If refunding bonds were issued in 1915, making the total $10,000,000 refunding bonds would be made to the state treasury and the state treasury would be relieved of the burden of the $10,000,000 of bonds which would be refunded in 1915.

Leading bond men in financial circles here are of the opinion that the refunding of the bonds would be a very profitable investment for the state.

Broker, Mauled by Son, Will Fight Wife's Charge of Assault.

Mauled and pummeled by his young stepson, then arrested at the instance of his wife on the charge of riotous conduct to which he will answer Saturday afternoon, David H. Keefer, prominent Atlanta broker, is convinced that the role of hero in a stormy matrimonial drama is not at all what it is cracked up to be.

The latest chapter in Mr. Keefer's highly interesting marital career was begun Friday evening when he went to the "Diving Club," in company with Deputy Sheriff Fleming Miner, to get possession of a $3,000 machine gun which had been stolen from the "Diving Club."

His wife, Mrs. Keefer, who is said to have struck Keefer several times and to have added to this indignity by kicking him.

Admissions to Prosecutor's Aide Strengthens Rumor That He Saw Girl Just Before Crime.

Frank A. Hooper, associated with Solicitor Dorsey in the prosecution of Leo M. Frank on the charge of strangling Mary Phagan, admitted Saturday that Jim Conley, negro keeper at the National Penitentiary, had made important additions to the story of his part in the murder mystery and had told of circumstances on the day of the crime which he had revealed in none of his previous statements.

A peremptory report that Conley had made the startling admission that he had seen Mary Phagan enter the factory on the day she was slain arose at the time the negro was questioned more than an hour by Solicitor Dorsey early in the week, and this rumor was heightened after Attorney Hooper's interview with the negro Friday.

In all of his statements to the detectives Conley denied he saw the girl at all on the day of the crime until he was horrified by the sight of her dead body lying in the rear of the second floor where he was directed by Leo Phagan, the negro, to say he believed to have written the statement from him that he did see Mary Phagan when she came in the door of the factory and went to the second floor to Frank's office.

Hooper's mum on topic. Mr. Hooper refused either to affirm or deny this report, declaring that his connection with the case was so recent that he would not be warranted in making any definite statement for publication in reference to the evidence in the possession of the prosecution.

His attention was called to the fact that while in all of the published statements of Conley the negro denied seeing Mary Phagan go into the factory, no one connected with the prosecution could now be induced to say that he still stuck to this particular and puzzling feature of his story. Mr. Hooper, however, would make no comment on the circumstance.
