETIN NO. 79

You Should Vote

"Choose you this day whom you will serve." —Johnes 24:15

The population of Los Angeles is 819,198. It has grown by leaps and bounds.

One of that city's newspapers, under date of July 6th, 1913, said:

"March, 1909, Alexander became Mayor and has held the office continuously since that date.

"Since that day the city has had clean, honest government—

"It is probable that in this period of law enforcement the population of the city has doubled.

"Never has there been such uninterrupted activity in building. In the fiscal year ending June 30th, 1909, 7,644 building permits were issued, called for construction valued at $11,187,684. In the fiscal year that ended last Monday (July, 1913) 17,568 permits were issued, and the value of construction called for by them was $34,662,511.

"DECENCY IN GOVERNMENT PAYS—

"The lugubrious prophecies of the apologists and defenders of vice, who fought for the continuance of the old immoralities, for protection, for a wide open town, for toleration of debauchery, because it was good for business, were proved to be false prophecies.

"Never in all the history of the city has business made such strides as during these four years of law enforcement.

"Never have the banks made greater gains in strength—

"A local savings bank presented a biennial comparative statement—

"In 1909 it had resources amounting to $23,980,670. After four years of honest, clean municipal administration, of enforcement of the law, of repression of those vices for which toleration had been demanded by apologists for vice, the resources of that same bank total $46,638,811."

On the wall of the office of Mayor Alexander hung this motto:

"Except the Lord keep the city, the watchman waketh in vain."

The same Los Angeles newspaper added:

"The city should remember the beginning of the verse—

"Except the Lord build the house, they labor in vain that build it."

SEATTLE HAS 237,194 INHABITANTS.

Like Los Angeles, it is another city whose name means business, growth and prosperity.

Gill was elected its Mayor on the "wide open town ticket." Soon it was rumored that the very Chief of Police had an interest in a gambling hell. One enterprising citizen started building a two hundred room house in the segregated district.

GILL WAS RECALLED and thrown out of office. The pimps and panderers were driven out of the city. Gill tried to come back. He was again defeated.

Seattle is still growing. Three years ago her people recognized that decency meant progress.

Fifth and foul odors always mean decay and death.

Let us have none in Atlanta.

As one who loves your city and your Maker, you should vote tomorrow without fail.

Ask no candidate: "How do you stand?"

But vote for no one until you know who is supporting him. Find this out.

THEN VOTE AS YOUR CONSCIENCE BIDS YOU.

If you believe that God wishes to re-establish and maintain in Atlanta brotherhood which depend for their existence upon the betrayal of girls, vote for those supported by the men who have tried to hamper and hamstring your Chief of Police in doing his duty.

If you believe that God wishes to destroy an honest official and enthroned Judas, vote for the crowd that is camping on the trail of Chief Beavers.

But, if you believe that God would reward fidelity to duty; if you believe that He would have you and your children live in a city that is clean, and with foundations not built upon the suffering of others, vote for those who are opposed by the men who believe in the licensed brothel and seek a Chief of Police who would be false to his oath of office.

YOUR DUTY DEMANDS THAT YOU VOTE.

Tomorrow is a critical day in your city and in your life.

"Choose you whom you will serve."

THOMSON RAPS BRASELTON. Says Braselton Is Talking About a Business Administration and Is Not Even a Registered Voter. To the People of Atlanta: Up to this time, as a candidate for Alderman from the Fourth Ward, I have refrained from personalities with reference to my opponent, Mr. Amos W. Braselton. It is not now my intention to criticize him personally. But, inasmuch as he saw fit to make the remark in yesterday morning's Constitution that my supporters are the "ring politicians" and "petty politicians," or words to that effect, I feel justified in calling the public's attention to two facts. First—Mr. Braselton has not paid his City taxes for 1912, there being now a fine against him in the City Marshal's office. Second—His name is not on the registration list for the City Primary to be held today, September 30th. In other words, he cannot even vote in the Primary in which he is a candidate. In view of these facts, isn't it rather poor taste for him to make disparaging remarks about the citizens who are supporting my candidacy? Isn't it rather remarkable for Mr. Braselton to appeal for votes on the platform of a "business administration," when, as a citizen and a business man, his interest in the City Government is not sufficient to induce him to pay his City taxes? Isn't it rather "nervy" for Mr. Braselton to ask for the votes of citizens who PAID for the privilege of voting when he did not think enough of that privilege to pay himself? Mr. Braselton advocates raising the pay of policemen—which is not a bad idea. But if other citizens refused to contribute to the support of the City Government as he has done, there wouldn't be enough money in the City Treasury to pay their present salaries, or any other expenses of the City Government. IN THE SOUTH OR NOWHERE.
The leaders of the southern negroes may profitably give heed to the counsel of Dr. Randolph Churchill of England, when, speaking recently to an audience of negroes at the Big Bethel auditorium in Atlanta, he told them that the best place for the negro is the southern states.

Several years ago he spent several months in the Congo, where he came in contact with the negro in his original state. He has observed the negro in the artificial environment of England. Recently, he has been visiting the east and the middle west, probing the attitude of the white population toward the negro.

The Constitution has uniformly taken the same view. At the same time, we have not hesitated to admonish the negro, as a race, that unless he made better progress toward fitting himself for the tasks that lie in his hand his opportunity for participation in the economic scheme of the south would be jeopardized.

That fact alone has been the basis of the Constitution's insistence that education and training must be directed not alone toward the one among the negroes, but toward the ninety and nine at the same time.

The tremendous destiny that awaits the ninety and nine negroes in the country and in the cities is now being only partially fulfilled, for the simple reason that the ninety and nine have not been equipped in viewpoint, mind, morals or handicraft to materialize that destiny.

More than the intelligent leader of the negroes is awaking to this fact, as to the fact emphasized by Dr. Churchill that the south offers the best opportunities for the race. But the bulk of the race must be made to see the truth and to act upon it.

NEGLECTING THE PAWN.
To outline a general "city cotton crop" and to standardize the cotton bale are the twin objects of several bills now being considered by the house committee on interstate commerce.

The irrepressible baling of the American cotton crop has long been a source of concern to the intelligent cotton grower.

PARNELL AND THE PIGOTT LETTERS

Many readers will recall the sensation created by the so-called Pigott letters which were published in London during the year 1887.

On April 18 the Times published a facsimile letter purporting to have the signature of James Parnell in which Parnell was accused and condemned.

Several years prior to the publication of this letter there was in Ireland a Richard Pigott who was the proprietor of a newspaper called 'The Irishman.'

FLOOD OF QUESTIONS REGARDING INCOME TAX

Queries Are Being Prepared by the Treasury Department. Blanks to Be Sent Out.

Washington, September 29.—The treasury department is preparing for a flood of questions concerning the new income tax, resulting from the fact that the law strikes more intimately at the tax-paying citizen than do the indirect taxes collected through customs duties.

One of the first steps taken to get general information before the public will be to distribute income tax blanks through postoffices, internal revenue offices and other federal agencies.

However, the fact that he does not receive a blank or a request to pay the tax will not exempt a taxable person from the penalties of the law.

Representative C. H. Smith, of Tennessee, who drew the income tax provision of the tariff bill today made public a detailed explanation of the tax plan as it will touch the individual citizen.

"The treasury regulations soon to be prepared will make clear to every taxpayer the requirements of the law and its application to income derived from the various sources," he said.

Mr. Hull, "any person who keeps familiar with his business affairs during the year should have no difficulty in executing his tax return."

Divided into Two Phases.—The income tax is divided into two phases, the normal tax of one per cent on the whole income, and the additional tax that begins with an extra one per cent on the income in excess of $1,000.

Whereas the normal tax is paid to the source by a corporation for its employees or to an individual for himself, the provisions of the law requiring the tax to be withheld at the source do not take effect until November 1, 1913.

"For the first year the citizen will make returns to the collector living here or abroad, those of foreigners living in the United States and income from property owned or business carried on in the United States by persons living abroad."

The net income includes all income from salaries or any compensation for services rendered in personal, professional or domestic occupations, and dividends and securities from all lawful business carried on for gain.

Gifts, Bequests, Life Insurance.—"Gifts or bequests will not be considered income, but the amount paid to a beneficiary or returned to the insured person as a beneficiary of a life insurance policy is taxable."

Income, however, is not such property as may be deducted from a total income includes the cost of carrying on the business, including depreciation allowance and tax exempt interest on bonds and securities, which cannot be deducted, nor can money received or permitted to accumulate in property.

Form that is to be filled out by taxpayers will be prepared by the American legation of internal revenue. The tax payers will receive five or six green revenue stamps which claim the deductions to which they are entitled.

There is no question as to the fact that a tax blank will be sent out and that it will be filled out by the individual in his district before March 1, 1914.

Persons having the handling of interests, rents, dividends, interest on bonds and any other income are compelled to pay to the government.

The individual who has a receipt showing he has paid his tax.

You Can't Afford to Miss It! "Ready Money" Is Great Show

If you haven't got but two bits before yourself and bankruptcy take it. "Ready Money" is the greatest show in Atlanta. It is a good investment, even if you are poor.

One quarter of a silver dollar represents the money of the "Ready Money" show, which is a certain year's fortune and a wife for himself in addition to his friends to the good luck.

The story of how he does it, or to be more literal perhaps, how it is done to him, forms one of the most laughable plays ever seen in Atlanta, not forgetting "The House of Mirth" and "The House of Mirth."

New Year's eve in New York, at just fifteen minutes to midnight, finds Stephen Baird, owner of the "Sky Rocket" mine, facing the prospect of holding up his end at a dinner with a bunch of millionaire men, his best girl begging him to take her home in a taxi cab, and a fortune of $100,000 in gold mine stock up at 25 cents.

Imagine yourself in this fix, and you are fortunate enough not to be, and trying to conceal it while all your friends are urging you to join in properly celebrating the close of a prosperous year, and the advent of your best girl with a man after you, and a fortune of $100,000 in gold mine stock up at 25 cents.

That's what James Montgomery has done in "Ready Money," but to tell exactly how would be well-telling. Go see for yourself.

From the time the curtain rises on this play there is a dull moment. One laugh simply crowds the last one out of our heads.

And with "Ready Money" is well sprinkled with emotional climaxes and it is to laugh.

Corbett Morris as Stephen Baird last night won himself a following in Atlanta that was assured by his welcome here by his own production, "The House of Mirth," at the Metropolitan theatre, which is the play, its production and the quality of the leading characters.

"Ready Money" will be at the Atlanta theatre, multiple and twice a week.

"Little Boy Blue"

One of the best productions that we have seen in Atlanta is the new production of "Little Boy Blue" at the Metropolitan theatre. It was a comedy given in Europe and was secured by Mr. Savage after he had witnessed its presentation in Paris, Berlin and Vienna—each of which cities it was a sensation. "Little Boy Blue" was written by Paul Schaefer and Carl Hagen, who produced the book and directed the play. It was presented by A. E. Thomas and Edward Gordon and was a tremendous hit last season in New York when it was offered by Mr. Savage at the Lyric theatre. The cast is headed by Mr. Savage, who is a star.

"Robin Hood"

The meeting scene will be placed on all the Atlanta theatres for the management of "Robin Hood" which will be given by the DeKoven Opera company with a grand opera cast. This famous light opera will be played Friday and Saturday and will be one of the big events of the season. The advertisement is as follows:

"Sold for Money"

People who want to "buy" Monday night with that "Oh, I oughtn't to go" expression and expect to see in "Sold for Money" a laying bare of the sordid details of white slavery, was sadly mistaken. The show is clean and there's not more than a mention of the "white slave" family, the head of which, by the way, is a Pittsburg millionaire with a part, whose wife and daughter are trying hard to be real "respectable." One method they take of helping the family ascension in society is to have the daughter marry a young broker, who, about the time this is being accomplished, the mother of the family, a dancing girl, who, his family supposed, is the mother of the child, who is the show in the way in which the newly-wedded couple are treated when they find she is not wealthy.

After a series of incidents, some of which are humorous and many interesting, the play ends with the girl, threatened with jail by her father, is sold to the girl.

Mrs. Claudia Lucas takes the part of the girl who is sold. She is a very good actress and her performance is quite as much to be said for Robert Lucas as the actress. Mr. S. Barrett, as a "promoter," furnishes a wholesome humor that is refreshing. His ideas of life and of honor, and his contempt for the "big game" he plays with the police and detective industry, are a most refreshing change.

There's a pretty ending to the play and several parts are full of humor during the week at the Lyric.

Keith Vaudeville

At the Vaudeville, the Keith Vaudeville troupe will be a mighty hard man to please who doesn't find something to like at the Vaudeville theatre. The work for these acts of every kind, and the majority of them are top-notch in their line.

The following lithographs have told the truth in giving first place—by site of place—to Joseph Jefferson's company in "Poor Old Jim." Here is a treat, and one of more offered Atlanta this year.

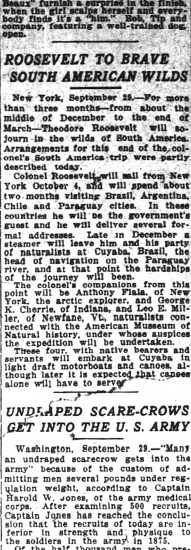

There is humor in every line—there's a laugh in every situation—and the three people who appear before the footlights are deserving of the highest encomiums for the finish of their work.

The sketch tells the story of a young man addicted to the clubs, and to drink; of a wife who is loving and patient; of a doctor friend, husband and finally the wife and the doctor decide to pretend he is dead and make him believe it, if possible, some time here he had seen a play called "Dead Man's Shoes" or some such name, and it had made a great impression upon him, so when his fellow actors begin talking about him as if he were dead, he soon imagines himself a ghost.

An old friend, "Lover," two old friends in "Lover," a "Lover" and Frank Otto. Lola is one of the daintiest performers in the line of make-believe today, and it is hard to keep your eyes off her. This leads up to Otto's clever line, "Who don't you look at me when I smile." It's the old soldier Piddler who made a big hit here on their first appearance with us again, and as popular as ever. Apart from a sentimental interlude, their show is worth while.

Clara Van and Joe Scherer, who had the crowd right with them in the afternoon, May Wirth and company, which act with some fine-looking

CHIEF COUNSEL FOR GOV. SULZER

ROOSEVELT TO BRAVE SOUTH AMERICAN WILDS

New York, September 28.—For more than three months—from about the middle of December to the end of March—Theodore Roosevelt will sojourn in the wilds of South America. Arrangements for this and of the one's South America trip were partly described today.

Colonel Roosevelt will sail from New York October 4, and will spend about two months visiting Brazil, Argentina, Chile and Paraguay cities. In these countries he will be the government's guest and he will deliver several formal addresses. Late in December a steamer will leave him and his party of naturalists at Curitiba, Brazil, the head of navigation on the Parana river, and at that point the hardships of the journey will begin.

The colonel's companions from this point will be that those of New York, the arctic explorer, and George S. Hayden of Indiana, and Leo E. Hughes of New Jersey, Va. naturalists connected with the American Museum of Natural history, under whose auspices the expedition will be conducted.

These four, with native bearers and pack animals, will be equipped with light draft motorboats and canoes, although later it is expected they will have to rely on their own strength.

UNDAPED SCARE-CROWS GET INTO THE U. S. ARMY

Washington, September 28.—"Many an undraped scarecrow gets into the army" because of the custom of admitting men several pounds under regulation weight, according to Captain Harold W. Jones, of the army medical corps. After examining 500 recruits, Captain Jones has reached the conclusion that the recruits of today are inferior in strength and physique to the soldiers in the army in 1875.

Of the half thousand men who presented themselves for enlistment, only 25 per cent could be rated as strong, while it was 87 per cent in 1875, when hardy German and Irish immigrants of stocky build were numerous among recruits. At that time 40 per cent of the recruits were foreign born, whereas present-day enlistments comprise only 9 per cent foreign born.

Modern recruits are alleged to have more brains than those of earlier years, and it is a question whether they are not better all-around soldiers. Further investigation along these lines may be made by army officials.

LANCASTRIAN NAMED LONDON LORD MAYOR

London, September 28.—Sir Thomas Vanittart Bowater was elected lord mayor of the city of London today. He will assume office on November 2.

Sir Thomas is first Lancastrian to attain this high position.

His father, however, there will be, bearing the name of a succession of Lancastrians, a son of Sir Charles Johnston, who will succeed him, the born in Wakefield and Sir William Dunn, who were next in rotation, are natives respectively of Liverpool and Manchester.

Sir Thomas Bowater is a Manchester man. He was born in 1842 and came to London as a young man to enter business. He is now at the head of a large firm of paper makers. His rise politically has been rapid. Every lord mayor must have served as alderman and sheriff, and usually an alderman must have served several years before being elected sheriff.

How the Sense of Inequality Is Developed.

(William J. Tucker in the October Atlantic.)

The chief street of any great city is a moving picture show, open to all dwellers on the side streets and in the alleys. The economics of trade are bringing about an enforced proximity of those who make the more attractive goods to those who buy and steal them. The great stores on Fifth avenue now use their upper floors for workshops. At the noon hour the operatives occupy the avenue. It is not to be supposed that they are idle observers, or that their daily observations fail to make a cumulative impression. Nothing could be better calculated to develop the latent sense of inequality than this increasing familiarity, this more public testimony, with those who are in possession of the objects of common desire. What may now seem to be a mere incident attending the crowd of "mobility" may yet be seen to have far-reaching social results.

Thinking of Work Is Not Doing It

Ambition and Opportunity are Life Partners in the Uplift of Thrifty Men.

Neither works without the other.

Opportunity never reveals herself to men without Ambition. Ambition never dwells with men who seek free gifts. Hopes of some soft snap are often mistaken for ambition by idle-handed, addled-headed incompetents. They think they could hold a job if they had one.

A genuine seeker of honest work is willing to pay a fair price for a Want Ad and has a right to expect results. Independence and thrift create ambition in men and, to men of independence, thrift and ambition, opportunity reveals herself in every Want Ad column of The Constitution.

If you are independent you scorn the offer of something you did not earn. If you are thrifty and worthy of a good job you either have or in a short time can earn the price of a Constitution Want Ad. If you have ambition you are too proud to accept a masked offer of free space—an offer that makes you a partner to padded reports of space sold to advertisers.

Constitution Want Ads Are Sold at a Fair Price and Bring Results

Braselton Replies to Thomson's Eleventh Hour Attack

If the city tax fi. fa. of 1912 referred to by Mr. Thomson was not made from the fact that the same piece of property was returned for taxes by myself as lessee of the corner of Ellis and Peachtree and by Mr. J. B. Frost as owner through a mistake caused by a 99-year lease, and if the taxes which said fi. fa. as issued for was not paid during the year 1912, I will resign as alderman for the fourth ward, which I will be elected to today by the biggest majority of any candidate for alderman in the race.

As to my not being registered, I am just one of the five or six thousand citizens of Atlanta who have been disfranchised by the ring politics in this special primary. The ring politicians allowed such little time for registration that between five and six thousand people failed to get registered.

As to Mr. Thomson being backed by ring politics, petty politics and petty politicians, I positively state that I was forced as a candidate against Mr. Thomson for alderman for the fourth ward to go to his private office, his business office, and pay my entrance fee so that I could become a candidate for alderman from the fourth ward.

Mr. Thomson says now that he voted for the referendum and recall, but he did not vote to let the people vote and he would not trust the people to vote, and he cannot deny it. It's a matter of record.

MY PLATFORM:
I STAND FOR A LIBERAL, PROGRESSIVE, STRAIGHT BUSINESS POLICY.

Respectfully,
AMOS W. BRASELTON.
