PROF. A. T. PEACOCK SURE OF COUNCIL PLACE

George P. Dickson Quits Race to Succeed C. C. Mason From Tenth Ward

Augustus T. Peacock, of 45 Pearce street, a professor at the Georgia School of Technology, will be elected to council Thursday afternoon without opposition to succeed Claude C. Mason as the representative of the Tenth ward.

The election of Mr. Peacock to the council was assured Wednesday when George P. Dickson (former) of the police commission, announced he would refuse to allow the use of his name as a candidate.

Mr. Dickson reached his decision not to make the race after a long conference with Alderman I. N. Ragsdale, secretary of the Tenth ward delegation.

"I have never been a candidate in the active sense of the word," said Mr. Dickson Wednesday, "and have not personally made a canvass. While I greatly appreciate the interest my friends especially Herman J. W. Maddox, have taken in the matter, I do not wish to enter the field at this time after both members of the ward delegation have agreed to support another."

Ted Peacock has been a instructor at the Georgia Tech for the past five years. He is thirty-seven years of age, married, and is reported to be a certain addition to the ranks of the reformers in council.

It also reported that Mr. Peacock's election will mean another vote for Fire Chief Cummings, when the fire chief is opposed for reelection this fall by Captain W. P. Cady, although Mr. Peacock said he would not be a candidate on a matter of the sort until he is elected.

BLAMES MOTHER-IN-LAW FOR DOMESTIC TROUBLES

H. Andrews Says She Told Him She "Could Kill Him Like a Dog"

Asserting that Mrs. Loula P. Reeves, his mother-in-law, once choked him and exclaimed: "I could kill you like a dog," Louis H. Andrews, a young clerk, added another document to litigation which he is involved by suing Wednesday the petition for divorce filed by his wife, Mrs. Loula H. Andrews.

The petition, making the third suit for divorce or alimony brought by Mrs. Andrews against Andrews, was filed three weeks ago. The day before the suit was filed, Andrews brought suit against Mrs. Reeves, his mother-in-law, for $10,000 damages, alleging she had broken up his home. Wednesday a hearing for temporary alimony came up before Judge John T. Pendleton, of the superior court.

In the answer filed Wednesday, Andrews alleges that his wife was a girl of sixteen when he married her, a girl easily influenced by her mother. The latter, he says, is a "meddlesome woman, continually stirring up law suits and succeeding in breaking up his home and happiness." He says she constantly quarreled with him, found fault with everything he did and caused trouble between himself and his wife; that she investigated his wife to have him arrested on various charges, refused him admission to his own home by locking the door on him so that once he had to go to a neighbor's; that she used obscene language to him in the presence of his wife; that finally these tactics influenced his wife against him so that she refused to speak to him. On the morning of June 11, he says Andrews, he told his wife to choose between him and her mother and she chose her mother.

Attorney W. S. Cowburn represents Loula in the litigation and Attorney Eugene T. Stechen represents the wife.

County Boards of Fulton and DeKalb Will Act Jointly, It Is Understood

The Brookhaven drive, 2,000 feet long, leading from Peachtree road to the Brookhaven Capital City country club, will be repaved within the next few weeks by the Fulton county commissioners, acting in conjunction with the DeKalb county authorities, was reported from the action of the Fulton commissioners Wednesday morning.

Ed H. Inman, president of the Capital City club, and Robert F. Maddox, former president, appeared before the commissioners at their May meeting Wednesday, and asked that the drive be repaved and repaved as soon as possible before the summer club season begins. Seven members of the club, in Fulton county, was tendered the commissioners as a public and unaccepted. The rest of the drive is in DeKalb county.

Upon motion of Dr. W. L. Gilbert, the commission referred the matter to the public works committee, with power to act, with directions to the committee to confer with the DeKalb authorities as to the paving of the DeKalb strip of the road. Fulton county will fund DeKalb county the repairer operated by free labor, and arrangements will be made to utilize DeKalb convicts on the stretch outside of Fulton. BATHING SEASON OPENS AT PIEDMONT MAY 15

Manager Cochran, Who Will Regulate Suits, Says His Views Are "Liberal"

The city park commission Tuesday afternoon decreed that the lake at Piedmont park shall be open to bathers Saturday, May 15, and will remain open during the summer months.

Regulation of bathing suits was left in the hands of Manager J. O. Cochran, who has announced that his views on the bathing suit question are "liberal."

A preliminary move in a fight to secure a municipal golf course within the next few years was made in the park board when Commissioner J. H. Andrews made a motion to instruct the manager to secure estimates of the cost of building a golf course in Moseley park in West End. The motion was adopted, President Ben Lee Crew, and other members of the commission heartily endorsing the project.

A majority of the members of the commission expressed the opinion that the price of $5 per month for the Lake-wood park concession, now held by J. E. Miller, is too small in view of the fact that the grounds are to be so greatly improved by the location of the South-eastern fair there. Accordingly the commission voted to give Miller notice that at the expiration of ninety days bids on a new concession lease will be taken.

The park commissioners heard from a delegation of citizens of East Tenth street, headed by Frank O. Spain, who urged the park department to beautify the Tenth street frontage of Piedmont park.

The commission referred the matter to an improvement committee which, after an investigation Wednesday morning, instructed Manager Cochran to begin work at once, ploughing and sowing with grass the land on the Tenth street side of the park.

The board at its session also made arrangements for band concerts in the summer at the Grant and Piedmont parks. Beginning next Sunday at 2 o'clock there will be a concert at Grant Park. The next concert will be at Piedmont, and the band will continue to alternate at the two parks during May. During June, July and August the board expects to have a concert each Sunday afternoon at both parks.

INMAN NAMED PRESIDENT OF CAPITAL CITY CLUB

Other Officers and Members of Governing Board Are Elected Tuesday

The annual election of officers of the Capital City club, held Tuesday by a ballot of the members between the hours of 12 o'clock noon and 9 o'clock p. m., resulted as follows:

President—Edward H. Inman.
Vice President—James D. Robinson.
Secretary—Treasurer—Edward R. Austin.

Governing Board for Two-Year Term—Urie S. Atkinson.
Governing Board for Three-Year Term—John S. Cohen, J. Epps Brown, Jack H. Lewis.

The purchase by the Capital City club of Brookhaven, which was authorized and directed by the members at their annual meeting Monday night, has created a wonderful enthusiasm in the club, and the members look forward with glowing anticipation to the remodeling of the Brookhaven club house, the completion of the golf course, and the numerous other improvements which are planned.

It is the intention of the club to proceed at once with remodeling the Brookhaven club house. All the detailed work of the architect, A. Ten Eyck Brown, has been finished and the plans are ready for the contractor. It is estimated that the work can be finished within ninety days from the time it starts. This would place the remodeled club house in readiness for use around the first of August. The remodeling will make the club house one of the best in the country.

Another feature of interest in this connection is the extension of the trolley car line to the club. The Georgia Railway and Power company, in response to requests from the Capital City club and Oglethorpe university, has already indicated a willingness to make the extension from the present terminus to Brookhaven, which is only nine-tenths of a mile, and to run the car line north on Peachtree road to Oglethorpe university.

The club will now make an effort to induce the company to put in the Brookhaven extension in time for the opening of the remodeled country club house.

MAYOR TOLD FALSEHOOD ALDINE CHAMBERS SAYS

Former Alderman Denies He Is Part of "Invisible Government" of City

"James G. Woodward has been called a liar and proved a liar so often that the application of that term to him creates no excitement in the community," declares Aldine Chambers, former alderman and once mayoralty candidate, in reply to one of the mayor's statements, in which the latter charges in substance that Chambers is an invisible part of Atlanta's city government.

The mayor, in his statement, which was issued after his defeat by council on the purchasing agent amendment, declares that vitrified brick pavement is a consideration with "influences" which are being constantly exerted on members of council.

The mayor goes on to say that Aldine Chambers is represented by the attorney for the company which sold the city the brick for South Forsyth and South Pryor streets. Then the mayor says that "Chambers went to a resident of Ponce de Leon avenue, Walter McElreath, and told him that if the property owners would insist on a vitrified brick, against other classes of pavements, that the company would set to work on the thoroughfare at once."

Mr. Chambers declares that the statement in reference to Mr. McElreath is false and that the mayor knew it was false when he made it. "The mayor and his emissaries," says Mr. Chambers in a written statement, "have been engaged for more than three weeks in an effort to get some sort of evidence to sustain even remotely such a suggestion. He has allowed his spleen to reach the point where he is willing to accept the responsibility himself for the falsehood."

Mayor Woodward, in the statement with which Mr. Chambers takes issue, made some interesting comments on the brick proposition. The mayor says that a petition asking for a wood block with the ordinance on the street ward work was introduced in the first committee, the member from the street ward, Councilman Edwin Johnson, found that brick had been substituted for wood block, and stopped the paper.

Practically the same thing happened on a petition to pave Auburn avenue, the mayor says, and when the property owners of Grant street petitioned for a wood block pavement, the ordinance was held up in the aldermanic board. Generally the mayor intimates that the property owners have very little chance of getting a paving proposition through the present council unless brick is demanded.

Relative to that part of the mayor's statement, Mr. Chambers says: "As to the petitions for paving Walton street and Auburn avenue, the mayor's statement is the first information I have had on the subject, and I am at a loss to understand why it should be charged with connection therewith, if the facts be as the mayor has intimated."

The city purchasing agent is W. E. Chambers, a brother of Aldine Chambers, and replying to the mayor's intimation that he (Aldine Chambers) and vitrified brick played a part in that right, Mr. Chambers challenges the mayor to produce a single member of council who was asked directly or indirectly by him to support the amendment.

"So far from my endeavoring to maneuver in any manner," says Mr. Chambers, "I positively declined to make a political alliance with a member of the council who voted to sustain the mayor's veto last Monday."

Concluding, Mr. Chambers asserts that the mayor is trying to dodge the issue. "The truth is," he says, "as I am informed, that the mayor was willing for the Southeastern Fair association to control the character, quality and costs and control of paving South Pryor street, and that these votes were cast for the choice of members of the police board. When they voted solidly against him on this proposition he immediately began to give vent to his spleen."

FAIR FUND COMMITTEE WILL BE ENTERTAINED
Mell R. Wilkinson Will Give Dinner in Chamber of Commerce Cafe Friday Night

The working members of the committee which secured the citizens' subscriptions of $30,000 to the stock of the Southeastern Fair association will be entertained by President Mell R. Wilkinson at a dinner the chamber of commerce cafe next Friday night.

About sixty committeemen, who took the streets under the direction of General Chairman Ivan E. Allen, and over-subscribed the stock within less than three weeks' time, will be the guests of Mr. Wilkinson, who is president of the chamber of commerce as well as president of the fair association.

FATHER SEARCHES FOR LOST NEGRO YOUTH

Nelson Station, colored, an employee of Wilkinson, Bolton & Co., of Terminal, Ga., has written The Journal a letter asking the paper to help him find his boy, of whom he gives the following description:

"Slender cake color, 15 years old, weighs about 125 pounds, height about 5 feet, left knee wearing cast with hole in it and his every day clothes."
The letter closes with this request: "I wish Chief Beavers or some other kind policeman would look him up for me and telegraph Mr. E. J. Wilkinson, Tignall, Ga."

Rheumatism? Here Are Some Real Facts

How to Overcome the Torture Without Harmful Drugs.

A legion of people have used S. B. and have overcome the worst forms of rheumatism. This disease of the blood is little understood because of its strange symptoms, scarcely two people having it exactly alike, and no matter what its form, how painful and distressing, S. B. seems to have almost a divine influence in driving it out, relieving the nerves from pain and clearing the joints and muscles so that work without restraint. The best explanation for this happy result is the fact that in S. B. are certain ingredients which act as an antidote. They are nature's providence to man. Just as the acids, fats, salts and sugars of our daily food provide us with nourishment, so does S. B. give to the blood the exact medicinal requirement to clear the stream, drive out impurities and prevent the body if destructive germs have gained a foothold. Get a bottle of S. B. It will do you good. Be sure to refuse any and all substitutes. And roots in a stubborn case, write to the Medical Adviser, The Swift Specific Co., 109 Swift Building, Chicago, Ill. Judge Hill's Charge to Jury

A VERY COMMON MISTAKE CORRECTED

"We can do nothing against the truth, but for the truth." II Corinthians XIII: 8

THE SALE OF WHISKEY, WINE OR BEER IN LOCKER CLUBS IS FORBIDDEN BY THE LAW OF GEORGIA

A local paper said of Judge Hill's charge to the grand jury: "He called attention to the part of the state law which refers to 'BONA FIDE' PLACES FOR THE SALE OF LIQUOR, and said that some clubs came under this head and some did not."

Reporter and paper made the mistake of believing that the law of Georgia permits alcohol to be sold in locker clubs.

Judge Hill never intimated that liquor could be legally sold in clubs. On the contrary, he said:

"AS TO THE LOCKER CLUBS, YOU MUST REMEMBER THAT THEY HAVE THE RIGHT TO SERVE THEIR MEMBERS, BUT NOT TO SELL LIQUOR."

"As I judge and you as jurors have no right to an opinion at all. No police commission, no one else has any right to an opinion. "The law despises evasions and subterfuges."

Strong, but true. Doubtless the judge had in mind these fictitious orders signed to conceal actual sales.

MEANWHILE, HAVE YOU NOTICED HAPPENINGS IN ATLANTA?
Last week, while others were being lifted up by the magic of music, another man killed himself. He had been drinking.

In the small hours of Friday morning, policemen found another girl dazed by drug or drink. She had been carried from an automobile and left in the entrance of a hotel by men.

The same day the poison poured upon our police bore fruit: A negro made a murderous assault upon one of the men. The other killed him. YOU RECALL THE NEGRO PAPER RIDICULING THE FORCE.

Lawlessness is producing its harvest here, and over the way--

Birmingham Furnishes Figures

The Outlook of April 28th says, concerning Jefferson county, Alabama, which is Birmingham:

"During the three years following 1908, while state prohibition was in force, the coroner's record shows a direct diminution of murders. In 1912 the state returned to open saloons. Here is the graphic record of results:

	1909	1910	1911	1912
	Prohibition	Prohibition	Prohibition	Open Saloons
MURDERS	130	138	88	306

"The total number of arrests for the period between 1907 and 1914 is also worthy of attention:

	1907	1908	1912	1913	1914
	Saloons	Prohibition	Saloons	Saloons	Saloons
Arrests	11,812	7,333	17,412	21,247	21,667

From 88 murders to 306 in one year--
From 7,333 arrests in 1908 to 21,667 in 1914--

These figures easily explain why Alabama has adopted a prohibition law, which even forbids newspapers and billboards to carry liquor advertisements.

But they will never enable you to understand the systematic effort, apparent to the whole state of Georgia, made to keep the chief of police in Atlanta from enforcing the law.

You will recall Esop's story of

The Countryman and the Snake

"A villager, in a frosty, snowy winter, found a snake under a hedge, almost dead with cold. He could not help having a compassion for the poor creature, so brought it home and laid it upon the hearth, near the fire; but it had not lain there long, before (being revived with the heat) it began to erect itself, and fly at his wife and children, filling the whole cottage with dreadful hissing. The countryman heard the outcry, and perceiving what the matter was, caught up a mattock and soon dispatched him; upbraiding him at the same time in these words: 'Is this, vile wretch, the reward you make to him that saved your life? Die as you deserve; but a single death is too good for you.'"

When the HEALTH-GIVING writer of prohibition struck the snake of alcohol in Georgia, some thoughtless one brought it into the very hearstone of the state by permitting it, NOT TO BE SOLD, but to be kept in locker clubs.

And like the snake, awake, the thing is spreading its poisonous spitting across the state, trying to pollute policemen and to clog the courts of the state.

DOUBTLESS THE COUNTRYMAN WILL KILL THE GREAT SNAKE

By entangling locker clubs and near beer joints, when the legislature meets this summer.

But meanwhile none should interfere with the chief of police, the grand jury, the solicitor-general or other public officials willing to put an end to the ever-growing plague of snakes in Georgia, especially in its capital.

Good citizens will say Godspeed!

Under the big hickory tree on the bank of the Smiling Pool were gathered together the Quaddies. Billy Mink was there. So were Little Joe Otter, Jerry Mink, and Tricky Porky. Bobby Coon, Jimmy Skunk, Darny Meadow Mouse, Juniper the Hare, Haddy Jack Squirrel, Chatterer the Red Squirrel, Linc, Billy Fox, and, of course, Peter Rabbit.

The fact is, Peter had called this meeting. "I wish I knew where to begin, but at last I've decided that I'll recite to the others the whole story of Sammy Jay. So he began at the beginning and told how Sammy had visited him, the dear old Brer Patch and asked what was necessary in order to become a Quaddie."

"That's what I told him," replied Peter, "and I thought I was sure he didn't think much of a hand which would not admit such good friends as Linc, Juniper, Tommy Tilt the Chickadee, Welcome Robin and Winsome Bluebird, but, of course, they are not quaddies."

"That set me to thinking, Sammy said that he should think the Quaddies might include all the little mouse and forest people, and I believe he is right, that is, of course, we ought to include those who agree to help each other. Now, I don't see why we shouldn't include Mr. Coon and the others. To be sure they are not quaddies, because they haven't four feet, but they have two feet and two wings, and a tail, and what are wings but a different kind of feet?"

"An' must say Brer Rabbit is talking nonsense declared Linc, Billy Fox said. 'I don't hear Brer Jay any love, but Ah, certain would like to see Sister Quaddie and some of our other feathered neighbors members of our band.'"

"I told him that nobody could be a quaddie who is wholly bad. I thought it would be off into a temper, but he didn't. He was just as good as me, please. He said he didn't want to be a Quaddie, but he just wanted to see how it was done. Now I am going to ask Darny Meadow Mouse, did this morning?"

"So Darny Meadow Mouse, in his funny, squeaky, little voice, told the story of how he had been careless that morning, forgetting to clean out for days, and how Reddy Fox certainly would have caught him had it not been for Sammy Jay. He was very glad to see me and the life of Nanny Meadow Mouse to Sammy Jay."

"I told that Darny said it true," said Peter. "I saw it all from the dear old tree back there. You all know I don't love Sammy Jay."

"Who does?" interrupted Bobby Coon. "Nobody, I guess," grinned Peter. "It seems to me that you ought to admit that there is some good in him, and that being the case, there is any reason why he cannot become a Quaddie if he wants to?"

"All that Darny says in one and a word, then Darny Meadow Mouse once more spoke. "I think," said he, "that Sammy has proven that there is good in him and if he really wants to be a Quaddie, he should try to do it."

"An' one think Brer Meadow Mouse is right," declared Linc, "and in his opinion all the others agreed, so he was decided to invite Sammy Jay to join the Quaddies."

WILSON AVOIDS WALSH AND ROCKEFELLER ROW

President Explains Why He Would Not Give Out Letters From Governor Ammons

(By Associated Press.)

WASHINGTON, May 5.—President Wilson's refusal yesterday to furnish the industrial relations commission with copies of correspondence with former Governor Ammons, of Colorado, on the Colorado coal strike was explained at the White House today with the statement that the president did not care to take any part in the controversy between Chairman Walsh and John D. Rockefeller, Jr., over Mr. Walsh's assertion that an agent of Mr. Rockefeller had written a letter to the president for Governor Ammons to sign.

The president's friends understand he believes the commission should conduct its investigation into industrial conditions for which it was created by congress without getting into newspaper controversies. While he has not gone into the merits of the discussion between Mr. Walsh and Mr. Rockefeller, it was said today as the object of the commission's investigation are not to be defeated if published attacks on witnesses before the commission are continued.
