NEGRO SWEEPER DID NOT CONFESS, SAYS ATTORNEY

Conley, in Chain Gang, Expresses Complete Surprise When Informed of Statement Made by His Counsel

"I am convinced James Conley is the murderer of Mary Phagan," declared William M. Smith, counsel for the negro, who worked in consistent harmony with Solicitor General Hugh M. Dorney during the various phases of the case against Lee M. Frank.

Smith states he is of the opinion that Mr. Smith will be some new court action in the Frank case, and that that action will be completely satisfied by the evidence presented in this case in any way, although he was telling the truth, and that he had confessed in the case from the start.

OUTSINGER CASE SENT BACK TO THE LOWER COURT FOR HEARING

Higher Court Decides Action of Council on Petitions for Boarding Houses Cannot Be Final

JUDGE PENDLETON IS REVERSED BY DECISION

Case Was Taken to State Supreme Court Following Injunction Proceedings Made Against City Council

The state supreme court, ruling on the injunction case of Helen Outlinger vs. the city of Atlanta, holds that the section of the act of the legislature which says that the action of the general council in passing upon applications for boarding and lodging houses is final shall be final, cannot be construed to imply that the council's action is not subject to review by the courts.

It was in the summer of 1913, following the investigation and report of a special vice commission that the Atlanta general council obtained from the general assembly an amendment to the city charter which extended the police power of the city to cover boarding and lodging houses and which required placards of this kind to make application and obtain licenses before they could operate.

The case of Helen Outlinger vs. the city arose after the council had refused to grant her a license to conduct a lodging house at 112 1/2 DeCATUR street. She filed a petition with Judge J. T. Pendleton, of the Fulton superior court, asking for an injunction against Chief Beavers, Recorder Nath R. Broyles and the mayor and members of the general council to restrain them from interfering with her in the conduct of her lodging house.

Through City Attorneys James L. Mayson and W. J. D. Chief Beavers, Recorder Broyles and the general council, the police committee of council and the general council itself, in making upon such applications, related to a large extent upon the advice of Police Chief Beavers, who personally and through his superior, Nath R. Broyles, the mayor and members of the general council to restrain them from interfering with her in the conduct of her lodging house.

The petition was granted and the council was ordered to grant her a license to conduct a lodging house at 112 1/2 DeCATUR street. She filed a petition with Judge J. T. Pendleton, of the Fulton superior court, asking for an injunction against Chief Beavers, Recorder Nath R. Broyles and the mayor and members of the general council to restrain them from interfering with her in the conduct of her lodging house.

HEAVY ARMY OF RUSSIANS SLAUGHTERS GERMAN INFANTRYMEN

Troops of Kaiser Cruelly Surprised at Deadly Work of Big New Guns of Enemy in Russian Poland

SUFFER BIG LOSSES IN RETREAT OF TEN MILES

Whole German Front Presents Broken Appearance, Says Correspondent, and Advance of Russians Is Steady

LONDON, Oct. 3.—The Petrograd correspondent of the Post speaking of the operations on the Nieman, Russian Poland, says: "Later intelligence shows that the operations on the Nieman were of a greater scale than was supposed and the losses were more severe. This was largely due to the administrative preparations for heavy artillery which is at the disposal of the Russian forces."

"The Germans evidently were not aware of the administrative preparations they had only to meet the ordinary field artillery. They were grossly surprised at the heavy artillery which is at the disposal of the Russian forces."

"The weather is appalling. The continual downpour in such a country provides the worst possible conditions for armies anxious to extricate themselves from a very embarrassing situation."

"The fighting at Desok Pass in the Carpathians, was so fierce that there were no survivors on either side. The entire army of the Russian army was annihilated. The Austrians' obstinate defense of the Carpathians has been the cause of the Russian army and the Russian army has been wiped out by the Russian army and the Russian army has been wiped out by the Russian army."

"The Petrograd correspondent of the Daily Telegraph sends a description taken from a Korvo newspaper, of the operations from September 28 to October 1, when General Rennenkampf retired from East Prussia in order to counteract the German effort to envelop his left. The account says: "The Russians made obstinate efforts to gain possession of the village of Birkenfeld, where the German army was entrenched. The Russians made obstinate efforts to gain possession of the village of Birkenfeld, where the German army was entrenched. The Russians made obstinate efforts to gain possession of the village of Birkenfeld, where the German army was entrenched."

OFFICIAL STATEMENTS

PARIS, Oct. 3.—3:03 p. m.—The official announcement issued this afternoon declares that the violent attack of the Germans at Hore has been repulsed by the allies.

"The text of the statement follows: "First. On our left wing the violent attack which has been progressing since yesterday continues without interruption, particularly in the region of Hore, where we have repulsed all attacks, although upon this part of the front the enemy has been reinforced by new additions taken from the enemy's center as has been previously noted."

"Second. Upon the center nothing is to be noted from Rheims to the Argonne region. In the Argonne district the sixteenth German corps (the army of the crown prince), which had attempted to slip through the woods of Gurle, has been driven back toward the north of the Varennes-La-Harazee-Vieux-la-Villa line."

"In the Belgian field the Germans are bombarding the front south of the Antwerp position without being yet able to produce any considerable effect upon the works. They have delivered many infantry attacks which have been repulsed."

"In the Russian field of operations a strong German army of four corps has taken positions between the frontier of east Prussia and the river Nieman. Its left wing has been thrown back upon Mariampol and Suwalki. At the center the city of Augustowo has been taken by the Russians and the German fight with the struggle continues around Osowetz (between Lyck and Bielestok)."

"In Galicia the rear guard of the Austrians has retreated in disorder as far as the Vistula. "In Romania, Serb and Montenegrin columns are advancing" upon Sarajevo."

GERMAN OFFICIAL STATEMENTS SAY ALLIES FLANKING MOVE REPULSED. BERLIN, Oct. 3.—(Via Amsterdam and London.)—The following official statement was given out at army headquarters the evening of October 2: "The right wing of the German army in France has repulsed renewed efforts on the part of the French to outflank it. To the south of the Antwerp position the German cavalry under protection of the Termonde fortifications is in a southerly direction."

OFFICIAL RUSSIAN STATEMENT CLAIMS ADVANCES OVER GERMAN. PETROGRAD, Oct. 3.—The general staff headquarters last night issued the following official statement: "The German army on the line of Mariampol. No decisive result has yet been obtained. We have at last occupied the German positions at Freskank, west of Syano. The Russian army has advanced in the direction of Suwalki. On the road from Sargy, northward to Suwalki, the movement of the German army pursued by the Russian cavalry under protection of artillery, became at times a disorderly retreat. "Fierce fighting is going on in the vicinity of Suwalki. German reinforcements hurried by the railroads toward Margbarova to the rescue of the retreating troops look the offensive in front of Augustowo and Suwalki. "Near Raska the Germans made night beyond charges, but met with heavy casualties, many of their men being killed or wounded. "Augustowo was being bombarded with heavy artillery from the northwest side of the town up to the afternoon of October 1, when the Russian infantry took the offensive resolutely and drove the enemy from that region. "The enemy also was forced to evacuate Bishutshin and Grajevo, where the Russian troops have captured German territory. "The Russians have captured some automobile trucks from a German column operating against Osowetz. "Under a night offensive attack by the Russians an offensive demonstration was repulsed by the Russian troops."

Notices of Sunday services and other news of Atlanta churches will be published on this page without charge, provided they reach Journal office by noon Friday

WHEREAS, Great nations of the world have taken up arms against one another and war now draws millions of men into battle whom the counsel of statesmen have not been able to save from the terrible sacrifice; and,
WHEREAS, In this as in all things it is our privilege and duty to seek counsel and succor of Almighty God, humbling ourselves before Him, confessing our weakness and our lack of any wisdom equal to these things; and,
WHEREAS, It is the special wish and longing of the people of the United States, in prayer and counsel and all friendliness, to serve the cause of peace,
Therefore, I, Woodrow Wilson, president of the United States of America, do designate Sunday, the fourth day of October next, a day of prayer and supplication and do request all God-fearing persons to repair on that day to their places of worship, there to unite their petitions to Almighty God, that, overruling the counsel of men, setting straight the things they cannot govern or alter, taking pity on nations now in the throes of conflict, in His mercy and goodness showing a way where men can see none, He vouchsafe His children to heal again and restore once more that concord among men and nations without which there can be neither happiness nor true friendship nor any wholesome fruit of toil or thought in the world, praying also to this end that He forgive us our sins, our ignorance of His holy will, our willfulness and many errors, and lead us in the paths of obedience to places of vision and to thoughts and counsels that purge and make wise."

By Dr. Marion McH. Hull
Mark 14:1-11.
Golden Text—She hath done what she could. Mark 14:6.
Harmolais differ as to the time of the anointing of Jesus. Some say it was on Tuesday evening at the close of a busy day. Others say it was on the Wednesday of the last week since according to the Jewish reckoning, the anointing took place before the Sabbath. This view is founded on the statement of Matthew and Mark that the two days was the Feast of Passover.

J. R. SMITH HEARS COTTON COMMITTEE OF C. OF C.

Body Will Work for Reduction of Acreage of the 1915 Crop

A committee, headed by J. R. Smith, has been appointed by President Mill R. Wilkinson, of the chamber of commerce, to represent that organization at the southern food products conference at the capitol Monday, when action will be taken looking toward the reduction of next year's cotton acreage.

The conference was called by C. J. Haden, president of the Georgia chamber of commerce.

Mr. Smith is the originator of the Lee county plan, which provides a legal contract binding farmers to reduce their acreage. This plan has strong endorsement from the southern food products conference at the capitol Monday, when action will be taken looking toward the reduction of next year's cotton acreage.

Automobile Committee Performed Great Work On Their Detroit Trip

George W. Hanson, Chairman, Makes Interesting Report of Trip to Automobile Manufacturing Centers, and Incidentally Pays Tribute to The Journal and Its Men

The Atlanta Automobile and Accessory association at a meeting Friday in the city hall heard the report of the committee sent by the association on a tour of the automobile manufacturing centers to call on the manufacturers to join the buy-a-bale movement on a large scale.

Members of this committee were George W. Hanson, president of the Oakland Motor Sales company, which sells the Oakland car in several states; John E. Smith, of the John M. Smith company, which sells the Pierce-Arrow, Chandler and Hupmobile cars in Georgia and adjacent territory; J. W. Goldenshaw, who sells the Hudson car in Georgia; and Major John S. Cohen, managing editor of The Journal.

Mr. Hanson, as chairman of the committee, submitted the report to the association Friday. He said the purchases of automobiles by the association as a result of the committee's trip, while they were fairly successful in meeting them and on the whole the trip was productive of good results. Mr. Hanson had addressed the meeting. If he had had more time he would have addressed the meeting with other Atlanta trade bodies, would send a committee on an extended tour to other automobile centers in the north and the east which would have had difficulty in selling their surplus caused by the European war.

Mr. Hanson said he encountered was a misunderstanding of the movement on the part of automobile manufacturers. Their impression was that they were being asked to take cotton at 10 cents a pound in exchange for automobiles. When he told them they were asked to buy cotton for 10 cents a pound and pay cash for it, they had the change their plans in many instances, so many of them already planning to join the movement on that point.

LYRIC THEATER CLOSES INDEFINITELY TONIGHT

Burlesque Fails to "Go"—Future of Theater Is Undecided

The Lyric theater closes indefinitely tonight.

Announcement of this effect was made Saturday by Hugh Carlson, in charge of the Wells interests here, with the bare statement that the Columbia burlesque company, directing the booking of the theater, along with other Wells houses in Nashville, Memphis and Birmingham, was disappointed in the box receipts and had called in the road show in this territory.

What will be the immediate future of the Lyric is undecided. The theater is situated in New York city, and is expected to outline other plans for his houses in the near future.

The closing of the Lyric comes without warning to many of its patrons. Since the first week in September the Columbia show, burlesque, dignified by the name "extravaganza," have been drawing a regular if not a faltering patronage.

The companies that have been seen at the Lyric passed muster," says Mr. Carlson. "There has not been an objectionable feature there has been nothing that the clientele of the Lyric you do not care to accept, but it is a fact that the merit of the attractions was not exactly up to expectations."

There is much speculation in theatrical circles as to the Lyric's future. Last winter there was very little response when Norman Hackett put on high class stock here. This fall witnesses an little response to what may clearly be characterized as the opposite extreme. There appears to be some uncertainty as to what comes next.

CORN PRODUCTS CO. TO USE 17,000 BALES OF DISTRESS COTTON

Very interesting in this movement and 100,000 bales of cotton will be bought at 10 cents. This cotton will be with-drawn from the market until a fair price is established.

SECRET ORDER JOINS.
The Knights of Honor is the latest fraternal organization to join the buy-a-bale movement. Steve R. Johnston, of Atlanta, supreme vice dictator of the order, has received an offer from Mr. Edwin C. Wood, supreme dictator of the order, endorsing the movement in the name of the Knights of Honor and suggesting that every member buy a bale of cotton.

EXPLAINED WAREHOUSE SYSTEM

"Another thing they did not understand was that the movement is aimed at handling distress cotton, meaning cotton which tenant farmers are obliged to sell to pay their debts. They did not understand our warehouse and insurance system quite clearly.

"Still another difficulty we encountered was that many farmers are selling in sympathy with the movement and perfectly willing to buy cotton on a large scale, without authority paper because their budgets carried no more of the automobile movement. They meant they had to wait until their directors or their finance committee met, before they could act. But in every case they promised to recommend the proposition at their next meeting, and will hear from there."

Creston, Iowa.—"I suffered with female troubles from the time I came into womanhood until I had taken Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I would have paid any price for relief if it had lifted anything heavy, and I would be so weak and nervous, and in so much misery that I would be prostrated. A friend told me what your medicine had done for her and I tried it. It made me strong and healthy and our home is now happy with a baby boy. I am very glad that I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and do all I can to recommend it."—Mrs. A. B. BOSCAW, 604 E. Howard Street, Creston, Iowa.
