A dispatch to the Paris Matin from Foreign states that the German battleship, the Goeben, after being sunk, sank in the Baltic, but adds that there is no official confirmation of the report.

The battleship Kaiser Wilhelm der Grosse, evidently referred to in the Matin dispatch, was the German battleship, having been built in 1906, and displaced 2,700 tons displacement and carried a crew of 500 men.

Leo M. Frank's petition for a writ of habeas corpus, which was filed in the U. S. District Court in New York City, will be considered by the full court on Monday. Information to this effect was obtained from the office of Justice Lamar, one of the members of Frank's counsel in Atlanta.

The petition is to be brought to the attention of the full court by the U. S. Attorney, either Justice Lamar or Justice Holmes, who has consented to consult his colleagues, and the petition is to be brought to the attention of the full court after the decision of the court after an appeal from the decision of the full court.

The German loss upwards of 17,000 men, a heavy battery of artillery, machine guns, and other equipment, and the capture of the town of Yagor, is being reported by the Associated Press.

In the same fighting the Russian lost 16,000 men, in addition to 30 machine guns and other equipment.

The German operations in this locality are declared by Russian military sources to have been absolute failures, and the chances of their occupying further districts is regarded here as slight.

NEW YORK, June 10.—Lindner, a telegraph operator in the employ of the Postal Telegraph company and attached to the office of the New York City Police Department, was arrested yesterday with violating section 552 of the penal law, in that he revealed the contents of a dispatch which was sent out by the Associated Press.

For a long time it has been evident that dispatches of the Associated Press were being telegraphically intercepted and were redistributed by a number of persons.

A dispatch to the Paris Matin from Petrograd states that it is reported there that the German battleship Wilhelm der Grosse struck a mine and sank in the Baltic, but adds that there is no official confirmation of the rumor.

The battleship Kaiser Wilhelm der Grosse, evidently referred to in the Matin dispatch, is one of Germany's oldest battleships, having been built in 1901. The warship is 18,210 tons.

An official dispatch from Grand Duke Nicholas, commander-in-chief of the Russian forces in the field, while of considerable length, concerns itself largely with more or less isolated operations and does not claim the infliction of an overwhelming defeat upon the

The grand duke sums up the situation with the declaration that on the entire front between the Vistula and the Warta rivers the battle is progressing in favor of Russian arms.

Both Berlin and Vienna still claim that no decisive results have followed the recent operations in Russian Poland.

Still the western battle front the full still prevails, the only hint of activity being found in the report from Holland that the British fleet again is operating against the German positions on the Belgium coast.

This has been supplemented by the official French report that the combined fleets not only have command of the Mediterranean but are maintaining a successful blockade of the Adriatic and the Dardanelles.

From Petrograd comes a much delayed account of a surprise attack by a Russian fleet, which it is claimed, resulted in serious disaster to the German Baltic squadron in September.

A dispatch from Rotterdam to the London Daily Mail, dated Friday, says: "Heavy firing was heard this afternoon in the direction of Zaiburg."

German Artillery in Belgium
Is Not Very Active Now

"In Belgium the artillery exchanges were continued during the day of November 27 without any particular incident. The heavy German artillery showed less activity. There was but one attack of infantry to the south of Ypres, which was repulsed by our troops.

"In the region of Arras and further to the south there has been no change. The day passed very quietly in the region of the Aisne,"
