

COL. FELDER DENIES OFFERING $1,000 OR ANY OTHER SUM FOR AFFIDAVIT HELD BY DETECTIVES

At the Request of The Journal He Left Trial of a Case in Manetta and Came to Atlanta Friday Afternoon Where He Dictated a Statement Without Having Read the Dictated Interview Which Is Given Elsewhere in This Paper

WELL-KNOWN ATTORNEY GIVES HIS VERSION OF WHAT HE SAID TO SECRETARY G. C. FEBUARY
Col. Felder Declares He Told Febuary and Colyar He Would Introduce Them to Some Gentlemen Who Might Be Interested in Getting Possession of Evidence on the Detective Department—Says He Never Claimed He Had Been Employed by the Colombians

THE ATLANTA JOURNAL has developed the fact that the city detectives have dictated a conversation alleged to have taken place between Colonel Thomas B. Felder, the widely known attorney, G. C. Febuary, secretary to Chief of Detectives N. P. Burns, and another man, which was held in Room 31 of Williams House No. 2. That the detective believed they were setting a trap for the assaulter is known, but there is also a probability that Colonel Felder on his part was endeavoring to trap the trappers.

After having secured a stenographic report of the dictographed conversation, which has been seen by the principal subject of the case, Colonel W. T. Geary, president of the Bell Telephone and Telegraph Co., the detectives, for reasons satisfactory to themselves, proceeded to procure a further copy of the stenographic typewritten record in their possession, but if they had any intention of bringing charges against Felder, they were temporarily abandoning their plans.

JOURNAL PRESENTS COMPLETE RECORD OF THE DICTOGRAPH CONVERSATION
The Journal is today presenting to the public to decide whether the detectives have trapped the attorney, or the attorney has trapped the trappers. The Journal also presents a copy of the affidavit which was the principal subject under discussion in the dictographed interview. Another affidavit, given to Secretary G. C. Febuary, which was the subject of the dictograph, which occurred in the office of Colonel Felder, in the Equitable building in last Monday's issue, is also being published in this issue.

Still another affidavit referring to a telephone conversation between Colonel Felder and a woman by Detective R. C. Gahagan, was published in last Monday's issue.

COLONEL FELDER DENIES OFFERING $1,000 OR ANY OTHER SUM FOR AFFIDAVIT HELD BY DETECTIVES
Colonel Thomas B. Felder was in Manetta Friday morning, and was interviewed in the trial of a case. He was communicated with by The Journal and informed that a story of importance was to be printed in The Journal in which he was interested. Colonel Felder stated that he would come to Atlanta and did so at 1:30 p. m. Colonel Felder said: "On my arrival at The Journal office, I was informed that the dictograph of the interview which was in the hands of the printer and it would be impossible to submit it to me at this time, but that same would be submitted to me as soon as it came from the machine."

HERE IS COLEMAN AFFIDAVIT WHICH OFFICERS SAY COL. FELDER OFFERED TO PURCHASE FOR THE SUM OF $1,000

STATE OF GEORGIA: FULTON COUNTY.
The affiant, W. Coleman and wife, citizens of Atlanta, Ga., who reside at 346 Lindsay St.
The affiant is the father of Mary Phagan, deceased, the child who was found murdered by a halloo bullet on April 23, 1913.
The affiant is the employer of the City of Atlanta in the Sanitary Dept.

The affiant calls to the Fulton Station during the coroner's inquest which took place on Monday, April 23, 1913, and was present at the inquest of the inquest of the body of Mary Phagan, deceased, the child who was found murdered by a halloo bullet on April 23, 1913.
The affiant is the employer of the City of Atlanta in the Sanitary Dept.

A man met the affiant on the street and offered him one dollar to go upon the fee of this statute book, but he declined to accept it, and told the party he had not employed Felder.
The affiant is thoroughly acquainted with the great work done by Chief of Detectives Lanford and the able staff of the department, and he believes, as thousands of others do in Atlanta, that they have the real murderer in jail, and the affiant cannot understand why the city should be paying out thousands of dollars for a prosecuting attorney, and waiving five thousand dollars from the people of the city to employ a man who is asking them if they have any money to spend to punish the murderer of his sweet innocent child, to stand behind the Atlanta Police Dept. and let no one mistreat them.

HOW DICTOGRAPH WAS INSTALLED IN WILLIAMS HOUSE NO. 2 TO TRAP COLONEL THOMAS B. FELDER

Instrument Was Put In by Lawrence O. Surles of the Southern Bell Telephone Company—George M. Gentry, Mayor's Chief Clerk, Took Down the Conversation in Shorthand

The dictograph through which was reported the conversation and the dictograph in the office of the city detectives with Attorney Thomas B. Felder, was most ingeniously arranged and installed by Lawrence O. Surles, chief clerk of the traffic department of the Southern Bell Telephone Company, and George M. Gentry, Mayor's Chief Clerk, who are the Atlanta representative of the Southern Bell Telephone Company.

COL. FELDER CONFIRMED HIS OFFER IN A MIDNIGHT CONVERSATION BY TELEPHONE, SAYS A. S. COLYAR

A. S. Colyar has given to the police the following affidavit:
STATE OF GEORGIA: FULTON COUNTY.
Personally appeared before me a Notary Public in and for the above State, J. M. Brown, who being being duly sworn to depose and say that on May 19, 1913, he called upon Colonel Felder at his residence on the Howard St. and after waiting several minutes, some one finally answered the phone and asked the question, "Is Col. T. B. Felder there?" and the party on the line said, "This is Col. T. B. Felder" and I asked the question, "What time do you wish to be called?" and he said, "Oh, I will be here at 11 o'clock." I then asked where they were trying to track up on Howard St. and he said, "I have been there and I saw the car." I then asked if he had any other information and he said, "I have been there and I saw the car." I then asked if he had any other information and he said, "I have been there and I saw the car."

FELDER AND COLYAR DICTOGRAPH SET BY DETECTIVES OFFERED BRIBE TO TRAP COL. THOMAS B. FELDER; HERE IS THE DICTOGRAPH RECORD

Affidavit, Detailing Conversation Which Is Alleged to Have Occurred in Col. Felder's Office, Is Given Below
"GO AND GET EVIDENCE," COL. FELDER IS QUOTED
"Lanford Couldn't Detect an Elephant at Five Points," He Is Alleged to Have Said, Both Chiefs Are Denounced

The city detectives have in their possession an affidavit sworn to by G. C. Febuary, secretary to Chief Lanford, and A. S. Colyar, a private investigator, detailing the alleged conversation which it is claimed took place between Colonel Felder, the widely known attorney, on Monday night at Colonel Felder's office in the Equitable building.
The affidavit, which is being published in this issue, is being published in this issue as it is believed that the city detectives have in their possession an affidavit sworn to by G. C. Febuary, secretary to Chief Lanford, and A. S. Colyar, a private investigator, detailing the alleged conversation which it is claimed took place between Colonel Felder, the widely known attorney, on Monday night at Colonel Felder's office in the Equitable building.

PROMISED MAYOR TO GET EVIDENCE AGAINST BEAVERS AND LANFORD
Thomas B. Felder: "I will tell you what I have been doing for the last month. I have been investigating certain things for this company. Mr. Milles works for me, and I called on the mayor Monday afternoon, with G. C. Jones, and I told the mayor I would get the evidence on these gentlemen. Beavers and Lanford, and the mayor told me to see Mr. Milles. Mr. Milles is a very good man, and he has been in my office nearly every day. He has never mentioned it to me. The mayor also wanted my hands full, but I would get up the evidence. Milles came over yesterday afternoon and I had a conference with him about an hour or two, and without calling my name, I told him that I could get the evidence. But I said this young man doesn't want to lose his position. Well, I will call for my name. I will give him a position today just as good as the one he has. Mayor Woodward said to get him the evidence and I will call for my name."

COL. THOMAS B. FELDER DICTOGRAPHED BY CITY DETECTIVES

(CONTINUED FROM PAGE ONE) Well, Mr. February, can't you see Miles, who is working on this thing for me, and give him the papers... Felder: We don't want to deal with Miles. We are dealing with you.

COL. THOMAS B. FELDER

Detective R. S. Osburn swears to phone talk. Says He Overheard Col. Felder Offer $1,000 for Phagan Papers.

Felder: Now, so far as you and February being prosecuted or indicted or put in jail, that is all right... Felder: I don't know whether it was the first of this kind of last week.

Personally appeared before me the undersigned notary public for the state and county aforesaid, J. H. Brown, Notary Public, Fulton County, Ga., and saw in a certain Atlanta, Ga., and a member of the detective department of the Atlanta police force; that he was in J. M. Brown's office, 1419 North National Bank building, in said city on Tuesday, May 21, 1913, at 11:15 a. m., and that at that time there was J. M. Brown, N. A. Landford, chief of detectives; A. C. Colby, chief of the Atlanta police force, and the affiant; and that the affiant got up and put his hand on the Bible and swore to the following: "I can't possibly go to East Lake. Colby: You can take your man and go out there and get the papers in a few minutes, give you a receipt and the money."

ALL OTHER PAPERS IN PHAGAN CASE... Felder: Let me understand this. You are giving me the evidence that would get these two chests out of commission, the Phagan papers and the Coleman affidavits. Now what have you got? Felder: I have the Coleman affidavits. The chief Phagan these papers in a large envelope. I do not know whether he keeps any drafts or checks or any other papers.

GERMAN NIMRODS FOND OF AMERICAN FISHERMAN... Personally appeared before me the undersigned notary public for the state and county aforesaid, A. C. Colby, Notary Public, Fulton County, Ga., and saw in a certain Atlanta, Ga., and a member of the detective department of the Atlanta police force; that he was in the office of Colonel Felder, in the Southside building, on Monday night, May 19, 1913, at about 8:15 p. m.
