REWARD OF $1,000 IS APPROPRIATED BY CITY

Money Will Be Paid For Information Leading to Arrest of Girl's Murderer

At a special session called at 10 o'clock Wednesday morning, the city council of Atlanta voted for the appropriation of $1,000 as a reward for the capture of the murderer of the girl, Mary Phagan. The information leading to the arrest of the party or parties guilty of the murder of little Mary Phagan, in the building of the National Park company's factory on Forsyth street, last Saturday afternoon or night, immediately following the murder, must be met and conspired in the appropriation.

USE OF DICTAPHONE ON FRANK AND NEGRO IS DENIED BY POLICE

MRS. M. FRANK.

Numbers of Frank's friends visited the office of the police headquarters during Tuesday afternoon and evening, and it was not until about 10 o'clock that they left. He, with a guard by his side, was taken to the office of the detective and slept quietly for some time.

Mary Phagan at Home Last Friday, Says Mother

Jessie M. Coleman, mother of Mary Phagan, says that the girl was at home during Friday and Friday night and could not possibly have been the one seen at the terminal station Friday morning by H. P. Sibley, gatekeeper, and J. Malone, special officer.

Undermuslins

The May Sale of Undermuslins Materials Are Finer, Trimmings Are Daintier, Prices Are Lower and Here It Is the Month of May

Tomorrow will be a very merry May-Day and a very profitable one! It will bring, right at the opening of the summer season, undermuslins at prices you could hardly expect in bleak January. It is, we admit, a matter of some pride with us that we can launch such a splendid sale right now. Rest assured we are anxious to have all the women of Atlanta to see, to know, to share its splendid values—it means good advertising for us—it means good savings for you. How is such a sale possible? But no—it is possible, as the piled-high tables of fresh, dainty undermuslins will attest—and there you have the gist of the whole affair. Touch this sale at any point and it rings true with extra value!

Materials are sheer, light, soft, evenly woven, free from all starch and fillings; laces and embroideries are fine and dainty, styles are new, attractive. Indeed, the values are not the result of any skimping of quality or workmanship. Those points had to be right or you would not ever be reading this advertisement.

But you who have more, or will have, undermuslins to buy be here tomorrow! The prices and the details below are not complete, nor do they do justice to what they stand for—but the woman who brings her eyes with her—she shall see.

And 75c gowns are 50c, and 50c gowns are 39c—but these are only a small lot that have been sold.

Among those at 79c are extra sizes, with high necks and long sleeves, others at this price are fashioned Empire style with yoke and sleeves of Valenciennes laces and insertions.

Among those now priced at $1.39 to $3.98, instead of $1.50 to $5.00, is a wealth of beauty that means sure satisfaction to all women. Exquisite trimmings of finest Valenciennes, shadow and linen laces, embroidery medallions and edges and great ribbon bows and ribbon-run bandings.

ow and valenciennes laces and the embroideries are—see them.

Combinations

At 95c Some ten styles Corset cover and drawers, trimmed with Valenciennes and linen laces.

At $1.19 The straight slip that is most wanted for the styles of this season. They are trimmed with embroideries of the quality.

At $1.25 At this price, the most notable values of this sale. All as new and fresh in the morning. Softest ingerie cloth is the material. Any number of styles to choose from—straight princess cut and then corset cover and drawer combinations.

At $1.59 Corset cover and drawers, ribbon heading in belt; daint corset trimmed front and back with strip of lace insertion.

At $1.98 worth $2.50 and $3.00. Say that we have more at these prices than is healthy for even such a sale—at least this has brought the price down. Elaborately trimmed with dainty laces and embroideries.

Princess Slips

At 79c Slips trimmed with valenciennes edges and insertions, tucks, flounces lace edged. A half a dozen styles. No need to tell you they are worth 95c

At 95c Showing yokes of linen laces around medallions. Straight cut, flat flounces of lace are of embroidery, ribbon run.

At $1.49 Slips that were an odd lot, reduced because we will not reorder these styles. All sizes among them; beautiful trimmings of laces and embroideries.

At $1.98 Trimmings become more elaborate, materials daintier—and varieties greater. Flounces of linen laces and plaid shadow laces.

Corset Covers

At 33c worth 60c. It is an opportunity to choose from our regular 50c and paying 33c. Some twenty-five or thirty styles should be desirable did we start to tell you the details. But they are of splendid nainsook, many trimmed to the depth of six inches with embroideries.

At $2.50 and to $3.75 values worth $4.00 of the biggest and blackest type were offered at any other time than in such a big broad sale as this. Daintiest, loveliest, prettiest are words that fall short of telling what the nainsook, the
