

CHARRED BODIES FOUND IN RUINS OF STEVENS HOME

FORMER MEMBERS OF CABINET TESTIFY TO COLONEL'S SORRIE

Robert Bacon, Truman H. Newberry, Gifford Pinchot, Newspaper Men and Many Others Testify in Trial Suit

ROOSEVELT IS SUING EDITOR FOR $10,000

Evidence to Be Given Concerning Former President's Official and Private Life Regarding Use of Intoxicants

By Leonard F. Ross. — In a reproduction of further testimony to show the atrocious habits of the plaintiff, Theodore Roosevelt, in the trial of Theodore Roosevelt against George A. Newell, publisher of the Atlanta Journal, of late afternoon, who charged him with drunkenness.

John Lillian (Laughlin, a Washington correspondent, was the first witness.

Laughlin testified that he was present at the trial of Roosevelt in the court room with George A. Newell, his host, and a number of spectators inside the railing. He said that he never saw the plaintiff upon Laughlin as the latter was in the courtroom.

During court proceedings the former president was quietly consuming his heavy white wine. He did not stop drinking until he was told to do so by Newell. The defendant, who testified that he had seen the plaintiff in the courtroom, said that he had seen the plaintiff in the courtroom.

Laughlin also testified that he had seen the plaintiff in the courtroom. He said that he had seen the plaintiff in the courtroom.

Laughlin also testified that he had seen the plaintiff in the courtroom. He said that he had seen the plaintiff in the courtroom.

Laughlin also testified that he had seen the plaintiff in the courtroom. He said that he had seen the plaintiff in the courtroom.

Laughlin also testified that he had seen the plaintiff in the courtroom. He said that he had seen the plaintiff in the courtroom.

Laughlin also testified that he had seen the plaintiff in the courtroom. He said that he had seen the plaintiff in the courtroom.

Laughlin also testified that he had seen the plaintiff in the courtroom. He said that he had seen the plaintiff in the courtroom.

Laughlin also testified that he had seen the plaintiff in the courtroom. He said that he had seen the plaintiff in the courtroom.

Laughlin also testified that he had seen the plaintiff in the courtroom. He said that he had seen the plaintiff in the courtroom.

Laughlin also testified that he had seen the plaintiff in the courtroom. He said that he had seen the plaintiff in the courtroom.

Laughlin also testified that he had seen the plaintiff in the courtroom. He said that he had seen the plaintiff in the courtroom.

HERE IS HANDWRITING OF JAMES CONLEY, NEWT LEE, MR. FRANK AND THE NOTES

*he said he would love me laid down plans
like the night which did
it but that long tall
black negro did buy
himself*
(FRANKS WRITING)

*but that long tall black
negro did buy his self*
LEE'S WRITING

*but that long tall black
negro did buy his self*
PORTION OF NOTE FOUND

*but that long tall
black negro did buy
his self*

*but that long tall
black negro did buy
his self*

*but that long tall
black negro did buy
his self*
CONLEY'S WRITING

MORSE GAINS CONTROL OF BIG SHIP COMPANY VANZANT LOOMS UP AS NEXT PROBABLE U. C. V. COMMANDER

Financier Who Spent Term in Atlanta Penitentiary Heads Hudson Navigation Co.

(By Associated Press.) NEW YORK, May 28.—Charles W. Morse was elected today president of the Hudson Navigation company, one of a line of steamers operating on the Hudson river. Morse was head of the company in 1909, but was deposed a year later. John McKinley, who succeeded him, and his interest in the line is a subject of bankers, who placed it in Morse's hands, thus giving him control.

Plight of Daughters in Mills Brings a Pardon to Prisoner

(By Associated Press.) WASHINGTON, May 28.—The plight of three motherless girls working in a cotton mill and needing the help of their father, Mark Cook, serving a two-year penitentiary term for illicit distilling in North Carolina, has won a pardon for the father. The girls were in the custody of the state, but the pardon was granted because of their father's situation.

Caught in Machinery

ANNISTON, Ala., May 28.—Catching hold of a hanger and holding on until his life was lost, a man was killed in a machinery accident. The man was identified as J. O. Brown, a machinist, and was working in a factory.

Read Up On The Journal's $7,000 Educational Campaign

You Can Get Gold and Enjoyment Out of This Campaign. It Is a Ladies' and Gentlemen's Game With No Disagreeable Features.

CONLEY TELLS DETAILS OF WRITING NOTES ON SATURDAY AFTERNOON OF MR. FRANK

Negro Declares He Met Mr. Frank on the Street and Accompanied Him Back to the Factory, Where He Was Told to Wait and Watch—He Was Concealed in Wardrobe in Office When Voices Were Heard on Outside, It is Claimed

NEGRO LOOKED UPON AS A TOOL NOT PRINCIPAL DECLARE DETECTIVES WHO HAVE QUESTIONED HIM

Chief Beavers Confers With Judge Roan in Reference to Taking Conley to Tower to Confront Frank but is Told That It is a Question for Sheriff to Decide—No Effort in This Direction Likely Until Mr. Rosser Returns to City

"Write 'light-watchman,'" the city detectives are said to have commanded James Conley, negro sweeper at the pencil factory, last Wednesday.

The result is said to have been "light-watch." So also the note found in the handwriting of Mr. Frank's admirer, the detective, reveals the strongly corroborative of Conley's admission that he wrote them, however, at the dictation of Leo M. Frank, superintendent of the pencil factory, under indictment for the murder of the Atlanta Journal editor, George A. Newell, on Friday afternoon of the 15th of May, 1912.

Conley continued to detail in his affidavit, it said, describing several people who entered and left and whom he had seen at the factory. He said that he had seen Mr. Frank at the factory, and that he had seen him at the factory.

He said that he had seen Mr. Frank at the factory, and that he had seen him at the factory.

He said that he had seen Mr. Frank at the factory, and that he had seen him at the factory.

He said that he had seen Mr. Frank at the factory, and that he had seen him at the factory.

He said that he had seen Mr. Frank at the factory, and that he had seen him at the factory.

He said that he had seen Mr. Frank at the factory, and that he had seen him at the factory.

He said that he had seen Mr. Frank at the factory, and that he had seen him at the factory.

He said that he had seen Mr. Frank at the factory, and that he had seen him at the factory.

He said that he had seen Mr. Frank at the factory, and that he had seen him at the factory.

He said that he had seen Mr. Frank at the factory, and that he had seen him at the factory.

He said that he had seen Mr. Frank at the factory, and that he had seen him at the factory.

He said that he had seen Mr. Frank at the factory, and that he had seen him at the factory.

By Goldberg.

TORTURE (USE THROUGH DRIVE A TRAMP THE BATH-TUB)

IN THE CITY THAT PUT THE RING IN SUFFERING

al in style to any absolute in durability
supreme in comfort
—the Beacon. Treat your right—buy Beacons.

BEACON SHOES
—a step
in advance

Ph. H. Hoyt Shoe Co., Makers
Manchester, New Hampshire

BEACON SHOE STORE
Peachtree St., Atlanta, Ga.

WIFEFUL IF
DOESN'T WORK

...of the most famous
...of the most famous
...of the most famous

...of the most famous
...of the most famous
...of the most famous

...of the most famous
...of the most famous
...of the most famous

...of the most famous
...of the most famous
...of the most famous

...of the most famous
...of the most famous
...of the most famous

...of the most famous
...of the most famous
...of the most famous

...of the most famous
...of the most famous
...of the most famous

...of the most famous
...of the most famous
...of the most famous

