OVER HALF OF SHAREHOLDERS PLEDGED TO ATLANTA

Contestants for 1914 Convention Have Narrowed Down to This City and Memphis.

By JAMES B. NEVIN. DALLAS, TEXAS, May 12.—Atlanta now claims, as pledged, 250 of the 460 votes in the Imperial Council for the 1914 meeting place.

The first cheering wave received by Atlanta when the delegation arrived Sunday morning was that the seven-noon vote of Texas are 'raved up' for Georgia.

It is to be sure, the immediate thing in hand is the session of the Imperial Council now on in Dallas, but the first thing an Atlanta delegate says to a brother Noble, after making himself known, is 'How about the Imperial Council thing for Atlanta next year?'

There is a feeling in the atmosphere that everything is about over, so far as next year's session is concerned, except the hurrahing for and congratulating of Atlanta.

BURNS CALLED INTO PHAGAN MYSTERY; ON WAY FROM EUROPE

Famous American Detective Cables He Will Return Immediately In Response to Col. Felder's Plea For His Services to Capture Slayer.

William J. Burns, the world-famed detective, probably will take charge of the Phagan case. The man who unearthed the dynamite outrages and brought the McManora brothers to justice, will in all probability come to Atlanta within the next few days and lend his efforts toward clearing up the mystery of the death by strangulation of Mary Phagan.

This information was made public Monday following correspondence between Colonel Thomas H. Felder and Mr. Burns since the discovery of the girl in the pencil factory. Mr. Burns is now on his way from Europe, and will arrive on Tuesday or Wednesday.

That time the elder Burns was in Europe investigating the disappearance of Wilberforce Martin, and upon being called for the purpose of the Phagan case, he was notified that the man who unearthed the dynamite outrages and brought the McManora brothers to justice, will in all probability come to Atlanta within the next few days and lend his efforts toward clearing up the mystery of the death by strangulation of Mary Phagan.

Chief Landford is not satisfied as to Lee and any possible part he may have played in the tragedy. He declared he had lain awake at night trying to figure out satisfactorily the negro's position.

The point that prevents detectives from eliminating Lee as his frat steedmate to capture following his discovery of the dead girl's body. When he first called the police station, he said he had found a 'white woman dead in the basement'.

TAG DAY RECEIPTS CERTAIN TO ESTABLISH NEW RECORD; ATLANTA GIVES LIBERALLY

Atlanta capitulated Monday to an irresistible force of the city's fairest young women. It was a willing, but costly surrender.

Each of the thousands of captives, as a token of surrender, gave up some part of his or her hard-earned money and received a tag, which indicated the money was for the benefit of the Sheltering Orphan's Home.

One of these tags was supposed to insure the "taggee" against being surrounded again by a group of the fair soldiers and submitting to another depletion of his exchequer.

But it didn't. The person who had any appearance of prosperity was a marked man. Few escaped without the signs of repeated surrender. Many proudly wore as many as a half dozen of the lavender tags.

Records Sure to Go. Before the Tag Day campaign was in progress long it became known that all records would be broken. The record last year was $3,100. By noon Monday the girls were bringing in buckets full of nickels, dimes and dollars to headquarters in the Peters building. The huge display of wealth was soon tied up in bags and the "taggees" out on top of Indian space in the Bank of England.

The campaign was well organized. Before the average business man had finished his breakfast, the girls were being mobilized at headquarters by the time that this same business man was in the street car or in his automobile en route to his office, the maidens armed with hundreds of tags were waiting for him.

There was no escape. An ever-courting there was one or more of the attractive, smiling girls stationed at a person successfully getting by one of them without buying a tag it was only to be repeatedly stopped until he finally gave in.

The girls stood at the doors of all the public buildings. They swarmed into the offices of stores. Not many attempted to make any resistance. He who did was not wise, for he was in an uncomfortable way. They even invaded the Catholic magazine office from Governor Brown down to the most humble attic.

"I am sure we are going to break a record for this year," said Mrs. W. S. Ekin, of the central committee. "Even if we don't we will have broken one record, and that is in the number of pretty girls we have had to see in one day. I never saw so many in my life."

The monsignor simply flowing in from all directions and the returns up to the present are very encouraging. We can scarcely keep up with the demand for tags, hundreds and thousands are being given away cheerfully and a great many have stopped and made voluntary contributions of very substantial amounts.

Mrs. J. Frank Meador, stationed at the entrance to the Atlanta National Bank, was strenuously fighting with the tellers laboring in the banking room. "Business is slow," she said, "but we have nearly 400 already in my bucket and everyone seems willing and anxious to contribute. I have just given one donation to the girls and many of others ranging from 10 to 25."

Buckets Got Too Heavy. Mrs. Frank Dinkley, Mrs. L. C. McKinney and Mrs. James Ison, at the home of the Shelter-Orphan's Home, were getting the money by the bucket full and during the morning it became necessary for them to make frequent trips to headquarters across the street in order to get rid of the weight of silver.

A particularly attractive group of girls is that on the Aragon Hotel block. They are very well dressed and their charge, they say, is to "tag" the "taggees" who are going to the "tag day" for the world. He contributed $100 to the fund. Miss Louise Vanhook was the main "taggee" but they say the party, Miss Anne Stiles Rice, Douglas and John B. White, all agree that the men are "tagged" nice and sweet.

One Policeman is Lucky. The policeman in front of the Chamber Building was the first to be "tagged" and he took on his tag. Miss Massena is the person who gave the "tag" to the policeman. She says she "tagged" him because she "tagged" him.

WILSON ASKS ANTI-JAPANESE BILL BE VETOED

PRESIDENT OFFERS HIS AID

Tells Westerners He Will Be Glad to Assist in the Correction of Alien Evils.

WASHINGTON, May 12.—President Wilson, through Secretary of State Bryan, has made a formal plea to Governor Johnson, of California, to veto the alien land bill. The message to California's Governor was framed at the White House last night. It sets forth in diplomatic language the urgency of the situation created by the demands of Viscount Chinda, the Japanese Ambassador. The message to Governor Johnson follows:

Two Courses Open.
The President directs me to express his appreciation of your courtesy in delaying action on the land bill now before you, until its provisions could be communicated to the Japanese Government and considered by it.

His Excellency, Baron Chinda, has, on behalf of his Government, presented an ultimatum to the United States, to approve or to veto. It will allow nothing to recall to your attention the amendments suggested to the Legislature, as the President has already laid before you his views upon the subject. It is unnecessary to reiterate them.

He passes over the questions affecting treaty rights for two reasons. First, the treaty has been passed by the Legislature and is now intended to conform to treaty obligations. Second, because any conflict complained of would be a matter for the courts, but the President feels justified in expressing again his desire that action on the subject be deferred to a later time if the welfare of the State requires it.

He is fully alive to the importance of removing any root of discord which may create antagonism between American citizens residing here, but he is impelled by a sense of duty to express the hope that you will see fit to allow time for diplomatic effort. The nations affected by the proposed law are friendly nations—nations that have shown themselves willing to co-operate in the establishment of harmonious relations between their people and ours.

President Offers Aid.
If a postponement commends itself to your judgment the President will be pleased to co-operate in a systematic effort to discover and correct any evils that may exist in connection with land ownership by aliens.

The decision of the administration to urge Governor Johnson to use his power of veto to postpone any law legislation was reached after a series of conferences between the President, Secretary Bryan and John Bassett Moore, counselor of the State Department, and frequent calls at the department by Ambassador Chinda. It was realized that any further attempt to have the bill enacted by the California Legislature would be fruitless, since Secretary Bryan's trip to Sacramento was unavailing, and the Legislature is to adjourn next Tuesday.

Until Governor Johnson's reply is received the Government probably will make no reply to the protest of Japan further than to acquit the Ambassador of the fact that every possible effort has been made to have action in California delayed, pending a settlement of the problems involved by diplomacy.

Senators Applaud Pleas for Bigger Navy.

Underwood Boomed for President in 1916

His Friends Believe that the Tariff Bill Will Make Him Popular Candidate.

WASHINGTON, May 12.—Representative Oscar W. Underwood's friends have started to boom him for the Presidential nomination in 1916. They assert that tariff bills have made Presidents and that Mr. Underwood will come to the White House with the bill that passed the House last week. They are backing Mr. Underwood in the belief that the tariff bill will abide by the intent of the Baltimore convention platform which declared in favor of a single term.

'Atlanta 1914' Drummed Into Every Delegate, and Favor for Gate City Grows.

By JAMES B. NEVIN.

DALLAS, TEX., May 12.—If there is anybody in Dallas who does not know that Yaarab Temple, Nobles of the Mystic Shrine, is here, and has come to bring the Imperial Council to Atlanta in 1914, he must be deaf, dumb and blind.

The campaign on behalf of Atlanta was started the very minute illustrations of the Yaarab Temple were spread on the train in this town, the head and front of the most influential and influential delegation to ever visit out of Atlanta after something the town wanted or needed in the business.

To be sure, the immediate thing in hand is the session of the Imperial Council now on in Dallas, but the first thing that Atlanta delegates say to a brother Noble, after making himself known, is "How about the Imperial Council thing for Atlanta next year?"

Additional Suits Against the Trust Will Be Offered for a Time.

WASHINGTON, May 12.—Preparations for framing a decree carrying out the Supreme Court's decision in the "Hearst coal cases" have been made by the Department of Justice. The decree, which will cancel the so-called 65 per cent. contracts of the coal carrying railroads and coal companies and terminate the railroad control of the Trust in the company, will be submitted to the United States District Court at Philadelphia during the last week of May.

MISTAKES NEIGHBOR FOR BURGLAR AND SHOTS HIM

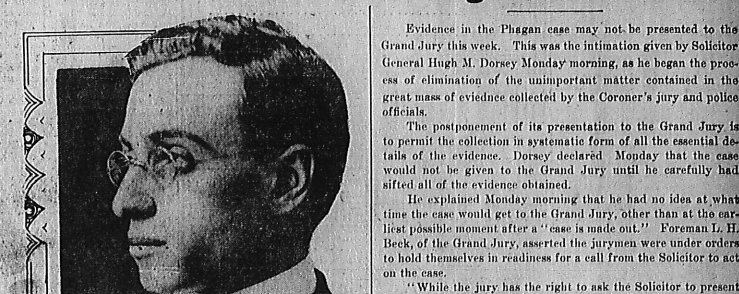

MOBILE, ALA., May 12.—August Rutledge, member of prominent family here, while attempting to enter a front window of the home of Charles Scheuerman, of fashionable Overmont street, was mistaken for a burglar and shot three times. He screamed and Scheuerman, who came to him, recognized who he was.

The bullet from one shot struck Rutledge in the chest and he was taken to the hospital. He was not so badly hurt as he had been led to believe. Scheuerman was not arrested.

PHAGAN CASE IS DELAYED

Not Likely to Go to Grand Jury This Week

More Time Taken to Strengthen Evidence

Evidence in the Phagan case may not be presented to the Grand Jury this week. This was the intimation given by Solicitor General Hugh M. Dorsey Monday morning, as he began the process of elimination of the unimportant matter contained in the great mass of evidence collected by the Coroner's jury and police officials.

The postponement of its presentation to the Grand Jury is to permit the collection in systematic form of all the essential details of the evidence. Dorsey declared Monday that the case would not be given to the Grand Jury until he carefully had sifted all of the evidence obtained.

He explained Monday morning that he had no idea at what time the case would get to the Grand Jury, other than at the earliest possible moment after a case is made out by Foreman L. H. Beck, of the Grand Jury, asserted that the jurymen were under orders to hold themselves in readiness for a call from the Solicitor to act on the case.

"While the jury has the right to ask the Solicitor to present the case at any time, we will wait until he says he is ready," said Beck. "We are holding ourselves in readiness and can assemble in a comparatively short while."

The Solicitor said to-day that developments in the case the last few days led him to believe the case would get to the jury at an early date, and that it was not probable that it would be acted upon by Friday, but that as progress was made in the case and new evidence brought to light the necessary work in corroborating it and investigating its reliability made some delay absolutely necessary.

Mr. Dorsey also made it clear to-day that he was depending largely on the efforts of his private detective, "the best in the country," who was working independently of the Pinkertons or city detectives. He said the man was making progress in the baffling case.

The Pinkertons have instructions to find the murderer, no matter who he may be. Operatives of the agency employed by the National Pencil Company recently put the matter squarely up to Lester Hester, the company's attorney. He said:

"Urgent Diligent Search."
"Find the murderer of Mary Phagan. Work in co-operation with the police, with anyone, work any way that might lead you to success. Let your chips fall where they may. You are employed to hunt the murderer until he is found and convicted. No matters not who is guilty."

Five men from the detective agency are working on the case under the direction of Assistant Superintendent Harry Scott. Through City Detective Black the Pinkertons work in connection with the city police.

Leo M. Frank was visited by Mr. Rorer at his cell in the Sower Building. They were together for a short while. Mr. Rorer stated he had only paid a "social visit" and had not discussed the case.

Chief of Detectives Lanford said Monday that he was satisfied with the progress of the case. He said that the investigation unavoidably had been slow and burdened with a mass of evidence, much of which would have to be eliminated in the final consideration of the case. He was pleased with the new developments which he said added much strength to the line of evidence his men are building up.

Members of the County Police Department are Monday concentrating on the case of Leonard Carroll and John J. Williams and L. W. Allen, who were released from the Sower Building on Monday afternoon. They were threatened their lives when they refused to hand over Dr. Burnett, the negro slayer of a fifteen-year-old colored boy, Charles Simons. The mob was bent on lynching Burnett.

The mob approached the officers on the Marietta Road as they were waiting for a street car to take them to the Tower.

"We are going to get that negro even if we have to kill you," the leaders shouted to Lieutenant Carroll. He snatched Simon in cold blood and we are going to bring him in."

The officers drew their revolvers and took their positions ready to fight to a finish. The negroes retreated.

Burnett, in the Tower, later declared the trouble had been caused by an argument about a girl. Even without provocation, he had been without medical aid could reach him.

FORMER JUDGE CANDLER ON LACK OF RESPECT FOR THE LAW

John S. Candler, now Alderman, and former Associate Justice of the Supreme Court, and previous to this judge in the Superior Court, made an address to the graduating class of the Atlanta Law School in which he said:

"The idea of taking an ignorant man, working on him until 4 o'clock in the morning, then flash in a flashlight in his face and saying, 'We know you killed somebody,' is worse than the Spanish inquisition. Such a practice has no place in the law, and that's why the public are losing confidence in and respect for the officers of the court."

"A detective who would voluntarily go on the stand ought not to be believed. The purpose of a detective is to find evidence, and not to swear that the evidence he has is true. The detective is interested to convict the man whom his evidence involves, and, therefore, he is not a competent witness."

MILITANT RIOTS GIVE BIG BOOST TO INSURANCE

Damage Already Reaches Into Millions--Golf Links Are Protected Against Loss

PUBLIC BUILDINGS GUARDED

LONDON, May 11.—Inquiries instituted at Lord's have developed the fact that the insurance companies are reaping a golden harvest as a result of suggested depositions. Business has received a great impetus both from the insurance of golf links as well as from fire risks.

Numerous golf clubs have insured against revenue losses as the result of militant interference, while others have taken out policies insuring golf courses against damage by suffragettes. The premiums charged are 35 per cent per annum, the limit of the underwriters' liability being $250,000 on each year.

These insurances, however, have been "topped" three months, because it is believed that the trouble will be settled in that time, although in the event of the militant or by the suppression of their campaign.

Insurance against fire has been equally brisk, but owing to the great competition in this business rates have not been affected.

Damage to Date $5,000,000.

Estimates of the financial loss caused by suffragette outrages, prepared for the Home Secretary, put the amount at $5,000,000. This sum does not include the expense of employing large numbers of extra police, the salaries and wages to be paid to the Ministry, public buildings and meetings.

Three detectives have been assigned to protect each Clubhouse Minister at all times. All suspected persons are shadowed by plainclothes men and all buildings are under special guard.

Since the death of the woman suffrage bill, large numbers of militant constitutional suffragettes have joined the militant movement. An attack on the House of Lords is one of the next plans, and this is to be accomplished by means of a suffragette typhoon which could get a position on the rostrum of the upper house.

Arrests Check Riots.

In spite of the sensational headlines of the past week and although the militants are keeping up a strong bluff, their organization has been shaken by recent arrests of leaders. The militant acts now being committed are the handiwork of suffragettes working independently, and the authorities believe that the removal of the central controlling influences will soon break up the conspiracy of destruction.

This optimistic view is not shared by politicians generally, who believe that as long as money is forthcoming crimes will be committed.

Accuser of O'Hara Now Denies Charge

Maud Robinson Admits Signing Affidavit, but Says It Contained No Allegation of Immorality.

CHICAGO, May 12.—Maud Robinson, who signed an affidavit charging improper conduct against Barratt O'Hara, Lieutenant Governor of Illinois and chairman of the Senate White Slave Committee, was the first witness to-day before a sub-committee appointed to investigate the affair. She denied absolutely that there had been anything improper in her relations with the Lieutenant Governor.

She admitted signing an affidavit but said it contained no charge of immorality.

The woman testified that she had never had improper relations with O'Hara. When she was questioned as to her making the affidavit about a trip to Chicago from Springfield, she said the affidavit was made at the instance of Samuel Davis, of a firm in Springfield.

"He said the affidavit was only to make a bluff with and that it would not be made public under any circumstances," she explained.

Fight Over Tallulah Falls On in Earnest

Georgia University Professors Make Depositions in Case Coming Up for Hearing May 28.

Professors C. M. Strong and J. O. Cope, of the University of Georgia, and John D. Moss made depositions to-day in the case of the State against the Georgia Railway and Power Company.

This is the beginning of the fight of the Georgia Railway and Power Company, to preserve Tallulah Falls, which they claim will be irreparably damaged by a scenic masterpiece if the Georgia Railway and Power Company is allowed to operate the power plant it has built at the falls.

The case comes up for hearing May 28 at Clayton, Rabun County. Thomas S. Pender, Attorney General, will be assisted by J. C. Ellis and Edgar Watkins. The power company is represented by Charles Houston, L. S. Rosser and Alex Kippis.

1,000 School Pupils Sing Choral Festival

Gay with their school colors, 1,000 pupils of the eighth grades of the public schools, assisted by picked representatives from the seventh grades, gave a choral festival at the Auditorium Friday night.

"Folk songs" of many countries made up the program. Miss Kate Harrison, director of music in the schools, led the chorus and Dr. Percy Sparks played organ accompaniment.

Fifty-five schools were represented. The seventh grade singers were from the Crew Street, Edgewood, Calhoun Street, Formwalt Street, Peoples Street, Lee Street, Perry Street and Williams Street schools. High School boys acted as usher and distributed programs.

Railroad Displaces Last Illinois Stage

Drivers Lay Down Whips and Attend Dedication of New Line That Ends Their Business.

CHICAGO, May 12.—Two stage drivers, the last of their tribe in Illinois, put aside their long whips to-day and attended the dedication of the 15-mile stretch of railroad from Palestine and Wauconda, Ill., 35 miles northwest of Chicago, which put them out of business.

The stage drivers made their last trip yesterday, conveying passengers, freight and mail to the nearest freight station on the street car line, which was driven into the railroad tracks at Palestine.

DARDEN SUES TO TAKE CHILDREN FROM HIS WIFE

COURT SETS HEARING MAY 17

Injunction Served as Woman is About to Leave Atlanta for Vermont.

Elmer T. Darden, convicted slayer, swore out a writ of habeas corpus Saturday to take from his wife, Naomi Carter Darden, the custody of his four children, the grounds that she is not a fit person to have the care of them.

Darden is under bond pending a hearing of an appeal of his case. He was sentenced to three years on the charge for killing C. M. Goddard, despite his plea of the "unwritten law."

A temporary injunction, granted by Judge J. T. Pennington, was served on Mrs. Darden Saturday at her home on Drew Street, just as she was preparing to leave for Vermont to take a train for Vermont.

Judge Pennington named May 17 as the date for the trial. And in the meantime Mrs. Darden was commanded not to leave the country.

The children are: Sidney, age twelve; Elmer T. Jr., age ten; Roy Lee, age six; and Emma, age three.

Darden alleged that his wife, from whom he is separated, intended to take the children to a permanent home outside the State of Georgia. He said the responsibility for their education and care rested mainly on him, and he wanted to take them to Vermont.

Darden is represented by Attorney John S. McCalland and W. M. Smith.

Vegetable Wagon Merely Liquor Van

Negro Being Taked Back From Vehicle, and Pursued, Carried With Contraband Goods.

When a contraband early Saturday drove through Hayes Street crying out fresh country vegetables for sale, James Crawford, a negro, was seen to step into the street and lift from the bottom of the wagon a half filled tin box.

Other negroes thought him a thief and gave chase. Crawford ran into a building at Hayes and Dover Streets, where he was cornered and held until Police Call Officers Cochran and Long arrived. The sack was found to contain a wholesale supply of liquor.

The negro admitted to the police that he had bought the liquor from the "vegetable man," declaring the farmer was selling liquor from the wagon and was merely using the vegetables as a blind. A search was made for the farmer, but he could not be found in investigating the search for liquor.

Recorder Boyer fined the negro $25.

Bride-to-Be Was Bride-in-Fact

Wedding Date Fixed for June 1 But Miss Slater Chose April 27

MRS. HOWELL B. SCHUMPERT.

Becomes Mrs. Harrell B. Schumpert on Day She Announced Engagement.

Not content to wait until the first Sunday in June to be married, one of her friends, Miss Jane Rose and Marvin Dingfield, whom we knew we could trust, we went around to Rev. Mr. Schaeffer's house to be married.

Even Father Doesn't Know.

"No, even my father doesn't know about it, but I don't think he will object, because he likes Howell, but I am sorry it came out to-day, as we wanted to wait until our house is finished before we told everybody."

"It was so funny to see my picture in the paper, saying that I was engaged, when I was really married, but we had decided not to tell, so we kept mum."

Were Other Fellow's Roses.

Miss Slater, who works in the office of the auditor of the Atlanta and West Point Railroad, has been joining her husband's family in Washington Street every morning since the marriage. He has waited for her on the porch, and together they have strolled downtown, discussing the little house in Stokes Avenue, but saying not a word of the marriage.

"It was funny," said Mrs. Schumpert, "that I should have worn a bunch of roses on the night of my wedding that looked so like my own, but I didn't expect to get married until Howell showed me the marriage license."

She said, "Howell and I went to church on April 27, the day after the service he said he wanted to show me something, and he pulled out a marriage license he bought at a hardware store, and he said he wanted to get married right away."

Bankers Look Upon Atlanta With Favor

Joseph A. McCord and J. K. Otley Confident Convention Will Come Here After Invitation.

Atlanta has an excellent chance to be the banking city for the American Bankers' Association in 1914.

Joseph A. McCord, vice president of the Third National Bank, returned Saturday from a meeting of the Executive Council of the association at Birminghams, N. Y., expressing confidence that the annual gathering will be held here next year.

Mr. McCord and J. K. Otley, vice president of the Fourth National, carried the Atlanta Clearing House invitation. Mr. McCord said they met with a hearty reception.

"I think we shall have the honor of playing host," said Mr. McCord, "up to the present time, no other city has extended an invitation. Competition, though, usually is keen when the general convention meets."

Bulgaria and Servia Agree to Peace Pact

Rumor of Threatened Hostilities Started for Political Purpose. Believed in Austria.

Special Cable to the Atlanta Georgian.

VIENNA, May 12.—Threatened hostilities between Bulgaria and Servia have been averted, according to dispatches published to-day in the official press. These said the two Balkan countries had reached an agreement respecting the restitution of the territory conquered from Turkey.

The city already has a method of each country has agreed to demolish as soon as peace is declared.

Many persons in circulation believe recent reports of dissension in the Balkans were started for political purposes.

GUARD OF SECRECY IS THROWN ABOUT PHAGAN SEARCH BY SOLICITOR

Names of Witnesses Withheld by Dorsey to Prevent "Manufacturers of Public Opinion" Getting in Touch with Them--Satisfied with Progress.

Solicitor General Hugh M. Dorsey declared Saturday afternoon that he was very well satisfied with the progress made in the investigation of the Phagan murder mystery and made the significant remark that he would not reveal the names of new witnesses so that manufacturers of public opinion could not get to them.

The Solicitor held a conference with Dr. H. F. Harris, of the State Board of Health, who examined the girl's body. Dr. Harris said he would rush his report in time for presentation to the Grand Jury when that body takes up the mystery next week. The Solicitor would not reveal just what the physician has learned so far.

Dental Inspection in Schools Urged

Chamber of Commerce to Ask Council for Appointment of Examiners for Pupils.

Proper dental inspection of the school children of Atlanta will be urged upon the City Council by the Chamber of Commerce. The appointment of dentists to make regular inspections and to see that children having teeth complaint receive proper treatment, will be recommended.

The city already has a method of dental inspection which has given material results. It is proposed to have dentists work in connection with the physicians, many of the children's teeth being laid to the fact that their teeth are not neglected.

Dr. C. M. Harwell, chairman of the dental committee of the Chamber of Commerce, has called a meeting of the committee for 5:30 o'clock Tuesday afternoon.

Attorney Attacks Savannah Charity

Gazan Says Organization Does Nothing but Investigate While Unfortunate Starve.

SAVANNAH, GA., May 12.—Simon Gazan, an attorney, scathingly denounced the Savannah Associated Charities in police court to-day during the hearing of Annie May Bacon, a 10-year-old girl, charged with the theft of a bicycle. Miss Helen Pennington, general secretary of the Associated Charities, was prevented from replying by a ruling of the Recorder. The girl was finally turned over to the attorney, who promised to look after her.

"All the Associated Charities does is to investigate and investigate," he said, "and while they investigate the unfortunate starve."

Miss Pennington was visibly excited when she left the court room.

The action of Attorney Gazan was in his office from 11 o'clock until 12:30, when Lemmie Quinn, his former partner in law, came in, followed by Mary Phagan, came in, about 12:05 o'clock, to receive her mail.

Montgomery Blyden is certain that she reached Frank's office at exactly 11:05 o'clock. She has been retained as an important witness.

Remember the Time.

"The minute I got to the office door when I went up to get my mail," she said, "I looked at the clock. I wanted to know if it was time to draw my salary. I would have looked at it, anyhow, I suppose, as it is my customary for me to punch the clock when I am entering the place to go to work."

"It was five minutes after 12, it was sure Mr. Frank would be in his office, so I stepped in. He wasn't in the outer office, and I went into the inner office. He wasn't there, either. I thought he might have been somewhere around the building, so I waited."

"The whole place was a awful noise."

Three Men Held for Mysterious Stabbing

Painter Blamed at Victim, Unable to Tell Who Cut Him, is Also Arrested by Police.

Three men were held in the police station Saturday as the result of the mysterious stabbing of W. O. Joiner, a painter, living at 45 1/2 Whitehall Street.

Joiner, who was badly slashed across the face, said he was cut by a man he did not know, who ran past him on Whitehall Street, near Peachtree Street. L. E. Rice, a salesman, of 781 Woodward Avenue, and T. C. Lampkin and W. P. Lampkin, father and son of 61 Simpson Street, were arrested and held for the night.

Joiner was taken to the police station to be held for the night.

Beavers' Manager Is Fined $500 or Prison

Proves Blinds H. R. Pitts Over Also, to State Courts for Violating Liquor Laws.

H. R. Pitts, manager of the Beavers Club, Saturday was fined $500 or 30 days by Recorder Boyer and was bound over to the State courts in connection with the violation of the liquor laws.

The case was based on testimony given by W. T. Browles, of Lawrenceville, who said he had purchased liquor in the club, paying for it in cash and without having to exhibit a membership card. He said he had an official card, now out of date, but did not even show this. Pitts and other catches of the club denied Browles's story, declaring they had never seen him before.

DORSEY VEILS NEW CLEWS IN PHAGAN AFFAIR

Continued From Page 1. It was seen. When he didn't show up to a few minutes, I went to the door and looked around the machinery. He wasn't there. I stayed until the clock hand was pointing exactly to 12:10. Then I went down stairs. I could see no sign of him. The testimony of Monroe Stover was obtained by detectives when they quizzed him Saturday following the killing of Phagan. The girl and her mother, Mrs. Howard Edmondson, of 171 South Forsyth Street, came in the factory to get the bag which the girl said she got the week before.

Stopped by Detectives. In the office, Stover was eager to seize every available bit of information. He stated that Edmondson was obtained by detectives when they quizzed her Saturday following the killing of Phagan. The girl and her mother, Mrs. Howard Edmondson, of 171 South Forsyth Street, came in the factory to get the bag which the girl said she got the week before.

Another development within the 24 hours has been the elimination of another clew. The woman in the mysterious figure seen in the factory, and who has been identified as Gray Street, an acquaintance of the girl, Edmondson, was not seen in the factory on the afternoon of the fatal day. Edmondson said she did not know Mary Phagan, and probably had never seen her. She commented that she was popular with her employees, and kind.

Developed also evidence from a young woman whose name will not be revealed that the girl probably came to her death in the factory on the Saturday afternoon, April 26, in the possession of a young woman, given her by Chief of Detectives Leland. The testimony is that as she passed the Dorsey Street entrance to the factory she was attracted by the shrill screams of a girl coming apparently from the basement of the building. The girl became quiet when she stopped, hearing three sharp screams in rapid succession. Then the girl became quiet again.

MOVE TO STOP CONFIRMATION OF MRS. TAMM

Congressman Bell Not Party to Fight on Gainesville Woman, President Explains. WASHINGTON, May 12.—A movement to have the name of Mrs. H. W. Tamm withdrawn as postmaster of Gainesville is understood to be under way here, although Representative Thomas M. Bell, Congressman from the Ninth District, says he is not a party to it.

It is well known that Congressman Bell feels keenly the turning down of his recommendation in the Gainesville matter, and he is known to be working to have his name withdrawn from the list of nominees. He has been seen in the office of the President the day after Mrs. Tamm's name was sent to the Senate, to discuss the Gainesville matter.

Name Sent Accidentally. President Wilson addressed a note to Mr. Bell, telling him the name was not intended to be sent to the Senate. He, however, said nothing about changing the nomination. Since the appointment was sent to the Senate, Bell has not been in the White House. The movement to have Mrs. Tamm's name withdrawn has been inaugurated by friends of the Gainesville woman, who are hoping to avoid that which now seems likely to develop considerable feeling in Congressional circles.

FERTILIZER HIT BY NEW TARIFF SAYS PROTEST

The following telegram, which explains itself, was received from Washington to-day by one of the leading business men of Atlanta. "What do you think of the Democratic Congress, pledged to tariff reform, taking a day of its time to put a tax of ten per cent on sulphate of ammonia. My understanding is that the tariff on sulphate of ammonia is ten per cent is an ad valorem tax which, at the present rate of sulphate, would be over 85 per cent, and would be a heavy burden on the fertilizer industry."

JUDGE CANDLER SCORES POLICE THIRD DEGREE

Judge John S. 250 SHRINER VOTES OUT OF 460 PLEDGED TO ATLANTA

"TAG DAY" SECURES LARGE SUMS FOR UNFORTUNATE CHILDREN

MORE THAN HALF OF SHRINE VOTE PLEDGED FOR ATLANTA; BOOSTERS SURE OF VICTORY

By JAMES B. NEVIN.

DALLAS, TEXAS, May 12.—Atlanta now claims, as pledged, 250 of the 460 votes in the Imperial Council for the 1914 meeting place. Memphis still is alive and the fight has seemingly narrowed down to the two cities.

If Atlanta should lose the committee's recommendation the Georgians will carry the fight to the convention floor.

Potentate Forrest Adair declares it is all over but the shouting. "Atlanta will be the Shrine Mecca in 1914, unless I am very badly mistaken," he said.

The first meeting was voted up Atlanta, and the delegation arrived Sunday morning and that the voting will be held in the city of Atlanta.

U. S. to Prosecute Firms Cutting Pay As Tariff Revenge

"They'll Land Behind Bars if They Try to Intimidate Congress," Says Senator Williams.

WASHINGTON, May 12.—The criminal clauses of the 85th anti-trust act and the prosecuting powers of the Department of Justice will be used in defense of the reductions in duty prescribed by the Underwood tariff bill.

If combinations are found among employers to restrain trade and intimidate Congress by cutting wages and closing factory doors, criminal suits will be instituted.

"Talk is the frank intimation today of Senator John Sharp Williams, of the Senate Finance Committee, who is intended to intimidate Congress if it should be discovered the interests are combining to this purpose, the Sherman anti-trust act is sufficient broad to cover such acts, and we may find some of these gentlemen be-

TAG DAY RECEIPTS CERTAIN TO ESTABLISH NEW RECORD; ATLANTA GIVES LIBERALLY

Atlanta capitulated Monday to an irresistible force of the city's fairest young women. It was a willing, but costly surrender.

Each of the thousands of captives, as a token of surrender, gave up some part of his or her hard-earned money and received a tag which indicated the money was for the benefit of the Shriners.

One of these tags was supposed to insure the "taggee" against being surrounded again by a group of the fair soldiers and submitting to another de-

Mayor Declares He Earns Pay Watching Council Politicians

Makes Hot Reply to New Attack by Thomson—Brash Continues to Grow.

"If I did nothing more than watch the Council I would more than earn my salary," declared Mayor Woodward Monday in answer to Albert Thomson's charge that the Mayor's office had become a nonentity in the city government.

"As a matter of fact," continued Mr. Woodward, "the charges are not worth the waste of breath in answering them, still I want to assure the people of Atlanta that I have my hands full watching the politicians and I am going to continue to watch them and their activities."

Councilman Thomson's attack on the Mayor, the second he has made within a fortnight, has been much more discussed than his first, because it follows Council's vindication of the official accused of graft.

CALL DETECTIVE BURNS TO UNRAVEL PHAGAN MYSTERY; HURRIES BACK FROM EUROPE

William J. Burns, the world-famed detective, probably will take charge of the Phagan case.

The man who unearthed the dynamite outrages and brought the McNamara brothers to justice, will in all probability come to Atlanta within the next few days and lend his efforts toward clearing up the mystery of the death by strangulation of Mary Phagan.

This information was made public Monday following correspondence between Colonel Thomas B. Felder and Mr. Burns since the discovery of the body in the penal factory.

Mr. Burns is now on his way from Europe, and will arrive on Tuesday of the following day. Upon his arrival in New York he will confer with detectives there and then proceed to Atlanta.

Credit Largely Due Felder.

The services of Mr. Burns have been secured largely through Mr. Felder's efforts, it has developed. Upon Mr. Felder's retention by the citizens of Marietta and relatives of the slain girl to work on the case he journeyed to New York for a conference with

CITIZENS OF CALIFORNIA TO VOTE ON JAPANESE LAND LAW

Democratic Leaders Decide on Referendum Following President Wilson's Request for Johnson's Veto.

SACRAMENTO, May 12.—Referendum of the anti-alien bill to the people of California has been determined on by the Democratic leaders of the State.

This was learned to-day following the receipt of a telegram from President Wilson to Governor Johnson asking him to veto the measure.

The bill was scheduled to reach Governor Johnson to-day from the Committee on Enrolled Bills, where it has been held up.

The session of the Legislature ends to-day and under the provisions of the constitution 20 days ensue during which time the Governor may sign or veto the bill.

Wilson Asks Johnson To Veto Alien Bill. WASHINGTON, May 12.—President Wilson, through Secretary of State Bryan, has made a formal plea to Governor Johnson, of California, to veto the alien-land bill.

The message to California's Governor was framed at the White House last night. It sets forth in diplomatic language the urgency of the situation created by the demands of Viscount Chinda, the Japanese Ambassador.

The message to Governor Johnson follows: "Two Courses Open. The President directs me to express his appreciation of your courtesy in delaying action on the land bill now before you, until its provisions could be communicated to the Japanese Government and considered by it.

His Excellency, Baron Chinda, has, on behalf of his Government, presented an earnest protest regarding the proposed bill. You are before you but two alternatives, to approve or to veto. It will avail nothing to recall to your attention the amendments suggested to the Legislature; and the President has already told before you his regrets upon the subject. It is unnecessary to reiterate them.

Concerns over the questions affecting treaty rights for two seasons of the bill passed by the Legislature in 1907, have been the cause of the President's desire that action on the subject be deferred for this session, and to express the desire that the bill be reconsidered at any time in the future.

It is only able to state the importance of removing any root of discord which may exist between American citizens and the citizens of Japan. It is impelled by a sense of duty to urge the establishment of harmonious relations between their peoples.

President Offers Aid. It is only able to state the importance of removing any root of discord which may exist between American citizens and the citizens of Japan. It is impelled by a sense of duty to urge the establishment of harmonious relations between their peoples.

The decision of the administration to urge Governor Johnson to veto the bill was reached after a series of conferences between the President, Secretary Bryan and John Bassett Moore, counselor of the State Department, and frequent calls at the department by Ambassador Chinda.

It was realized that any further attempt to have the bill amended by the California Legislature amended would be fruitless, since Secretary Bryan's trip to Sacramento was unavailing and the Legislature is to adjourn next Tuesday.

Until Governor Johnson's reply is received the administration probably will make no move to the protest of Japan further than to acquaint the Ambassador with the fact that every possible effort has been made to have the bill amended.
